In addition to the grand prize of the Dodge car, purchased from the local dealer, Vic Roberts at Super Service, there will be 11 other valuable prizes, all very much worth winning. Watch the Standard for further details, but mark that date right now and attend this Car Bingo. The winner could be YOU!

More than two-thirds of these accidents occurred in clear weather when the road was dry.

Introduced First Housing Plan in Vermilion

Death of Count de Topor in Costa Rica

Word was received by long distance phone call in Vermilion this week of the death of the Duke, Ossolin de Topor, in the city of Puntarenas, Costa Rica, from a violent attack of meningitis.

Count de Topor has been a frequent visitor to Vermilion over the past 40 years and was a member of the company which erected the large brick Imperial apartment and business block which now stands vacant in Vermilion. The Count was also the first man to undertake to solve the housing shortage in Vermilion, and back in 1921 erected 28 small houses for rental purposes. Apparently the housing shortage was as acute then as now. All of these houses, well located in two blocks, have now been purchased by private owners, and almost without exception have been renovated and enlarged.

The last visit of the Count de Topor to Vermilion was about three years ago when he attempted to straighten out difficulties which had led to the condemning of his Imperial Block for apartment purposes until certain fire regulations had been observed, and modern sanitary facilities, now available, installed. None of the requirements were never carried out with the result that the large three-storeyed building still stands empty.

The Count since that time has offered the block as a gift to the Town of Vermilion to be used for community purposes. Due to the fact that the title was in the name of a defunct company and that the question of authority to give the building away was shrouded in legal difficulties, the town never did assume ownership.

Actual date of the death of the Duke, Ossolin de Topor was the 23rd day of March.

Baseball School At Lloydminster

Civil Servants Association Meets At Vermilion; Makes Presentation

Branch No. 8 of the Civil Servants Association held a meeting in the Court House to hear reports of the delegates to the recent conference. Mr Angus McMillan and Mr Laurence Basler gave general reports of the activities and topics of discussion at the conference. At the next C.S.A. meeting a number of topics dealt with at the conference will be reported to the members in detail.

Mr A. Earnshaw, president of the C.S.A., Miss M. Mefford and Mr L. F. Stewart, executive members of the C.S.A. and Mr Ron Harrison, executive secretary of the C.S.A. were guests in attendance at the meeting. Each spoke briefly outlining various activities and functions of the Civil Servants Association.

RETIRING MEMBERS HONORED

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of a gift to Mr. Wm. R. Simmonds who recently retired from the maintenance staff of the Vermilion school of agriculture.

Another presentation of interest was made by Mr. Earnshaw on behalf of the C.S.A. to the Vermilion branch. The first copy of the C.S.A. "Blue Book" to be given to any branch in Alberta, was presented to Mr D. C. Folk, chairman of the Vermilion Branch of the C.S.A. The Blue Book deals with many topics of importance to both the civil service and civil servants and will thereby serve as a valuable reference for membership.

Lunch was served by members' wives who attended the meeting.

SUNDAY AS A DAY OF REST

Canadian law does not make Sunday a day of religion. The laws regarding the observance of Sunday were enacted and are enforced to maintain Sunday as a day of rest. This important distinction is made in the annual report of the Lord's Day Alliance just released.

It is a point that ought not to be overlooked. Many seem to regard Sunday legislation as an attempt by the religious forces of the nation to foist their own observances upon others. It is true that Christian peoples are concerned to safeguard Sunday in order that they may worship corporately on that day. But it is equally true that Sunday laws came into being at the request of labor and are designed primarily to ensure the working-man his one day a week free, with his fellows, for rest from ordinary toil.

If consideration of human welfare dictated the setting apart of "the Sabbath" as a day of rest in bygone ages, how much more necessary it is in our time, as the report states, "to designate one day of rest in the week that will rescue the worker, the businessman, the home-maker, and all others who feel the stress of the times from daily toil and the heavy demands for thought and effort. The kaleidoscopic scene of modern society and the rapid movement of the economic order cry aloud for regular periodic rest."

The report makes it abundantly clear that while the constraints of law are required to maintain Sunday as a day of rest, the law does not make it a day of religion. That prerogative belongs to the voluntary action of the people. To keep Sunday as "a different kind of day" the Lord's Day Alliance feels that Christian people themselves will have to realize their individual responsibility. The Alliance is continually endeavoring to reduce the number of commercial amusements, and where they are permitted, as in one or two provinces, to keep them within the bounds of law.

Burden of the report is the concern of the Alliance for the protection of men and women engaged in every kind of work and at every level. It is to be heartily commended for such concern!

"We All Scream For Ice Cream"

Ice cream is a perfect example of a modern food, nutritious and delicious. It is interesting it should be so modern when you realize that its first introduction into western culture was through Marco Polo — history's first tourist. When Marco returned from China 3000 years ago he had news and views on ice cream or 'water ice' as he called it.

Did you realize that the equivalent of one quart of high quality fresh, whole milk is required to [illegible] one pint of ice cream? No [illegible] it is so good and so good for you. No wonder either that it appears on hospital menus so frequently.

Ice cream is a protective food— just as milk and cheese are protective [illegible]. It is not fattening but belongs in many reducing diets because its protective elements are far greater in relation to its calories than those of many other foods. It is recognized by the Department of National Health and Welfare as a nutritious food and a good dietary source of riboflavin (Vitamin B2).

Another wonderful advantage of [illegible] is all the marvellous recipes, quick, easy and giving variety desserts. There is Baked Alaska — still a mystery to some people and really wonderfully simple to make. Have you tried ice cream [illegible] using jelly powders and [illegible]? An exciting idea is ice [illegible] clowns for the children's [illegible]. There are scores of ice [illegible] ideas for the June bride's [illegible]. Write to Marie Fraser, of the Dairy Foods Service Bureau, Dairy Farmers of Canada, Toronto, for her imaginative recipes that are so quick and easy as well as tasty and extra specially good for you and your family.

Plain Talk

DR. F. MacNEILL SMITH

Liberal Candidate

The Liberal grain marketing policy has been worked out in close collaboration with the leaders of the various farm movements. The aims are to maintain prices at a level preserving a fair relationship between the return from agriculture and other occupations, and to carry on a selling policy disposing of as much exportable grain to as many countries as possible. Marketing of wheat, oats and barley has been placed in the hands of the Wheat Board, instead of the Winnipeg Exchange. As a result, a reasonable uniform price has been maintained, all producers have been treated alike, both in price and quota, and export markets have been maintained by supplying grain of high quality at a reasonable price. Sales to export markets are up considerably this year, sales to the United Kingdom are already more than for the whole of last year, and Mr. Howe stated in the House of Commons that he confidently expects that any producer who has grain of any kind he wishes to market will be able to dispose of it all before the crop year ends on July 31. A vote for the Liberal party is a vote for the Wheat Board.

"GREEN ACRES"

Young People's Week

The annual Farm Young People's week at University of Alberta is set for May 31 to June 9th. This is a wonderful program of talks, sports, and social affairs. The total cost for meals, room, etc. is $20.00 for the nine days. Age limits for both boys and girls is 16 to 27 years. Every year a few from this district take in this enjoyable program. Get a circular from this office.

Killing Flies On Cattle

The fly season will soon be here. Every dairy farmer knows how swarms of horn flies irritate the cows. Spraying with fly repellants is a cheap and easy way to control the fly nuisance. The pay-off comes when there is more milk in the pail and more cream in the can.

Tonics and Conditioners

Several times recently it has come to my attention that tonics and conditioners have been bought at a high price for feeding to livestock. These tonics are of practically no value to stock being well fed. Furthermore they cannot be expected to take the place of good hay, grain and supplements. Let me say again that a mineral-vitamin supplement is useful and necessary in feeding any kind of livestock but buying high priced tonics and conditioners is just wasting money.

Late Seeding

Everyone knows that it pays to hold up seeding on wild oat infested land, but everyone does not use fertilizer with late seeded crops. The fertilizer gives the grain a quick start and also helps in the early ripening of the crops.

Farm Sewage Disposal

A good many farmers have installed sewage disposal systems during the past two or three years. Most of the work can be done by the owner. After seeding, during June is a good time to do the job. Get a circular on sewage disposal from this office.

Master Farm Family Award

Once again it is the time of the year when nominations for this popular program should come in. If you have some one in mind who would have a good chance to win this award, kindly call at my office or write in for a nomination form. Please note that the right procedure is for neighbors to nominate someone from their community. The applications must be in by June 1st.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

NEW TWIST

Driving along a Manitoba highway recently, I gave a lift to a young farm lad. After we had passed the time of day, I asked, "How is the farming business these days?"

"Oh", he said, "It's not too bad. But I'm having a lot of trouble with my Dad."

"How come", I asked, though in my own mind I had already decided that the boy was no doubt being held back by an old-fashioned father. I had jumped to the wrong conclusion.

"It's like this," the boy said. "Dad keeps wanting to modernize. He says everything has to be big these days. Wants to trade in our old machinery on something better — and he says the old barn won't do another year."

"Well", I said, "that looks like a pretty progressive attitude to me. You have to keep up with the times, you know."

The boy nodded, regretfully. "I suppose so," he said. "But I love the old place just as it is—I don't like to see things change so much."

I had to chuckle a bit at that. It seemed to me like a fresh new twist. In my day it always seemed that Dad was the fellow who wanted to go slow, and the young son was always pushing for the new and the different. Times are changing.

I'm not too sure that the change is for the best. I rather think the father, who is willing to risk, and go forward, has the right idea. It seems to me this present generation is a bit too timid. The boy's desire to keep things as they are was amusing, and I could sympathize with it, but it worries me a bit. Are we making life so easy and pleasant for our young men that they cannot visualize improving it? If we are, I am afraid this will not be quite such a good country for the forthcoming generation. By that time, even the old barn will not be a place of pleasant memories!

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Vacation Tips

Vacation time can be fun time—if you make the proper preparations before you take your vacation trip.

If you are one of the [illegible] persons who will be taking a vacation trip during the next six months, it is likely that you will take the family car and will clock some 1,000 miles on it before you are through.

There will be [illegible] upset stomachs, and car-sick kiddies and [illegible] before the [illegible] is over.

1. Check your dentist. A toothache far from home can be catastrophic.

2. Check your doctor. Dramamine, the motion sickness drug, will keep car or air sickness from shattering your vacation. Clinical tests have shown that a daily dose of the drug will provide 24-hour protection against motion sickness. The drug is now available in a convenient mint-flavored chewing-gum tablet. Ask your doctor to prescribe a diarrhea remedy for you — just in case. Have him give you a thorough physical check-up.

3. Travel light. Carry the minimum but enough to give you complete comfort and weather protection.

4. Name-tag all your luggage. Paste your name and address on each piece of luggage.

5. If you are going abroad check health regulations of the countries you plan to visit.

6. Visit your neighborhood drug store and stock up on shaving cream, cosmetics, toiletries, razor blades, film, sun glasses, talcum powder, a fungicidal powder for athlete's foot, mineral oil or milk of magnesia, sunburn lotion, a poison ivy remedy and adhesive bandages.

BILL IRVINE SAYS:

"Canada, far from being one of the most advanced countries in social security measures, is far behind Britain, the Scandinavian countries and Germany, especially in health services. Such advances as Canada has made was due to the CCF."

"The CCF is not a "splinter group." It did not split off any other party. It was born of the people to help meet their needs."

"Dr. Smith says the caucus makes the party policy. But the truth is that party policy is not made in caucus. Government policy is largely dictated by the monopolies who finance the parties. But, policies [illegible] by the caucus, and woe betide the party man who opposes them!"

"Occasionally however, [illegible] opinion, inspired and led by a Woodsworth, a Coldwell or a Douglas, creates policies which no party in power dares to ignore. That was how Canada got its start on social security."

"Bruce Hutchison, a prominent Liberal and author, knows more about party policy than either Dr. Smith or the Farm and Ranch Review. He unhesitatingly gives the credit to Woodsworth and the CCF in his biography of Mackenzie King. He says this:

"Though Woodsworth was doomed to fail by the test of elections . . . he was to become the most influential figure of his time in Canada, and NO MAN INFLUENCED KING SO MUCH. For it was Woodsworth and what he represented that encouraged, and then drove, King leftward. Woodsworth as much as King was the architect of the New Liberalism."

"Well, Liberals still need more encouragement of that kind and they still need to be driven out of their complacency."

"The CCF will not always be a minority party in the House or the voice pointing the way to the Liberals. That is the role the British Liberals once assigned to the Labour Party of Britain. Today that Liberal Party is in a political museum and the Labour party, even at the time of its defeat, the most popular party that Britain has ever known."

The Battle River-Camrose CCF requests your support for Bill Irvine in the by-election on June 20th. His experience in parliament and his outstanding personal ability make him an ideal representative of the people in this constituency.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

It's wonderful to have sunny weather again — it seems ages the sun never shone. The farmers are busy putting in long hours on the land. The garden, flowers, vegetables . . . what a pleasure to watch nature's work in the spring! The perennials are coming nicely now.

Stanley Party—An enjoyable and interesting afternoon was had at the Don Wilson home on May 11 when around a dozen ladies gathered for a Stanley Party put on by Mrs. Vera MacLean of Islay, one of Hilda's college friends.

Allandale W. A.—It was very disappointing for some of the ladies who couldn't get over the muddy roads to Mrs. Elsa Nelson's on May 12th for our monthly W. A. meeting, and would be, too for our hostess and for those who were able to get there. Had we known, the road north from McPhee's was passable. June meeting will be at the Woody Wilson home; Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Strome on lunch committee.

Mrs. Ted Bensmiller was a visitor recently in the district. Ted plans on working in town. He is moving the family from the city. He has rented what used to be the Craig buildings just south of town. By the way, Ted is driving a '38 Cadillac.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Habstritt and family of the Deer Lake district had their sale on May 11th, after being postponed for a few times on account of the bad weather. They have moved to Vermilion and have rented one of Mr. Edward's homes, originally the McBride home that was moved from Allandale some years ago. We wish them well in their new location and welcome the Garnier family who have bought the farm.

We're pleased to have Mrs. Phillips back on the farm after visiting in the city with her daughters and families.

Mr. Ralph Jackson of Hamilton, Ont. our student in '52, graduated in May and got his B.D. He will be ordained in June and is being transferred to the Saskatchewan conference for the next two years. Mr. Jackson wishes to be remembered to all his friends on the field.

May 15th saw the first church service by our student, Mr. D. Rectur. It was very pleasing to see so many out — around sixty. The solo by Mrs. Laird "Just for Today," accompanied at the organ by Mr. Calder was very much enjoyed. Next service will be May 29th, 11:30 a.m.

Closing Thought — If we could look across the tracks into the slums of our cities, across racial and territorial lines, even behind the iron curtain, and say: "He's my brother, I love him," then jealousies and fears and hatred would cease. Peace would surely come.

STOPPING THE LEAK

In the 90 years between 1851 and 1941 some six and a quarter million people came into Canada while nearly six millions left for the United States. Little wonder, comments The Financial Post that our population was slow in building up. But with the great boom in industrialization in this country and all the opportunities that have opened up, this leak is being gradually plugged.

We are still losing each year too many people and particularly highly trained young people, looking for wider opportunity and bigger money south of the border. But other Canadians are coming home from the U. S. and more and more Americans are coming to Canada.

WORKING WOMEN

More women are working in Canadian industry, reports The Financial Post. Of every 1000 persons employed in Canadian industry at latest count, 229 were women.

Social Crediters Welcome Election; Opposition Is Taken Aback

(Special to the Standard)

EDMONTON — The big news in Alberta last week was Premier Manning's sudden announcement in the legislature that a general election will be held this summer and the countryside will once again ring with the sound and fury of political campaigning.

When the premier made the announcement to a hushed legislative assembly last Thursday, it climaxed several hours of tense excitement and feverish behind-the-scenes activity precipitated by a Liberal bombshell questioning the status of every legislature for the past 17 years.

After the premier made his statement the tension was finished, and Social Credit backbenchers launched into prolonged desk-thumping and shouts of "Hear! Hear!" that lasted for at least 60 seconds.

OPPOSITION TAKEN ABACK, GLUM, AT ANNOUNCEMENT

Not so happy and somewhat taken aback were members of the opposition who weren't prepared for an election this year and began wondering if they hadn't made a tactical error by pushing things too far. They had already caused the government considerable annoyance and embarrassment during the recent session and next year probably would have been an election year anyway.

LIBERAL LEADER PROWSE MAKES CHARGE

The Social Crediters probably will be quite satisfied to say the election has been called because the Liberal leader, J. H. Prowse claimed most Social Crediters had disqualified themselves from membership by dealing with provincial treasury branches.

Premier Manning already has labelled the charge "absurd" and calls it unwarranted persecution. The government also claims the Liberal leader was wrong in law by claiming a savings account with or loan from a treasury branch disqualifies a member by constituting a contract with the government.

But opposition parties would sooner have their campaigns on other issues. The Prog Cons and the CCF already have issued statements saying the real issues in the election are more important than the legal technicality of treasury branch dealings.

Strange things have caused elections before, but this may go into the books as one of the strangest.

When the legislature was prorogued and then dissolved, it left some important business unfinished. One of the major items was the bill which would permit establishment of producer-controlled marketing boards.

The house agriculture committee had just started studying the matter when the Liberals threw their latest bombshell and abruptly ended the session. The committee had heard from Roy Marler, of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, who was claiming the majority of Alberta farmers want to control the marketing of their produce through producer boards. The next item was to be a lengthy brief from the Western Stock Growers' Association, strongly opposed to producer marketing boards.

Another major item was the bill to provide for conservation and efficient use of land, forest and water resources. When he introduced it earlier, Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture, described it as one of the most important of the session.

It would provide establishment of a board of experts to study the various types of land in the province and advise farmers on the best land use. The minister said grey wooded soil areas and new homestead lease areas would receive early attention from the board.

Although both these bills are dead at present, there will undoubtedly be a special session of the house after the election and they probably will come up again.

GIFT TO PENSIONERS

This also goes for the bill to provide a $50 Golden Jubilee gift to recipients of provincial pensions and allowances. No matter what government is elected, it would have to pass that one now that it's been promised.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Social Credit back-benchers knew about the impending election 24 hours before the public did but they weren't talking. Within minutes after Mr Prowse shocked the assembly Premier Manning adjourned the house and his followers gathered for an emergency caucus behind closed doors in the executive council chamber. They emerged about three hours later, with nothing to say.

By [illegible] like the next day, it was obvious something was in the wind. The galleries were filled with former MLA's, a few government officials, Social Credit followers and curious spectators who were expecting something in view of the proceedings the day before.

Premier Manning started his own personal election campaign the day after dissolution of the assembly. He said that if Social Credit is re-elected, a special session will be called immediately, and unfinished business completed, including the Golden Jubilee bonus gift for pensioners.

It didn't take long for Social Credit members to start cleaning up their desks after the premier announced prorogation. They were busy even before Hon. J. J. Bowlen, lieutenant-governor, entered the assembly to dismiss them.

Some of the most disappointed people were members of the press gallery. Things happened so fast they didn't have time to bombard the MLA's with the traditional shower of waste paper on prorogation.

Career Night And Graduation At The Kitscoty High School

Career day has come and gone, bringing some fine speakers and away many doubts. Held here on May 3, it was attended by students of Islay, Marwayne, Paradise Valley and Kitscoty high schools. After a short speech at the town hall by each of the speakers, everyone went up to the high school and listened to any two of the following: Mr. McTavish on Commercial; Miss Fawcett on Nursing; Mrs. Acheson on Home Economics; Mr. Earle on Teaching; Mr Aldridge on Miscellaneous (hair dressing, radio, etc.); F/O Sweet on the Armed Forces; Cpl Surby on R.C.M.P.; Dr. Cooke on Medicine, Mr. Pallis on Agriculture; Mr. Reid on Apprenticeship Trades. Then a question period cleared up any remaining doubts.

GRADUATION

Another big event was graduation. It was held on Friday, May 13 and, believe it or not, the heavy cloud layer did not burst open. At 6:30 the Grade 12 girls in white semi-formals and mainly red rose corsages, 4 boys in suits and white carnations, went to the Legion hall where an excellent banquet was served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion. Then Pat Kneen gave the valedictory, followed by two songs by Doris Jack, "When Shall I Again See Ireland" and "Someone is Calling". Mr. Bentley of the V.S.A. gave an enjoyable speech on education and then all went to the school to have photos taken. Off next to the dance hall where Mr. Roy Bendixen's orchestra provided splendid dance music. The hall was beautifully decorated in pastels. Each graduate danced a dance of his or her choice and flash bulbs popped like summer lightning. It all ended with "They are Jolly Good Fellows", and evening to be remembered by every grad in the years to come.

4-H Club News

SEEDING GRAIN PLOTS

This week about 200 4-H Club members in this district will be seeding their plots. Each boy or girl gets four bushels of registered wheat or barley. There is no doubt that multiplying this seed is a very important project. Next year some of the farm can be seeded to the pure seed from the grain plot and maybe some for sale to the neighbors.

PARADISE VALLEY

The monthly meeting of the Paradise Valley Wheat Club, held on Saturday afternoon, was called to order by the club president, Fred Weeks and the minutes were read by Doug Murray, Secretary. Attendance was good with 16 of the members present.

A committee of six including the executive was nominated to organize the building of a thematic display intended for exhibit at the Lloydminster and Vermilion Fairs.

The seed wheat had arrived at the local Wheat Pool elevator and some hustling activity took place at the meeting's termination as the members flocked to Mr. Stan Murray, Club Leader, to make their payment. They then coursed to the elevator to pick up their seed.

Bruce Jeffery, Assistant District Agriculturist attended the meeting.

TULLIBY LAKE

A tour of calf inspection was conducted to each club member's home and was attended by all the nine members of the Tulliby Lake Calf club. The tour commenced at 9:30 Saturday morning and finished up by 4 p.m. Transportation was provided by Mr. Oscar Peterson, the Club leader and Mrs. Joan Belsheim, Club president. Mr. Bruce Jeffery, assistant D.A. from Vermilion conducted the tour.

Each member gave a full account on his calf as to grooming, training, feeding, daily gains and general care. Interest for all the girls and boys was at a peak throughout the day and reached an all time high at noon when weiners and buns were produced for a picnic lunch.

The day was certainly a success in that the boys and girls were not only made aware of the method used by their competitors in the fitting of calves for show but also after seeing all the calves would have a good idea how their own would stand.

The meeting was brought to order by the president Joan Belsheim and the minutes were read by Sylvia Ruud, Club secretary. It was decided that the calves should be shown at the School and Home Improvement picnic, July 9. This will add considerable interest to the picnic as well as provide good training in showing for the boys and girls.

A committee of four was nominated to organize the building of a thematic display which will be exhibited at Vermilion and Lloydminster fairs. It was decided that the next meeting will be held at Tulliby Lake school, June 9.

KITSCOTY

The Kitscoty 4-H Club held their meeting recently at the high school. Before the business session a ball practice was held.

When the 4-H pledge had been repeated, 18 members answered the roll call. Willard Stewart acted as chairman due to the absence of the president and vice-president. Jim Byrt and Thelma Evans each gave talks on the use of chemicals. Mr Buckingham then gave an interesting talk on how to prepare and sow grain for the plots.

The next meeting will be held during the second week in June.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

There isn't very much square dance news this week. Several of the clubs have closed down for the summer and our farmer members are too busy grand right and lefting around a different kind of square. The Circle Eight have decided to continue regular dances through June and July. August will depend on circumstances such as heat, etc. We would like to issue an invitation to all clubs which have stopped for the summer to come and dance with us. We will promise you good dances, the best of callers and a lot of square dance fun.

Those of our members who were fortunate enough to get to Mannville last Tuesday were certainly very glad they went. Ed Gilmore is without doubt one of the best callers to come up here yet. His timing and ability to cue the working couples, while still putting everybody through a real workout is outstanding. Thanks Mannville for bringing Ed into our district.

Our new executive held a lengthy meeting this week, at which time we had a good discussion covering a wide variety of subjects for the good of square dancing as a whole and the C8 in particular. One change has been made in our social committee. Mrs. Gerald Wilmer has replaced Mrs. Thomson who has resigned.

Re club badges — the executive requests every member to be sure to wear your Circle Eight badge to every dance whether in Vermilion or out of town. It is your passport to any square dance club anywhere and we can't very well insist that our visitors display a badge at the door if we don't wear our own.

That's all for this week, Squares. I'm off to Vegreville to dance to Johnny Trout of Wetaskiwin.

Whitmore Winks

We start with a few late items. On Sunday May 8 Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte and Baillie, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wilson of town where they had a nice visit with George Wilson from Scotland. George is here at present enjoying a visit with brother Tom.

On the same Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cruthers and family were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson, the occasion being Mrs. Gibson's and Mrs. Cruthers' birthday that week. Bill and Adam Smith were also guests at the same home.

Everyone was deeply shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Henry Smith of Vermilion. Mr. Smith lived for several years in our district, also in Thorncliffe. For the last few years he had had a lot of trouble with his eyes and a heart condition. His friendly greeting will be greatly missed by all who knew him. The well-filled church spoke of the high esteem the family holds in and around Vermilion. Rev. MacKay gave a very comforting sermon on the text — "We brought nothing into the world and most certainly can take nothing out. But we can take character'. God gave us life and we can mold it to do good in this world". To the sorrowing wife who has been his faithful partner for many years and to the family and relatives, we along with the communities around, extend our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sorrow. A son Robert lives in the Basswood district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Summers of Darwell visited for a few days at the Wallington home leaving for home on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte and Baillie were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrison of Bowtell on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Wilson drove up and spent Sunday with her mother Mrs. J. Finlay who is a patient in the Lamont hospital. We are pleased to hear Mrs. Finlay is much better and expects to be home soon.

"Truth Will Prevail" Says Dr. Bates Of Fluoridation

TORONTO. "The question of fluoridation of water has become an active issue all over Canada" states Dr. Gordon Bates, General Director of the Health League of Canada, in the current issue of Health magazine, official publication of the League.

He points out that the controversy made evident by letters to the editors in many newspapers reveals strong evidence of vagaries of human nature. Many of the questions brought up in these letters seem to anyone with scientific learning utterly silly. Some, too reveal extraordinary evidence of lack of concern for the welfare of fellow citizens.

"The fellow who generously enquires why people with children cannot fluoridate their own water supply ignores the fact that his fellow citizens are just about as careless about their own health as he is in his thinking. If each citizen were required to chlorinate his own family water to protect his family from typhoid it is likely that thousands of people would still be dying from typhoid in Canada. To keep supplies of fluorine tablets in the bathroom medicine chest for that purpose would be just about as sensible as putting strychnine tablets within easy reach of children," says Dr. Bates.

To complain about the high cost of fluoridating water supplies is to ignore the high cost of dental care to the average Canadian family. To suggest possible dangers from the ingestion of an element which is a normal item in everyday diet and a normal constituent in the human body is just about as wise as to question the value of water or salt in the human diet.

All new discoveries have aroused fears in the minds of the timorous and the uneducated. It is only a few years since the newspapers of Ontario were besieged by the timid souls who feared the dangers pasteurized milk. The ridiculous crusade against chlorination of Vancouver's water supply — in the face of all scientific opinion—was only a brief decade ago. And who can forget the frantic letters against toxoid to control diptheria? In the earlier days there were anti-vaccination riots — but in spite of all truth prevails in the long run. Vaccination conquered smallpox, chlorination conquered typhoid. Toxoid against diptheria has reduced that disease almost to the vanishing point. And pasteurization of milk has saved the lives of thousands of children.

"In the current campaign waged by the fearful and unbalanced history is repeating itself," says Dr. Bates. Ignorance, selfishness and fanaticism cannot in the long run, prevail. True there is a type of fanatic who will never listen to reason. Not only will he turn a blind eye to the truth, but he will do his best to persuade others that black is white.

WILDMERE WINKS

On Sunday evening we had our first church service of the season at Rosewood. Everyone was very pleased to welcome Mr Plante back with us again for the summer. Over 40 attended and Mr Plante gave an interesting sermon on Christianity. Next Sunday church will be held again at the same place same time 7.30, so plan to attend.

The school ball teams went to Tolland on Sunday for a practise. Mr Bouman was the coach for the boys' teams. May the teams, both boys and girls, have a good summer.

Lloyd Howard was a city visitor last week when he went up to see his mother who is also sick in the hospital. We also wish Mrs. Howard a speedy recovery to health and home. Mr Howard had also been sick in the hospital but was home again and feeling much better. Mr A. Friesell of town and Alfie Fadden of Wildmere went up with Lloyd to the city.

Seeding is going ahead now as one can hear the hum of the tractors all hours of the day and night pushing the wheat into the ground. Trees are very slow at leafing out this year.

Mr and Mrs. L. Mayhew and little daughter and Mrs. McNair, all of town, called for a short while at the Wallington home on Sunday where a nice visit was enjoyed. Come again folks.

This week end Frank Clark who took that bad fall off a derrick last December is to come home for a few days. He just has a cane to steady himself. It's marvellous how well he has come out of that accident in which he suffered so many fractures. Can't keep a good man down eh Frank!

Mrs. F. Haines and her baby son David James George came home on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Gibson of Rosewood was a blood donor at the recent clinic at Vermilion.

Birthday parties were the order of the day in the west end this week. [illegible] Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cooper celebrated his sixth birthday on Tuesday May 17th with a party for 14 of his little playmates, while on Wednesday May 18, Jackie Zubiac, son of Mr and Mrs. Mike Zubiac, had a jolly little party for several of his friends on his sixth birthday also.

Canadian Club Hears University Speaker

Dr H. [illegible] of the University of Alberta was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Canadian Club held last Friday evening last at the Junior high. He took as his topic "The Far East" with special reference to China.

Dr. and Mrs. Collier, who accompanied him to Vermilion, spent several years in China where Dr. Collier taught in one of the colleges and thus came to know the Chinese view of life and their attitude toward the big powers. The Chinese are Communists but not [illegible]. She was driven into the [illegible] largely because of the friendship shown her [illegible] distrust towards us because on two or three occasions we backed the wrong horse. We backed Kai Shek when the people knew that his government was most corrupt, and we glorified Madame Kai Shek while the people knew also that her brothers were looting the wealth of the country.

The Chinese have their own outlook of life; they believe they are right and are making progress and resent interference. The Russian is doing his best to help them, to see that they have schools, colleges, hospitals and industries and in this way are making friends of them.

Dr Collier thought that Formosa should be made an independent state and given power to form their own government. They are intelligent people and quite capable.

Dr Collier's address was very enlightening giving his audience an insight of China from within. In other words he answered the question of what would we do if we were treated by England and the U.S as they had treated China. He made it quite clear to the audience that he was not a Communist — nor possessed of even Communist [illegible].

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the speaker for his illuminating address. The meeting was presided over by the president of the Canadian Club J. W. G. Morrison, Q.C., and there was a very good attendance.

Adventure Stories Of Canada's North-West

New York, N. Y. A quartet of adventure stories set in the Canadian Northwest pioneering lands will be published under title of "Twenty Pebbles and Other Stories" by Pageant Press, Inc. on June 2nd. The author, Frank M. Webber, is a Canadian citizen who lives in Drayton Valley, Alberta.

Mr Webber's love of nature and adventure is the result of an exciting pioneering life. Lured by the land call of the Canadian Northwest, the Webber family moved from Cadillac, Michigan U.S.A. in 1905 — where Frank Junior had been born five years earlier — to Lacombe, Alberta, and they finally settled on a farm at Reyne Lake (35 miles north of Duvernay on the North Saskatchewan River.)

Twenty years spent as a commercial fisherman, many years of his youth on the family farm, the author's wealth of experience, enable him to write realistically and authoritatively about homesteading, hunting, fishing, trapping and the many other exciting components that make up a good adventure tale.

Claysmore W. I. Notes

The regular meeting of the Claysmore W.I. was held on May 11 at the Claysmore school with eleven members present. A general clean-up of the building was planned for the earlier part of this afternoon. With the aid of mops and plenty of water the place gradually took on a new look when the president called the meeting to order at 3 p.m.

The Creed was read followed by the Roll Call, "Notes on Korea".

The minutes of the April meeting were read by the secretary and declared approved. The treasurer Mrs. Olstad gave the financial statement and it was adopted as read.

Mrs. O. Willes, convener of Woollens committee, stated she had word the shipment had been received at Fairfields and the blankets etc. would we here next week. Some money was turned in.

It was moved, seconded and passed we take one of the premium blankets, sell tickets on it and give a generous donation to the skating rink fund in Mannville. A committee was appointed to look after the details.

A collection was taken and the meeting adjourned. A delicious lunch was enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held at the school on June 8. The delegate will give her report on the Edmonton W.I. convention. Anyone interested is very welcome to attend.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE E. KIRK —

MONEY MANAGEMENT FOR THE TEEN-AGER

Do you dream about taking a trip, buying a new sweater, a record player or even a car? Or do you wish you could take more responsibility in buying your own clothes, and handling your own money?

You may think you could do much more if you had more money. But more money won't help, unless you set goals for yourself and learn to manage the money you have in order to reach those goals. Planning your spending money can give you the satisfaction of reaching goals that are important to you.

Now is the time to learn and practice money management. Practising now will make things much easier when you go to college, start a job, or get married.

If you are given an allowance, be sure you, as well as your parents know exactly what it is meant to cover. Is it supposed to cover the unexpected things that come up?

If you earn part or all of your income, keep a record for a few weeks to find out what your average weekly income is.

If your parents give you money from time to time, keep a record of the amount and how it is spent. Then perhaps this same amount could be given to you in regular sums at regular intervals. Then you could plan your spending more effectively.

Once you are sure of what your income is, keep a record of fixed expenses such as transportation, lunch money, school supplies, organization dues etc. Also record for two or 3 weeks the more flexible expenses such as gas for the car on dates, snacks, gifts, movies etc. to find your average weekly spending.

Now add the average weekly amounts for fixed and flexible expenses. Subtract this total from weekly income — do you have anything left over for your special goals? You haven't?

The results now, then, could be one or more of these three things: cut down on unnecessary flexible expenses (you didn't really need that coke after school today), start working after school or in the evening if it won't interfere with your school work, or perhaps a chat with Mom and Dad would do the trick. But, quite frankly, you would do yourself more good if you followed the first two methods, than if you wheedled your parents out of another dollar a week.

Give yourself a few weeks of planning and keeping records and you'll surprise yourself with your ability to get the things you want most. (It will be a pleasant surprise for Mom and Dad too — and would therefore be a good donation to your family's happiness!)

Record Exports of U.K. Radio Equipment

Exports of radio and television sets and radiograms were also up, to $2,707,800.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] Kay and [redacted] children were in town [redacted] afternoon. Noticed Mrs. Kay testing the brakes on their car which they have just purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robinson, Norman and Marie were in town on Saturday too, they had been to Kitscoty and were taking Mrs. Robinson with them to the city on a visit.

Also noticed Mr. Howse and Floyd in town Saturday driving a good looking truck. Mr. Howse now can get out a little easier and faster but still likes his saddle pony.

The Home and School Association met Thursday evening in the school. Letters were read regarding text book rentals. A short discussion followed but the subject was tabled in order to do some more research. After the meeting a pleasant hour was spent. Mr. Sunderland of Lloydminster exhibited the Hammond Chord organ. The records played demonstrated what can be done on the organ. That was most enjoyable. Many people tried it and seemingly some did quite well for the first attempt. It is truly a marvellous instrument.

Mr. Ross Lamb has moved his 18 goats out to the country.

A big woodpile is a pleasant sight in anybody's yard and that is what you'll [redacted] passing the farm of Mr. Herb Simmons, son Emerson is responsible for it — certainly a nice looking pile of wood.

A compliment to two little girls in the Sunday school, Lynn Davidson and Sharon Redmond, who repeated the 23rd psalm so nicely.

Mrs. D. Buchanan and Miss Ann Grech were visitors at the home of Mrs. Neil McLennan on Thursday.

Miss Irene Simmons and Mrs. James Goodfrey of Edmonton were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Simmons.

Had a nice visit with Mrs. John McFadyen of Vermilion. She still is very interested in the old home, Islay. In fact we found Mrs. McFadyen interested in many things. She was listening to her combination radio and record machine and as she said "listening to some of the nonsense that was coming over."

Ladies, please keep in mind the quilting on May 26, in the church.

3 Varieties Eligible For 1955 Contest

The three stand-bys in malting barley varieties, Montcalm, O.A.C. 21 and Olli will be the only ones allowed for the 1955 National Barley contest.

Plant breeders have some new ones on the way, some of them encouraging in preliminary performance, but still to undergo tests to determine how they stand up as malting varieties.

One originated by the plant science division of the University of Manitoba for the present labelled UM 570 has been rust resistant in test and a high yielder. Another underway at the Dominion Experimental Station at Brandon, currently designated Br. 2808 gives similar encouraging promise. Neither are yet available for commercial distribution and in any case have to be tested for malting and brewing qualities.

In the nine years of the contest Montcalm has been the dominant variety. In the first one in 1946 the national championship was taken by a carload of O.A.C. entered by a Manitoba grower. For the next six years 1947-52 inclusive Montcalm won the major award. In 1953 and 1954 when the national championship was won by Alberta growers the winning variety in each year was Olli, which does well in Alberta but is grown very little in lower altitudes in other provinces.

ARTHRITIS

Arthritis is the term applied to a large group of rheumatic diseases which cause inflammation of the joints. These diseases are alike in that they affect the joints, but they differ from one another in causes, symptoms and many other respects.

RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS

This is most common in young adults and usually begins before 40 years of age. Since these are the most productive years it has a special economic significance although it is seldom fatal. The first definite symptoms are usually preceded by a long period of ill health; the person is easily fatigued and is susceptible to colds. Heredity seems to be a predisposing cause and other contributing factors may be injury to joints, prolonged exposure to cold and damp, overcrowding and other unfavorable living conditions, infection and pro- [redacted]. In fact, a severe cold, sore throat or emotional shock may be the trigger which sets off an attack of this disease. Rheumatoid arthritis is a disease of the entire system, not only the joints. If untreated it may lead to thinning of the bones at the joints, and wasting of cartilages and muscles. The smaller joints are affected first, perhaps fingers and feet and later on the larger joints become involved. A slight joint pain and swelling may come and go for years until finally one joint after another becomes stiff, painful and swollen. In addition there may be anemia, fever, digestive disturbances, depression, irritability and loss of weight and energy.

OSTEOARTHRITIS

This is a disease of middle or old age; it rarely becomes established before 40 years of age. It is caused by aging of the cartilage of the joints and wear and tear of the joint tissues. The joints usually affected are those at the end of the fingers and those which bear strain and have the hard usage of weight-bearing, e.g., knees and spine. The changes progress gradually over a period of years. In certain cases of osteoarthritis injuries are partly [redacted] for the changes in the joints. The injury may be sudden, such as a fracture or it may come from a mild long continued strain produced perhaps by overweight or faulty posture. Physical defects (flat feet or curvature of the spine) which put an unequal pressure on a joint may also contribute.

The disease usually begins as a slight stiffness or soreness aggravated by exercise and this gets worse as time goes on. If untreated the joints become thickened and grate on movement. Small pieces of bone or gristle may collect in the joints and hamper movement; this makes the person feel unsafe and may suddenly throw him.

What to do for arthritis will be continued in the Standard next week.

WHERE DOES THE DOLLAR GO?

At Imperial Oil accountants keep close tab on every dollar the company receives. Auditors and government tax people double check. Of every dollar of Imperial's income last year...

About 52 cents went to purchase raw materials including crude oil (we pay freight charges out of this too).

Roughly 30 cents went in operating and administrative costs, including the wages of Imperial's 13,000 employees.

10 cents went in taxes to federal, provincial and municipal governments. (This did not include provincial road taxes.)

About 4 cents went back into the business to help replace worn-out equipment and provide for future needs.

About 4 cents went in dividends to the company's shareholders.

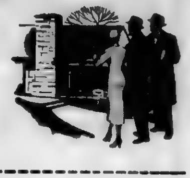
Two ways to check your buying skill

1 When you buy a house



Would you buy a house without looking it over thoroughly first? Or would you examine plumbing, heating, storage facilities, the neighbourhood and the reputation of the builder? The more thorough you are, the higher you rate in buying skill . . . and you'll be hundreds of dollars ahead of the careless buyer in the long run.

2 When you buy life insurance

Would you buy a life insurance policy on the strength of the premium alone; or would you look carefully at equally important features — dividends, cash value, and the reputation of the company? If you consider these things you'll save yourself time and trouble — and hundreds of dollars in cash!

SPRAY EARLY

Weeds, even when quite young, compete with the growing crop for plant food, moisture, and light. Early treatment of weeds with chemicals is therefore recommended if maximum yields are to be obtained. Farmers who are in doubt as to when best to spray their crops should consult their nearest Agricultural Representative or Experimental Station.

Dewberry High School Students Present Play At Mannville

MANNVILLE. — Again this year the casting and acting was exceptionally good in the three-act play "Bolts and Nuts" put on by the Dewberry High school under the direction of Mr Angus Smith. Miss Rebecca Bolt played by Elaine Wilson is left an old relic of a house by her late brother Benjamin but she is cautioned not to move a thing. Even his old pipe which she detested many years ago when they lived in the same house must remain hanging by his picture. Her niece, Benita Bolt portrayed by Una McMullen, and the maid, Lutie Spinks who has a bad case of the 'blinks' played by Lily Krawchuk are living in the house with Miss Bolt. She plans to turn the house into a san for the ill who need to learn to be happy and carefree by the "Dr Joy" method. When a letter is read ten days after Benjamin's funeral it discloses that $15,000 is hidden somewhere about the premises. The lawyer, Mr. Plunkett played by Larry Grant and Joyce Parker as Martha Grub the cook, do their best to scare off all the other would be patients who come to the san to take the cure but who are actually looking for the money. The one to find the money other than Miss Bolt may keep $5000 and turn the other $10,000 over to the sister Mrs Glossop (Viola Clack) and her very naughty son Wilbur (Meredith Whiteside). Miss Figg (Edna Moore) are local folk in search of the hidden money. The porter (Garry Garnier), Mr Clippey (Floyd Wood) an old admirer of Miss Bolt. Twink Star (Eward Jones) who wants to marry Benita but can't make Miss Bolt consent to the marriage, also join the hunt. Dr Joy played by Jim Jones is asked by Miss Bolt to stay and help her cure the patients but he turns out to be a patient escaped from the san across the border who believes himself to be Dr. Joy at times when he is not quite rational. Jack Gordon the intern played by Floyd Sweet takes "Dr. Joy" home; from a note found in the old pipe and a written message on Benjamin's picture, Twink Star discovers the hiding place of the money and gives it all to Miss Bolt on the condition that he and Benita may be married at once. Mr. Clippey is cured of his fear of cats and will with a little persuasion become Miss Bolt's bridegroom and as most plays end — they all lived happily ever after. This three-act play was a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

under the very able direction of Mr Neil Jones gave a wonderful display of acrobatic skill. These young people are exceedingly well trained and performed some very difficult feats. The smallest girl, Marion Braithwaite, could walk on her hands just as easily as she could on her feet.

Little Boys Blue Supposed To Sleep

When teen-agers sleep late on Saturday or Sunday mornings, it is not necessarily laziness, according to a news release from the Health League of Canada. The adolescent needs that extra rest says a physician. The doctor explains that the teen-ager's body is growing at a rapid rate, and has great energy requirements.

A great deal of emotional energy is also needed by the adolescent in coping with the transition to maturity. Once teen-agers reach adulthood, they acquire new sleep patterns and no longer need extra rest. In the meantime, the doctor advises parents — let them sleep!

This NEW KIND OF HOUSE PAINT bonds so tightly on new wood moisture can't get through. New FORMULA 5 is fume- and stain-proof, too!

The most severe test you can give paint is on new wood. Here "Formula 5" gives you a startling demonstration of two of its big advantages. It's completely self-priming — sealing the wood pores to provide its own best undercoat. And it's 100% blister-proof — so fully bonded that no moisture can make it blister . . .

Many will say this is impossible — but Marshall-Wells stands behind every can of "Formula 5" with a double-your-money-back guarantee!

Five years of rigid testing on houses and in our laboratories proved that the qualities that make "Formula 5" blister-proof on new wood also make it the most blister-resistant paint you can apply to previously painted wood! Furthermore, it will not stain from rusting or corroding metals, nor discolor from sulphurous fumes in the air.

Use the new "Formula 5" House Paint on your new home or next repaint.

Rats Being Held At Bay In Alberta

In the war against rats in Alberta the front line is being held stationary. In some areas the pesky rodent is being pushed back toward Saskatchewan. These facts were revealed recently at meetings of rat control officials held at Wainwright and Oyen. The meetings were called by the pest control division of the Alberta Field Crops Branch; those in attendance included pest control officers, municipal and agricultural service board authorities, and district agriculturists in the rat infested areas.

In reviewing the rat situation since 1951 it was generally agreed that the present system of rat control is proving effective. The rat area is spreading north and south as rats infiltrate from the east. However, there has been no significant westward movement since 1951.

Officials of the Department of Health explained the importance of rat control from a public health standpoint. It was pointed out that there is definite evidence of bubonic plague among rodents in the area from Oyen to Hanna. These rodents, such as gophers, ground squirrels and field mice, seldom come in contact with man and as a result the possibility of transmitting the plague to man is remote. However rats present a different picture — they seek man, they do not live long without man's support. Thus if rats move into an area, contract the disease from the other rodents, the danger of man contracting the disease is increased. From this standpoint alone rat control is of utmost importance.

Eight full time pest control officers work in the infested area from the North Saskatchewan River to the Cypress Hills. These men supply poisons, demonstrate and assist with control measures [illegible] their farm to farm checks. These officers reported most residents are giving excellent co-operation and support.

It was agreed by those in attendance at both meetings that the present rat control program deserves all the support possible from every Albertan as well as from those directly connected with rat control work. It was revealed that residents in eastern Alberta have become more rat conscious particularly in localities where rats have been found. These people know from first hand experience what an expensive and damaging nuisance the rat is. Tribute was paid to these people for their whole-hearted co-operation and assistance.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER,
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

Recently expressed disappointment of British millers at the low protein content of Canadian wheat bought by the United Kingdom during the past three years, should not occasion any surprise. Indeed as one reviews the Board of Grain Commissioners protein figures for the 23-year period 1929 to 1951 during which time it was either above or substantially above the long time average of 13.5% in all but five years and even in those five years only slightly below, it is clear that our overseas customers had a long run of high quality protein wheat. And now for the three years 1952, [illegible]

Alberta Wheat Pool Mails Dividend Cheques

Last Friday the Alberta Wheat Pool placed in the mail over 34,000 cheques valued at $595,000. This payment represents the cash portion of the patronage dividend on grain delivered to Alberta Pool elevators during the 1953-54 crop season. In addition the cash payment member patrons have been credited with reserves amounting to $1,615,000 making a total dividend on last year's deliveries of $2,210,00.

The cheques are now in the possession of the Pool elevator agents who are making the distribution to Pool member patrons.

This year's patronage dividend amounts to 5.2 cents per bushel for wheat and flax, of which 1.4 cents is in cash and 3.8 cents on reserves. For oats, barley and rye the payment is 2.6 cents a bushel, of which .7 cents is in cash. This is the largest per bushel patronage dividend ever distributed by the Alberta Wheat Pool. Out of net earnings of the organization in the $2,450,000, a total of $2,210,000 has been paid back to Wheat Pool members.

The Alberta Wheat Pool is a co-operative organization owned by grain producers in this province and the Creston and Dawson Creek areas of B.C. Since its inception in 1923 patronage dividend payments, representing a refund on handling and storage charges, have had a total value of $18 million.

Pleasant Valley News

Hi folks, just returned from a trip to the coast with Mrs. Giles in the lead. We left here while the snow was deep and wet, arriving in Vancouver it was just like summer with all the lovely flowers in bloom. On arrival home it was a cool windy day — what is the matter with Sunny Alberta?

The writer has not seen or heard from the neighbors yet so will write something about the very enjoyable trip and visit at the west coast.

Many friends were visited who hail from in and around this district. Our first abode was with Mrs. Annie Easton who was a pupil at the Morrison school many years ago. The second day we all went to see Mrs. Neva Newcombe, formerly of the Allandale district. The writer went from there to her nephew's home, Arthur Gould, the other ladies visiting Stanley Park where it snowed just a little. On Monday a return was made to Annie's home and the party then journeyed to see Mrs. Earl Nelson and family where a very bountiful supper was enjoyed. Present were Mrs. Newcombe, Annie Easton, Mrs. Giles, and yours truly. Arthur Gould drove us all there and we returned by bus after a very enjoyable time together.

On Tuesday morning Lily and the writer left for Victoria, travelling via Nanaimo on the boat, taking a bus through Duncan into Victoria a very lovely drive over grand roads.

Dorothy Gould and Tom met us in Victoria and took us to their home. During the afternoon we went sight-seeing, saw some of the grandest bulb gardens in the world.

From there we went to Brentwood and enjoyed a grand supper at the Blue Bird Grill owned by Mr and Mrs. Eddie Fenton, another Pleasant Valley boy, a small world isn't it? Oh, and what a supper that was, it was delicious. We stayed and had a nice visit. It's such a lovely spot for a tea room.

From then on other relations were visited, television was enjoyed too during the evening. Next morning Dorothy drove us to Colbert street where Mrs Giles visited her uncle Frank Leslie. He homesteaded in the Borradaile district many years ago, then joined the R C M P at Edmonton. How many remember him?

Next Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Gillis (nee Edith Gould) were called on where a fine dinner of roast beef and Yorkshire pudding was enjoyed. Off we went again sight-seeing, out through Sydney, back around to Patricia Bay where the air force was stationed during the war.

Our two days was gone next morning so back to Vancouver once again. Annie Easton and Neva Newcombe met us there and we went to a fashion parade and flower show. Skirts are a little shorter this year. Blues, pink and yellow are the colors. The flowers were something out of this world, many we had never seen before and cannot even remember the names. That alone was well worth going many miles to see. Home we went to Annie's, tired but happy.

It was a good thing that we did not hear the news before we left Neva as a policeman had been shot down on the street where we said goodbye.

On Friday we took the bus to Langley Prairie and spent the day with Mr and Mrs Harry Perkins and Mr and Mrs Vic Dedelly who were still there all are from the Bowtell district. A really grand day was spent together. Rose and her mother met us, we went to their lovely home, picked up Mr Dedelly and went out to the estate where Harry works. Here we enjoyed a picnic of fish and chips on the green grass among the flowers and lilacs. We saw some of the race horses which Harry takes care of.

Mission Band Bids Farewell To Leaders At Mannville

MANNVILLE — The last meeting of the season for the Mission Band was held last Tuesday afternoon and was as well a birthday party for little Jeryn Sowden and a farewell party for Mrs. Sowden. The children under the direction of Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Gamble sang first to the Mothers and then recited a verse in tribute to Mrs. Sowden.

Mrs. Sowden and Mrs. Clark have been in charge of the Mission Band for some time and in appreciation of the time and work, they were each presented with a leather autograph album, a souvenir of Mannville, containing a picture of each member of the Mission Band and the signature of each girl.

The children enjoyed the birthday lunch and the mothers had a social half hour over the tea cups.

W. M. S.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. was held on Thursday, May 12 in the church hall at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. C. Barr the president, was in the chair. As the Explorers were affiliating with the W. M. S. the meeting was turned over to them. They presented a splendid program and told of their year's work, with the help of their leaders Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. R. Carroll. The girls repeated their pledge and Mrs. Sweet and Mrs. C. Barr presented them with their badges and insignia. Congratulations were extended by Mrs. L. Robinson while the leaders were thanked for their good work. Mrs. Robinson then told the girls a story called "Ellen's Wedding" which was enjoyed by Explorers and W.M.S. members as well. A light lunch was served to the girls after which the W.M.S. continued their meeting.

Mrs. Carroll Sr. was in charge. Mrs. Sweet gave a very interesting synopsis of the study book "The Church in India". Roll call was taken which showed that 22 members, 9 Explorers, 2 leaders and some visitors were present.

The minutes were read and approved, reports for the month given and business for the month transacted. A parcel of clothing was sent by Mrs Matheson and her sister before they left Vermilion, to Korea, the value being $25. The meeting was brought to a close by repeating the Mispah. The committee in charge served a very tasty lunch and a social half hour was enjoyed before adjournment.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

I hope Mr. Editor that you have space in your paper to give more information for the interested ratepayers on the Islay hospital question.

I would like to state again to Mr. Inman and the few are misinformed on the matter that only after a fight of nearly a year I earned on the 17th of March '55 was I able to obtain the privilege of the services of the Vermilion Municipal Hospital without being penalized the sum of $6.20 per day, and again I would like to inform Mr Inman that I have proof in writing of this fact.

There are many ratepayers interested and less fortunate ratepayers in Islay hospital district who wish to get the services of any hospital or doctor of their choice in the Vermilion Municipality. With the sympathetic interest and assistance of Islay hospital representatives this can be accomplished as this has been done in other districts according to information from reliable sources.

Regarding Mr Inman's personal invitation to me to attend the forthcoming meeting, I must confess the impression it will be a public meeting. The fourteen persons, including myself who obtained signatures to the petition did not expect Mr. Inman would have to pass out invitations to attend this meeting. It will not be a formal affair and all ratepayers of the Islay Hospital district will be welcome.

I might also state that it will not be Mr Inman to back up his statements that have any bearing on the hospital situation as I have yet to find any statements in his letters dealing with the situation at all!

I also extend my thanks to Mr McGee for his intelligent and informative letter and I am pleased to inform him and others interested that those responsible for calling this meeting had no intention or desire to have the Islay hospital closed but would like to hear the views of the ratepayers as a whole not from individuals and business men

Thanking you Mr Editor for your time and trouble in keeping the interested public informed on the subject

Yours truly
Robert Galloway.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

The United Church Sunday school held a Mother's Day service Sunday May 8. Everyone was well pleased with the support the parents and friends gave the program. There was a total attendance of 138. The program consisted of recitation "A Sad Carnation" by Mrs. Kasmond's class. Devotional service read the scripture lesson. Douglas Armishaw and Tony Mason took the offering. Miss Joan Richardson's class gave a welcome to the members. Dal Comeau's class gave numbers each in his own way. Mrs. Sugrue's girls recited "My Own Mother" and sang "Mother's Day." "One Word" Mrs. Knox's class gave an acrostic "Mother" given by Kenneth and Mrs. Stoddart's class "What a Friend we have in Mother" a recitation "Mother" given by Mrs. Olson's class. The intermediate girls and Mrs. Comeau's class sang "Mothers of Salem". Other loving envelopes for the service and Mother's Day leaflets were distributed by Jenny Sharma, Donald Pindgard and Frank Hall.

The many friends of Al Goodwin will hear with deep regret that our old friend is in the hospital at Edmonton.

Cecil Wallis returning from visiting his nephew he in some way lost control of his car and rolled over a steep embankment. The car is a total loss and Al escaped with a broken collar bone and a lot of bruises and shock but he was not killed in such a shocked nothing short of a miracle.

PARELL OERARD FAMILY

The community hall was filled to the doors on Wednesday evening when the many friends of Mr and Mrs Dan Odegard gathered to shower them in their home in Edgerton where Mr Odegard has taken over the Edgerton Hardware business as manager. Co-owner Mr. and Mrs Odegard were presented with a lovely chesterfield and chair and Karen were not forgotten either. We are sorry to see this very popular young couple leave our town but wish them every success in their new home and business in Edgerton.

MORE WORKERS IN AIRCRAFT

Labor force in the UK aircraft industry continues to rise at the rate of about 2000 a month and is now nearly a quarter of a million. About a seventh of those now working on the Province of Alberta who were resident in the province at any time during 1905 and who are still making their homes in Alberta are urged to make application for Senior Citizen scrolls which are to be granted them as a mark of appreciation of their services to their fellow citizens.

Arrangements are being made in many communities for the presentation of the scrolls and Vermilion district pioneers are advised that it is proposed to have His Honour the Lieutenant Governor of the province, the Honorable John J. Bowlen present the district certificates on Pioneers' Day. July 29th or so at this time

Strange Experience of John Malec

FARMER ATTACKED BY COYOTE!

To be attacked by a coyote, an animal noted for its cowardliness, not its courage, in broad daylight, was the amazing and rather terrifying experience of John Malec, who farms just two and a half miles east of Vermilion. John fought back, managed to reach the heavy crank of his tractor, and landed a telling blow on the coyote's head. The animal wobbled away and was killed by another blow with the crank. After the battle the sixty-year-old farmer, who only two years ago spent three months in hospital nursing a weak heart, had to lean against his tractor for support. His wife had witnessed the strange episode from their farm home more than a quarter of a mile away, and came to his help and to learn just what had taken place.

Mr. Malec was engaged in seeding on Monday morning. About 9:30 he had stopped his tractor close to his truck in the field in order to refill the seeder box, the stop was made in the open field. While filling the box, Malec noticed a coyote across the field from the roadway about two hundred yards distance. It came directly toward him and when but a few yards away the dog waved his arms and shouted at the animal, thinking to scare it away. Instead the coyote leaped at him, and Malec turned away instinctively to protect his face and immediately the recent rabies scare came to his mind. The coyote caught his meekness pocket, tearing it off and then ran around to the tractor for protection and then reached for the long, heavy tractor crank. The coyote followed around the tractor, stalking him, and apparently him directly. As it came within reach John landed the knock-out blow with the crank, later adding a few more for good measure.

As the coyote was a suspect for rabies, R.C.M.P. and Dominion Veterinary Dr. Young were notified. Dr. Young removing the head which has been sent to the Veterinary Research Laboratory at Lethbridge. Tests will be made to ascertain if the coyote had rabies. Similar cases have been known in which the animal was not suffering from rabies. The remainder of the coyote was not moved but buried right on the spot in the field.

As the coyote is a rabies suspect, dogs should be confined, as this shows how easily a rabies affected animal could appear in the district.

If ever bitten by a coyote or dog under similar circumstances, kill the animal, and report the occurrence to R.C.M.P., health officer or veterinary. When killing, do not injure the animal through the brain as this makes it impossible to carry out the tests which ascertain if the animal had rabies.

Commenting on the extraordinary episode, Mr. Malec said that in all the sixty years of his life he had undergone although a young man.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

The executive of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association is seeking an answer to a puzzling question. Are people still interested in sports days? Judging from attendance for the past three annual May 24th celebrations here — they just are not. On the other hand, the past three springs have been late seasons with seeding operations in full swing just at the time of the sports. Thus the rural population, upon which we depend for our crowd, did not have the opportunity to attend. Possibly no real answer can be forthcoming until a normal spring season is experienced, along with a nice day. On Monday the many competitions were well filled with only one exception, that for rural ball players. Forty teams in all took part, and this would account for nearly 500 people on the grounds. This number on Monday would be barely equalled by the number of spectators.

It seems regrettable that an extensive program of sports, baseball, football and softball, offering something for every team and player in town and country, should not be well and widely supported. However, as noted before no true answer will be forthcoming until we have a normal spring — and a nice day on the May 24th holiday.

EVERY COMMUNITY SHOULD HAVE A FATHER MURRAY!

Through the kindness of the Lloydminster Meridians baseball executive, the editor was invited to attend the $10.00 per plate sportsmen's dinner held in Lloydminster recently. The entire affair proved very enjoyable, with the highlight being the address of Father Athol Murray, renowned principal of the Notre Dame college at Wilcox, Sask. As all of Canada is well aware, Father Murray is the great humanitarian who, during the depression in the '30s, gathered about him a group of wandering boys and set up a school for them in the town of Wilcox. Using a deserted bank for his classroom, other empty buildings for his dormitories, he established Canada's most remarkable college. The secret of his success with boys and men is his love for clean sport and lots of it. At 63 years of age his eyes sparkle, his body flexes, his hands follow through with action of lacrosse, hockey, football or baseball — whichever game he happens to be talking of at the time. His topic at the dinner was "The Human Act" and the point driven home was to do the best you can regardless of what you are doing. That is why he loved sport. A boy or man on the playing field is doing his utmost, he is giving the best he has.

Father Murray's address, full of homey philosophy, was enthralling and persuasive. If every community had a Father Murray, our rinks would have artificial ice, a great need he claims to put our junior hockey on an equal footing with the East, and there would be no lack of organized and supervised hockey, baseball and football for boys and young men of every age group. He enthuses over the feat of the Campbells at Avonlea, exemplifying as it does "the human act" and advocates artificial ice in curling rinks as well as skating arenas.

If every community had a Father Murray, facilities for sports and sports organizations would be far in advance of that now offered by the average centre, and as a result of the sports the community spirit dominant would develop tenfold.

ONE TOO MANY—

There is little doubt that having two major elections is proving somewhat confusing to the people in the area affected, namely the Battle River-Camrose federal constituency encompassing as it does several provincial electoral divisions. It is possibly the only time in the history of Canada that two election campaigns are being carried on at the same time with the actual voting only nine days apart. If rumors are true the Liberals are the most concerned over this development from a federal viewpoint as they planned a determined campaign to wrest the Battle River-Camrose constituency from the Social Crediters who have held it from 1935. Suddenly the spotlight has swung from the lone by-election which was receiving much attention and arousing considerable interest, and become centred on provincial issues.

Just as the two elections at one time is unusual, so is the fact that two candidates contesting the federal seat, have the same surname, the name of course, is Smith, and was bound to happen sooner or later. This has probably occurred before but never in these parts. The federal member who is presently advocating in the House at Ottawa that the election act be amended to allow the party affiliation to appear after the name of the candidate on the ballots, has a very strong point. Anything that clarifies a situation and eliminates the possibilities of mistakes for the general public, is well worthwhile.

[illegible] CANS

Did you know that a "tin can" isn't made of tin? It is actually sheet steel with only a fine coating of tin plated on both sides.

And did you know that food left in an open tin today is just as safe as it would be in a glass jar or any other container? In the early days of canning housewives were warned to empty the food from the can as soon as it was opened because of the danger of contamination. Many people are still faithfully following those instructions, in spite of the fact that modern cans are perfectly safe as food containers!

Years ago paint chemists developed corrosion-resistant enamels for coating over the tin. Now you can open up a can of salmon or any other food and leave the left-over portion right in the can. But it's hard to break a habit and Grandma probably never will be convinced!

Commercial food canning in Canada has grown into a multi-million dollar industry since Tristram Halliday in 1839 opened the first salmon cannery on the Bay of Fundy in Nova Scotia. Thirty years later a fruit canning enterprise was launched at Grimsby, Ont., in the heart of the famous Niagara fruit belt.

Today, in B.C. 90 percent of the salmon catch is canned and represents an annual market value of 30 million dollars.

The yearly value of Canadian canned fruits, vegetables, meats and other foods is about $[illegible]. The industry employs many thousands of workers and directly supports more thousands of farmers and fishermen. The tin can is big business!

Let's Hope It Ends As The Fable Did

By Your District Agriculturist

"GREEN ACRES"

DEHORNING CATTLE

Do it when they are young. As Charlie Gordon, Livestock Supervisor at Edmonton says, "When the calves are dehorned early it is easier on both the animal and operator." Dehorning paste is recommended, of course. I have calf dehorners for loan at my office. These dehorners are used at any time from one month to four months.

KILL THE INSECTS

Don't forget to use Aldrin or Chlordane on the onion rows to protect the crop from onion root maggots. Especially in towns and villages it is now impossible to grow onions without treating with chemicals to kill the maggots.

Another pest that does a lot of harm is the plant lice on larkspur (delphiniums). Watch the new growth in the spring and spray with black leaf 40 if any plant lice (aphids) are seen. Many good larkspur plants are lost each year from aphid infestations.

GREEN SALADS AND WINE

The specialist in nutrition at Edmonton reports that young tender dandelion leaves make a delicious salad. I thought all that dandelions were good for was making wine! By the way, has anyone got a good recipe for dandelion wine? I lost mine just at the end of the depression.

INSECTS IN STORED GRAIN

Some farmers have reported their stored grain as being infested with rusty grain beetle or mites. Farmers ought to have a look at their granaries once in a while to see if insects are working in the grain. If any are found it might be best to bring in some samples to this office.

LLOYDMINSTER BULL SALE

On May 31st, 145 purebred bulls will be offered for sale at Lloydminster. The show starts at 8:30 a.m. and the sale at 1 p.m. Even if you don't need a bull it is a good place for stockmen to meet. There is always something new to see and to learn at these sales.

SHEEP SHEARING SCHOOL

Sheep raisers are all invited to a sheep shearing school to take place at the Vermilion School of Agriculture on Friday, June 3rd. It lasts from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Demonstrations on docking, castration, treating for ticks, etc. will also be put on. The experts will pass out a lot of the latest information which will all help to make sheep raising pay off better.

YOUR
FISH and GAME
COLUMN

It would seem as if summer is here, by all the fish stories going around town. The only one I have seen so far with the goods is Paul (Food Locker) Hareuther, who with a friend, car top boat, a three-horse kicker, and a lot of nerve, went out on Cold Lake last Monday and came back with 5 beauties. One of the pike topped the scales at 16 pounds, 12 oz. the one entered in the F & G derby went a little less because Paul didn't catch the big one. He still insists that the biggest one got away, who knows how big it was, but it always makes a good story for those who like fishing to listen to. The weather they say was very cold and you needed two pairs of woolies on to shed the wind. Let's hope it warms up a little and then all go to Frenchman's Bay and see just how big they do grow. While up there they met a chap that just came off the water and when they asked him, "how's fishing?" he replied not too good, only caught a 16 lb. trout that morning. He either had a fisher's dream fish tucked away in his mind or they do grow big in this lake. We hear by the grapevine that Jack Brown has been having a lot of fun catching jack north of the river in the little pond and they tell me that there are quite a few who took the pole and line in hand and enjoyed fishing over the long week end right here at home. We would like to mention the fact that the water going over the dam has weakened the earth on the north side of the river, so for those who like to fish on that side, test the ground under foot before you take a chance. One slip could cost a life and we would rather have more pleasant news in the paper than an obituary.

Your Sec.-Treas.

Letters to the Editor

Hampton Station, R.R. 1,
New Brunswick.
May 15th, 1955.

The Publishers,
Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find two dollars (money order) to cover my subscription to the Standard for another year.

If you could have heard my mother's comment when I mentioned that our subscription must be due, you would have realized how sincerely we appreciate not so much the content as the spirit of the publishers who will put up with and print material far beyond the call of duty for free or at most a nominal charge. The local paper here does not follow such a policy.

Incidentally it is exactly 9 years ago today we took up residence at our present address after leaving the Buffalo Coulee area.

Sincerely,
J. Wm. Titus.

Box 1917, Vermilion.
May 14th, 1955.

The Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Cooper,—

For months now I've been trying to keep two sections of Vermilion Standard together in the magazine rack, so now are we to have three to contend with? Heaven forbid! That's carrying this section business a bit too far, don't you think? You've got a good paper—why spoil it because it's too much trouble to fold it all in one? I know you'll get many a vote of thanks for ONE sixteen or twenty page section of Vermilion Standard.

Yours sincerely,
Ruby Esser.

EDITOR'S NOTE — The above letter was intended for last week but was crowded out. The facts are that folding machines handle the newspaper in sections of eight pages so that each eight pages constitutes a section. Large newspapers such as the Edmonton Journal are printed on a different type of press entirely and the papers are folded in together as they leave the press. The cost of such a press runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars. The only alternative to the present method would be to hand fold. Hand folding a 16-page issue and putting it together in all its various phases would require 22,000 hand folds and 6000 inserts, not to mention jogging and piling, fully 40 hours of monotonous non-profit labor.

The Standard receives fully a dozen weekly newspapers each week and all those of regular size are put together in sections exactly the same as the Standard. It is acknowledged that one compact section is better but there is no way within the financial reach of a town weekly to achieve this. The writer puts his paper into one section at home, (which is a very simple operation) and has little trouble thereafter keeping it together.

One ray of hope exists however. It is not likely that many three section issues will be required.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Occupational Skin Diseases

Occupational skin diseases are more common than all other types of occupational diseases combined—and are becoming a major health problem for industry—according to Dr. Louis I. Dublin, medical statistician.

"About one per cent of the industrial workers in the U. S. are affected annually by occupational dermatoses, and in some fields the incidence is as high as one out of 13 workers," Dr. Dublin says.

Absenteeism due to skin disease increased over one-third in the one-year period covered by a recent study of industrial plants in the United States. Skin disease was reported as an occupational hazard in such major modern industries as aircraft plants, railroad shops and [illegible].

However, medical specialists from several countries now report that the hydrocortisone hormone, applied locally, will ease the disfiguring blemishes occurring in a wide variety of these ailments. Cortef ointment has proved effective against hives, poison ivy, diaper rashes, insect bites, occupational dermatitis and [illegible] eczema.

"The results are sufficiently dramatic," reports the American Journal of Surgery, "to speculate that the hormones may do for the field of dermatology what the antibiotics have done for the specialty of ear, nose and throat."

Dr. Frederick Kalz and his associates in Montreal reported on a recent clinical study of [illegible] patients in the Canadian Medical Association Journal. They found the ointment "most effective" in the relief of a variety of acutely inflammatory and itching skin conditions.

Mannville Plans Annual Dominion Day Celebration

MANNVILLE. — Plans are being completed for the 1st of July celebration to be held here this year. This will be the Alberta Golden Jubilee celebration for Mannville and district, and special features will be added to the program. The Lloydminster Lions brass band will lead the grand parade in which 1000 children will take part, along with decorated cars, and floats from all business places and local organizations.

There will be baseball, midway and platform attractions along with rides for children and adults.

The fireworks display and the big barbecue arrangements are well underway.

The local square dance club is planning to have a big jamboree with a special caller, while the modern dancers will be well supplied with first class music by an Edmonton orchestra.

All in all plans are well in advance of any other year and Mannville has celebrated the 1st of July continuously since 1905.

Many of those old time citizens who were at the first celebration in 1905 will be presented with an illuminated scroll along with many others who were in Alberta prior to that date. These citizens will be well taken care of as they will receive complimentary tickets in the form of a medallion, as well as distinguished visitors badge supplied by the Mannville Old Timers club.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

For the benefit of those who could not make it to our dance last Thursday, we all had a really grand time. The crowd, while not as big as usual, was very good, and believe it or not, it wasn't too hot. The ventilation in the Legion hall is almost as good as the sound. Henry Lien, our guest caller, was in his usual good form and everyone had a grand time.

We had visitors from Marwayne, Greenlawn, Wainwright, Paradise Valley and Mannville.

Two squares of Circle Eight dancers travelled to Vegreville to hear Johnny Trout of Wetaskiwin. The more outside callers we hear, the more we realize how good our own Harold Schacher and Henry Lien really are.

This is the last call for tickets for the jubilee square dance festival. It would be nice to see the whole club turn out. I am sure you will have a good time, and it's not often we get a chance to dance to an outstanding caller like Arnie Kronenberger for only 50c. So come on, Vermilion, get your tickets now. They are on sale at Stephens and Craigs, and from Ken at the Alberta Pacific.

Once more the committee in charge of the jubilee dance would like to impress on everyone's mind —DON'T DRIVE INTO THE V.S.A. GROUNDS. Parking on the fair grounds will be supervised and the R.C.M. Police have promised to patrol the parking area during the evening.

Incidentally the Vermilion Stagettes are looking after refreshments during and after the dance. Don't rush off — stay and have a cup of coffee and let the crowd thin out gradually.

"SQUARE UP."

Pleasant Valley

It is getting to look more like spring each day with the lovely new leaves and so many buds coming along on the shrubs and berry trees. Everyone is busy. Some are nearly through seeding. Most of the gardens are planted thanks to the good housewives — or do they get any thanks!

Betty Gould spent last week in Edmonton visiting Bill and Lea. Edith Coutts spent the week end with her sister Annie Clark down on the farm.

Daughter Jean and two boys spent the week end at the writer's home while Keith and others went fishing at Cold Lake. How many trout did you catch?

We were sorry to hear of Rena Ronaghan's illness and hope for good news of her when the telephone is working better again. The high winds have been playing havoc with the wires lately.

Had a nice little chat with some of the Islay folk who have been on the sick list too. Mrs. McEachern doing her shopping. Mr. Allan heading for the butcher shop, both are looking real fine again. Ulva McFadyen looking young for his age. Tell us how you do it Ulva.

Noticed Mrs. Shaeffer up the street — so glad you are home again Violet and feeling much better.

The birds, their lovely songs and the spring sunshine seems to make one feel much better. It's nice to get out although winds are cold yet.

The writer and Jean visited at the Moore home Sunday afternoon. Ken Shaw and family spent the week end with Gordon and Doreen on the farm.

Billy Bothwell was home from Regina visiting his parents.

On Monday the writer visited Lila and enjoyed it very much. Those sandwiches were good Lila, shall I tell you what was in them?

She has wandered into an unknown

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she

So think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of

Think of her still as the

NEW FUA OFFICE CONTRACT AWARDED

The contract for the construction of the new F.U.A. headquarters was warded to James C Haddow Construction is to begin almost immediately and completion date will be about Sept. 30th. The plans were drawn up by Rose Stanley, Architect.

For about 800 years Finnish women have shouldered men's burdens while the men were away at war. Today says the June Reader's Digest, women make up 89% of Finland's pharmacists, 77% of her dentists, 21% of her doctors and all of her barbers, streetcar conductors and sleeping car porters.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Food On Your Table

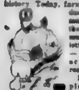
With the world's population growing at a terrifying rate—in the past decade it has increased by some 250,000,000 — food has become an essential factor in our future survival.

The problem of feeding humanity has been a great one throughout history. Today, farmers must produce more food to meet the needs of the world and they must do it on existing farm land — for additional acreage is not readily available.



Scientists are playing an important role in aiding the farmer to get more food on your table.

Consider, for example, what has been done with antibiotics in just a few years. They have been used in agriculture to stimulate growth in poultry and livestock. Terramycin, when added to ordinary rations, produces faster weight gains and enables the farmer to get his hogs, chickens and turkeys to market sooner.

A combination of antibiotics in a spray called Agri-mycin has been proved effective in fighting bacterial disease in plant life.

This antibiotic spray will improve world food outlook through its control of many plant diseases which cannot be curbed with standard chemical formulations.

Among these plant life are bacterial spot of tomatoes and peppers, blacking and soft rot of potatoes, halo blight of beans and fire blight of apple and pear trees.

Thus, the antibiotics that save human life by attacking infection may also prevent deaths from malnutrition by putting more food on the table.

SPRING HARVEST IN THE WOODS

The drive is on. And the annual pulpwood harvest is again rushing, crashing, and tumbling down the flood-swollen waterways to the nation's pulp and paper mills.

And this is only the beginning. For this woodland wealth will soon be converted into a host of useful products from pulp and newsprint to building board, and wrapping paper to rayon, explosives, and photofilm.

It is all part of an operation that puts money in the pocket of every Canadian, for pulp and paper making employs more people and pays more wages than any industry in the land, and it is the leading producer and exporter as well.

But the river drive with its swirling waters, and nimble, brightly clad "jacks" is the most picturesque and spectacular part of the whole business.

Town Now Much Cleaner; 120 Truck Loads Trash Hauled Away

On Wednesday, May 18 at 8:00 a.m. a fleet of local trucks commenced picking up piles of trash from the lanes and other accessible places around town. For weeks previous the citizens of Vermilion had been reminded of this event and asked to co-operate in this effort to clean and tidy up our town by liberal news items and advertising space in the Standard, by Block Captains and by the Civic Committee of the Board of Trade.

The response was excellent. However as is usual in such campaigns, a few people do not see fit to co-operate. This year it is believed more people seemed to be interested in having their premises clean and tidy than ever before. The result was that more than 120 loads of trash were hauled to the town dump.

Last year the count showed over sixty loads removed, but an all day rain made it difficult for the men with the trucks to do a proper job. This year it was a different story, the weatherman co-operated to the best of his ability and as a result over twice the amount of trash was removed on Wednesday and Thursday.

The clean-up campaign is still in progress, but is being handled now with town [illegible]. There are still many piles of rocks to be moved; old car bodies to be hauled away and other odds and ends to be attended to. If anyone has an ancient auto or rubbish pile which may not have been ready for the trucks last week they are requested to phone Mr. C. Weldon, town engineer or the chairman of the Civic Committee of the Board of Trade, Dr. D. P. Hanlan.

The Board of Trade is making plans for the suitable celebration of Vermilion's Golden Jubilee this summer, and therefore it is especially important that the town be neat and clean as many visitors are expected during the season.

In the special mention department Acheson Farm agency has again arranged a clean, attractive display of machinery while Herzogs and Webbs garages have made their premises especially attractive. Our girls at the telephone exchange gave much valuable help in the organization details and their extra services were much appreciated. The Block Captains, however, were the key personnel, for without their efforts and supervision many places would have been left untidy.

The Board of Trade, therefore, wishes to take this opportunity to thank one and all for their part in making the 1955 clean-up [illegible] such a huge success.

By its original charter the Hudson's Bay Co. had the right to make war or peace in its Canadian territories against any prince or people who were not Christians.

Greenlawn News

The May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Jones, 14 members and one visitor present. This was a nice attendance considering the busy month. One lady and her Volkswaggen assisted two other ladies to be present.

It was decided that the money previously sent in be used for library books for Gr. 1 to 6 rooms in Dewberry schools.

"Operation Mop Up" planned for Wednesday, June 1st for Greenlawn hall. If duties at home are not too pressing we would like to see a good turn out as many hands will make light work of the job.

A discussion on Farm Women's Week which is around the first week in July, was tabled until the June meeting. There is a full program each day or one may attend the complete course.

Discussion re Aldrin powder for onion maggots revealed that it was very successful and more and more gardeners are now turning to it to save their onion crop.

The June meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Stone.

A nice lunch was served by our hostess when the meeting was adjourned.

Experience is a teacher,
But here's what makes me burn;
She's always teaching me things
I do not care to learn.

GRADUATE NURSES TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Graduate Nurses' Association will be held Tuesday May 31 at 8 p.m. in the hospital.

SEEDTIME and HARVEST

SOIL MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES

With so many people talking about soil conservation and soil management, it appears possible that a good deal of confusion may exist regarding the whole matter. However, if the recommendations generally made are studied carefully it will be found that they are all based on certain fundamental principles. No single soil-management program will fit all farms, but regardless of the size of your farm or where it is situated certain basic facts still apply.

A sound soil-management program must provide: (1) The necessary plant food required for high yields. (2) Good tilth to allow for proper root development, water intake and aeration. (3) Protection against wind and water erosion.

Know Your Farm. Great differences exist between farms in the type of program to which they are adapted. In choosing crops to be grown, consideration must be given to the type of soil on the farm, the annual precipitation and the length of the frost-free period in the area. Basic to the above, however, is the tilth or physical condition of the soil and the plant food available in it. On older soils which have grown cereals for many years, the tilth or physical condition may be so poor as to materially affect crop yields. If this is so, the addition of organic matter through the return of crop residues and the growing of forage crops may be the first consideration. If available plant food is still low, the addition of commercial fertilizers may be [illegible].

Prevent Erosion. The prime objective of any sound soil management program is the prevention of wind and water erosion. Soil productivity cannot be maintained if heavy annual soil erosion losses occur. It is estimated that in areas where intensive grain farming is practiced, 25 times as much plant food is lost annually through erosion as is used by crop growth.

Be sure to give soil management principles full attention in planning your future farm program.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane, Women's Travel Authority

Have you ever gone on an extended trip and come back with even less than you started out with? Yes, it can be done — and there's no particular secret about it, either.

Disposable items, whether commercial products or your own invention, can save time, trouble and precious packing space if you give the idea a little thought. Here are a few ideas I've run in to recently:

Soap filled paper tissues in handy 'match book' style and washcloths made from paper are inexpensive and can be tossed away after one using. Trial size cosmetics in tiny boxes and bottles save an amazing amount of space and weight with the added advantage of growing smaller as you go along.

For families with babies, disposable diapers, paper bibs, tissues and tiny paper cups for measuring formulas are well known space savers. Complete paper plate, cup and utensil outfits are a 'must' for those who like to economize with picnic meals along the road.

Before you start your next trip make a list of items you can replace with disposable ones — the result will probably surprise you.

And try one of the best tricks of all: Take along a laundry parcel post case and when with the trip half over, you have accumulated a pile of soiled clothes — just stop at the nearest post office and mail them home.

FARM IMPLEMENT PRICES

Maintained at Low Level of Increase

Throughout the past ten years farm implements have offered more and more in time and labour saving advantages. In fact, owing to the scarcity and high cost of skilled labour, farmers found in mechanization the means to maintain their operations efficiently and profitably.

And the chart above clearly shows an outstanding achievement by the Company in maintaining prices at a low level of increase over 1941. The index for Massey-Harris prices of implements and tractors sold in Canada has increased by only 66.8% from 1941, whereas the index of "all commodities" shows an increase of 76.8%. The index of raw materials that go into farm implements is up by 80.2% and the index of hourly rates of pay in Massey-Harris-Ferguson Canadian plants is up by 173.9%. Farm products prices index is 76.1% higher and the index of farm labour wage rates is 170.2% over that of 1941.

To place equipment in the hands of the farmer at the lowest price practicable, farm implement prices over the years have been held to an exceptionally low level of increase in the face of the great advances in the cost of labour and materials.

In ability to do a lot of work quickly and easily, in quality of materials and workmanship and in price, farm implements and tractors offer exceptional value for the money.

Gardening is unkind to women's hands. However, there are some invisible work gloves on the market — a white cream called Pro-Tek which keeps dirt from getting into the pores of the skin and under the nails. ## Garden Boom

Canadians apparently plan to spend more time around the garden and in the backyard this year than ever before, reports The Financial Post.

Their planning, and spending, are causing the biggest boom yet for plant nurseries, manufacturers and retailers of outdoor furniture and even swimming pool builders.

The 'green thumb' urge and the desire to relax in the outdoors is increasing business as much as 25 per cent for those firms that cater to 'leisure'.

This relatively new 'leisure industry' already is growing rapidly as Canadians continue to spend considerable time, effort and money on preparing the proper setting for relaxation.

Pretty Wedding At United Church

ENGELKING—CURTIS

On Wednesday afternoon May 4 at 2:30 the United church, Vermilion was the setting of a pretty wedding when Miss Betty Josephine Curtis, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs. J. A. Curtis of Heinsburg, became the bride of Mr Lloyd Engelking, second son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Engelking of Mannville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a strapless floor-length gown of nylon net and lace over satin. Her matching lace bolero featured a Peter Pan collar and lily point sleeves. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewelry was a matching necklace and earring set of Alaska black diamonds which was a gift of the groom.

Miss Esta Curtis, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a strapless aqua ballerina-length gown of nylon lace over taffeta with a matching bolero, headdress and gloves. She wore a choker of pearls and pearl ear[illegible] which was a gift from the bride. Her [illegible] was of pink carnations.

Mannville Welcomes New Anglican Rector

MANNVILLE. — In a social get-together in the parish hall following the service Monday evening in Christ Church, Mr. and Mrs. C. MacPherson were welcomed to the parish by the church congregation. On behalf of those present Mr. James Johnstone, Vicar's Warden, expressed the appreciation of the church people of again having a resident minister. He promised Mr. MacPherson that they would do all that was possible to build the parish up. Mr MacPherson thanked Mr. Johnstone and the rest of the congregation for the warm welcome and mentioned that the Mannville parish had a wonderful reputation throughout the diocese for the manner in which they had kept the church going without a regular minister. He was sure that Mrs. MacPherson and himself would enjoy being here and working in the parish.

In the afternoon more than 40 attended a tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Coulter in Chailey after the service at St. Alban's. Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson were the guests of honor.

GIGANTIC BEE ON ISLAY FARM

Twenty-six tractors with a full line of equipment and several additional men turned up at the farm of Mrs. Noah Carey south of Islay at 6 a.m. one day last week. They cultivated and tilled, drilled and harrowed, and by sundown 215 acres had been seeded to wheat, oats and barley. The bee for Mrs. Carey and family was organized and carried out by her neighbors, despite the very rushed season. Neighboring ladies turned in and helped Mrs. Carey feed the big crew while still other ladies sent food supplies. It was a neighborly act, carried out on a very large scale.

How To Fight Poison Ivy

The North American Continent is the only area in the world infested with the three-leaved plant which brings discomfort and misery to millions of country dwellers and nature-loving city folk each year. Captain John Smith, one of the earliest English settlers on this continent, described poison ivy as the cause of a disease that lasts for two weeks.

This widespread plant, with its two cousins, poison oak and poison sumac, contains oils causing susceptible persons to break out in an itchy rash which can develop into spreading blisters and, eventually, into open, itchy sores.

Until recently, John Smith's report on the time it takes to get over a case of poison ivy was accurate. Nowadays, however, medical science has provided a drug which prevents the condition, and chemists have developed modern weed killers that help to eradicate the noxious plant.

The most important [illegible] in prevention of poison ivy is the knowledge that you have been exposed. Poison ivy has a characteristic 'three-leaf' cluster, the surface of the leaves being smooth and glossy, or sometimes hairy. Doctors at Syracuse University recently conducted tests which showed that a preparation called [illegible] Lotion with [illegible] will completely prevent the irritating rash of poison ivy if the medication is applied within eight hours of exposure. [illegible] ... The doctors say that if you don't get the [illegible] lotion on before the rash starts, the remedy will still help relieve the itching.

For patches of ivy growing in the yard or in places where children play, commercial sprays containing 2, 4-D or a chemical called [illegible] ... sprays should be applied in hot clear weather during the second of poison ivy's two growth periods. This occurs when the leaves are fully formed. The spray should be applied generously. After two or three days the plants will wilt. At this time, using gloves or newspapers which are thrown away after use, you can dig and pull the plants up by the roots. It is particularly dangerous to burn poison ivy since the toxic oils are carried in the smoke and can cause serious poisoning if the smoke is inhaled.

Care and a bit of planning are needed to avoid the misery of poison ivy, but those who have suffered from the disease are only too happy to be able to do something about this bane of vacationers. Thanks to weed chemicals and [illegible] Lotion with [illegible] poison ivy can now be conquered [illegible].

Great Display Of Aircraft Planned For June 11th

EDMONTON. — Saturday, June 11 has been officially proclaimed Air Force day and all R.C.A.F. units in the Edmonton area are jointly planning what is considered to be the largest aerial and static display ever to be held in the city. Wing Commander Harold Saunders, acting CO, stated that "Know your Air Force" will be the theme of an 'open house' to be held at R.C.A.F. Station Namao from 1 to 5 p.m.

Wg Cmdr Saunders stated there are so many features planned that he was unable to list them all at the present time but he felt this was to be the best Air Force Day ever held in the Edmonton area. He added that this day will provide the opportunity for all to know their air force better and hoped that this 'at home' would serve to further the many close friendships already existing between citizens of Edmonton and surrounding districts and the R.C.A.F.

The aerial display which will feature modern jet aircraft from Central Experimental and Proving Establishment, Namao, and R.C.A.F. Station Cold Lake, C-119 Flying Boxcars of 435 Transport Squadron, Mitchell light bombers of 418 'City of Edmonton' auxiliary squadron, and types of aircraft used by 105 Communications and Rescue Flight for search and rescue duties, will commence at 2 p.m.

A highlight of the jet display will be the breaking of the sound barrier by an F-86 Sabre. CF-100 all-weather fighters and T-33 Silver Star aircraft will be seen in rocket firing, aerobatics and formation flying.

C-119 Transport aircraft will complete a supply dropping operation to demonstrate the use of mono-rail installations in this gigantic aircraft which permits rapid dropping of tons of supplies.

105 Communications and Rescue flight together with the internationally famous para-rescue team of Tactical Air Command will display modern rescue procedures climaxed by parachute jumps to a simulated casualty.

Edmonton's own Mitchell light bomber squadron will display the techniques of tactical bombing when they drop 'jellied gasoline' bombs. The bombs burst into flame on impact and will provide the audience with a fiery spectacle as well as to demonstrate the usefulness of this type of weapon.

All types of aircraft flown in the aerial display will be on static display beforehand at 1 p.m.

For those who would like to fly in an R.C.A.F. aircraft provision is being made for a number of lucky program numbers to be distributed and holders will be given the opportunity to see Edmonton from the air.

Transportation facilities for the public from Edmonton to Namao are being arranged and will be announced later.

The Corner-Stone Is Symbolic

EDMONTON — Alberta Public Welfare Minister R. D. Jorgenson, speaking at the laying of the corner-stone at the new St. Mary's Boys' Home, said the corner-stone of the Home was "symbolic". Mr. Jorgenson said the corner-stone of any building is necessary to keep the walls together — the corner-stone of St. Mary's he said, was necessary to hold together a way of life.

The laying of the corner-stone at the new boys' home technical school took place on Sunday May 15. Rt. Rev. W. B. Carleton appearing on behalf of the Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, Archbishop of Edmonton, recalled the early days of the home. He said it had come a long way since it was first started.

Mayor Hawrelak of Edmonton, commenting on the work of the Salesian Fathers, who operate the home, called it a "service beyond appraisal". Stanley McQuaig, Q.C., president of Edmonton Community Chest, said the home marked the opening of a new day in the lives of homeless boys in the province. Hon. Lucien Maynard, in replying to the addresses of the guests on behalf of the priests and the boys, commented that it was a work designed to keep the boys on the right track toward good citizenship and away from crime. "We want to keep these boys out of Bowden Institute," he said.

The home was taken over by the Salesians in the fall of 1951 and since then a campaign conducted in Edmonton and Northern Alberta has raised 150 thousand dollars. The Salesian Order which makes a life work of training boys in arts and crafts, donated another $250,000 to enable the construction of the building which was dedicated. It is expected to be opened by September.

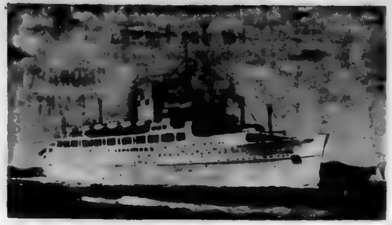
The Newest of the "Great White Empress" Fleet



When Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth christens the new liner Empress of Britain at launching ceremonies on the River Clyde on June 22, a new page will be written in the long and proud history of the "Great White Empress" fleet of the Canadian Pacific Steamships. Above is an artist's conception of the streamlined, 22,500-ton vessel, slated for sea service in the spring of 1956.

Foot-wise, men and women have deteriorated considerably since our ancestors romped over rocks and pebbles in bare feet. Most of today's tender-footed swimmers need shoes right to the water's edge. ## Islay Plans Jubilee Celebration June 9

For June 9th Jubilee of Alberta celebrations the several organizations have combined to stage a full afternoon of entertainment for the community. It will begin with the school pageant, then ball games and many other sports to suit all ages, a basket picnic where all sit down together, coffee will be supplied and there will be a booth dispensing the articles children like. The pioneers who were here in 1905 and previously will be honored in some way — we hope all come. Admission adults 25c.

The monthly meeting of the W.A. for June 2 will be at Mrs. Dave Martin's. It is the missionary meeting and we hope to see a crowd of ladies there, Mrs. Landell, Mrs. Axley Sr., Mrs. Linton, etc., whom we haven't seen for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Halverson and two children of Wetaskiwin dropped in to Islay for the holiday week end and visited with Mrs. Ruby Inman, all the men were away fishing, also on Monday we had a call from Mr. and Mrs. Gerhart who lived here and had a garage about fifteen years ago, now living in Daysland.

Frank Stone and Rosalie of Edmonton spent the week end holiday with Misses Muriel and Gladys Stone. They made a call on Dave Hanna at Charlie Hanna's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Palin, Billie and Jack, also Mrs. Roy Stone had Sunday dinner with Gladys and Muriel Stone.

Mr. Henry Olds and girls, also Mrs. Violet Schaffer, motored to Edmonton on Saturday to see Mrs. Olds who is a patient in the University hospital and found Mrs. Olds at the home of her daughter Bertha, Mrs. Dave Riley.

The W.A. will serve lunch Saturday night June 4 at the Canadian Propane Ltd. Operation Blue Flame. This will be a two hour entertainment, educational and interesting. A comedy film is expected too, so come along it is free. Lunch sold at very reasonable rates.

On Wednesday, May 18 many of the farmers of the community — we believe 26 tractors and various implements—arrived at the farm of Mrs. Norah Carey and in one day, all her crop was seeded.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Shaw and two children, also Mrs. Dick Bootsman and Shirley all of Edmonton, visited relatives here over the week end.

Tuesday evening school teams from Kitscoty and Dewberry played ball with the Islay school teams. Results for the visitors were good but not so good for Islay, but with more practise for the home teams we look for better results.

Mrs. Manz and Mrs. A. E. Williams spent the holiday visiting with relatives and friends at Fort Saskatchewan.

WEED PROBLEMS AHEAD? FIGHT WEEDS WITH CHEMICALS

Weeds are bad news for farmers anywhere, anytime — but they can be a real problem in Western Canada this year. Delayed seeding, combined with unusually wet soil conditions, will limit pre-seeding cultivations for weed control, and favor early, rapid and vigorous weed growth. This year, then, the timely and proper use of 2,4-D, MCP, and other herbicides will be more important than ever in controlling weeds in growing grain crops. Here are the important steps leading to a successful chemical weed control program.

(1) Know your weeds. Examine your weed problem and then use the right chemical in the right amount at the right time. (2) Choose the right chemical. 2,4-D should be your first choice for wheat and barley crops. In general, the Ester form of 2,4-D is best. MCP, rather than 2,4-D, is recommended for oats and flax, and where wheat and barley are seeded to alfalfa and clovers. (3) Use the right dosage. Follow chemical manufacturer's instructions closely as to the rate of application. (4) Treat early. Early treatment eliminates weed competition at a time when weeds are most damaging to grain crops. Furthermore, it will do a better weed-killing job at lower cost. Get those weeds early! (5) Watch growth conditions. There's a right and a wrong time to apply 2,4-D and other chemicals to small grain crops. Follow recommendations closely. Wheat, oats and barley can be most safely and effectively treated when the plants have reached a height of 3 inches. Flax should be treated very early — as soon as the flax plants have 3 leaves. (6) Avoid damage. Special care should be exercised in the application of 2,4-D and MCP to grain crops growing near sensitive crops, ornamental plants, shrubs or trees.

Plan your chemical weed control program now. Make sure your machine is ready, and have your chemicals on hand. Above all — treat early. The wise and careful use of chemicals to control weeds will pay high dividends to western grain farmers in 1955.

Violin and Piano Recital June 4th

MANNVILLE. — Violin and piano pupils of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Elliott will hold a recital at 8 p.m. on June 4 in the school gym. Everybdoy is welcome to attend. These have been very pleasing performances each year and I am sure that those who do attend will thoroughly enjoy the young people who are playing.

Dr. D. P. Hanlan plans to attend the Western Canada Chiropractic convention which will be held in Saskatoon from June 1 to 4.

Visitors here for the holiday week end were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mullan and family from Hobbema. While here they were guests at the home of the former's brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Welsh of Edmonton were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welsh for the Victoria Day week end.

WOODVALE NOTES

Needless to say this has been a busy two weeks in the district! The tractors going almost day and night and the women all doing their share of work in the gardens.

NEW STUDENT MINISTER

Mr Ralph Bradley of Tasmania is our new student minister and he brought his bride with him to the west. They are staying with Mrs. M Watson, with whom I am sure a most successful and happy summer in our midst.

Shortly after his arrival a meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. McQuid, with Rev. Williams of Lloydminster and Rev. Graham and Rev Nugent of Edmonton present. The latter was a student minister here in the early thirties.

The F.U.A held a meeting on the 12th and discussed plans for a local picnic. The day is set for July 6. Mr F Slocum is on one of the committees to look after the big farm every day picnic in Vermilion June 10

Mr and Mrs Wolters went to Lashburn Saturday to the funeral of a former neighbor and friend Mr. W Freeman who spent this winter in the Saskatoon Veterans' hospital where he died. He was buried in the Lloydminster Veterans' plot. Sincere sympathy goes to Mrs. Freeman and her children.

We are writing these notes early as we will have as guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Van Tyen of Red Deer and their baby. Mrs. F Van Tyen of The Hague, Holland, who is spending the summer with them. We have not seen her in 25 years we will have a lot to talk about and also our talk!

Last week our daughter and husband (Mr. and Mrs. Tom Icke of Calgary) spent the week end with us.

Remember the Red Cross meeting and quilting bee at the home of Mrs. M Watson on June 1. There will be a box filled with clothes for the W.A. of the Presbyterian church in Edmonton.

WOODVALE WINS

Just heard that the Woodvale girls won in their age class at the ball tournament in town. Congrats. As they come from all the districts around here and only meet and practice during school intermission periods, it is quite a feat to be proud of

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

HINT FOR SUCCESS

Walter Russell, one of the world's most famous sculptors and philosophers, knew a great many successful men — and from observing them, formulated a few theories about success and how it is achieved. He noted that all successful men have three particular qualities in common, and he suggests that we can all improve at least some of these qualities.

"The most conspicuous of these qualities," writes Russell, "is that they all produce a prodigious amount of work. The second is that they never know fatigue, and the third is that their minds grow more brilliant as they grow older instead of less brilliant. Great men's lives 'up at the top' where the mediocre man's life ends."

It was Walter Russell's firm conviction, expressed when he had reached the age of 64 and was still very active himself, that nearly all men have consummate genius within them. The key that releases genius is desire. When a desire becomes so intense that a man will work for it rather than merely dream about it, he is on his way to huge success.

Pleasant Valley News

The time seems to fly when one is visiting we had so much to see and to talk about with those we visited. Our next visit was to New Westminster to see Mr. and Mrs. Kernaker of the Bentzi district. We found them both well and very glad to see folks from home. They have a very pretty home too. Both we knew it another day had gone and we were saying goodbye. Went back to Rose's home and enjoyed another delicious lunch before bus time. That same evening Arthur Gould arrived at Andie's to take yours truly up to Holly Burn to visit a mutual friend while Lily and Andie visited with Mrs. Van den Dolder's daughter Florence.

On Saturday we visited around the stores during the afternoon and then at 7:30 p.m. we had farewell to all the kind friends and homes we found so sweet on the banks of the range, where the wind blows and it feels like snow' This brings to mind that when we started on the trip the snow was so deep that we could not get out with the car so hubby drove with the team to Ken Reid's where a cup of tea was enjoyed. Ken thought it must be Indians on the road travelling with team and wagon. A little later Mrs. Giles picked us up there and drove us into Vermilion. We did get stuck in one bad place but made it by midnight. The next morning we started off and travelled two days and two nights around the mountains to arrive at our destination at the coast.

A Hearty Appetite For Oil

Canadians, reports The Financial Post, have a big appetite for oil. Per person we are the second highest users in the world. As a country we are the world's third largest consumer. The third of the consumers are owned by oil. There is one motor vehicle for every four Canadians, three tractors for every 100 occupied farms.

It is a steady race between production and consumption. Two years ago we were producing less than 10% of our requirements. Now we are up to almost half, but the annual gains have been getting smaller since the first big jumps after Leduc discovery in Alberta. Why? Because consumption, too, has started up over 50% in the last 5 years.

Health Unit Notes

WHAT TO DO FOR ARTHRITIS

The most important thing to do if symptoms of arthritis develop is to consult a physician. The earlier treatment is started the more relief can be obtained. It is a great mistake to eat until the joints are stiff. Specific treatment will vary with the type of arthritis. The general health may need to be built up and any teeth abscesses, infected tonsils or sinuses or any other forms of infection would need to be cleared up.

Rest for the whole body is important. During the acute phase, rest is be may be necessary although certain daily exercises may be prescribed to prevent joint stiffness. In the later convalescent stages short rest periods during the day may be advisable. In both types of arthritis care should be taken to avoid strain, injury and excessive use of joints.

Emotional stress plays a large part in arthritis and a person will improve much more rapidly if he can avoid worry and despondency.

The Editor,
Vermilion Standard,

Dear Sir:—

May I again beg the privilege of having my letter printed in The Standard, to keep the public informed, as has been suggested by other of your correspondents.

Mr. Galloway in his last published letter, states that the Islay Hospital Board knows very well what most of the people want. It was because of that fact that the Board did not call a general meeting.

Because of continued harping, Mr. Editor, on the lack of co-operation on the part of the Board, may I point out once again, that the opportunity has never been given. At no time has a delegation been sent to meet the Board, or representation been made directly in any form. Is the Board a collection of ogres, that they cannot be met personally? I fail to see how Mr. Galloway can be in a position to judge the merits of a Board as a group, when there are two members of that Board who have not as yet had the pleasure of meeting him.

In reference to a point that seems to be causing some people considerable concern, namely the fact that the hospital is not operating at 100% of capacity, I would like to cite a situation which occurs quite often, and will continue to happen, unless people become sick at more opportune times than they do at present.

Due to classification of patients on a sex, age and diagnosis basis, it is an easy thing to be full in one department, to a certain class of patients, and have plenty of room otherwise. Normal occupancy is considered to be 75% of maximum rated bed capacity, and the statistical return of the Department of Health shows that mighty few Alberta hospitals attain that percentage on a yearly basis. In fact, some Alberta hospitals are building new wings on 37 to 60% occupancy. To attain a high occupancy percentage a hospital has to have the right number of the right kind of patients at all times. One maternity or one surgical case too few can knock down the average considerably.

There are differing points of view in relating a hospital's usefulness to the community which it serves. To date the viewpoint seems to be for the hospital in the light of an industrial plant, with a production record to attain and maintain.

I, for one, favor a more humanitarian point of view. To me, the hospital is not a collection of buildings on a hill, standing there, a little work worn, and old fashioned after 41 years of service. To me the hospital is health centre, where fresh and complete stocks of medicines and supplies are maintained, where equipment is provided in readiness for instant use, and where a staff of highly trained profession al people, with experience and know how in the use of that equipment and materials stands ready and willing on a round the clock schedule every day through all the years to render service to all comers, to the best of their ability. If I have need of those skills and services badly enough just once in a lifetime, the 5 mills tax which I pay on my property to maintain those services, I will consider to be money well spent.

In closing, Mr. Editor, may I call to attention two cases both of them young babies, who were brought to this hospital during the past winter. Both of these youngsters required immediate attention and I emphasize the word immediate. I am quite sure that the parents of these babies are giving thanks each in his or her own way, that the Islay Hospital, with its competent staff is still here and functioning therein making unnecessary an extra and possibly fatal half-hour on the road to another hospital.

Yours truly,
E. G. Purves.

Islay, Alberta.

New Industry— New Growth

It's quite a prize when a town gets new manufacturing industry or when one already established branches out, comments The Financial Post. Immediately there follows a chain reaction which brings growth and purchasing power far beyond the direct benefit of the wages added to the local payroll.

Here is what will follow when 100 new employees in manufacturing have been added to the working force of a typical Ontario industrial town:

Industrial output will increase by almost a million dollars a year in industrial purchasing by almost half a million. Nearly 3 millions will be added to municipal taxable assessment. $100,000 more annually paid in corporation taxes, and $970,000 in personal taxes. Three new retail outlets will open in the town and total retail business will be up $400,000. Finally there will be added 300 new cars, 135 additional jobs and 162 new households.

Bowtell Bulletin

The leaves are now lovely and green on your old farm Mrs. McClellan, hope that you are enjoying good health in Edmonton. Mrs. Al Morrison is also in Edmonton baby sitting.

Mr. John Malek was attacked by a coyote while filling his seeder on Monday. He managed to kill the animal with the crank to his tractor. He was lucky to escape with only a torn coat. R.C.M.P. were notified and necessary steps have been taken to see if the coyote was rabid.

The writer enjoyed a chat in town on Saturday with Mrs. C. Davies and Mrs. E. Brass. The Brass family are moving back to Vermilion after many years at the coast. No place like Vermilion folks!

The regular monthly meeting of the Vermilion Home and School Association will be held in the junior high school on Tuesday evening May 31 at 8 p.m. This is the annual meeting and election of officers will take place. A report of the annual convention held at Banff will also be given.

Home and School Meet, Mannville

MANNVILLE. — The regular monthly meeting of the Mannville and District Home and School Association was held on Thursday last in the school gym with a fairly good attendance considering the busy time of the year. Honored guests were Mr. Clendenning the President of Vermilion Home and School and several other members of that Association.

After the regular business of the meeting in which it was decided to enter a float in the July 1st parade, two of the Grade 1 teachers spoke on the first day of school for the beginners and the work that is accomplished in grade 1. Mrs. Brown gave the parents of beginners an idea of what is necessary for the children to know before they come to school. It is much easier for the teacher if the child is able to take off and put on his own coat, etc., be able to sit still for a short period of time and look after himself generally. It is wise to let the child bring a favorite toy to school for the first few days to have something familiar in strange surroundings. A tour of the building, playing in the playground under the supervision of the teacher, a rest period in the afternoon and the handing out of supplies pretty well takes care of the first day of school. Children, up early in the morning and excited about the first day of school are ready for home by that time.

Mrs. Hamilton showed the Big Reader and explained that reading is the most important subject. The readers are accompanied by work books in which the pupils follow up what they have learned in the reader. Science, Art and Music are worked into Enterprise work as is Language. Choral speech and P.T. are also taught in grade 1.

Mrs. Finlay, the delegate to the Home and School convention recently held at Banff gave a very interesting report on the 24th annual convention. A summary of this report will appear in the Standard soon.

The entertainment for the evening was, first a violin duet by Beverly Westover and Lorraine Younge, accompanied by Mrs. Younge; a Russian Folk dance by Mrs. Gamble's pupils accompanied by Joyce Gamble. Both these numbers were enjoyed by the audience.

BOWTELL BULLETIN

Plain Talk

DR. F. MacNEILL SMITH
Liberal Candidate

The Liberal party is by definition the party of progress and reform. In the nineteenth century, it was the party in the forefront of the movement to guarantee freedom of speech, of assembly and of religion, and to extend the franchise to the common man. All European countries have had Liberal parties, but in recent years they have suffered by the rise of various Socialist parties, which are based on economic rather than on political concepts. The primary tenet of the Liberal party is the freedom of the individual. Additionally, we stand for a broad program of social security. We feel that there are certain basic rights due every man: food, shelter, care in illness, and the opportunity to educate his children. We desire as full as possible an extension of our security program, but we do not want the welfare state the individual must preserve his liberty, and must have an opportunity to secure reward for his enterprise. This respect for individual freedom makes the social reformer feel that we are rather slow and bumbling, we do not feel justified in bringing in any social reform before we feel that it meets the approval of the great majority of the people. The imposition of any reform, however well advised, on a reluctant group, to us lacks democracy. We are the party of the middle of the road there is not too much difference between a left wing Liberal and the C.C.F., or between our right wing and the Conservative and Social Credit parties. In our breadth lies our strength.

WILDMERE WINKS

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Matteo (nee Evelyn Howard) of Pequannock, N.Y. on the birth of a daughter Sunday May 15. Both well.

Seeding is going ahead full blast out our way. Some have finished wheat and are busy on oats and barley now. The ladies are doing their bit by attending to the gardening.

On Thursday Peggy Graham of the Royal Alex hospital in Edmonton and a friend spent the day at her home in Wildmere. They returned to the city the same evening. They visited Kenny Graham who was a patient in the hospital for a few days last week.

Mrs. H. McLean and son Hugh and her brother Tommy Cairns all of Vancouver are at present visiting friends in Wildmere and Vermilion. They motored from the coast in Tommy's car. It is 15 years since Tommy left our corner and this is his first visit back. He reports seeing Mr. W. Peachy who used to live west of Vermilion and David McCord who homesteaded in the Thorncliffe area, quite often in Vancouver. It was nice seeing and having a good old chat with these folks once more. Mr. and Mrs. Cairns Sr. are keeping quite well and wish to be remembered to all their neighbors and friends here.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holte were at home to a family gathering. T. B. Wilson of Edmonton was down also, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wilson and brother George Wilson of town, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson and William and Adam Smith and Mr. Plante of Wildmere and the Holte family all sat down to a bountiful turkey supper.

We hear Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen of town, Mrs. McLean, son Hugh and Tommy Cairns were at our church Sunday evening at Basswood. Owing to Kenny being sick the writer was unable to go but glad to hear there was a nice attendance. Come again folks. Mr Plante makes you very welcome.

Mrs. Batke of Basswood journeyed with Waldon Westman and daughter Shirley to Bonnyville on Sunday to get Doreen Batek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Batke who will look after the children while Mrs. Westman is sick. They also visited at other relatives while there.

Several young folks attended the sports in Vermilion on Monday and while it was a rather disagreeable day they enjoyed the many ball games and other activities during the day.

Mumps are still on the go. Marlene Smith, Jim Seale, Martin Gool, Evelyn Whitlock and the Councillor Jim Wallington being the latest victims. Now the measles have started. Johnny and Ricky Bauman and Kenny Graham being sick with them. Always something to take the joy out of life it seems.

Sorry we did not get to say hello to you Mrs. Moore on Saturday but our town stay was short that afternoon.

You must have had a lovely trip and holiday Pleasant Valley scribe, and we are glad you did. Sure enjoyed your account of it in the paper and will be looking for the rest of it this week. We thought you were ill again when we did not see your news items for a time but glad you were enjoying a nice visit instead.

Funniest thing heard: A little girl seeing a sea gull flying over for the first time this spring said while crouched against a fence "It must be a grandfather!"

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

SOME EFFECTS OF ACREAGE RESTRICTIONS

It is now becoming more and more apparent to leading agriculturists in the U.S.A. that one of the great weaknesses in attempting to curb over-production by acreage restrictions, is that, by and large, they apply across the board, making no allowance for variation in farm efficiency, suitability of land etc. The efficient and inefficient, the good farmers and the poor, are treated alike. The result is that there is a minimum of incentive for farms to be devoted to the purposes for which they are best suited.

In Western Canada, fortunately, farmers are still free to raise what crops they wish, unhampered by acreage restrictions that are tied in with price supports. The producer alone decides how his land can be utilized to the best advantage and the acreage of crops he will grow to secure the best returns for his labor. In a year such as this, it is true, it may be necessary in some areas to make last minute and, perhaps, rather drastic changes in seeding plans, but such changes, if they have to be made, will be dictated by Nature and not by man.

Has No Desire For Top Job

Reports originating in Ottawa C.C.F. circles that Premier T. C. Douglas of Saskatchewan probably would be drafted to take on the national leadership of the party in the event of M. J. Coldwell stepping down before the next general election, have been pooh poohed by Mr. Douglas, says Western Business & Industry. He announced publicly that he had no desire to return to Ottawa to sit in the Commons. Mr. Coldwell from the same platform said he never felt better and that he intended to lead the party into the next general election and the one after that.

Employment Plentiful For University Grads.

Employment opportunities for the university graduates this year appear to be about as plentiful as a year ago stated Hon. Milton Gregg, Minister of Labor. He revealed that more than 17,000 employment openings were recorded by the Executive and Professional Division of the National Employment Service from all sources up to April 30. Of this number 4,845 were for graduates while the remainder were summer jobs for undergrads.

Starting salaries for graduates in 1955 were expected to average about the same as in 1954, of which a few samples of median monthly starting salaries were: Engineering (all the branches combined) $300; geology $315; Chemistry $300. Forestry $285; architecture $285. agriculture $280; non-engineering professions combined $290.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE E. KIRK —

First and foremost this week I would like to mention the 4-H Girls' Club Achievement days. The girls have worked long and hard on their projects and would no doubt appreciate your turning out to see their displays and program.

Here are the dates ... and if there is a club in your community, come out and enjoy the day with the girls.

Coat Clothing Club — Thursday, May 26.

Paradise Valley Home Decoration Club — Friday, May 27.

McLaughlin Home Decoration Club — Friday, May 27.

Mannville Clothing Club — Saturday, May 28.

I have just been looking through a booklet about 'industrial design' — in other words the design of articles used in every-day life.

There is a movement in Canada now to develop a truly Canadian type of design. The design we, as homemakers, would be most interested in is that of home furnishings and equipment, of course.

Now the aim of good industrial design is not to make things 'fancy', but to make them work better, look better and be more convenient to use. Good idea? I think so!

To encourage the production of good design in all things, the homemaker-consumer must create a demand for it. And that means we have to know what good design is.

So, here is a series of questions to ask yourself when trying to choose an article of good design. If the answer to each is 'yes', then the article is of good industrial design.

1. Is the shape or form of the article suited to the job it has to do?

2. Is there a 'harmony' between all parts?

3. Is it as simple as it can be in shape and outline?

4. Is there an absence of unnecessary and meaningless ornament?

5. Is it easy to use?

6. Is it comfortable to handle?

1. Is the article adapted to your needs?

2. Is the material (wood, metal, plastic, etc.) suitable for the use for which it is intended?

3. Is it easy to keep clean?

4. Is it economical to operate and can it be repaired readily?

By asking these questions we can all be better shoppers and be much happier in living without white elephants!

Election Machinery Now Rolling in Alberta

EDMONTON. — The international situation, the atom bomb and the weather have fallen from prominence in discussions around the general store and over the coffee counter in Alberta these days.

The major topic of conversation now is the provincial situation and the general election called by Premier Manning for Wednesday, June 29.

Campaign machinery already has started rolling and the various parties have called a number of nominating conventions. Between now and the final day, Albertans will be 'bombarded' from all sides by political talk in a campaign that promises to be the hottest in years.

The big question is: Which party will end up on top? Will Social Credit lose any seats because of the charges made and the general stir created by the opposition members during the recent session of the legislature?

Political observers in the Capital appear to have no doubt that Alberta's next administration will be Social Credit. But whether the opposition will win any seats away from Premier Manning's party is anyone's guess.

Early indications are that the other parties will give Social Credit more opposition this year. The Conservatives and Liberals have announced plans to contest all 61 seats in the assembly. The CCF expect to have anywhere from 40 to 60 candidates in the field.

If the Conservatives can muster 61 candidates, it will be the first time they have done so in 50 years. With popular men chosen as candidates they might win a few seats. And it must be remembered that they surprised everyone in 1954 by electing W. J. C. Kirby for the Red Deer seat after the death of Hon. David Ure, late minister of agriculture.

As things stand at present, there may be as many as 230 candidates seeking election when Albertans go to the polls June 29.

While this makes it appear that Premier Manning's supporters will have stiff opposition, it is evident from past elections that Social Credit commands a great deal of support in Alberta.

Results of the last election — in 1952 — give an indication of Social Credit's strength.

The Social Credit party polled 167,789 votes ... far ahead of its nearest rival, the Liberals, with 66,738 votes. Most of the members were elected on the first count. The CCF party came next with 41,929 and the Conservatives lagged in fourth place with 6,271. This was out of an aggregate 298,335 ballots cast, with the remainder distributed among other parties.

BEHIND THE SCENES

The issues to be fought in the election appear to be shaping up. Social Credit says the election is being called because the Liberals have challenged the right of Social Credit MLA's to sit in the legislature. The party says the election will give the people a chance to denounce the opposition's "destructive tactics".

The Liberals stand behind their charge that Social Credit MLA.s disqualified themselves from membership by dealing with treasury branches. They also add the suggestion that Social Crediters are in a favored position when they want to borrow money from branches.

The Conservatives and CCF say the real issues in the election are more important than the technicality of the members' eligibility to sit in the house.

There probably won't be any new faces among the Social Credit candidates in the provincial election race. Word has it that Premier Manning has urged all members of the last legislature to run again. He is said to have told them that dropping out now might be construed as admitting defeat, and that it is important for the party to show strength and solidity. Several veteran Social Crediters had planned on retiring.

F.U.A. Present Brief

Henry Young, President of the Farmers Union of Alberta, left last Friday night for Ottawa where he took part in presenting a brief to the Agricultural Committee of the House of Commons on Monday, May 23rd. This presentation was made by the Interprovincial Farm Union Council. It dealt mainly with Parity Prices, Crop Insurance and grain handling problems.

Garden Boom

Exhibition Parade To Be Major Attraction

Will Take Place First Day of the Fair Thursday, July 28th

ALL ORGANIZATIONS, BUSINESS PLACES URGED TO PARTICIPATE

Already giving promise to be one of the major attractions for the Jubilee Celebration in this part of Alberta is the Grand Parade which is scheduled for the first day of Vermilion's big Fiftieth Fair, July 28th.

A committee from the Agricultural Society is working with a committee from the Kinsmen Club to forward the organization of the parade and at a recent meeting outlined some of the major items which will be included. Sections have been adopted as follows:

Floats of all kinds requested from Commercial and business organizations
- 4-H Clubs
- Other Communities
- Local Organizations
- F.U.A. and other District Groups
- Square Dance Clubs
- Old Timers Associations
- School Districts
- All others interested.

Arrangements are under way for the utilization of several bands including the well known St. Andrew's Pipe Band, the Dewberry Boys' Band and a military band, and plans call for the placing of loud speakers at strategic points along the route of march so that descriptive comments may be made to enlighten the audience.

In addition to the local and district floats the Provincial Government is sending floats and a large number of light and heavy horses, their riders and drivers in fancy dress will liven the proceedings. Jimmie Sullivan, manager of the 1955 midway has promised that live animals from the complete circus which will be performing on the midway, will be available.

A section is being provided for decorated bicycles and all the youth organizations in town and district are cordially invited to take part.

Arrangements have also been made to have the parade broadcast by our old friend Don Clayton of radio station CJCA and a request has been made to the National Film Board to film the parade and much of the programme of the 50th Anniversary Exhibition.

A cordial invitation is herewith extended to every business firm and every available organization in the district to take part in the gigantic Anniversary Parade on July 28th.

START TO PREPARE NOW — HELP MAKE THIS THE GREATEST PARADE IN ALBERTA!

First Program Of Its Kind In Vermilion

Junior Choir Concert Tonight, Friday, June 3rd, At 8:00

Friday the 3rd (tonight) is the night of the Junior choir concert. This is the first of its kind in Vermilion, the choir consisting of 23 girls whose ages range from 12 to sixteen years who will present a varied program of songs. The object of this concert is to establish a library of junior music and to give the girls an opportunity in the entertainment field. They are under the direction of Jack Brown and will sing numbers such as "Neapolitan Nights" which is a favorite of many; "The Wind at Night" a song which requires delicate shading and is done very well by the choir; "The Song of the Fisher Boats", a rather robust number depicting the life of the men and maidens of a fishing village; "Indian Dawn", a descriptive song which is also done very well by the girls. You will hear too the well known "Barcarolle" by offenbach, sung as a duet by two of the teenagers.

Two solos will be presented by Margaret Goodwin. "The Second Minuet", a delightful number telling the story of the courtship and marriage of Grandmama and Grandpapa. It is sung and told to the accompaniment of the Victorian-style minuet. The second solo, "April Goes A-Walking" is a lively tune, and Margaret has both of these numbers down to perfection.

All in all it boils down to the fact that these girls and their director have worked hard to assure you an evening of splendid music.

Try to be there — in the United church tonight at 8 p.m. Tickets are to be had from members of the choir at the modest price of fifty cents for adults and 25 cents for children twelve and under, or phone Jack Brown at 408 and have your ticket reserved and pick it up at the door. Of course you may just go and pay at the door but don't miss it or you'll be missing one of the better evenings of entertainment.

Demand For Curling Club Shares Is Satisfactory

Requests for shares in the Vermilion Curling club are coming in quite satisfactorily. It is again emphasized that purchasers should buy their shares before June 15. This will enable the Club executive to take stock at that time and if the whole issue isn't subscribed by that time, then the share sale will be made available to anyone anywhere.

If it is your intention to purchase shares, the executive urges you to do so immediately. Plans for the installation of the artificial ice plant will be greatly aided by your prompt action.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce has indicated that they are willing to discuss the financing of shares on the instalment plan.

United Church Erect Large Pavilion At Whitney Lake

Whitney Lake was the scene of great excitement and activity on May 23rd when a work bee from the St. Paul United Church Presbytery was organized to erect a new pavilion for the Youths Camp this summer and many summers to come.

At 11 a.m. Monday morning the lumber was being unloaded at the site of the building. By night fall the pavilion was up, floor to roof. It was a thrilling sight to see some forty volunteer workmen laboring in harmony and co-operation with one purpose in mind, that the youth of the Presbytery have a suitable place in which to spend a profitable summer camp.

This pavilion is 24 feet by 48 feet and will accommodate over 100 campers, with ample space for a kitchen and store room.

Prayers and faith have been the foundation stones of this camp. Before the original pavilion was torn down a week ago and material salvaged, a service of prayer was held for the future of the new building, the camp and future campers. Of course there is still work to be done. Another work bee will be held in the near future at which time all are invited to come and bring your hammer, saw, old clothes, picnic lunch and your family.

SUMMER CAMP DATES

The dates for the youths camps have now been set. Boys' camp, ages 12 and over, under the direction of Rev. C. W. MacKay and a capable staff, July 4 to July 13. Girls' camp under the direction of Miss I. Newton of Vilna, and a capable staff July 13 to July 23.

These camps are open to the boys and girls of the St. Paul Presbytery regardless of denomination.

There are many who would like to do something for the camp, and everything you can do to help will be greatly appreciated. Non-redeemable shares are available at $5 and over, as the future of this camp depends on the financial assistance offered by its many friends. The work has been started ... you are needed to help finish it.

The lake is full this year, the water clear as crystal, the outlook for a glorious summer of camping is at hand for all the youth who [illegible].

FARMERS' PICNIC ON JUNE 10th

MAYOR HAWRELAK GUEST SPEAKER

The Farmers' Picnic of June 10th at the Vermilion fair grounds is sponsored by all of the F. U. A. locals of the district.

There will be sports of interest to young and old, booths where ice cream, soft drinks, hot dogs and coffee will be served and at 2 p.m. Mayor Wm. Hawrelak of Edmonton will give a short address.

Games will start at 10 a.m. and continue throughout the day. There will be opportunities for everyone to take part in some activity. For those who do not want to play, this will be a grand opportunity to visit with your friends.

There will be no gate admission and no parking charge. A silver collection will be taken to help defray expenses and after these are met any money left over will be sent to F.U.A. headquarters and applied to the building fund.

People of town and country are cordially invited to come and have a good time.

Ross Beecroft Severely Injured In Car Accident

Ross Beecroft, 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beecroft, was severely injured in a car accident last Friday night. Ross suffered concussion, a broken collar bone, and broken ribs, but according to reports at press time is now showing marked improvement in condition.

Ross attended the high school graduation dance, and was returning to his home a few miles north of town after the dance when the accident happened. Cause is unknown but the car ran off the west side of the high road at the approach of the north hill. There is a very high and steep embankment at the point he went over. Fortunately Ross was thrown from the car before it completed rolling to the bottom of the embankment. The vehicle is a complete wreck.

Ross' accident was discovered very shortly by some school mates, medical aid summoned, and he was taken to the hospital in Moyer's ambulance.

Pictures Delayed

The cuts of the pictures of the high school graduation failed to arrive and the Standard felt that it was better to hold the entire write-up until next week, and have it appear complete in one issue. So ... watch for the picture of V.H.S. graduates in the next issue of The Standard.

Record Building Year Is In Prospect

New Health Unit Building To Be Most Modern In The Province

The most modern building of its kind is now being constructed in Vermilion for use as the central offices and clinic of the Minburn-Vermilion Health Unit. The new building, owned and constructed by Mr. Saul Clithero, a contractor of Edmonton is being built for rental to the Health unit. It is nicely located one door east of the library.

The building has been designed specifically for health unit purposes by D. Makale, architect of Edmonton. Numerous unit offices were inspected before the plans were made and the best features combined in the Vermilion building.

Overall size of the structure is 40 feet by 40 feet with full basement and according to the plans it appears that nothing has been overlooked. Accommodation has been provided for a spacious waiting room, doctors' offices, examination room, offices for health inspector and nurses.

A rather unique feature is, bearing in mind the many baby clinics held, special consideration is being given to the parking of baby prams. Probably the first time in history that this has been thought of. In rainy weather the prams are in a dry place, and no 'parking' meters.

There is ample storage space for supplies of vaccines, fine space for giving lectures such as first aid courses and room is provided for possible future services such as school dental care.

The staff of the Minburn-Vermilion Health unit has operated these past three years under difficulties due to crowded quarters and they will be able to render a much better preventative medical service from the new and well appointed building. When completed the new structure will be a decided asset to the town, being nicely finished with glass brick trim, tile floors and everything to make a fine modern looking addition to the business section of Vermilion. It is expected to be finished about the middle of August.

Salvation Army Tag Day June 4th

The Salvation Army will hold their annual tag day on Saturday June 4. This will complete the annual Red Shield appeal for funds.

When approached to buy a tag on Saturday give generously, the need is great and the wonderful and widespread work done by the Army is well known to all.

Liberal Nomination Friday At Mannville

The Liberal nominating convention for the provincial constituency of Vermilion will be held at the Mannville Legion hall on Friday, June 3rd at 8:30 p.m. J. Harper Prowse, provincial Liberal leader will address the convention. 48

Premier Douglas To Speak Here

Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan will address the C.C.F. provincial nominating convention which will be held in the Legion hall on Saturday, June 4 at 2.30 p.m.

The meeting is being held in the afternoon as the local C.C.F. executive did not wish to conflict in any way with the Curling Club's big car bingo scheduled for Saturday evening at 9 o'clock.

A committee room has been opened by the C.C.F. in the basement of the Vermilion hotel.

S. D. Track Meet At Kitscoty Friday

Several hundreds of school students will gather at Kitscoty Friday June 3 to compete at the annual track and field meet. Last year the meet was rained out but fair weather is promised for 1955. The meet continues all day long and the events are well worth attending.

Social Credit To Nominate Monday

Vermilion Constituency Social Crediters will choose a candidate for the provincial elections at a nominating convention to be held in the Legion hall, Mannville on Monday evening June 6th at 8 p.m. The speaker for the convention will be W. R. Cornish who has represented the constituency in the legislature for the past eleven years.

City Soccer Teams To Play At Highland Games

Plans are fast materializing for St. Andrew's Highland Games which will be held at the Vermilion fair grounds on Saturday, June 18. Angus McMillan was recently in Edmonton and arranged for two of the regular soccer teams from that city to play an exhibition game at the Games. Soccer was very popular here until some 25 years ago when it passed out of the picture as one of the active sports in rural Alberta.

School Teams To Play

There are signs, however, that soccer is on the comeback and with this in mind two teams of school boys, one from Clandonald coached by Pat Lowes and one from the Vermilion high school coached by Dick ..., will also play during the afternoon at the Highland Games.

This is only part of the program. Watch for posters advertising the complete details. It is shaping up as one of the big attractions of the summer.

National Social Credit Leader To Speak Here

Solon Low, national leader of the Social Credit party and a member of the House of Commons will address a meeting in Vermilion on Friday, June 17th at 8 p.m. in the Legion hall. Mr. Jas. A. Smith of Kitscoty, Social Credit candidate for the federal constituency of Battle River-Camrose will also be a speaker on that occasion.

Second Annual "Learn To Swim" Campaign Is Announced

It is with a great deal of satisfaction that through the co-operation of the Town of Vermilion, and the School of Agriculture, that the Parks board is able to announce the second annual "Learn-to-Swim" campaign. This will commence on July 4. A very thorough course of instruction is offered to all those interested, both young and old, who want to learn to swim, or who may wish to improve their present swimming ability. The course will include water safety in swimming and boating as recommended by the Red Cross course.

The services of Mr. Glen Tuck, a graduate of the University of Alberta in Physical Education, and a member of the staff of the Vermilion school of agriculture will be in charge of all lessons. He will be assisted by one or two persons who will also have had training in the Red Cross swimming and Safety work.

The lessons will be given at the beach in the Vermilion park where very adequate equipment will be available.

For the readers who may not have any knowledge of the development at the beach there are four bathing houses, an H-pier built approximately 75 feet wide and 100 feet long which provides a closed in area in the lower part for small children where the water will only be 2½ feet deep at the ... of the H. In the outer part of the H the swimming instruction will be given as this will give the greater area and depth needed and allow the instructor to keep a close and constant supervision of all those learning to swim. The water will be moving, and fresh at all times, covering the coatings of sand spread by the Parks board.

The whole program will follow that laid out by the Red Cross Society in the Swimming Safety courses and should provide everyone in this north-eastern section of Alberta a chance to have their children learn to swim under ideal conditions and supervision.

Through the co-operation of the Vermilion Standard with the Parks board, an application form will be found below and this should be filled out immediately and sent in. This will give those in charge some idea of the numbers interested and assist greatly in arranging the lesson periods.

CLASSES START JULY 4

Classes will start Monday, July 4 and continue throughout the holidays.

Remember there is no restriction as to who may attend the courses. Everyone above 10 years of age and within a hundred miles is welcome. A very nominal charge of $1 is being made as a registration fee. The final date for registration is Saturday, June 25th but don't wait until then, send in the attached form today.

JUBILEE SERVING VALUABLE PURPOSE—

Alberta's Golden Jubilee celebrations are serving a valuable purpose as old timers jun busy recalling incidents, trips, men and music which are now of historical significance Many of these, had almost been forgotten but the Jubilee celebrations served the purpose of having them all recalled again by our pioneers.

Mr Fred Collins, well known old timer of the Dewberry district, vividly recalls railroad building days and takes exception to statistics given in the Farm and Ranch Review Railroading was his business in the days of 1903-4 and 5. And he can trace the rise in land and the times that various sections of the roads were built. He recalls that the Fitzhenry Gardiner family came to Vermilion on Oct 3, 1903 on the first mixed train. The first Colonists came to Saskatoon in the spring of 1905. The bridge over the South Saskatchewan to link up the line from Rosthern was built in 1904-5. the railway itself having been built in 1903-04. And so it goes. old timers freshening up their memories and recalling a wealth of history which we are already valuing very highly and which has for the Golden Jubilee celebrations of our province might well have become completely forgotten.

Business Outlook

There is plenty of spying power in the current Canadian business upsurge, reports The Financial Post.

Earlier doubts about the last six months of 1955 are vanishing The year has already produced many new records in many lines. Its most impressive gains may be achieved in the next two quarters.

At mid-year there is no shortage of economic indicators that the Canadian business pickup, which started in the last quarter of 1954, will last into December and beyond. But the optimism cannot be unbridled there are still some pointed reminders of potential headwind.

Much of the credit for today's rosy picture must go to that sober-sided fellow, the Canadian consumer, who sees no reason to hold off his purchases until tomorrow While sales are climbing in almost every consumer category, prices are standing relatively fixed.

TREES AVAILABLE

I am informed by Mr. McCalla, Supervisor of Horticulture that he will have over 1½ million trees for distribution to farmers in Alberta next spring. I hope that we get our share of these trees in this area. Now is the time to arrange. Follow a strip of land around the buildings or along the road.

INVENTORY FIELD DAY

Here is a chance for you to be a millionaire There will be a field day for inventory at the Experimental Station, Swift Current on June 13 and 14. Anyone who has some bright ideas could consult them at Swift Current.

CALL OF THE LAND

For two years now the Alberta Department of Agriculture has put on a daily broadcast under the name of "Call of the Land." You can hear this broadcast over CFCN at 12:15 and CKUA at 12.30 p. m. daily It contains a lot of good information on farm problems which is more than can be said about the "soap operas"

DEEP TILLAGE USELESS

Now another investigator, this time from Saskatchewan comes out with the statement that no benefit is derived from deep cultivation. There is no difference in yields between land surveyed 12 inches deep and that cultivated only 4 inches. It certainly costs more for every inch deeper the cultivation.

FERTILIZER TRIALS

Last week fieldmen representing Sherritt-Gordon Co. of Fort Saskatchewan put in some trial fertilizer plots in this area. A Nitrogen, Phosphate and Potash compound with a special drill into the soil. This type of fertilizer to be very popular in the U.S. and it looks like it will be used here before very long It is especially suited for use on hay and pasture land.

Alexandra C.C.F. Nominates Lady Candidate

Members of the Alexandra Constituency C.C.F. unanimously nominated Mrs. Lois Karlsson of Paradise Valley as their candidate for the forthcoming provincial election at their annual meeting held on Sunday.

Mrs. Karlsson is the wife of Karl Karlsson, Paradise Valley farmer, and has a background of world-wide experience with the United Nations and the World Health organization. Born and educated in London, Eng. Mrs. Karlsson served throughout the war years on the staff of a London hospital. Immediately following the war, she joined the U.N. and in an administrative capacity, attended international conferences in Switzerland, Turkey and Egypt.

Through the six years after the war, her work took her to most European countries including those behind the iron curtain, and taking part in health surveys for W.H.O. she also visited Africa and Middle East.

During a trip to the U.S. and Canada, she visited Alberta in 1951 and decided a year later to make her home here.

A keen interest in politics coupled with the unsatisfactory international conditions led her to join the C.C.F. upon coming to Canada.

"We must make sure that every voter knows for what policies they are giving their support," said Mrs. Karlsson. "We must make sure that each one will think before casting a ballot. If every citizen will do this, I know that we will find a tremendous increase in votes for the C.C.F."

On Way To Africa, Missionaries In Car Crash At Vermilion

The car was practically a complete wreck with the passengers miraculously escaping with severe bumps and bruises. The car ran off highway 16 and before it could be stopped or brought back on to the highway, struck a road grade going into a farm.

Rev and Mrs. Becking were on their way from Edmonton to Toronto from where they were scheduled to go to the mission fields of Africa. Members of the family from Edmonton planned to come here and the family will return to the city.

Scouts and Cubs Hosts To Fathers at Supper

The Elks hall was a noisy and gay place on Tuesday evening as the annual "pot luck" supper of the Scouts and Cubs and their dads was held.

Definitely a growing event, it is estimated that the attendance was nearly double that of last year, and the food consumed tripled. Ladies of the Scout and Cub Mothers Association were in charge of handling the vast quantity and variety of food turned in.

A special delegation from Wainwright, here on scouting business, were guests at the meal.

After the supper a jolly singsong under the direction of Dr. Ben King was carried out until the tables were cleared.

An educational display of the various phases of scouting was carried out, including the actual investiture of four scouts. After the investiture Scouts Pat Bentley, Don Stewart and Tommy Kibblewhite carried through some of the various tests needed for boys to qualify for the different classes. These same three Scouts will be attending the Scout Jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake in Ontario this summer.

To wind up the evening Bill and Adam Smith of Wildmere showed some excellent color movies and then the local association showed a travelogue by canoe and to top it off, to the delight of boys and dads alike, a cartoon of Willie Mouse.

The Scouts, Cubs and their leaders and association executive wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make this evening a success; the mothers who so generously donated to the supper, the fathers who accompanied their boys, the Elks for the use of the hall, the Royal Purple for use of the kitchen, Dr. King, Stan Manyluk, Bill and Adam Smith; and thanks also to Mrs. Frank Pilkie in Edmonton who arranged for the films from the Department of Extension. Sincere thanks to all.

Cub Leaders Discuss Jamboree Plans

A delegation from the Wainwright Cub Association executive, one of whom was Cub Leader John Taylor, a former Vermilion boy and well known to all, were present for the pot luck supper Tuesday evening and later met with the Vermilion Cub Association executive and Cub leaders.

The purpose of the visit was to discuss future possibility of an annual Cub Jamboree comprising the Cub packs of Edgerton, Wainwright and Vermilion and perhaps later on widening out to other towns. It would be a one-day affair consisting of ball games contests, etc. and climaxed by a huge bonfire and weiner roast in the evening. It was thoroughly discussed and since the time now is growing close to school closing, it was decided that a Cub rally at the Vermilion Park lake be held sometime in the early part of this fall and plan on a Spring Jamboree in 1956 at Wainwright. Further plans are to be discussed and announced at a later date.

CHEMICAL WEED CONTROL A PROFITABLE FARM PRACTICE

Weeds are the greatest of all grain crop thieves. By robbing grain plants of moisture, plant food and sunlight, weeds reduce both yields and grades. In 1954, no farm practice will be more important in reducing grain production costs than chemical weed control.

Modern Weed Killers. Three chemicals are now widely used for the control of weeds in growing grain crops. They are 2,4-D, MCP and TCA. Each of these chemicals will do a certain job, but each has its limitations. 2,4-D is still the most widely used and most generally effective chemical for the control of weeds in small grain crops. Recently, however, it has been found that MCP, a close relative of 2,4-D, is a safer chemical to use on certain sensitive crops. MCP is here recommended in preference to 2,4-D for oats and flax. Cereal crops cannot, of course, be treated with TCA. However, TCA is an effective chemical for destroying grass-type annual weeds such as Green Foxtail or Wild Millet, in flax. Modern weed-killing chemicals properly used, greatly reduce weed losses, and give increased crop returns.

Treat Early. In the successful control of weeds with chemicals [illegible] grain crops should be treated as soon as possible after weed growth appears above ground, and just as soon as crop growth permits.

Warning. Certain field, truck and garden crops, and many desirable shrubs and plants are very sensitive to 2,4-D and may be severely damaged by drift or vapors from treated areas. Keep 2,4-D away from susceptible crops and plants.

Now is the time to have your machinery and chemicals ready so that you can wage an early effective war on weeds this Spring. Don't let [illegible]

CARLING'S COMES TO ALBERTA

Carling's Black Label product will be on the market in Alberta before the end of July, said S. F. Heard, President of Red Deer Brewing Co. Ltd., following an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders held in the Palliser Hotel, Calgary, on May 25th.

It was unanimously agreed at the meeting that the name of the company should be changed to The Carling Breweries (Alberta) Limited. The shareholders welcomed the opportunity thus given their company to produce at the Red Deer plant the product which has the fastest growing sales in Canada. Mr. Adam Carson, the company's brewmaster, who served Carling's in Ontario in a similar capacity for several years, will be directly responsible for production.

To further guarantee the exact quality of Carling's Black Label product, arrangements have been made with The Carling Breweries Limited to have their Production Manager of Brewing, Mr. Stan Parker, work in conjunction with the brewing staff of The Carling Breweries (Alberta) Limited. Mr Parker's main responsibilities with The Carling Breweries Limited are control of quality and co-ordination of production of their numerous plants to produce a uniform product throughout Canada. It is largely due to his efforts that such unparalleled acceptance has been attained in this country, England and the United States. It is planned that Mr Parker will work very closely with Mr. Carson in Red Deer.

Opening Anniversary Event A Grand Success

JUBILEE SQUARE DANCE ATTRACTS OVER 600

Vermilion and district's Golden Jubilee Celebrations got off to a good start on Monday when Arnie and Jan Kronenberger of Los Angeles, California, were welcomed to the stage of the mechanics building of the Vermilion School of Agriculture, and where Arnie called square dances for the enjoyment of over six hundred people.

Arnie Kronenberger, one of the finest square dance callers known, is on tour through Alberta for a series of Square Dance Festivals sponsored by the Alberta Golden Jubilee Committee, and Vermilion was very fortunate to have been chosen for the first of the series.

Arnie and his wife Jan were introduced to the huge crowd by Ron McLean, representing the Alberta Golden Jubilee committee and the Government of Alberta. Don Clayton of CJCA was on hand to conduct an hour's broadcast of the festivities. The broadcast was sponsored by the Massey-Harris Company, whose local agent, George C. Webb, brought greetings to the crowd and the radio audience.

Mayor Melvin Hill in a few well chosen words brought greetings from the town, and also thanks to Mr. N. N. Bentley and the Department of Agriculture for the use of the mechanics building. Mr. E. A. Locke, chairman of Vermilion's Jubilee committee, gave an outline of events planned during Vermilion's Jubilee Celebration.

Dancers attended from nearly every town in northeastern Alberta which was shown when Ken Greenwood, chairman of the sponsoring committee, welcomed dancers from all the following points: Marsden, Sask., Lloydminster, Blackfoot Kitscoty, Marwayne, Dewberry, Paradise Valley Wainwright, Irma, Hardisty, Viking, Bawlf, Vegreville, Innisfree, Minburn and Mannville.

The wonderful evening literally flew by, with everyone having a grand and happy time. Arnie calls to the level of the crowd and keeps everyone happy with his friendly manner and very clear and pleasant voice.

The sponsoring committee, composed of representatives of Square Dance groups in Vermilion, would like to publicly thank Mr. N. N. Bentley and his staff at the V.S.A. for their assistance in readying the big building. To have the use of such a large floor was one of the main reasons the dance was such a tremendous success. Thanks also to the many members who turned out so willingly to help. Last but far from least, thanks to all the dancers. After all, it is the dancers who make the affair a success, and you were a wonderful crowd!

Refreshments for the evening were invitingly served by the local Stagettes.

News from Campbell Lake

On the evening of May 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roe Mead, about fifty friends and neighbors gathered for a surprise and farewell party in honor of their eldest son Glenn, who is leaving for Ontario, where he has accepted a position with the Ontario Hydro.

Mr. Pat McCambridge with a few well chosen words, commended Glenn on his success in achieving the goal he set out to reach four years ago, when he entered the University of Alberta to study electrical engineering. Mr. McCambridge then presented him with an engraved cigarette lighter on behalf of all those present.

Mrs. W. J. McIntyre left on Sunday evening for Edmonton, where she will attend the A. W. L. convention being held this week at the University.

Mr and Mrs. Roy Reeves and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Reeves, all of Edmonton, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Simonet of the Pelican Lake district, left Edmonton by plane on Monday evening for Montreal where they will board the liner Cythia for England to enjoy a month's vacation. While they are away Mrs. Simonet Sr. is taking care of their children.

Though a little late in reporting, we welcome to our community a Dutch family, Mr. and Mrs. C. De Jong and two small sons, who have taken residence on the farm of Mr. B. Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mead left on Saturday for Banff, where Mr Mead would attend the School Trustees convention. They were accompanied by their son Glenn, who planned to leave from there on Monday for Ontario. During their absence, Mr and Mrs. De Jong are looking after the farm.

The new student minister for the Clandonald field Mr D. Rector, has been making his visits in the district. It was interesting to learn that he comes from Parrsboro, N.S., one time residents of the Campbell Lake district, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shand.

Board of Trade Entertains Guests

The Board of Trade has entertained several guests of note at recent meetings. Present last Wednesday was Mr. R. Putnam, Assistant Deputy Minister of Agriculture. Mr Putnam was introduced by Principal N. N. Bentley of the V.S.A.

Dr Young, Dominion veterinary who succeeded Dr Hugh MacDonald, was present and was introduced by Dr Anderson.

At the luncheon on Wednesday of this week Mr. R. G. Reid, former premier of Alberta, who represented the Vermilion constituency and who is now with Canadian Utilities, was a guest. He was introduced by Jack Kneale superintendent of the power plant here.

PROVINCIAL CONVENTION

The Vermilion Board will be represented at the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade and Agriculture June 7 and 8 by Mr Roy Walker and Mr I Miller.

TO AID BALL CLUB

The Board at its Wednesday meeting decided to supply transportation for the Vermilion Tigers baseball club for their outside games. Mr Martin Shaika is in charge of this project and various business men will each make a trip with the ball team.

Industrial Committee Reports

Mr T MacPherson chairman of the Industrial committee of the Board, gave an interesting report. He told of leads followed in the hope of having various lines of manufacturing or industry located here. He asked the help of all members in telling them of any rumors of new business seeking locations. Facilities in Vermilion were equal or superior to those of any town of comparable size in the west, so we have much to offer.

Alberta's Share

BLACK BLIZZARDS

Black blizzards are wreaking havoc in the western United States this spring. Already hundreds of thousands of acres of rich crop land is "blowing" badly. Drought and wind, a combination well known to Western Canadian farmers in the 1930's are destroying huge areas of fertile farm land.

It Could Happen Here. Farmers in Western Canada have enjoyed a number of years of above-normal moisture. Soil drifting, at least on a widespread scale, has not been serious during this period. Many have grown careless and thousands of farmers on the Prairies are no longer using soil-drifting control measures on their fields. Can we afford to take a chance? The loss of even a little top soil is a serious matter. It took nature countless centuries to build our precious soil; once lost it can never be regained.

Lost Top Soil Means Reduced Yields. The Dominion Experimental Station at Lethbridge reports that in 1953 part of a field damaged by soil drifting during the "thirties" produced 12.8 bus. of wheat per acre while the undamaged portion produced 30.2 bus. per acre, a loss of 17.4 bus. The sad part is that this is not the end of the story. The crops in the future will continue to be lower in yield on the eroded field. The original productivity of the field is gone forever.

Erosion Can Be Prevented. Information is available on the control of soil drifting. Hundreds of farmers in Western Canada are using soil-drifting control measures and are keeping their soil at home. Don't take a chance. Make '55 the year you start a soil drifting control program on your farm.

Contact your local Agricultural Representative or District Agriculturist for information or write to the Line Elevators Farm Service for our bulletin "Trash Cover Prevents Erosion".

THE STAGETTES

Convention is over now, and I'll let you in on a little secret — we had a wonderful time. But there is always that moment when all good things must come to an end. However, I'm sure there are many happy memories that will live forever.

Upon arriving home from Banff, we found that we were just in time to start planning a concession booth for the Jubilee Square Dance Jamboree. After very careful figuring with regard to quantities of doughnuts, coffee etc we made out very well. But remember friends, this money is going to help provide fireworks for three nights of the Vermilion fair!

The Stagettes wish to thank Mr. Bentley and the general public for the wonderful support given to us in helping to make our concession a big success.

As we wound up a busy season we gathered our 20 members together and had a weiner roast. All the preparations for this were provided by our very capable president Kay Stewart. On behalf of all the girls I would like to thank Kay for the wonderful evening which put the finishing touches to a worthwhile season.

It looks as though we will be missing this well known "Irish Blonde" for a short time. Here's hoping she has a wonderful trip but we don't want her to stay across the sea too long.

Au revoir and farewell to all our friends and neighbors. We'll be with you again in September.

Flies From Scotland

Mrs. Barney Conlon of Dewberry is enjoying a visit from her only sister who travelled by plane from Lanarkshire, Scotland to see her. It is the first time the sisters have seen each other in 26 years. Mrs. Condon and family came from the old country in 1929 to settle at Dewberry. For the past six years she has not been well and has been a "shut-in".

Jas. R. Robson is attending the school trustees convention and the secretary's short courses being held in Banff this week. He was accompanied by Mr. R. C. Mead, the chairman of the board.

BORN — To Sandy and Helen MacMillan (nee Craugh) on May 27, a son, Neil Alexander, a brother for Dena Mae.

Mrs. Mary McLean and son Hugh, and the former's brother Tom Cairns from Vancouver were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen last week. On Saturday Mrs. McLean received a telegram informing her of the illness of her aged father Mr. T. Cairns, and left immediately for Vancouver. Word has since been received that Mr. Cairns' condition had improved. The trip from the coast was made by car. The return trip will be started this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson out at Vancouver wish to draw the attention of their friends in the Allandale and Vermilion distiicts that they have recently moved to a new address. They now live at 733 W 7th, Vancouver, 9, B.C. If writing or planning a visit keep the new address in mind.

BOYS GO FOR BARBECUED 'BURGERS

What's more fun than a [illegible] in the good old summertime"? And what better way to revive lagging appetites? There's something mighty tempting about food cooked outdoors. It tempts the [illegible] boys to drop their bats and balls . . . and come running.

Your gang will go for great big 'burgers simmered in a zippy barbecue sauce; served on toasted buns. And, Mom, you'll find they're a smooth maneuver for you or for Dad, if he's chief cook on such occasions. Or the sauce can be prepared at home and brought "bottled" or "jarred" to the picnic scene. Then just pour it into the frying pan with onion and garlic, and pop in the browned 'burgers. Spoon generous amounts of sauce over the 'burgers during heating and you're in for a real treat!

Plan fun with barbecued 'burgers, mixed greens with cucumbers and radishes, crisp potato chips, pickles and olives, fresh fruit, and one-inch pieces of chocolate cake. Chilled milk, lemonade, sipped from paper cups, is a welcome and nourishing beverage.

BOY-TESTED BARBECUED 'BURGERS

2 pounds ground beef
3 tablespoons shortening (and/or drippings)
1 small onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
1 can (1¼ cups) condensed tomato soup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar
2 teaspoons prepared mustard

Shape beef into 8 or 10 'burgers; cook in frying pan until brown and almost cooked through. Remove 'burgers from pan. Add shortening to drippings in frying pan to make 3 tablespoons; brown onion and garlic. Stir in remaining ingredients. Add 'burgers to sauce. Cover; simmer about 10 minutes. Serve 'burgers with sauce, and on toasted buttered buns if desired. 8 to 10 servings.

Many of the new Jewish immigrants were from Iraq, Iran, India, Yemen, Egypt and Morocco to whom Mr. Martin witnessed of the Messiah, from their Hebrew Scriptures and with a goodly measure of success.

Bull Fighters Big Attraction At Lloydminster Rodeo

LLOYDMINSTER. — Willoughby and Tilliston, the well known Brahma bull fighters from Cheyenne Wyoming, will play a big part in the Jaycee Rodeo on June 7 and 8. This is a dangerous sport and many a matador has been very badly mauled in one of these encounters. If a rider is thrown from a Brahma bull it turns on the rider whose life is then in the hands of the bull fighters.

This year the arena will be cut in half while the cowboys are riding the Brahmas in order to enable everyone to see some top-notch bull fighting by these two boys from Cheyenne Wyoming.

Golfing Away To A Good Start

Golfing is away to a good start in Vermilion this season and the official opening on Sunday attracted a very large number of golfers and spectators, proving a very enjoyable event. Tea was served in the spacious club house all afternoon.

The low scores for the day were turned in by Mrs. Emma Locke for ladies and Mr. Woodward of Maidstone for the gents.

The course is particularly lovely and the fairways are in better shape than ever, thanks to caretaker Harry Deacon who is excelling at looking after fairways and greens.

The membership in the club shows signs of a decided increase over that of 1954.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hicks Married 63 Years

Pioneers of Vermilion and district since 1906, Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Hicks observed the 63rd anniversary of their wedding on Wednesday June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks were married at Mount Albion, Ontario in 1892 and came west to farm at Vermilion in 1906. They have resided in town since 1951.

Commemorating the rare anniversary, a gathering of family and friends was held at the lake in the Vermilion park on Sunday attended by 43 people. Included in those present were four great grandchildren and 18 of the twenty grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks who are now 83 and 81 years of age enjoy good health and are seen around and about the town. They enjoyed the outing at the park lake very much.

Great Grandmothers Are Entertained

On Wednesday evening the members of the Home League of the Salvation Army entertained ten great-grandmothers of the town and district at a social. In attendance were Mrs. Cavil, the oldest of the great-grandmothers; Mrs. Copack, Mrs. Eyben, Mrs. Cartwright, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Doherty, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Dow, Mrs. Stephens, and Mrs. Isley. Mrs. Isley has 44 great grandchildren.

The social opened with a devotional period led by the convener, Mrs. Geake. Following, Major Batrick presented each great grandmother with a corsage. A very interesting program was comprised of a solo by Miss Wilson; reading by Mrs. Geake entitled 'Grandma'; play by Home League members entitled "Except the Lord Build the House."

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the committee in charge of the social evening. Mothers spent much time in preparation for the enjoyable and unique event.

NEWS from KITSCOTY

The grades 1 to 3 pupils of Miss Donna McCauley held a recital at the home of their teacher's parents Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCauley on Saturday evening May 28. A well arranged program was prepared. The first half consisted of three musical numbers played by each pupil. These were very much enjoyed by all. The second half of the program were solos rendered by several of the children, group singing, tap dance and hornpipe dancing. All the parents and friends enjoyed the program and were high in their praise of the progress the children have made in the past year and Donna is to be congratulated on her splendid effort, as well as the children who took part and worked so hard at their practising to make the evening a success.

The occasion was also Miss Donna McCauley's birthday and a beautiful birthday cake with lighted candles was served with the lunch. All joined in wishing Donna many happy returns of the day.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. L. Noonan, Mrs. O. Willes and Mrs. C. Stewart served a delicious lunch and all enjoyed a social hour.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

It takes a trick to beat a trickster, and the smart tourist will have a few up his sleeve when vacation time rolls around. The out-and-out fraud doesn't happen too often, but the alert traveller will keep a few things in mind. The sightseeing guide who hops your running board with fast talk usually doesn't have credentials, the photographer who promises home-town publicity in return for a print order is no regular newspaperman, the slick money changers in amusement parks who manage to fumble bills while talking may be "slow change" artists, the man who jostles you in a crowd may be after your wallet.

Be on the watch for machine made "local handicraft" souvenirs, restaurant checks with illegible words and figures, free-lance offers to watch your car or baggage, bogus C.O.D. packages delivered to neighbors during your absence.

Three precautions to remember: 1. carry large sums of money in traveller's cheques; 2. investigate before you pay; 3. a fraud usually offers something for nothing, is made as a special favor and demands immediate action.

Contract Let For New Power Plant

Mr. F. A. Brownie, President of Canadian Utilities Limited, has announced that Mannix-Gill Ltd., has been awarded the general contract for a steam powered electric generating station on the Battle River 11 miles southwest of Forestburg, Alberta. Plans for the seven million dollar plant were announced last fall, and tenders were called in the early spring of 1955.

Work has already started on the housing structures, and a completion schedule for all construction work is set at eight months. The project will be generating power next year. The dam will be of homogenous fill type, containing 200,000 cubic yards of earth, clay and rock protection. It will be 1800 feet long at the crest, 40 feet above river-bed level. An access bridge across the Battle River as well as access roads will also be built. The power plant, 90 feet by 180 feet, will be of concrete, steel, Cemesto board and Trafford tile, as will the pump house, 36 feet by 45 feet.

Mr. Brownie also announced that the boiler will be supplied and installed by Combustion Engineering Ltd., while the turbo-generator will be produced in the Switzerland factory of Brown-Boveri Ltd. Initial output upon completion of the plant will be 40,000 h.p., and provision has been made for adding to the capacity as needed. Ultimate output, upon installation of two more generating units will be 120,000 h.p.

NEWS from ISLAY

Mr and Mrs. Wm. Waterfield had as their guest last week Mrs. Waterfield's uncle, Mr. W. R. Newman of Tacoma, Wash.

Anglican church service has begun again at Kenilworth. Sunday May 29th saw a good attendance of 31.

Earl Bowser of the University of Alberta was down for a day last week visiting his father and sister Mrs. Lila Waterfield. He had been at Vegreville in connection with the beginning of a new Experimental Agricultural station.

Mrs. Marjorie Summers of Calgary is visiting her relatives Dalt Torrance and Mrs. Pat Robertson, also having a day with Mrs. Wm. Waterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allan attended the Vermilion high school graduation as the guests of Miss Erva Sweet, a graduate. Seemingly the event was a brilliant affair as Mr. and Mrs. Allan can tell you. We believe Mr. Allan would like to go to one of these once a week. He really did enjoy every minute.

Mrs. John Bootsman and her daughter Morvan attended church service here Sunday afternoon. We enjoyed a surprise visit from Rev Emanuel Heuer of the Bible Society too. He was at Lloydminster to attend the annual meeting of the Lloydminster Bible Society so came with Rev. E. N Morrison. Rev. Heuer gave a word description of the 3rd Jubilee of the Society he attended in London last year. After service he showed a colored film of views he took on his trip from St. John when he and Mrs. Heuer boarded the boat. The pictures were beautiful and in color—Kew Gardens, parks, many cathedrals and churches, even up to Scotland. The prettiest films we had ever seen of the Old Country, and the music was soft and lovely.

Little Lynn Purser recited the 23rd Psalm in the Sunday school last Sunday and did very well.

Mrs. Henry Olde returned home Saturday.

A brother of Mr. Henry Olde and some of his family, from Oyen, called on the folks here over the week end.

We wondered if Mr. Ross Lamb had got mired in the slough by Holyrood school grounds, but no, he appeared back in Islay after a week's absence, says he is helping Joe Hislop on the farm, and yes, the goats are O.K. Mr. Lamb's garden certainly looks nice too.

Joint Barley Entries O.K. In Contest

Rules of the 1955 National Barley contest permit two or more farmers to combine in one shipment to make up the minimum required for the entry.

The entry as in former years must not be less than a 1,667-bushel carload, one of three specified varieties of malting barley. The eligible varieties are the same as in 1954, Montcalm, O.A.C. 21 and Olli.

The concession for joint entries is for convenience of growers with small farms or those who haven't sufficient acreage to make the entry requirement. If a grower has a good sample of malting barley of insufficient bushelage he may join with a neighbor to make up a carload provided of course the latter hasn't made an entry on his own.

Joint entries have frequently been made in former years, on several occasions with success. In the 10th year of the contest they are encouraged in the hope that with a good crop year the 1955 competition may be one of the best of the series.

The contest is open to any bona fide farmer in malting barley areas excepting those growers who have won the national award in previous competitions.

Plain Talk
DR. F. M. (MAC) SMITH
Liberal Candidate

Few people are familiar with the amount of federal aid which may be obtained for construction of housing for aged persons. Under Section 16 of the National Housing Act, any interested group of persons can, on application to the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, borrow up to 90% of the value of the project at interest rates of 3¾%, repayable over as long as 50 years. Certain formalities are demanded: the interested group must form a limited dividend company, incorporated under provincial law, sell shares and form a board of directors, to assure continued community interest in the project. The corporation must not pay a dividend of over 5%, and the length of time for repayment must not exceed the life of the projected building. There are also provisions as to size of unit: the usual plan is modelled on a motel with self-contained kitchen and bath, suitable for an elderly couple. Rentals usually run from $18 to $30 a month. Further information may be obtained from the Regional Office of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation in Edmonton.

4-H Achievement Day At Mannville

MANNVILLE.—The 4-H Achievement day was held on Saturday, May 28 with Miss Inglis of Vegreville and Miss Kirk of Wainwright judging the year's work. In the evening the girls had a program for the parents. After the recital of the pledge by the 4-H girls a short musical program was enjoyed. Ruth Gamble sang "Just a Little Street" accompanied by Carol Mercer; Vivian Lastiuka in costume sang a Ukranian Lullaby; Jamie Wilson gave a demonstration of ballet dancing which was followed by a piano solo "Wings of Song" by Marilyn North. A tap dance by Pat Thompson and Donna Majeau, a solo and dance by Donnie Proudfoot and "Little Boy Blue" recited by Merna Whitson completed the first part of the program. Joyce Gamble was Mistress of Ceremonies for this part of the program.

Mrs. Melva Jackson, leader of the group gave a summary of the activities of the year. The girls participated in the Rally of the 4-H boys and girls, held a home baking sale, a combined club dance (to raise money for a float for the Vermilion fair) held a tea, proceeds from which were used to purchase a sewing machine. The award for the best project book was won by Joyce Gamble. The girls then modelled clothes of the past 90 years as well as their project work of the year. A long dress complete with bustle, capes and bonnets, Gibson girl, evening dresses with and without furs, bridal dresses of 30 and 40 years ago, flapper age, the jazz age, the first long dress of 25 years ago, dresses of the start of World War 2, and modern bridesmaid dress were among those modelled by the girls.

The girls then modelled housecoats, pyjamas, slippers, school outfits, sports and sun dresses made this year. They were all neatly done and smartly styled. The girls have every right to feel proud of their work. It is too bad that more folks don't attend these achievement days and see the results of the work of the 4-H clubs.

Miss Kirk, District Economist from Wainwright complimented the girls on their display - it was neatly laid out and easy to judge. Then she went on to give them suggestions for improvement in their sewing. And she suggested that posters be placed behind the first, second and third year projects for the convenience of the judges and visitors. Materials used in the first and second year must be cotton, don't leave raw edges (the judges look at the inside as well as the outside of the article); neatness and cleanliness are important (the articles here didn't need this reminder); the project must be closely followed. Miss Kirk commented favorably on the program and the fashion show. Then she asked the leaders, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Gamble to stand while the girls and the audience showed their appreciation by a hearty handclap.

Mannville may well be proud of the red and blue tags that were placed on the projects. Miss Inglis of Vegreville told the gathering. She explained the method of judging and spoke on the project books. They should be a guide to the girls for many years to come — they should contain records of measurements, costs and yardage of various materials as well as the kinds of material, suitable clippings and pictures that will help the girls in their every day grooming, choice of clothes, etc.

The efficiency winner is chosen for the year around work, attendance and interest in club work, and this winner will attend Vermilion Club week. The 4-H clubs are national as well as international and the work that the boys and girls accomplish along with the fellowship of the club will always be beneficial. Efficiency winners from each club attend the provincial eliminations at Olds and the provincial winners, then go on to the Royal Winter fair at Toronto.

Farm Union Council Presents Brief To Committee, Ottawa

Henry Young, President of the F.U.A., has just returned from Ottawa where he took part in a delegation from the Interprovincial Farm Union Council in presenting a 14 point brief to the Agricultural Committee of the House of Commons. Other members of the delegation were Chris Hansen and Jas. Patterson the Presidents of the Saskatchewan and Manitoba Farm Unions.

The main point stressed in the Farm Union brief was the urgent need for Government action to establish Parity Prices for Canadian Agricultural products within Canada, and adequate floor prices on exports. Another important matter advocated was the extension of the P.F.A.A. into a more complete crop insurance plan.

Mr Young reports that the Farm Union delegation received a very good hearing before the Committee which took a whole day considering their recommendations.

In an interview with Mr. Howe, the request was made to have the initial payments on 1955 grain maintained at the same level as in 1954 and also announced at once. Early action is expected on this.

Twenty Students Graduate At Mannville In Colorful Function

MANNVILLE - The first graduation exercise to be held in the new gym in Mannville was also the largest graduating class in any year since the exercises started a number of years ago. There were ten girls and ten boys in the graduating class. Grades 10 and 11 decorated the hall in blue and silver with silver moon as the theme. It was beautifully done and added much to the graduation exercise.

After the singing of O Canada, the graduands proceeded into the gym and took their places on the stage. Also on the stage were Rev. John Nielsen who delivered the invocation, Mr. Russell Whitson of Vegreville School Division, and Mr. R. E. Byron, director of Vocational Education, Department of Education, and Mr. Doherty, Chairman for the evening.

After the invocation Mr Doherty introduced the graduands.

Mr. Russell Whitson, the local representative on the Board of the Vegreville School Division, brought congratulations and best wishes on behalf of the Board. He said this was the largest graduating class so far and he was glad they would all attend the district. He said that this desire the pupils are wasting the taxpayers' money as well as what it costs the parents. Secondly he said as a goal. If necessary, talk it over with the teachers and others to decide what that goal will be. Start early and work steadily, realize your capabilities and work up to them. He wished the graduands every success in their exams and in their future studies.

Miss Theresa Wey as the Class Historian gave a few significant and insignificant facts about each of the graduands.

The valedictory address was given by Bill Nadziger President of the Students' Union. He said that they had entered grade one eager and trembling and here he was still the same eager and trembling. But the activities of school life, including the Students' Union, sports, the track meets which make for good sportsmanship, the compiling of the year book, the wide scope of social and sporting events all help in the future of the student. He was glad to be graduating in a democratic country and have the full benefit of such a country.

This was Mr Byron's second visit to Mannville and he was very pleased to see such a large group of graduands. He said a bit of advice was in order now because soon the students would be out on their own and would much rather give advice than accept it. His theme was "Can you entertain yourself now and in the future". using the word entertain in the broadest sense of the word — meaning accept new ideas. Hard work and luck are not one and the same thing. As Mark Twain once said, "The harder I work, the more luck I have". Try, try again, but unlike Bruce and the spider; give up and try another way. The average person changes his occupation about four times. If the first one does not work out then try something else. You are going out into a tough world. Be told the students, and will face failure. The ability to accept new ideas and adapt yourself is doubly important. Also money is no guarantee of happiness. Through the encouragement of others and association with others will you find the greatest satisfaction. The people of North America are the most co-operative people on the earth.

The program of addresses was interspersed with musical numbers given by students of the school and much enjoyed by all.

After God Save the Queen, the gym was cleared and the graduands and their friends as well as the other guests enjoyed a few hours of dancing. At midnight a delicious lunch prepared by the grades 10 and 11 was served buffet style. Several members of the Home and School assisted with the lunch.

Union F. U. A.

Well we have been pretty busy these last few weeks but decided to get the "Noise" in once more. This is mainly a reminder to all F.U.A. members that our next meeting is Tuesday, June 7 at the Union community hall. We should elect our delegates for the district convention at this meeting and also if any have any resolutions we wish to get before the convention.

There was a rumor around that Vermilion was going to start closing on Monday instead of Wednesday half day. If town workers must have a five-day week and it seems to be coming I think Monday closing is a good idea. We certainly don't want Saturday closing and that seems to be the trend now. The Wednesday half holiday now was anything but an aggravation to both town and country. If the majority of F.U.A. members agree with me I think we should come out in favor of Monday closing unless you want to lose your Saturday 'town day'. I hope I don't stir up another rash of letters to the Editor on this subject :I. D. Inman and R. C. Galloway take note!.

DATES TO REMEMBER

By AMBROSE HILLS

SMALL TOWN PROBLEM

Not very many people like living in the city yet the cities grow while the small towns stand still. What is causing? Perhaps some answers can be found by study. The Canadian Bureau of Statistics figures. They show that the share of national income going to farmers and to the working owners of small grocery stores, weekly newspapers and other unincorporated business dropped in 1954 down to 14.7%. The previous year they had a 17.5% share. Back in 1940 they had a 21.9% share.

Well the figures show that in 1954 compensation of employees represented 68.5% of the national income. In 1953 they only got 62.7% Back in 1949 they got 59.7% Obviously, a chunk of the money that used to go to the farmer and the small businessman, now goes to the employee.

The farmer, particularly, has some cause for complaint. Judged by a 1949 dollar farm cash income was $149 per head of the whole population in 1954 as compared with $183 in 1953. No wonder farmers are opposed to the recent employees' demands for a guaranteed annual wage. They would like some guarantee himself that he would get a further share in the gross national income. The answer, of course, is not a sudden rush for city life and city wages. If all small towns, working together, raised their voices against this unfair situation, those with authority would have the backbone to refuse reckless demands for further increases until productivity justifies them.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE E. KIRK —

If you have 3 cups of thin cream, 1 one-third cup of honey, ½ tsp. of vanilla and a few grains of salt—what do you suppose you could make? Honey ice cream — that's what! All you do is heat the cream, honey and salt to a scalding point over boiling water. Then cool, add vanilla and freeze.

For a sandwich bread that is a little different, measure and sift 1 cup bran, 4 tsp. baking powder, 1½ cups white flour and 1 tsp. salt. Add one-third cup honey, 1 well beaten egg, and 1 cup milk. Beat thoroughly. Place in a greased lined loaf tin to bake in a moderate oven for one hour. These, and 9 other honey recipes can be had from this office.

For the car: Apply a coating of self-polishing wax to rubber floor mats, running boards, tires, etc. to give them a bright new shine. (Do not use a polishing type wax on these rubber surfaces.)

For your silver: Apply a generous film of wax (Johnson's, of course), recommend "Pride's to the entire surface of the article. Allow to dry about 5 minutes, then wipe off with a soft dry cloth. Use cloth wrapped around an old toothbrush to wipe engraved patterns. This wax coating prevents tarnish and does not harm the silver. And, believe it or not, it does not affect the taste of foods.

For your wardrobe: Self polishing wax will renew a straw hat or rubber boots—a buffing type wax will make a leather or plastic purse look far lovelier — and furniture polish can be used to keep buttons, buckles and belts (even metal ones) looking 'display counter fresh'.

Just a gentle reminder — June 5th is "Shut-in's Day". If you know someone who can't get out in the new summer sunshine, how about taking a little indoors with you when you visit them on Sunday. A beaming smile is all you need (and perhaps a little honey ice cream would help, too!

The World of Wheat

By W. G MALAHER, Director, Research Department, Searle Grain Co. Ltd

AN EARLY LOOK AT THE RUST SITUATION

Although many things can happen between now and the end of the season to intensify or to lessen the threat to Western Canada's wheat crop from rust, and no definite conclusions can be drawn at this early date, a recent report from the U.S. is, to a degree, reassuring. It suggests that, for this time of year and for the stage of the crops the amount of stem and left rust inoculum now present in Texas Oklahoma Kansas and New Mexico is less than it has been for six years.

The degree of rust infection in the south is, of course important because it is from these regions that the northward spread of rust begins affecting crops as they develop progressively farther north first in the winter wheat belt and later in the spring wheat areas of the U.S. and that the degree of rust in the south at this time is only one link in the chain of events that combine to influence the development of rust in the north central States and Canada later on but it is on the side of less rust when spring wheat is in its early stages and to this extent it may have some significance

Last year an unusually early and intensive spore shower struck Western Canada on June 6. Developments south of the line therefore will be watched with a good deal of interest during the next few weeks particularly in view of the fact that Western Canada's wheat crop has been planted somewhat later than usual

One other development that might have some bearing upon the spread of rust to Western Canada is the fact that wheat seeding in the Dakotas and Minnesota was this year completed early, which means that the wheat crop there might have a better chance of escaping infection in lessening the danger to Canadian wheat fields

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Province Will Build Connecting Road Links

EDMONTON. — Does this indicate that perhaps there is an election forthcoming?

Newsmen are accustomed to digging for everything they get in the way of news from the provincial government. So who can blame anyone for wondering about the seemingly routine press release issued by the department of highways last wek.

At any other time of the year, it would have been regarded as a mildly important story, announcing a new policy regarding highway construction.

Translated from the language typical of all governments, the release said the province is planning to assume the cost of building hard-surfaced roads linking district towns with the main highway system.

The new policy comes as a result of representations received from the towns of Olds, Carstairs and Didsbury when plans were approved for the new four-lane divided highway in that area. Hon. Gordon Taylor minister of highways, says the policy will apply also to the towns of High River and Nanton if the province proceeds with the new highway in that area.

Previously, access roads linking towns with main highways were built jointly by the province and the municipal authority, with the province assuming 75% of the cost. The new deal means the province will pay 100%.

FIGHTING FIRE WITH FIRE

Social Credit's weakest spots are in the cities of Edmonton and Calgary, and the opposition parties know it. Four of the seven Edmonton seats in the legislature were won by opposition candidates in the 1952 election. Calgary elected three opposition and three Social Credit.

At this point, it must be noted that the opposition parties have tried to make capital of Social Credit's practice of mixing religion and politics. They say Premier Manning's Sunday religious broadcasts have political implications.

Trying to build up their strength in Edmonton, the Liberals apparently decided religion and politics would be a good weapon with which to oppose Social Credit. At their convention here last week, the Liberals nominated Rev. Edgar J. Bailey, pastor of First Baptist church.

TRACTOR SAFETY

Farmers throughout Alberta will be interested in the anouncement that the Alberta Safety Council is planning a demonstration to show why so many accidents occur involving farm tractors. The demonstration will be held June 17 and 18 at the Edmonton district tillage and plowing matches.

B. T. Stephanson, associate professor of agricultural engineering at the University of Alberta has rigged up a tractor with a protective framework to perform the demonstration.

He will show two methods of making the tractor rear up and overturn backward. The first is by the improper hitch where the operator, seeking to obtain a lift on his load, hitches the chain or cable to the axle instead of the drawbar.

The second is attempting to obtain traction in mud by lashing a log or fence post to the drive wheel. This often stops the wheels from skidding but still prevents them from turning, with the result that the power of the engine instead of moving the machine forward raises the front end in an arc around the axle.

There also will be a demonstration to show how a tractor tips on its side. This will be done by running two wheels of the machine up a ramp.

Safety council officials believe graphic demonstrations will give farmers a better idea of required safety measures, and they hope the display will attract wide attention. Tractor mishaps have claimed the lives of several farmers already this year.

It might be a good idea if Prof. Stephanson could be persuaded to demonstrate his rigged up tractor throughout the province this summer at local exhibitions, fairs and stampedes.

Health Unit Notes

EPILEPSY

Of all the ailments to which hu- manity is subject, few have been so widely misunderstood as epilepsy Superstitious, half-truths and pre- judices accumulated through the centuries, work their damage to this day despite the fact that medi- cal science has changed the entire outlook for the epileptic from dis- couragement and resignation to well-founded optimism and hope.

Epilepsy is a fairly common dis- ease —there are over 75,000 cases in Canada. Authorities now state that with proper treatment four in five can lead relatively nor- mal lives The emphasis, they point out, lies on the words with proper treatment because the real tragedy is that so many epileptics are not receiving the proper medi- cal and social care

Epilepsy is the Greek word for seizure and it is the seizure or fit which is the most characteristic thing about the disease They have been classified into three main types but there is an infinite vari- ety of ways in which they may occur in respect to their timing, their form and other effects on dif- ferent individuals.

GRAND MAL This is the French word for "great illness" and is the most common type of epi- lepsy. The patient loses consci- ousness completely, his arms and legs twitch convulsively and he falls to the ground. There may be some frothing at the mouth accompanied by groans and cries. The attack usually lasts about one minute af- ter which he usually feels relaxed This looks very unpleasant to a by- stander seeing it for the first time but the patient is not in any pain and it is not necessary to hold him during the jerking stage Placing some object between his teeth pre- vents him biting his tongue and lips and it is wise to move any furniture out of his way The patient may sleep heavily for a few hours after the attack and this is the time to move him if necessary; or he may get up and feel dull for some hours. No stimulants should be given.

PETIT MAL — This type is also common and some of the attacks may be so mild that they are not looked The patient loses consci- ousness for only a few seconds but appears to stare into space vaguely rhythmically and he may drop what he has in his hand or stop in the middle of a sentence. He rarely falls. Pet mal attacks in children may disappear without treatment or may develop into Grand Mal so prompt medical advice is necessary.

PSYCHOMOTOR SEIZURES —

The mental stability of the patient is temporarily affected, he becomes unreasonable, has a tantrum or sud- denly behaves oddly such as throw- ing things to the floor The patient cannot remember what happened al- though he may appear to be quite aware of what is happening during the seizure. They may last from a few minutes to several hours.

JACKSONIAN SEIZURES

Convulsive movements start in a leg or arm and then spread to the rest of the body The patient usually stays conscious and is aware of the jerking or numbness spread- ing from his limbs.

All forms of epilepsy are caused by irritation of the brain tissues. This irritation may be caused by one of many factors, some still im- fully understood: infections, tumors, brain injury and glandular disturb- ances in other parts of the body. In the majority of cases the cause is not known. An emotional up- set may be the trigger setting off a seizure. Some patients feel a picture coming on and have time to prepare for it, withdrawing from whatever activity they are doing. Heredity is not now considered to be a very important factor in epi- lepsy.

Craig Bros. Founded Fifty Years Ago

JOHN CRAIG

W. C. CRAIG

The lot from which Craig Broth- ers have continued to serve the public for 50 years was purchased from the late Matt Brimacombe and the contractor in charge of the construction of the first section of the old frame store was Wally Geoff. The second storey of the original store served as a tempor- ary home for Mr. and Mrs. John Craig with quarters left for a hall available for community meetings and entertainments. As Raymond Tay- lor relates that the first concert in Vermilion on the evening of the first agricultural fair in October, was held in this hall. It was put on by the church wardens and the vestry of St. Saviour's Anglican church. The hall was filled to capa- city, so much so that Craigs became alarmed and hurried to secure help to reinforce the floor. The first Methodist church bazaar under the supervision of Rev. Aldridge was held there that same month.

Bingo Car Won By Mrs. Wm. McGinnis

Mrs. William McGinnis, a 61-year- old grandmother, drove home a new Dodge sedan from the car bingo held by the Vermilion Curling club in the rink on Saturday night last Mrs. McGinnis was the first and only person to call "bingo" for the grand prize and so won it without a tie-breaker.

The whole affair was very well handled with Marshall Jackson making an excellent job of caller and emcee. Approximately 1300 people attended and the net was just over the $900 mark. As this was the first bingo of the season extra expenses were necessary in the way of planks for seats etc.

The list of prize winners follows: Steam iron, Ralph Landen, Dev- berry, Rod and Reel, Mrs. M. L. ## No Change In Policy

The fact that a member of the Standard staff is contesting the provincial election on June 20th, does not change the policy of the Vermilion Standard in respect to politics. The Standard will maintain its independent attitude with its advertising and news columns available to all parties on exactly the same basis. 48-51

It Has Happened Before

Editor Horton of the Vegreville Observer probably the possessor of more political lore and history than any person known to the Standard, points out that in 1940 Dominion and Alberta elections were held within one week of each other. That was certainly a time of political confusion says Mr. Horton, and from experiences in the current situation, it can well be imagined that such was the case only more so

Jubilee Brings Forth Curiosities

Vermilion's Jubilee year is bringing forth many rare curiosities and among them is a cake plate shown the Standard by Mrs. Dennis Cooper. The plate is painted with a picture of First Street south looking east from the present location of the Texaco Service It bears very little resemblance to the street as it is today.

WRONG HEADING, BORRY

Rules For Traffic Safety

Traffic accidents could be plentiful, but many of them can be prevented, if drivers will observe the commonsense rules of safety.

1. Keep plenty of space between you and the car ahead. Moving at 60 miles an hour you may travel up to 200 feet before you can bring the car to a stop

2. On crowded streets, be able to stop your car within its own length

3. To keep reflexes swift, stop for coffee or a similarly safe refresher every 100 miles Stretch your legs too

4. If you start to feel sleepy, pull well over to the side of the road until refreshed. Your drowsiness will increase to the danger point unless you rest.

5. Even when the highway appears to be clear never exceed the speed limits Beyond the limit is danger and, possibly death!

6. Keep a sharp look-out for farm tractors moving at a slow pace. Slow down immediately you sight such a vehicle and keep full control of your car

STOCK WATERING DUGOUTS

The Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act provides help in planning stock watering dugouts Grants are made where instructions are carried out Anyone can get application forms at this office The north-ern boundary of the P.F.R.A. district is 25 miles south of Vermilion and 6 miles north of Lloydminster. Now is the time of the year to plan one or more of these stock watering dugouts This district is away behind other parts of Alberta in taking advantage of this policy. CUT HAY EARLY

Experimental farms have made careful checks on the best time to cut hay. They have found that it should be cut at heading-out time they loose value If it is left standing longer than heading out it is not be afraid to sharpen up the mower knife on the middle of June instead of the middle of July

AUTOMATIC EGG WASHER

At last they have invented egg washers which will clean up to two dozen per hour A lot of people won't be sorry to hear that eggs can be washed without all the drudgery of scraping and hand rubbing with steel wool etc. Why didn't somebody think of this before"

HEDGE TRIMMING

People tired of cutting hedges with hand clippers can fix up a power clipper very cheaply A motor from an old vacuum cleaner is used for power and the knife is mounted on the frame Anyone interested can get the plan and instructions at my office or send for them direct

USING 2, 4-D

It is agreed that 9 out of 10 fields of grain are left too long before spraying with 2, 4-D to kill the weeds Weeds are killed more easily in the early stages of their growth. It takes less chemical and there is less chance of causing damage to the crop. Besides there is more moisture left for the crop when weeds are killed early in the season Get a circular from this office about spraying with 2, 4-D

WEANING AT SEVEN DAYS

Now anyone says it pays to wean pigs at 7 days Don't try it unless you have a well balanced pig starter At 8 weeks old early weaned pigs have weighed 15 pounds more than pigs robbing with stand weaned etc. Why raised on the sow

Craig Bros. Stores Founded 50 Years Ago

Many are the happy stories of these early pioneers relate of Vermilion in its infancy and some of the glowing accounts brought their father R. L. Craig and family across from Olds in 1908, and the part he and brothers-in-law played in the development of the early settlers from the Eastern Townships of Quebec — the McCraes, Brownells, Symes, Sweets, Scales and Frasers. Mr. R. L. Craig was also a keen sportsman and an area as a mighty fine auctioneer. There was never a dull moment at one of his sales and occasionally, no doubt, some of his sales-happy customers were surprised at things they bought. Apparently it runs in the family as one of his grandaughters, Kathleen, has a local reputation for her susceptibility at auction sales

Albert West who joined the firm here in 1909 had moved to Olds with his parents Rev. and Mrs. West in 1903 and while there had also been in the employ of W. M. Craig and Co. He later married Miss Lord and Mrs R. L. Craig's daughter Isabel Through their years of continued residence here Mr. and Mrs. West have proved themselves very fine citizens and a credit to the community Mr West has been a director of the Agricultural Society for many years, a charter member of the Elks lodge active in the Board of Trade hockey, and curling club and in the early days in football. Playing for many years on local and provincial championship teams. In musical circles he gave generously of his fine voice to choir and solo work, and was rated as one of the better trumpet players in the province. Mrs. West was a charter member of the O.E.S. and has remained active in the order through the years. She has also taken an active part in the Old Timers Association and was the secretary for a lengthy period She has given freely of her time and musical taelnts to thecmo Hoift musical society, choir and community and has made many an occasion happier and brighter by her work at the piano and church organ.

Vermilion had quite a building boom for the first couple of years involving churches, residences, stores and hotels. The three hotels, Vermilion, Alberta and Brunswick were all built about the same time and W. C. Craig recalls attending the opening banquets at three of these Brunswick in the company of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Macnab and Norman Murray.

Craig first business extension was in 1911 when Lauren Lamont came to dispose of his Cummings' store and devote all his time to his land farming interests. Bailey Wilson operated this business for Craig's until they disposed of it a few years later when the first world war started.

When war broke out in 1914 W.C. Craig enlisted and after being wounded, returned to Canada to organize the 194th Battalion of Kilties. He became Lieut.-Colonel and Lieut.-Colonel and he and his officers had a full complement of enlisted men in the Battalion recruited by from the district between here and Edmonton in the two months short period of eight weeks. Chum's cheery personality and ready wit made him well loved by his men. His propensity for compromise must have been evident even in those days, judging by the nickname his men gave him: "Fifty-Fifty" Craig. In April 1918, Craig's store was one of the 22 business places wiped out by the big fire. Immediate steps to a and building place that evening with merchandise dumped in back yards and any place that could be hidden from the greedy flames. and the basements next morning were charred, smoldering, grey mess of rubble. Business was resumed in very short order in large tents located where C. Porter and Wm. Mitt now live. These tents were thoroughly and completely blown down a short time later in an altitude high wind and dust storm, and the pegs soon pounded in again until a temporary business building across the lane from the Bank of Commerce was completed. They operated here until the fine fireproof brick structure was erected on the same location as their first building.

In 1923 they bought a business in Tuetzbeck, Sask., and at this time W. C. Craig took over the management. Vermilion missed his genial and always ready to serve the community and his company.

In 1927 they entered business in Hanna purchased Bank buying the the firm of Hobbs & Jackson. This store is at present operated by W C Craig and Donald Craig Jr.

In 1935 they opened a small business in Prince Albert. This has grown and progressed under the direction of Mr John Craig, his son Hugh and his son-in-law Mr Chas. Mousley.

Mr and Mrs. John Craig moved to Prince Albert in 1935. Vermilion however, always rings the bell of home to them. Every visit John Craig frequently renews acquaintances and enjoys reminiscences with old friends here.

Both Mr and Mrs. John Craig were born and very much of their life was lived here as a graduate nursing and a fine mother to her four children. She was a Charter member of the L.O.D.E. in Vermilion and served in church activities with all a pioneer's enthusiasm while Mr. Craig served many years as town councillor, school trustee, member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist church. He was a Charter member of the Elks Lodge, loyal supporter of the Board of Trade, a member of the Board of Directors of the Agricultural Society, a canvasser of the district for the first municipal hospital, always ready and willing to help a friend and a worthy cause.

On Mr. Craig's departure to Prince Albert, Mr. A. M. West and Mr. E. M. Stewart who joined the firm in 1934, assumed management of the local store. The store has continued to serve following the policy of honesty, integrity and of quality merchandise. They feel that much of their success is due to the fine staff they have in their store and it is their earnest endeavor to continue in the future as in the past to "Serve you with a smile"

170 Children From Primary School Hold Track Meet

There was quite a different atmosphere about the Primary school on June 3rd when the Primary track meet was held with excellent weather conditions prevailing.

Approximately 170 children took part in the morning's activities and, though this made no pretense at being a championship meet some very good broad jumps were recorded and there certainly was no lack of enthusiasm. The competitors may have been little but, it energy and effort amount to anything it certainly was a big day for many of them.

To the parents and friends who so ably and cheerfully assisted in making the day a success, the staff of the Primary school wish to extend their thanks and grateful appreciation. It is to be hoped that the unaccustomed ball-catching and herding did not leave the ladies with the usual bad after-effects.

Golden Wedding At Mannville

MANNVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Calder celebrated their golden wedding anniversary by holding open house on Monday, May 23 to their many friends and neighbors. A family dinner on Sunday at the home of their son Edward brought together 43 of the family and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Calder were married in Brockville, Ont. on May 23, 1905 and started west the next day for Moose Jaw. The same year Manitoba was admitted to the Confederation and renamed Saskatchewan. From there his employer sent him to Moyre, east of Cranbrook, to build cottages for the employees of Porto Rico Lumber Co. Here they remained for three years before moving to a ranch on the Arrow Lakes and then in 1920 to Lake Geneva district, and later to their present home. Of the nine children born to the Calders, one son died in infancy, one was killed and one son Duncan, a corporal in the Edmonton Regiment died of wounds in Italy in 1944. The remaining children are Margaret (Mrs. Chas Lynch), Edward, Gladys (Mrs. David Watson), Jean (Mrs. Ed Sclenski), Flora (Mrs. Jack Sclenski), David and Billy. BILL IRVINE SAYS:

The unfair allocation of box cars is sabotaging the Wheat Pool. The Liberal government has played into the hands of the private grain trade in this matter. Farmers of the Prairie Provinces built with hard-earned money through their Pools thousands of elevators which helped greatly to break the control of the grain trade by the private enterprising speculators. Farmers want to retain their pool which has served them so well.

The CCF is fighting that battle for farmers now by a bill which would make it possible for farmers to ship their grain through the elevator of their choice and that box cars be allocated accordingly.

The noose is now around the neck of the Wheat Pool. Let's take that noose and put it around the neck of the grain speculators. This can be done by voting CCF June 20th.

JAMES A. SMITH

The Social Credit Party is the farmer's true friend. Social Credit would be able to provide real markets for agricultural products at fair prices. The Social Credit Party has always favoured the Canadian Wheat Board as one of the best selling agencies yet designed to handle the farmer's wheat and, at the same time give the farmer a more stable price.

It must be remembered, however that while the Wheat Board is the sole selling agency, unless other wheat producing nations are willing to unite in world wheat agreements, the Wheat Board must operate on a free competitive international market and is therefore subject to the fluctuations and bargaining of other nations.

The Liberal Government while supporting the Wheat Board as an institution has left it to struggle as best it can in such a complex world market. The Wheat Board needs to be strengthened in its selling policy by proper adjustment of monetary policies so that it is able to compete with other nations without loss to the farmer. The Social Credit Party is the only party in Canada that offers such financial policies as will enable other countries to purchase our wheat.

The Social Crediters also believe in parity so that farmers do not take the rap on what they buy in relation to the prices they receive for what they sell.

The late Robert Fair M.P. for Battle River Camrose always fought hard for a square deal for the farmer. Your Social Credit candidate James A. Smith, Campaign Manager for Mr. Fair in the last number of elections, will continue to fight relentlessly for the farmer as Mr. Fair did.

Don't let Mr. Fair down. Don't let Social Credit down. Don't let yourself down!

Twenty-four Students In Class

High School Graduates Honored At Banquet And Dance

Twenty-four grade 12 students were honored at graduating exercises held Friday evening May 28. The program was comprised of a banquet, presentation of awards and dance. Designed to be a long remembered event in the life of the departing students the complete program was well arranged, very smoothly carried out and proved most interesting to graduates, school friends, parents and guests, who gathered together for this climax of the school year.

THE BANQUET

The banquet held in the Legion hall comprised of a full course turkey dinner, was served by the ladies of the United church W.A. Principal James Bell was toastmaster and the Blessing given by the Rev. K. Minchin. Mayor Melvin Hill proposed the toast to Her Majesy the Queen.

INTRODUCE GRADUATES

Introduction of the graduates was made by two grade eleven students, Patricia Fenton and John Scott. Brief remarks about each of the graduands indicated the accomplishments and feats by which each will be remembered, and told of their plans for the future.

TOAST TO THE GRADUATES

Margaret Watt of Grade 11, in toasting the graduates, told of the fine example they had set for the students who followed, and wished them success on their future road of life. This brought forth a very able reply from graduate Duncan Locke.

JEAN KIBBLEWHITE, VALEDICTORIAN

Valedictorian of the class was a young lady who has taken her entire school career in Vermilion, Jean Kibblewhite. Her remarks were based on Truth and Ideals. The thoughts expounded in the address certainly indicate that the young people of today do not lack fundamental characteristics and high ideals. She also noted with a touch of regret that the association and companionship of their school life, so much enjoyed, would be coming to an end.

GREETINGS FROM BOARD

Mr Donald Taylor chairman of the local school board, congratulated the students on their graduation. As this was the Golden Anniversary year of the province and of the Town of Vermilion as well, Mr. Taylor told of the first school room in Vermilion opened in 1906. He mentioned the fact that only one of those who attended that first school now lived in town, Miss Beth Witherbe. He also had the names of the first class of graduates of the high school 1915 and noted that two nieces of those graduates were among the graduates tonight, Peggy Stephens and Jean Kibblewhite. Furthermore one of those grads Mrs. Eldem (then Miss Lillian Oakley) was presently a member of the town teaching staff and was present this evening.

A beautiful bouquet was presented to Mrs Eldem by Miss Peggy Stephens whose uncle Dr Harry Stephens, was also a member of that first grad class.

Mrs. Eldem in accepting the bouquet said that the intervening years had brought their ups and downs, happiness and sorrow, and it was likely that the present grads will experience the same, but through it all, keep your chin up.

ELKS AWARDS

Two greatly prized Elks scholarships, awarded to the students in grade 9 and grade 12 each year, to the student making the greatest contribution to the academic, social and athletic life of the school, were won by Lila Porter in grade 9 and Jean Kibblewhite for grade 12. Each scholarship is for $25 and were presented by Mr. Aldous Kent, Exalted Ruler of the local Elks Lodge.

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

The system of awards was explained by Mr Bell. These are given for versatility including academic standing, sports and leadership as connected with school activities.

Crests indicating that the student had amassed 25 points or more went to Eileen Bauer, Pat Bentley, Margaret Goodwin and Donna Cooper of grade 10, and to Ed Frissell, Brent Long, Frances Puckett, Ken Shepherd, Alice Simonsen, Joyce Armstrong, Grace Kindrachuk, Alice Seuffert, Bill Stonehouse, Al McPherson and Bob Stonehouse.

WINGS, 50 POINTS OR OVER

BARS, 75 POINTS OR OVER

Rhona Hodgson, Bob Hemmingway, Sue Carmichael, Rhea Ireland, Duncan Locke, Erva Sweet, Gerry Marshall.

PINS, 100 POINTS

Viola Maggs, Duncan Locke.

A ring indicating 125 points was won by Hazel Barr; a sweater by Anne Stewart with 150 points.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS BY MR S. C. HECKBERT

The commencement address was given by Mr S C Heckbert, who referred to the grads as a very select group of young men and women, and alluded to their diplomas as a bunch of keys — keys to unlock the doors of whatever profession or vocation they chose to follow in future. Mr Heckbert skillfully followed the Jubilee theme and the beautifully worded address will live long in the memories of the graduates.

THE GRADUATES

UNDER-GRADUATES

Bob Hemmingway, Harold Jones, Victor Kuzek, Viola Maggs, Richard Sweet, Robert Taylor, Betty West.

GRADUATION PROM

The gay graduation prom was the final function of the program. It was held in the gayly decorated armories and a bright and colorful scene was provided by the young people, to bring to an end the 1955 graduation.

Plain Talk

DR. F. M. (MAC) SMITH
Liberal Candidate

Over one million new citizens have entered Canada through selective immigration since the end of the war. Governmental policy has followed the line stated by Mr. King in 1947. First, we must have permanent immigrants on a selective basis. Immigration into Canada is to be regarded not as a right but as a privilege to be extended. The national economy should be ready and able to absorb the influx, and it should not unduly disturb the ethnic balance of the country. In 1954, we admitted a total of 154,000, 43,000 came from Britain, 28,000 from Germany, 24,000 from Italy and 18,000 from the Netherlands to mention only the larger groups. An effort is made to select immigrants from countries with institutions as similar to our own as possible, as they assimilate more easily. Also, those sponsored by relatives in Canada, or with special technical skills are favored. Every new citizens is a customer for western agricultural products, every increase in domestic consumption brings the day of the stable farm economy nearer.

4H Club News

A showing and fitting demonstration of calves was held at the farm of Mr. Nick Stepanoff on Monday afternoon May 23. An interesting and informative talk and display was given by Mr. E. H. Buckingham on Showmanship and Calf Training. Mr. Bruce Jeffery carried on with a demonstration of grooming, washing, hoof trimming and clipping.

Attendance was very good with 17 of the members present.

A short meeting was held after all had enjoyed an excellent lunch in the Stepanoff home. Thematic displays was the main topic under discussion and in line with the present pushing towards universal dehorning, the members appeared quite enthused with the idea of building of a dehorning display. A committee including the executive, Fred Weeks, President and Marion Holgate Secretary, was nominated to organize the building of this display. The calves were shown at the Lloydminster Fat Stock show on June 6th.

The calves were shown and sold at the Lloydminster show and sale held at the Union stock yards. Mr. Bob Cooper from Fairview did an excellent job of placing the animals. Top honors were awarded Marion Holgate who won first for her well finished Shorthorn calf. Second went to Freddy Oester.

A tasty lunch was served on the exhibition grounds by the Paradise Valley Club members.

The sale of calves commenced at 1 p.m. with a keen attitude among the buyers. The P.V. calves averaged 19¼c with the top calf bringing 20¼c and the bottom animal 18¼c. This price range indicates to some extent the quality and uniformity of the calves. The boys and girls of the Paradise Valley Calf club are certainly to be highly commended on their excellent efforts.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Important Notice — Our next dance is Thursday June 16 in the Legion hall. Because the weather is so unsettled the executive felt it best to stay indoors for this dance and try to have one of our July dances outside. So remember next Thursday, June 16 in Legion hall. Harold Schacher will be calling.

Square Up and Have Fun.

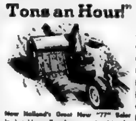
"Up to 10 Tons an Hour!"



New Holland's Great New "77" Baler is breaking all sales records. It's the only one-man baler with a capacity of up to 10 tons an hour!

Farmers faced with the high cost and scarcity of labor are mechanizing faster than at any other time in history. And that's why it'll pay you right now to take a good look at your present baling equipment.

Can it be operated by one man—or does it require two, three or four to get in the hay? Have you a baler that'll handle up to 10 tons an hour or only half as much?

Compare New Holland's high capacity "77" twine baler with any other on the market. No other baler has a record of baling leadership to compare with New Holland's — more than 10 years experience as America's pioneer and leading manufacturer of automatic pick up balers!

Vermilion, Alberta.

Dear Editor:

In an address presented to the Legion at a recent church parade, Mr. Minchin used a phrase from "Voltaire" in which he quoted:

"I do not agree with what you say but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

This was significant to the writer, particularly with the factions there are that would completely eliminate one of our basic freedoms even in Canada, the more we ask our Governments to do and provide things for us, the less we have to say in the operations of our own affairs. This caused some thought, that in the month of June this area particularly will be given the opportunity of expressing itself through the ballot box, in two elections, first for the Federal and secondly for the Provincial houses, this is probably the only time we will meet this circumstance.

The percentage of voters exercising their franchise has been, at times, alarmingly small, and now is the time to really use the privilege we have, in placing our mark on the party or man we favor, always remembering that we can give thanks that we have that privilege and at the same time thank God for men in the past who defended our right to be individuals and not just a number to be ordered around by the State. A high recording of voters should give us more percentage, and a closer indication of a majority will of the people.

I feel that no one would turn down a request for transportation on the days of both elections, for those who are incapacitated, our people have always been ready to do this.

Thank you for this space. I am [illegible] sincerely,
Thos. Watts

Vermilion, Alberta.
June 9th, 1955.

Editor, Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.
Dear Sir:

Through the courtesy of these columns I wish to put forth a few suggestions regarding the Vermilion Provincial park.

I think that it will be generally agreed that as it now stands the park has very little to offer. In fact the condition it is in at the present time leaves but two things, swimming in the old original swimming pool which we have always had from the early days, and fishing at the dam and below. Boating is out, owing to the water level and dead tree hazard, as is good swimming on the south shore.

My suggestions without elaboration are as follows:

1. DEVELOP the north side for bathing from a point where the old dam was, for approximately one mile to the west, for a lovely sandy beach. The sand is there, feet deep, in its natural state, just begging for use.

2. DEVELOP the south side for your picnic grounds with the camp kitchens, barbecue pits, camping sites, boat piers etc. These are natural, abundant woods, and simply need the undergrowth scrubbed out.

3. In the fall drain the water from the flats and this time properly clean out and brush the bottom while it is frozen during the winter.

Certainly the above will take money but at least we will then have a park in Vermilion that will have everything to offer both tourists and district residents.

Thanking you, I remain,
Yours truly,
Percy E. Cooper.

Jolly Horses Win At Regina Race Meet

The race horses trained and owned by Bob Jolly were out in front at the Regina race meet this past week. Scott Axworthy driven by Bob Jolly was 1st in the 4th race and 3rd in the 7th. Bill Todd was 4th in the 6th and Gena Lee Scott was 5th in a colt race leading the field of 8 for three-quarters of a mile. Dick Griffith, trainer, drove Bill Todd. The horses were handicapped by a soft sandy track, being trained on a hard track in Vermilion. There are 120 head of "the best in the west" horses at Regina this week and to all horse lovers they are a joy to behold. The competition in all classes is very keen and the pari-mutuels get a good play each day.

A bare mare, Dixie Lee Harvester, owned and trained by Bob Jolly at Vermilion one year ago, and sold to W. W. Thompson of Weyburn, Sask., is racing at Regina, out in front of a good field. She is being taken to the States. Thompson also bought her sire, Lee Scott Harvester who was owned and trained by Mr. Jolly at North Battleford, prior to his moving to Vermilion.

Air Force Day At Cold Lake Saturday, June 11th; Open House

This year the RCAF will celebrate its 9th annual Air Force day on Saturday, June 11. For the first time, the RCAF's largest post-war air station located at Grand Centre, Alberta, will be holding 'Open House for the citizens of north-eastern Alberta and western Saskatchewan.

Air Force Day, 1955 at RCAF Station Cold Lake, Grand Centre, will emphasize all day entertainment for the whole family. On display will be some of the latest equipment and aircraft that the RCAF has to offer for close-up ground observation and an air show featuring a helicopter, a simulated para-rescue operation, a rocket and bomb dropping demonstration and a fly past of Canada's latest jet propelled aircraft. Because of the distance that many of the visitors will have to come the program will include in addition to the normal air and ground displays recreation in the form of an invitation baseball tournament, monster bingo and dance. Light refreshments will be served during the afternoon and an old fashioned bean supper will also be available for visitors at a nominal charge.

THE PROGRAM

The Air Force Day program will be as follows:

2:00 p.m. — Opening.

Static Ground Display — Engines, weapons, and general air force equipment. Inspection of Barrack Blocks and Airmen's mess. Model aircraft display.

4:00 p.m. — Air Show

4:30-7:30 p.m. — Invitation baseball tournament.

7:30 p.m. — Monster Bingo with valuable prizes.

9:00-12:00 p.m. — Dance.

During the day sabre jets will break the sound barrier; bombing will take place against sets set up on the airfield; old fashioned bean supper will be served.

The program is being spread out through the afternoon and evening so that something will be going on at all times.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

A family I know plans regular "collecting" trips for their 4 children. As a result the children never lack for rainy day or sick bed entertainment.

On seashore trips for instance, the children forage for shells or seaweed. When they go to a park, the loot consists of grasses, wild flowers, stones or leaves.

En route they collect menus, maps, postcards, recipes and even car and luggage stickers. This miscellany which would seem like junk to most people is transformed into gay and useful gadgets.

Pretty pebbles fill a bowl to make a pencil holder for the desk. Others make bean bags, decorate their aquarium or fill pots for ivy and philodendron. Large smooth stones are painted with designs to form paperweights and still larger ones are used as doorstops.

Grasses, leaves, flowers and seaweed have been dried and pressed, pasted on colored paper and framed to make pictures.

The day I saw them the children were making a jig-saw puzzle from picture postcards reinforced in back with cardboard and pasted together to form a complete picture of Niagara's wonders. It was pouring outside but there was plenty of sunshine in that house.

Alberta Jubilee Anthology Is An Outstanding Book

The Alberta Golden Jubilee Anthology is a significant cultural event. Contained within its gold and green covers, in articles, fiction and poetry, is the work of approximately 100 Alberta authors, and more could have been included if the plan of the book had permitted.

The anthology is divided into 7 sections. The first four present the story of Alberta in a series of impressionistic pictures.

"The Romance of Yesterday" the first section, describes Alberta up to 1905, including the Indians, the first white men, the arrival of the Mounted Police, and the stories of early missionaries, ranchers and farmers.

The period from 1905 to 1945 is described in the second section — "Our Changing Year". The Alberta of today, its education and health services, its hunting and fishing, its parks, art, music and drama are portrayed in the third section — "The Alberta Scene".

No description of any Province would be complete without a glimpse of the economic stucture and "The Golden Decade", the fourth section provides this. Section four tells of ranching and farming, of the great natural resources, of oil and natural gas, and the industries, old and new.

In the first four sections, there is a dramatic and colorful view of the Alberta of past, present and future, with the courage, optimism, and pioneering spirit of the people connecting all with a strong theme. Obviously, no detailed description of Alberta could be presented in one volume but the articles cover the highlights of Alberta's greatness.

Alberta writers rank high in fiction and poetry and are represented in the anthology in two sections. The first, "This Is One of My Best", is made up of reprints (the only reprints in the book, which is composed almost entirely of original writing) of short story and radio writers. Here is one of Ross Annett's appealing "Babe" stories from The Saturday Evening Post, and a short story by W. O. Mitchell, of High River, whose Jake and the Kid" series on the CBC, and novels are known to all Canadians. Elsie Park Gowan, noted Edmonton radio writer, is represented here as well as Dr. W. G. Hardy, Edmonton novelist, short story writer, and university classics professor. The entire anthology was prepared under the direction of Dr. Hardy, editor-in-chief and an editorial board.

The second imaginative section contains unpublished stories by writers whose work has been recognized and by writers who are now making their first appearance in print. A fine selection of poetry contains the work of approximately 30 Alberta poets with "A Message for Tomorrow" by Dr. Irene Parlby concluding the book.

A reader of the Alberta Golden Jubilee Anthology will soon realize that Alberta is rich in literary talent and that probably no other Canadian province can boast a larger proportion of writers. The basic thought behind the production of the Anthology was to produce a collection of the best unpublished work of Alberta authors to commemorate the Golden Jubilee. Thanks to the generous patronage of the Alberta government, writers in Alberta have been offered an opportunity of an encouraging start that no other government could provide.

The work of preparing the Anthology has revealed an astonishing number of writers in Alberta. More than 1000 manuscripts were received, the majority showing clear literary merit. More could have been printed had more space been available.

In appearance, the Anthology is attractive. Its cover has a spine in gold foil and the title is gold on a dark green background. It contains 12 color photographs, 16 half tone photogaphs and full color reproductions of the eight prize-winning paintings by Alberta artists. The appearance is further enhanced by a number of full-page illustrations as well as 50 chapter-heading illustrations by H. G. Glyde, R.C.A. The type has been selected for easy reading.

The World of Wheat

By W. G. MALAHER,
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Co. Ltd.

EARLY CHEMICAL TREATMENT OF WEEDS

So rapid has been the development in the field of chemicals that it is very easy sometimes to overlook recommendations which are fundamental if the greatest success is to be achieved in the control of weeds.

One of these recommendations — the necessity for early treatment of weeds with chemicals — has been strikingly illustrated through some experiments conducted at the University of Manitoba during the past few years. In a carefully arranged experiment, 2, 4-D (ester form) at the rate of 4 ounces per acre, was used on plots of wheat, 19, 29 and 35 days after emergence or at what corresponded to the 4-leaf, 6-leaf and shot blade stage. The treatment was carried out on plots where no weeds were present as well as on plots where the weed density had been carefully noted. As a check, other similarly laid out plots were not sprayed at all.

The results showed very clearly indeed that chemical treatment should be given just as early as it may be safely carried out and should be timed to eradicate weeds while they are still young and before they have damaged the crop. Substantially increased yields were shown from crops sprayed at the 4-leaf and 6-leaf stages compared with those not treated at all or with those treated later in the season. Equally convincing results were obtained in the case of oats sprayed with 2, 4-D (amine form) at the same intervals but at what corresponded to the 3, 6 and 7-leaf stages. In this case, however, the earliest spraying, at the 3-leaf stage, was followed by far the best yields.

BIG INSURANCE SPURT

New life insurance purchased by Canadians in April amounted to $269.5 millions, an increase of 24.1 per cent over sales of $217.4 millions in the same month last year. Sales were higher in all provinces except Newfoundland, New Brunswick and [illegible].

The Alberta Golden Jubilee Anthology is a book every Albertan will want, both as a memory of the Jubilee Year and as a book of permanent interest and literary quality.

GLASS FOG FIGHTER

An anti-fogging liquid for glass is said to be the best [illegible] preventative for spectacles, windows and window screens now available, reports the Financial Post. It's even claimed you can read with glasses in a Turkish bath. And it stops that [illegible] clouding of bathroom mirrors and fogging of car windows. Comes in a pocket-size eyeglass applicator, much like a lipstick container, or in large squeezable bottles for windows.

Freezer Bingo Raises Funds for Mannville Arena

MANNVILLE. — The Freezer Bingo on Wednesday last was not as well attended as the sponsors hoped it would be. However there were twenty worthwhile prizes and the following were the winners:

G.E. steam iron, Ken Scoggins; ironing table, Wm. Gerhart; G.E. radio, Mrs. Art Baker; Sunbeam percolator, C. Ewing; Tri-lite, Mrs. F. McLaughlin; bike, Lee Donnenworth; ladies' wrist watch, Jack Marfleet, Vermilion; Remington shaver; Mrs. M. Yarmuch, Vermilion; Jr. Mixmaster, Lillian Newton, Minburn; Electric fry pan, W. F. Smith; G. E. steam iron, Jack Marfleet, Vermilion; Cooey rifle, Ilene McDonald; G.E. mantel radio, Harold Whitson; automatic toaster, Amy Hollenbeck, Vermilion; Sunbeam electric shaver, Wm. Myhovich; shotgun, Allan Emmott; Montrose gents' wrist watch Mrs. P. Hawley; Luggage, Mrs. E. Prill; Electric kettle, Mike Yarmuch, Vermilion; Home freezer Walter Hinse.

There will be another bingo for the arena fund in the near future and the committee would like to see everyone support this worthy cause. The gym is a pleasant place to spend an evening, the seats are comfortable, lighting is adequate, the bingo cards are easy to handle and prizes are good. Let's all support the arena fund and fill the gym for the next bingo.

The purebred calf donated by W. Sargent was drawn for and the lucky ticket holder was Mr. H. Doherty. He chose the name Lucky Lucinda for the calf.

Then Mr. C. Gamble auctioned off the churn (90 years old, or so he claimed) that the tickets were mixed up in. $25 was the final bid and the new owner of the churn was Mr. Philip Mays of Wainwright. He will probably stand it in the lobby of his new theatre. Mr. C. Ewing donated the churn.

A dance in the Orange hall completed the evening.

Pleasant Valley

The blossoms are really grand now through the hills and valleys. A good rain is needed, the gardens are very slow coming through the ground. If frost keeps away there should be lots of wild berries this year. The tulips are now blooming forth in several different and beautiful colors.

The writer enjoyed visits on Friday from Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Gillies, Linda Gould, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Frissell who was visiting brother Christie on the farm.

It was more of a fashion parade indoors and out, got a few black marks here and there ladies, the cement was a little rough. What did I hear about Mrs. Gillies practising for the Lloydminster stampede? — Over the hills and far away on a wild steed. On top of the hill she had a spill and Percy lost all his coffee. Try again Lily and hang on, you can make it. It really made us laugh. How did you get on the horse?

WEDDING BELLS

There was a lot of excitement at the Simmons home last week. There were two weddings. Their grandson Robert Dibb was married at Calgary to Miss Jean Greig who comes from B.C., and their daughter Irene was married to James Goodbey of Edmonton.

Mr. Simmons drove the family to Calgary for the wedding returned to Edmonton the same day. You should be a bus driver Herb. They drove back to Islay too the same day. On Wednesday they all took off for Edmonton to attend Irene's wedding. All arrived home Thursday to a grand banquet of turkey with all the trimmings. What a day.

Helen Drysdale niece of the bride wore a blue suit with pink accessories. Lyntha Simmons the bride's sister-in-law wore a grey floral dress. A brother of the groom was best man. The groom's four brothers and parents came down for the reception and returned to Edmonton the same night. His Uncle Ben from Grande Prairie was present also. It's a long way from home.

Twenty-nine signed the guest book that evening.

Mr and Mrs. W. Barnett and yours truly arrived to wish them the best. A very jolly evening was spent.

On Friday evening another good time was enjoyed when fifty arrived at the Simmons home and a shower was held for Irene. She received some lovely and useful gifts. A dainty lunch was served. Quite a number attended from Vermilion and Wainwright.

On Sunday Mr. Simmons made another trip to Edmonton to take them back and returned the same night. It was a lot of driving for a man so young. Let's see now is it 73 Herb? You should receive a driving medal from the family. "Oh my eyes".

Irene returned to her work at Woodwards on Wednesday. By the way folks she has held her job there for the past 15 years. See how reliable she is, James! Let us hope your years together will be long and happy.

"Not for just a day
Not for just a year
But always."

"STEERING WHEEL FARMING"
Gives Agriculture a Brighter Look

Great changes have taken place in farming in recent years—changes that have brought new concepts of crop production and animal husbandry; soil and moisture conservation; management and marketing.

Symbol of one of the major changes in farming operations is the steering wheel. It stands for power—power that has been made available through tractors and machines to do practically every job on the farm; power that has given agriculture its greatest lift in centuries—power that has brought opportunities for a greater participation in higher standards of living.

In the promotion of "steering wheel farming" Massey-Harris and Ferguson have made available tractors and implements with outstanding features to apply power in the modern way. Sound, advanced engineering, high standards in materials and manufacture, thorough testing, and prompt efficient service combine to make Massey-Harris and Ferguson machines outstanding in dependability, long life and economy.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE E. KIRK —

FAMILY ROOM NEWS

Family room? That's what the newest kitchens are being called now. And they're really planned and decorated to be the centre of activity in the home — no more pigeon-hole kitchens that have room enough for only one person at a time! This doesn't mean however that efficiency has been forgotten.

Not only is the family room or kitchen the centre of home activity, but in the newest house plans it is also the center of the house. The homemaker is no longer pushed out of the way with only a view of the garbage can to brighten the day.

The new kitchens are large and planed to double as dining room, sewing room, laundry room, nursery or homemaker's office — or probably all of these!

New, is the unconventional arrangement of work areas. The sink, stove and refrigerator may be seen set in peninsulas that divide the family room into sections, or as islands in the centre of the floor (or where most convenient).

Windows are no longer little peepholes. They are large, the larger the better, to provide more natural light and a view of the children's play area.

And, quite definitely, the all-white kitchen is a thing of the past. We now decorate instead of sterilize the kitchen! Color makes a warm, cheerful background for work or relaxation, and makes work-time go faster.

Natural wood finishes are being used on cupboards and beamed ceilings, and stone is found in fireplaces and barbecues. (Yes, we're still in the kitchen with these features!) And bamboo and copper have sneaked in from the living and dining rooms. If we follow the American idea, there will be a TV set in the kitchen too—of all things!

Yes, even the kitchen has accessories. On the market now are canister sets, basket containers, pitchers and other necessities that are styled for use and color. Then there are also hanging shelves, plant brackets, etc. that add to a homey atmosphere in the family room. For a real homey atmosphere, one or two soft lounging chairs come in handy — especially for Mom at coffee break!

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

Mr and Mrs William Stoddart and family and Mr and Mrs Arthur Levitt attended the graduation exercises at Camrose Lutheran college on Friday when Miss Lois Stoddart and Donald Levitt graduated.

Our town was deserted on Friday as so many attended the A.T.A. Sports day at Kitscoty. We have not heard how the P.V. contingent made out at time of writing. P.V. does not appear to have the same outstanding athletes as when they competed against Chauvin, Ribstone and Edgerton in the old days. Possibly the opposition in the north is stronger.

Mr Frank Towndrow has gone to Edmonton to visit with his daughters for a month or so.

Mr and Mrs A M Stewart left Sunday for a trip that will take them through the Western States. They expect to be away for three weeks. Mrs E L Kragness and Mrs Gordon Teasdale are in charge of the store during their holiday.

Mr and Mrs H E Swayne left Monday for Clearwater, Idaho to attend the Golden wedding of Mr Swayne's brother and Mrs Swayne. Mr and Mrs James Swayne will be well remembered by the oldtimers here. It is 30 years since they left Paradise for Idaho. We extend our best wishes to them and hope they will be spared for many years yet to enjoy the eventide of life together.

June 15th has been named as clean up day at Oxville cemetery. We hope that all the shareholders will remember this date and come and give a hand in cleaning up the grounds. A lot of work is to be done, so the more that turn out the less each one will have to do. The annual business meeting will be held after the clean up is completed. Lunch will be served.

The P.V.W.A. of United church held a very successful strawberry tea in the basement of the church on Thursday afternoon.

It is with deep regret that we hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Sigfred Larson who suffered a severe stroke the first part of the week. She is in the Lloydminster hospital. This fine old lady is over 82 years of age and has lived with her daughter Mrs. C. Frederickson since the death of her husband Mr. Louis Larsen.

On Wednesday evening the many friends of Miss Beth McLean gathered in the basement of the United church to shower Beth, a bride elect of this month. Miss Shirley Gunn played the wedding march while Beth was escorted in. Miss Helen Krawchuk made the presentation and an airplane was brought in loaded with gifts. Beth thanked all for the many gifts in a very graceful 'thank you'.

The political pot is beginning to bubble a little around Paradise Valley. We do not know if it will come to a boil or not. With two elections so close together the issues are apt to be confused. At the moment we have not been able to find out what the provincial issue really is.

Mr Stewart Reid who has been relief agent at the C.P.R. for the past few weeks has moved to Kerrobert, Sask. He left Friday for his new position. We understand that Mr. McQueen from Lanigan, Sask., will arrive shortly as the permanent agent.

Of Many Things . . .

By AMBROSE HILLS

BAD DAYS

We can all handle our lives pretty well when things go right. But the big trick is knowing what to do about the bad days when everything seems wrong and the wrong looks so darn permanent.

If I had the answer to the problem, I wouldn't be writing a newspaper column. I'd probably be the Prime Minister of Canada, or safely tucked in some other lovely job. But I do have one hint.

The bad days never seem quite so bad if you haven't taken too much pride in the good ones. So while the good and cheerful days are upon us, give Providence and not yourself the credit.

This is just another way of saying that men are happiest when they place their lives in the hands of a Power higher than themselves. Not a human power — for that would be tyranny; but in a Divine Power — the same Power that spins the universe. It is only when human beings try to play God that they run headlong into lasting disaster.

Winning Essays On Farm Safety

The Farm Safety Essay committee of the Alberta Safety Council reports the conclusion of the essay competition for the present school term. Entries were received from 46 school divisions. Approximately 22,500 pupils of grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 were eligible to compete.

Grades 5 and 6 comprised one division of the contest and grades 7 and 8 the other. Room teachers screened the entries and forwarded only the best for final judging.

A poster was provided for each school room illustrated with various farm machines. The pupils were free to write their story about any farm accidents caused by farm machinery. A great variety of accidents were described and, according to the judges, the quality of writing was good.

School Division prizes consist of attractive wall plaques to be hung in school rooms and a smart lapel pin for the pupil writing the winning essay.

Hon. R. D. Jorenson, Minister of Welfare is chairman of the Farm Safety Essay committee.

Two winners were from the Vermilion School Division, Joan Dibben, a grade 5 pupil at Preston school whose teacher is Mr. John R. Bauman, and Joanne Hohol, grade 7, of Woodvale school. Mr. J. Hohol is the teacher.

STOP, LOOK AND LIVE

—By Joanne Hohol—

Grade 7, Woodvale School

"Mike, I'd rather you left that summer fallow alone today. Dad will be home tomorrow and you two could go at it together." Mike stood facing his objecting mother full of eagerness.

"Aw, please, Mom! It's a lovely day and I'll be close to the farm yard. Don't worry, I'll be perfectly all right." Without waiting for any response Mike turned and strode manfully into the bright summer sunshine. Ten minutes later Mrs Hall saw him drive out of the yard with the tiller behind the big John Deere tractor.

"I guess he'll be allright but it's his first time alone on the tractor," she thought worriedly. But being a busy farm housewife she couldn't take time off for thoughts and was soon hurrying around at her tasks. Every few minutes as she would pass the window she'd glance out to where Mike was working. Everything seemed to be going well as he drove the tractor up and down the rough, hilly land. Half an hour passed, and Mrs. Hall became so absorbed in her housework that she forgot about everything else.

Meanwhile Mike was heading the tractor up a steep incline. As he started following the contour of the hill the steering wheel suddenly jerked, almost wrenching Mike's arm out of its socket. Before he could think or realize he had hit a jagged rock, he was pinned under the tractor. Mike began to struggle, his breath coming hard. Suddenly he became aware of a dry crackling noise. With horror in his eyes he lay still watching angry flames licking up the spilled gas on the motor. Sobbing and panting for breath, he began to struggle fiercely.

Back at home Mrs. Hall straightened suddenly when she heard a frightful explosion. Rushing for the door she heard another 'boom'. At the door she was met by her ten-year-old daughter who had been playing outside.

"Mommy, look!" the girl exclaimed excitedly, pointing to a black ominous cloud rising over the summer fallow field. Mrs. Hall took one look and her fears were justified. She turned to the girl and cried, "Run to Mr Jones' place and tell him there's been an accident with the tractor. Tell him to come quickly!" With that Mrs Hall started running towards the cloud of smoke rising sullenly into the clear sunny sky. Little Kay streaked off in the opposite direction heading for the Jones' farm.

Too late, Mrs. Hall reached the scene of the accident. The tires had both exploded and the whole tractor was now burning wildly. All Mrs Hall could see of her son was a blackened shape lying under the over-turned tractor. She was frantically throwing dirt at the burning machine when Mr Jones and another neighbor arrived with Kay trailing after them. The fire was smothered with earth and the body, a blackened, almost indistinguishable form, was extracted from beneath the tractor. The anguished mother went nearly frantic at the sudden and unexpected loss of her son.

Surely this tragic accident could have been prevented! Farm machinery should be run with the utmost care. Mike should have been "all eyes front" and he would have seen the rock in time to slow down and avoid it. In the first place, he should have listened to his mother and stayed at home. Why must children be so indifferent to their parents' advice? Many lives would be saved if people would be more careful and less impulsive.

STOP, LOOK AND LIVE

—BY Joan Dibben—

Grade 5, Preston Central

"You'll have to hurry if you are going to get that field finished before it rains," Mr. Grove remarked to the hired man, Mike, as he looked up at the cloudy sky.

"Yess, I guess I will," Mike replied.

"Oh, Mike, don't forget to take the shield for the power take-off," Mr Grove reminded him as Mike ran to get the tractor.

Mike reached the field forgetting the shield. He was just going to start the first round when he remembered it.

"Oh, I guess it won't matter this time. Besides, I have to hurry if I am to get that field all done before it rains," he thought.

After working hurriedly all afternoon, Mike was getting tired and decided to stand up for a change. As he did so he looked around the field, thinking to himself, "If only that rain holds off a little longer, I'll get this field done."

Suddenly, Mike felt his pant leg being pulled! He turned around and saw it being wound up in the power take-off.

"Gosh! What am I going to do?" wondered Mike. Then it flashed through his mind the many times he had been warned by Mr Grove to put the shield on.

Suddenly, to Mike's relief, the leg of his jeans ripped so that he was able to pull his leg away from the power take-off. If his jeans hadn't ripped Mike probably would have had a broken leg.

It was a very sheepish Mike that went in for supper that night but Mr Grove made no comment for he thought Mike had learned his lesson. You may be sure he never forgot the shield again!

WILDMERE WINKS

Everyone was sorry to hear of Mr George Dibben being very ill in hospital. All his friends and neighbors wish him a recovery to health and home soon. Mr. and Mrs. Dibben lived for many years in what is now the [illegible] district in fact Mrs. Dibben came here as a bride and their family grew up here. They were grand neighbors. Two of the sons and a daughter still make their home in the district.

A short time ago Lindy Fadden had the pleasure of a visit from his cousin whom he had not seen for 25 years. He is Mr Reid who is an undertaker at Lloydminster. He is bringing his wife and family out from the east soon.

Mr and Mrs. W Ford of town visited a few days with their daughter Mrs. F Gibson and family of Basswood a short time ago.

On Thursday last week Tommy Cairns and Hugh McLean left on their return journey home to Vancouver. Mr Cairns Sr is a little better. We hope you found him much improved Tommy when you got there. Mrs. McLean had to return home earlier when word came that he was ill. We hope to see you all again at some future date folks.

Sickness is still on the go in our district and others too. Charlie Sweeney of Basswood and Lewis Alexander of Battleview are both in hospital suffering from pneumonia. Arnold Ruud also of Battleview has been very sick with the mumps. Roy Garnett of Basswood has also been sick with the mumps. Ernest Sweeney has the measles and we hear Johnny Ruud of Triangle has been ill. To all of these sick friends we wish a speedy recovery.

Quite a number from here attended the school track meet held at Kitscoty last Friday. Marie Smith of Preston central took first in the broad jump in her class, congrats Marie. The ball team did not do so good. The girls won over Paradise Valley but lost to Woodvale. The bys lost to P.V. With so much sickness they have not practiced much and were also short of players that day. Oh well another year is coming, so pep up girls and boys.

There were 51 out to church on Sunday at Basswood and Mr. Plante gave a very interesting sermon. He has his children's choir again this year. Come out folks and see and hear them.

J. C. Wallington is a busy man these days with municipal work. He has three outfits going at once. One outfit gravelling roads, another road building and another patching up holes before they gravel. Lindy Fadden is out with the smaller road patrol smoothing up roads. Oh to be a councillor! Not me!

We wish to congratulate Mrs. W. McGinnis on winning the bingo car at the curling club's big bingo last Saturday night. Now maybe you can come and see us sometime in your nifty new Dodge eh folks.!

WHAT MONUMENT TO BUILD?

When monuments are built to commemorate important people they are usually carved out of inanimate stone after the person is dead and remain inanimate forever.

There is one monument, however, that pulsates with life today as it has from the day it was built and its erection has had a profound effect on Canadian agriculture.

Constructed of sturdy red sandstone the monument is situated on a wide section of the St Lawrence River called Lake St Louis near St. Anne de Bellevue Que. It is known as Macdonald College built by Sir William Macdonald, a wealthy tobacco industrialist while he was still alive. And while he did not intend it to be a monument to himself it nevertheless has become one and his name is remembered daily by thousands of men and women across Canada who have passed through its doors.

In June Macdonald College celebrates its 50th anniversary. In the half century of its existence it has seen many developments which have placed Canada in the forefront of world agriculture, and have helped Canadian farmers to solve many of their basic difficulties.

Several new crop varieties have been developed at Macdonald College. Among them are Montcalm barley, Roxton oats, Dollard red clover, Drummond and Milton timothy, Laurentian Swede turnip and Algonquin corn. Soil fertility tests involving crop rotation and fertilizer use have been conducted at the college since 1911. Superior livestock developed in the college barns has been shipped to many countries of the world for breed improvement.

In addition to developing better farm products, Macdonald College scientists have worked out more efficient methods of marketing and these have been beneficial to both producers and consumers. The college also played a leading role in the establishment of Farm Forums and development of the agronome service in Quebec. The province's first agronomes (agricultural representatives) received training at Macdonald.

Boiled down, Macdonald's pile of red sandstone has given Canada better farming and thus more and better food on the tables of Canadians ... a challenge to future monument builders.

Each year between spring and fall Canada suffers more than 4000 fire outbreaks in her public-owned woodlands, and four-fifths are set going by HUMAN CARELESSNESS. In Scandinavian countries, heavily forested, the public has virtually abolished [illegible]. Canada's annual loss represents enough timber to build [illegible] bungalows.

LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Provincial Minister of Public Works Answers Conservative Questions

EDMONTON — The Alberta legislature won't be the same since the retirement last week of Robert A. "Bob" Andison who has served as assistant clerk and clerk of the house for more than 40 years.

Since his appointment in 1914, only 9 years after Alberta became a province, Bob has sat as "clerk of-the-table" through 46 sessions of the legislature, has served under five different speakers of the house, and has established a length of service record unequalled in Canada.

Although he has sat as an impartial observer through some of the stormiest and bitterest debates of the Alberta house he has managed to remain the most popular and highly regarded member of the public service so far as members of the legislature are concerned.

Perhaps it has been his boundless good nature and eager willingness to help that has kept him that way. Bob has been anxious to help anyone. Social Credit MLA's admit that when they were elected to the legislature in 1935 they couldn't even find their way to the men's washroom.

Bob became their "encyclopedia" on parliamentary rules and procedures having forgotten more points in 40 years than any of the five speakers of the house under whom he has served.

Veteran members and newcomers alike have always gone to Bob for advice on how and when to bring pet subjects into discussion on the floor of the house.

Forty years of close contact with legislative trials and turmoil have given Bob many memories too. And he says most of them are pleasant. It was obvious last week that he felt sorry about leaving as he cleared nearly half a century's accumulation of documents, papers and odds and ends from his big mahogany roll top desk.

Among the pleasant memories is the proud day in 1946 when he received an Imperial Service Order from the King. The award is restricted to persons who devote at least 25 years to the public service and who hold the position of deputy minister or its equivalent. There are only 750 of the awards in the British Commonwealth, and only 250 go outside Great Britain.

During the 1954 session of the legislature, Bob became the only life member of the Alberta Legislative Press Gallery Association.

He was guest of honor last week when fellow employees and friends presented him with a wrist watch. Mrs. Andison was there too, and received a gift of jewelry. Bob's immediate plans include a two-week trip to Banff, following which he will return to Edmonton and watch the results of the June 29 provincial election. Then, in August if a special session of the legislature is called, he will exercise his right as a member of the Press Gallery Association and observe proceedings from above with members of the working press.

ANSWER CONSERVATIVE QUESTIONS

The government isn't letting the Conservative party get far with claims that the election was called so the cabinet could avoid answering questions placed on the order paper by Conservative members. Several Conservative questions directed at the department of public works were left unanswered when the house was dissolved suddenly in May, and Hon. A. J. Hooke minister of the department, answered them last week.

The main question by W.J.C. Kirby (PC, Red Deer) asked why the government specifies precast concrete made by Precast Concrete Ltd., and "YTong" building blocks in provincial building projects.

It also asked if any present or former members of the cabinet or their families have any financial interest in the companies making these products.

Mr Hooke's reply said first that precast concrete and "YTong" are not specified to the exclusion of other products but have been used when there are advantages in using them.

He added that no member of the present cabinet, nor their families have any connection with companies making precast or "YTong". As for former cabinet ministers, he said the government keeps no record of their business activities.

READ COMPLETE GUARANTEE ON EVERY CAN

Through the blending of new and improved oils and pigments Marshall - Wells' chemists have achieved completeness of paint protection never before known! Five years of rigid home testing combined with speeded-up weathering tests in the laboratory proved the five big advantages of "Formula 5".

The most severe test for any paint is on new wood. Here "Formula 5" seals wood pores to provide its own best undercoat; and offers 100% blister-proof protection, bonding so tight that no moisture can make it blister. The same revolutionary qualities that make "Formula 5" blister-proof on new, unpainted wood also make it the most blister-resistant paint you can apply to previously painted wood. Furthermore, "Formula 5" will not stain from nails or other metal rust and will not discolor from sulfurous fumes even in smog-filled air.

On your new home or repaint job use new Marshall-Wells "Formula 5". Once you see its sharper, cleaner white tones and rich colors—you'll never again use a conventional paint.

TREATMENT OF EPILEPSY

Only a qualified medical practitioner should diagnose and treat epilepsy. X-rays and brain-wave recordings give him additional information about the nature and possible causes of the seizures. The electro-encephalograph is the machine which measures brain-waves by a simple and painless procedure. Flat metal discs are held against different parts of the head and the brain's own electrical impulses appear as wavy lines on a roll of paper. By studying these lines the doctor is helped in his diagnosis.

Recent medical advance in the treatment of epilepsy by anti-convulsive drugs used under [illegible] medical control can control [illegible] completely in over 50% of cases and in additional 30% seizures have been checked to such an extent that patients can lead a normal and productive life. It should be noted that treatment is more in the nature of a control than a cure — similar to insulin for diabetes. The medicine is usually taken by [illegible] and each patient must have his dosage carefully planned by his doctor. To attempt to cure oneself by patent medicines is less effective, more expensive and even dangerous.

Once his medical treatment has been worked out for him, the epileptic is faced with considerable social problems. To the ignorant, an epileptic is simply a "person with fits" who is to be [illegible] and treated like an inferior being and he [illegible] find it difficult to get a job or join in games. This can disturb and depress an epileptic and aggravate his seizures. It is to be hoped that education of the public about the true nature of epilepsy will eliminate these prejudices and get a better deal for epileptics. Too many people still think of epilepsy as an indication of mental inferiority and family 'taint' — an attitude which is contrary to the facts. Not only can epileptics hold responsible jobs but they find that physical and mental activity is of great help in overcoming the seizures. It is only in about 5 to 10% of cases that epilepsy is severe enough to require prolonged institutional care. Naturally there are [illegible] jobs which should be avoided, such as driving vehicles, working on scaffoldings or anything involving exposure to moving machinery. It has been found that epileptics do not lose any more time at work than others and also have no greater accident rate. It is unfortunate that many employers are unaware of these facts and are unwilling to hire [illegible]. A person with epilepsy [illegible] be treated as a normal human being who has a handicap which may disappear with proper treatment or continue in milder form.

Epilepsy usually starts in childhood and so more children have epilepsy than any other age group, most cases showing up in the first two years of life. It is important that an epileptic child lead as normal a life as possible and that the parents do not try to do too much or overprotect him as though he were a semi-invalid. A full and happy active schedule rather than a guarded, isolated existence will actually decrease the severity and frequency of the seizure and will help to ensure that the child grows up into an emotionally mature adult. There is no reason why an epileptic child under proper medical care cannot attend a regular school and it is healthy for them to have the companionship of other children of their own age. They do not get hurt at school any more than other children, and the other pupils are not disturbed over seeing a seizure if they know that epilepsy is a disease but not contagious. It is only in severe cases that parents will have to make special arrangements for schooling at home or in special classes. A common sense approach to what the child may or may not do at home and at school should be worked out in consultation with the family doctor.

Polled Hereford Sale Proves Successful

The [illegible] Western Polled Hereford sale held at Olds on May 30 was a [illegible] one. The top ten not quite two-year old and [illegible] bulls averaged $567. All [illegible] animals, bulls, heifers and calves averaged $415. Among the buyers were Barnor Bros., of Botha who got a bull and three heifers; W. A. Lawrence of Youngstown 4 bulls and George Chattaway of [illegible] Ranch, Nanton and Ed [illegible] of Pincher Creek who got two bulls each. The top priced bull went to J. W. Bell of Irma.

Contributors were Wally Hughes of Didsbury, George Truswell of Loney, Sask., and Carl Magnusson of Fogelvik farm, Innisfail. The crippled children's hospital in Calgary got a contribution of $300 when a top horned sire, Bright Mixer 2 went on the block, donated by Fogelvik farm, all proceeds going to this worthy cause.

Highland Games This Saturday Will Be Bigger And Better

From all indications, the Highland Games, to be held this coming Saturday, June 18, at the Vermilion Exhibition grounds, seem to be bigger and better than ever.

Some 80 competitors have entered in the different Piping and Dancing events — from Calgary, Edmonton, Red Deer and Vancouver.

The Edmonton City Police have entered a tug-o-war team, as has the Army from Wainwright. These competitors will also compete in such events as putting the shot, tossing the caber etc.

A special event at the Highland Games this year is a football game between two Edmonton teams, the Victoria D.F.C.'s and the Oliver St. Pats. These are two well matched teams and should provide a real bang-up game. Starting time for the football is 3:30 p.m.

This is the first time in some 20 years that a football game has been played in Vermilion and there is a strong possibility of a football league being formed in this district.

Jubilee Decorations

The Vermilion Board of Trade in conjunction with the Town Council, are decorating the town in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of both the Town of Vermilion and the Province of Alberta, and all places of business are asked to co-operate in this regard.

It is suggested that all business places procure one or more sets of the Jubilee Display kit obtainable from the province for the sum of $2 by writing to The Alberta Golden Jubilee Committee, c-o Provincial Marketing Board Administration Bldg., Edmonton. Order blanks and further information can be obtained from either Keith Chalmers or Dr. Denis P. Hanlan. These kits are very attractive and can be displayed suitably surrounded with flags and bunting and worked in with any other theme desired to honor Vermilion on the town's 50th anniversary. It is suggested that these displays be left lit at night.

All concerned are urged to take immediate action so that the town will be suitably decorated by July 1st at the latest.

The residential area should also be dressed up to suit the occasion and all persons are asked to decorate their houses accordingly.

Deadline Past – Curling Club Shares Open For Public Sale

June 15th was the deadline for closed purchase by members of the Curling Club shares and they are now open for sale to the general public. A share is worth $25.

In order to curl in the new artificial ice palace, it is necessary to own $100 worth of shares (4), and as over 400 hundred shares have already been sold it is imperative for anyone wishing to curl to arrange for their purchase now. Club membership has been limited to 200 members so first come, first served.

Support artificial ice for the curling rink. It is a progressive community step which benefits all in the final analysis.

Tragic Accident Takes Life Of Stewart Hillcox

People of the town and district of Vermilion were greatly shocked and saddened last Saturday, June 11, by news that Stewart Hillcox, well known and esteemed young man of this community, had lost his life in an accident at Lloydminster.

Stewart who farms just south of Claysmore school, had summer employment as a welder with Universal Industries in Lloydminster. At the time of the accident he was engaged in cutting a hole in the bottom of a transport tank owned by Bernard Ertman of Millet, Alberta. During the process the tanker exploded. The accident occurred about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Stewart who was married about one year ago, leaves his sorrowing wife and his parents Mr. and Mrs. George Hillcox, all at Vermilion, to mourn his loss.

Funeral services were held at the Alliance chapel on Tuesday June 14 with interment in the Vermilion cemetery.

The Rev. J. T. McNair officiated. Moyers were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Golden Wedding At Mannville

MANNVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Adam Howorko celebrated their Golden wedding anniversary Sunday, June 12 with approximately one hundred persons present with the family and friends. The Howorkos came to Canada in 1897 from Poland, settled south of town where they farmed until their retirement about three years ago. They now live in the village.

Mr and Mrs Peter Howorko and family of Edmonton and Walter and John Howorko and families of Mannville as well as friends enjoyed a wedding supper with the bride and groom of 50 years ago. A golden tea set and a set of silver were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Howorko by those at the party.

Many Take In Air Show At Cold Lake

Many Vermilion people who were able to get away were seen at the air show at the Cold Lake air station last Saturday. In spite of dust and traffic jam, when the visitors finally arrived at the station they saw a good display, both on the ground and in the air. Among those seen in attendance at the big show with their families were Mr and Mrs. Tom McPherson, Mr and Mrs. Carman Long, Mr and Mrs. Roy Findlay, Mr and Mrs. Vic Janssen, Mr and Mrs. Ken Stone, Mr and Mrs. George Senz and family, Mr and Mrs Ken Greenwood, Miss Lil Hareuther and Miss Nan Marshall.

By the end of April, 1955, there were [illegible] diesel locomotives in service on the Canadian National.

7-Inning Scoreless Ball Game, St. Paul

Playing at St. Paul on Wednesday evening Vermilion and St. Paul battled through seven innings of scoreless baseball, a rare happening in the annals of that sport.

On the mound for Vermilion was Mike Berushko with Dunbar and Wilf Little doing the receiving. Pitching for St. Paul was Gordichuk and catching was Joly. It was a great game and a real pitchers' duel, one for the records.

VERMILION 13 — ST. PAUL 8

Playing at home on Sunday afternoon Vermilion won from St. Paul 13 runs to 8. Ray Jones did the hurling with Bob Sanboe behind the bat. Irvin Gordon was umpire.

The regular league game scheduled for this Sunday afternoon has been postponed due to the two-day tournament at Derwent.

Derwent Wins League Game

Playing at Elk Point on Sunday Derwent defeated the home team 9 runs to 6. Roy Girling of the Derwent Dodgers slammed out two circuit clouts to bring his home run total to four for the season while team mate Mike Wysocki clouted out another circuit blow for his 4th home run of the season.

Winner Of Little League Tournament

The junior baseball players of Vermilion had a successful "Little League" tournament Farmers' Day Friday, June 10.

Although all the teams were enthusiastic, and tried their best to win, of necessity only one of them could come out on top.

This team was coached by Bert Moore and Gus Thursby.

A beautiful Plymouth Plaza 4 door sedan is the feature prize at the Vermilion Curling Club's car bingo on Saturday, June 25. This car was purchased through the local Chrysler-Plymouth agency, the Marian Motors.

Besides the car 11 other fine prizes are being lined up and all signs point to another successful bingo night.

These affairs are noted for the efficient and snappy manner in which they are carried out as the management realize that many hundreds of people travel long distances to attend. Bingo gets underway at 9 p.m. and all can be well on their way home shortly after 11. 50-1

Meeting in annual convention at Calgary on Monday and Tuesday last week, members of the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association elected a Vermilion citizen, J Ross Boake as president of their organization. In the same city on Wednesday and Thursday S. Carl Heckbert was elected grand master of the Grand Lodge of Alberta. That the highest [illegible] of two provincial organiza[illegible] should be bestowed on Vermilion men within a day or two of each other and in the same city is unique and a definite honor for Vermilion.

SUMMER HIGHWAY SAFETY—

There was a time when the people living in rural areas used to complain about big city people driving out on a Sunday afternoon and picnicking on their country lawns.

Today, the complaint isn't so much about the picnickers as about the drivers who in their rush to get away from the heat of the city, hit for the open road right after work. Tired from a busy day in office or factory they gather their families, load up the trunk and start for lakeshore or mountains. They may not realize it, but they are among the greatest traffic hazards and are responsible for many of the 37,000 traffic accidents that occur on Canadian highways during the summer holidays.

There are of course many reasons for traffic accidents. Alfred L. Moseley a psychologist at the Harvard School of Public Health, recently completed a series of tests on fatigued drivers and proved that every driver who is over-tired is risking his own and other people's lives when he takes the wheel. A co-operative colleague stayed up all night and then using an instrument called a Roadometer "drove" for several hours while the psychologist measured his reactions. Slowness on the brakes, clutching the wheel and other bad driving habits were noted as fatigue increased. A cup of coffee provided necessary but not lasting pickups.

This was an extreme case of course but it demonstrated the importance of avoiding drowsiness when driving and it led to a number of safe driving rules which could help to reduce the toll of summer accidents:

1. Don't start a trip right after work. Get a good night's rest and start fresh in the morning.

2. Plan a coffee break every 100 miles or so. If there are few roadside stands or restaurants, take a thermos of hot coffee with you. Pull off to the side of the road, drink the coffee and get out and stretch your legs.

3. Avoid driving at night whenever possible. The most dangerous period is between 5 and 8 p.m.

4. If you feel drowsy, pull off the road and have a nap.

5. If possible, have another driver along to spell you at the wheel.

6. Observe all traffic rules — but most important — STOP driving when you feel tired.

SPRAYING THE WEEDS

There is no doubt that it pays to kill weeds in crops by spraying with 2,4-D or M. C. P. Everyone should be careful however, to spray at the right time, that is for wheat from 4-leaf stage to early boot and oats from 2 to 6 leaf stage but not between six leaf and early boot stages. Get a new booklet from this office on spraying weeds.

PLOWS OUT-DATED

One ways, diskers and cultivators have taken the place of plows in this district. One implement dealer told me that he only sold seven plow shares this year while a few years ago he was selling over 100. The plow died a hard, slow death, but nearly everyone admits now that it ought to stay dead.

MASTER FARM FAMILY

Nominations for this programme must be in by July 1. If any farmer thinks his neighbor has a chance for this award, would you come in and talk it over. Boards of Trade and similar groups can also nominate [illegible] for this award.

SECOND CROP VEGETABLES

Do not forget to sow second crops of radish, peas, spinach, carrots and beets. A young tender crop coming along late in August is really something. A lot of the vegetables are stunted by late thinning. It is a job that is often put off too long. Give carrots, beets, peas, beans and nearly all your vegetables 6 to 8 inches between plants.

SWEET CLOVER, A VALUABLE CROP

No crop seems to grow as many pounds of feed on a dry year as Sweet Clover. It is good crop insurance to grow 20 acres or so of sweet clover every year just in case there is not enough other feed to winter the stock. It is not too late yet to seed sweet clover along with late seeded oats and barley.

BANG'S VACCINATIONS

The vaccination of heifer calves for Bang's is getting rid of this disease in this district. Losses are much lower here than in other parts of Western Canada. Farmers here do not realize the losses they would be taking if Bang's disease vaccinations were not enforced.

TILLAGE MACHINERY FIELD DAYS

On June 27 at 1:30 p.m. there will be a tillage implement field day at Hale Bros. farm just east of Marwayne. The same kind of field day is called for June 28 at the Lu Dommerson farm south of Mannville. One ways, diskers, Noble blade weeders, cultivators, etc. will all be adjusted and compared in killing weeds and preserving trash cover.

Dewberry Ladies' Aid Make Plans For Wedding Reception

The June meeting of the Dewberry Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mrs. May Braithwaite. There were 14 members and three visitors present.

The meeting opened with a hymn followed by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Jones read the 21st Psalm. A selection from the Upper Room was read by Mrs. Munroe.

The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report heard. The Sunshine Lady had sent one card.

Miss Peggy Dupuit and her mother were two of our guests. The Aid is to cater to Peggy's wedding reception in July. Committees were chosen and plans were made for this event. We would like to wish Peggy and Eric success and happiness in their new life together.

We were pleased to have our new station agent's wife with us. Mrs. W. Porter was back for the first meeting in seven months. It was very nice to have her with us again.

Rev and Mrs. Snadden are leaving us at the end of June. Fathers' Day church service will be held on Sunday June 19 at 7:30.

The meeting was closed with the Benediction.

Our hostess Mrs. Braithwaite, assisted by her daughter-in-law, then served a delicious lunch which ended another afternoon of good fellowship.

To the Voters of Alexandria Constit'cy

Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to have a hand in repairing the damage done by 20 years of irresponsible bungling.

No government in Alberta's history has been responsible for the closing of more schools than the present provincial government. No government has made less effort to place qualified teachers in Alberta classrooms.

Once upon a time the taxpayers' money bought books and paid teachers. Now the money is paid to bus tired children to overcrowded classrooms to learn from weary and underpaid teachers. Only the patriotism of the married lady teacher has saved the entire system from collapse.

As a teacher I have been deeply hurt by recent developments in education. As a parent I am determined to do what I can to alter things before my own children begin to attend school.

It seems to be government policy to close the smaller hospitals as well. If a thing-called government approved policy is successful there will soon be no hospital between the Battle River and the Saskatchewan River, and between Vermilion and Lloydminster.

A vote for me will be a vote for efforts to improve Islay hospital and open new hospitals where needed.

I am asking you to give me your first choice on the ballot. If you can't do that, give me your second.

Sincerely,

Allen Ronaghan.

Allen Ronaghan Nominated For Alexandra

Progressive - Conservative party headquarters announced Friday that Allen Ronaghan, formerly of Islay, and now teaching in Irma, has been nominated as candidate for the Alexandra constituency.

Allen has the degree of Bachelor of Education from the University of Alberta, being a member of class of 1948. He has since taken post-graduate work at Queen's University at Kingston and at Laval University in Quebec, P.Q.

He has had considerable experience in the publishing business, having worked with the University of Alberta Gateway and the Ottawa Citizen. He was editor and publisher of the Grimshaw Voyageur in 1952-53 before selling his interest to the Fairview Post.

Readers may remember that Allen's design for a distinctive Canadian flag received considerable support a few years ago when the Federal government appointed a committee to choose a national flag.

Recently an article of his was published in the Alberta Golden Jubilee Anthology. Entitled "We Lit a Fire in Mackenzie's Fireplace". It tells of a visit to For Fork, a historic site seldom visited because of its inaccessibility.

Nomination of a candidate by the Progressive Conservatives brings the number of candidates in Alexandra constituency to four.

Wildmere Beavers

Sylvia Steele was hostess to the Wildmere Beavers Girls' club on Saturday, June 11. There were 14 members and one visitor present.

The meeting opened with the singing of O Canada, followed by a recital of the Code and the flag salute. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Margaret Steele won the Senior mystery box and the Junior mystery box was won by Ruby Smith.

After adjournment of the meeting and 'God Save the Queen' a very tasty lunch was served.

Former Mannville Mayor Passes

MANNVILLE. — Mr. E. C. McPhee passed away Saturday night June 11 at the age of 78 years after a lengthy illness. Mr. McPhee was born in West Indian Road, Hants County, N.S. in 1877. In early years he went to Boston and then came west to Cranbrook, B.C., shortly after the turn of the century. In 1906 he came to Kitscoty where he worked in the lumber business. In 1913 he moved to Mannville where he was with the Beaver Alberta Lumber until his retirement in 1951.

Mr. McPhee always took an active interest in the affairs of the village prior to his retirement. He was at one time Mayor of Mannville. He served as well on the board of McQueen's United church.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Ross Lane of Peace River and three grandchildren; two brothers Monson McPhee of Lexington, Mass., H. D. McPhee of Sico Sacramento; two sisters, Mrs. John Kehoe, Lexington, Mass., and Mrs. William Holliday, Regina.

Funeral services were held in McQueen's United church on Wednesday, June 15 at 2 o'clock with Rev. I. Holter officiating. Interment was in the Mannville cemetery.

Moyers of Vermilion were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Canadian paper mills furnish the blank newsprint for three in five of all newspaper pages the world over, outside of Russia and her satellites. All the paper mills of the world however, consume only 5% of the timber supplies. In the two hemispheres, nearly 67% of all trees, felled each year, finds its way to the domestic cookstove or the heating of homes. More wood is employed to combat hunger and cold than for any other purpose. In Canada, the paper mills do not use as much wood as is used for fuel.

WOODVALE

Just a few items we heard over the week end.

In the first place congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ray McQuid on the birth of a son, Dale Robert, on June 10.

The ball team played at the Farmers' picnic but did not book any big wins. Quite a few took in the day there but still more were kept busy at home, we presume. We need rain around here, the late crops are coming up rather patchy.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McGrath went to see the air show at Cold Lake and thought it was very good and interesting though the traffic jam was terrific; what with 7000 cars and 30,000 people (reported to be there) that is not surprising.

The Eggenberger family paid a flying visit to us, arriving in their wee Volkswaggen from Calgary and staying for 24 hours. Rolf and Daan were very disappointed they could not come to see you Keith L. but they did get a chance to say 'hello' to Mr. Hohol, who according to their Calgary teachers made such a wonderful job teaching them during their first few months in Canada.

F. Van Wageningen is taking in the two day course of the Co-operators' Workshop as a representative of the Vermilion Seed Cleaning plant.

Sincere sympathy goes to Mrs. Roger Watt and family whose mother Mrs. Hachet of Lamont died over the week end. It is only a short time ago that Mrs. Hachet spent such a pleasant and happy time on the farm.

NEWS from KITSCOTY

Mr. Ev Miller is home again after a long stay in Lloydminster hospital and is much improved in health. He wishes to take this opportunity to thank the doctors and nurses who cared for him while a patient in Lloydminster hospital, also his many friends who sent cards, letters and gifts, organizations for their remembrances and good friends for their cheerful visits which were sincerely appreciated.

Mr. E. Moss spent the past week visiting with friends in Moose Jaw.

Mr. George Thompson of Edmonton, a one time Flowerdale district farmer, has been visiting friends in that district and at present is spending a holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Stafford James.

Mr. J. Batty was a business visitor to Calgary last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McCorry and Sheila were Edmonton visitors during the week end.

Mrs. J. Christianson left on Sunday to spend a holiday with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. J. Cocola and family of Powell River, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gray and family spent the long week end at the cottage at Cold Lake. Several Kitscoty families attended the air show at Cold Lake last Saturday.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. R. Kay Sr. who celebrated their Golden Wedding on Sunday June 12 at the home of their son Mr. and Mrs. Reg Kay and family.

A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. Harley and Mrs. Wm. Labiuk, hospital patients at present. We are pleased to say that Mrs. E. Joy is steadily improving as a result of treatments she is receiving during her seven weeks stay in hospital.

The Kitscoty schools presented a very enjoyable and interesting program on Thursday June 9th to celebrate Alberta's Golden Jubilee. Mr H. Mensum of Lloydminster was the guest speaker for the afternoon and told of his experiences of the early days in this country.

The Kitscoty ladies fastball team attended the Farmers' day sports at Marwayne on June 10 and defeated the Dewberry A team 14-8 and the Dewberry B team 28 to 6. Good going gals!

Co-Operative Work Shop Here For Monday, Tuesday

A Co-operator's Workshop was held at the Legion hall in Vermilion with morning and afternoon sessions during Monday and Tuesday June 13 and 14.

Under the direction of the Alberta Co-operative Wholesale Association, in conjunction with the Department of Extension University of Alberta a panel of experienced speakers and discussion leaders was brought here for the two-day session.

To study the problems and responsibilities of directors of co-operatives was the general purpose of the course. Thus the topics on the program were for the education and interest of active and potential directors, managers and committee members of co-operatives in the Vermilion district, although anyone interested in co-operatives was welcome to attend.

To open the first morning's session, Mr. Sylvan Hillerud of the Department of Extension, University of Alberta gave a talk entitled, "Pattern of the Workshop".

Mr. Eric Hopkins, Merchandise manager of the A.C.W.A. spoke on the duties and responsibilities of directors, also on Balance Sheets.

The second day of the short course those speakers lectured on similar topics. Mrs. E. T. Mowbray on Tuesday afternoon, gave the women's point of view under the heading "How Women Can Participate in your Co-op". Mrs Mowbray is the wife of the general manager of the A.C.W.A.

Two other speakers heard at the two-day workshop were Mr. Percy Booker, A. C. W. A. supervisor for the Vermilion area; Mr. d'Archangelo, A.C.W.A. personnel and office manager.

Although the Wholesalers Co-operative has been extensively organized in Saskatchewan for some years, it has just been during the last three years in Alberta that the A.C.W.A. has tripled in size expanding from three to nine districts.

SOCIAL CREDIT OBJECTIVES

The Social Credit movement throughout Canada is much more than a mere political party. It is a great crusade for great humanitarian reforms. It is quite true that we are in politics and our aim, politically is to elect a Social Credit government at Ottawa in order that the ultimate objectives of Social Credit can be established for the people.

What are these ultimate objectives? There are two in particular.

First is economic security. With the vast wealth of our Canadian resources and industrial capacity to produce no Canadian should have any need to worry as to his present or future economic requirements. Canada is able to produce such vast abundance that all Canadians should be able to enjoy the highest standard of living in the world. A realistic approach to the problem of the distribution of our abundance is the crying need of the hour. This can only be done by the proper adjustment of our monetary policy so that adequate purchasing power can be placed in the hands of the people enabling them to enjoy these goods and services which is their right to enjoy. Social Crediters are the only ones who have this realistic approach and the loud courage to tackle the job.

The second Social Credit objective is to see that Canadians remain free to enjoy the rich and abundant life that can be theirs. We can advance into a golden age but a wrong move can take us into an age of slavery. Socialism and other forms of political party doctrine might give a measure of security provided Canadians were willing to give up their freedom and fit into the rigid controls required by the planners. Social Crediters claim that a measure of socialistic security at the price of freedom is too great a cost for Canadians to pay. Freedom from want and freedom from fear can be obtained by a simple adjustment of monetary policy. But it takes courage to stand up against vested interests and financial powers and fight for such reforms. That is why the Social Credit Movement is such an important and great crusade.

Let it be known that all good citizens who for twenty years in the past have begun such a good work will not turn back now just when they are beginning to realize the fruits of their efforts all over Canada. Social Credit is rolling up strength in every province.

On Monday June 20, be sure to mark your ballot with an "X" and vote for your Social Credit Candidate

Tour Members Search Area of Massacre

Make Tour Of Historical Sites

On Wednesday afternoon about 80 Vermilion and district people made a tour of interesting historical sites along the North Saskatchewan River. The party left Vermilion at 1 p.m. and the first stop was the privately owned museum of Mr. Stone Andrechak at Elk Point. This is truly an interesting place and Mr. Andrechak is to be congratulated on his fine collections of Indian relics, old guns, mounted birds, photographs and many articles of historical value. Everyone felt that the hour allotted for this visit was far too short and the members will doubtless make individual trips to give it further study.

The next stop was the site of the old mill at Frog Creek. The party was most fortunate in having Mr. Fred Bowtell with them. Mr. Bowtell is one of the real old timers in Vermilion, having served as a government land guide in 1903. He is also an old timer in the Frog Lake district as he took up a homestead there in 1910. He pointed out the site of the dam which is still well defined, and also the basements of several of the houses which had at one time been built there. This mill is the original site of the old mill wheel which is presently on display in the Vermilion town park.

Another short drive took the group to the Frog Lake cairn and massacre grounds. Considerable time was spent in locating the basements and chimneys of the original buildings, such as the R.C. church, H.B. Co., police barracks, etc.; also the sites where the various white men fell. Everyone searched for souvenirs and were rewarded with countless cut nails, bits of glass, brick, stone, etc. Here Mr. Bowtell again proved very helpful and addressed the gathering over a P.A. system explaining many points of interest. He made mention of having assisted the Historical Sites committee in reburying the bodies of the victims, in 1919, at the present site of the cairn. He also had the group visit Clearwater Lake, about a half mile further east which was the main camp grounds of the Indians in the early days.

The last stop was at Lea Park where everyone visited the site of Fort Vermilion which was established prior to 1808 and abandoned in 1810. This, in reality, was the site of two forts — the one established by the Hudson Bay Co., and the other by the North West Co. The plan of the forts here was easily seen, as the whole area is in native grass with very few trees. The basements and chimneys are very plain, and again souvenirs were found. As these forts were abandoned, very little of value was left and consequently few relics have been found in this area.

After a picnic lunch, eaten in the cars because of the coolness of the day, the party returned home.

The tour was arranged by the Vermilion Historical Society, and several suggestions for future action by this organization were obtained. One point upon which all agreed was the necessity of immediate action in starting a museum in Vermilion. If a suitable location can be found this will be started in the near future.

The Historical Society wishes to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Andrechak for his kindness in showing the group through his museum.

Islay School Holds Jubilee Celebrations; Honor Old Timers

A very large crowd attended the School Jubilee pageant staged in the Islay hall on June 9th. A special feature of the program following the pageant was the presentation of Jubilee souvenirs to the Old Timers by Mr. D. Clark, principal of the school. Those Jubilee celebrants who were present to receive their gifts were Mrs. Catherine Fyfe who came here in 1905, Mr. Robt House, in 1901; Mr. Bert Gould, in 1905; Mr D. Buchanan, 1896, Mr Wilfred Potvin, 1895; Mr. Thos. Bothwell, 1903, and Mr. Thos Sherwood, 1901.

The Old Timers who were unable to be present would receive their mementos later. Those getting them are Mrs Rose Kennedy, Mrs. Nora Bonaghan, Mr. R. B. Van Patten, Mr. Moise Marie, Mr. Omer Easton, Mr. Alf Hollington, Mr. Fred Gould, Mr. Joe Belton, Mr. Doug Ster[illegible].

Mrs. Fyfe and Mr. Bothwell spoke to the audience on behalf of the recipients.

A picnic was enjoyed on the school grounds immediately following the presentations. There were sports events for the children and some for the adults too. The nail driving contest in which the ladies took part was of interest to the crowd. Mrs. Helen McCaughan, using both hands on the hammer, drove the nail in first. There were also some ball games.

Wildmere Winks

The district was deeply shocked on Saturday when word was received that Stewart Hilcox had been killed in a welding accident at Lloydminster. The death of a young man with his life before him is indeed a tragedy. Starting to farm he was trying to get ahead by working at his trade as a welder whenever a job came up. He leaves to mourn his sudden passing his loving wife, his parents and a sister. To all of them, we, along with the community extend our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of bereavement and sorrow.

A nice crowd attended the F.U.A. picnic on Farmers day June 10th at the Vermilion fair grounds. Ball games, races, tug of war etc. made up the amusement. Two booths were on the grounds for refreshments and they were kept busy. The Hollywood Belles made quite a ball team in their latest ball outfits. One thing they really caused a lot of laughs and amusement with their garb and antics. Next time 'Helen', take a few more pins. A real laugh once in awhile and Hollywood belles did just that. The Vermilion girls steeled dwonmeyers along. It does one good to have Vermilion girls defeated them 17 to 2. Preston Central school also had a mixed ball team in and they won from the Vermilion team that played the Belles. It was a good day and everyone surely got a sunburn and we bet there were some sore spots next day.

Early Sunday morning a bunch of ardent fishermen journeyed north for a day of fun. Those going were Bill Adam and Albert Smith, Cliff Cruthers, Dave Hughes of Wildmere and Basswood, and Bob Martin from town. They reported a nice day but fish were not biting any too well. However they got enough to give the neighbors a nice taste also.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bauman and sons visited from Friday evening to Sunday at Elk Point. They too, got in some fishing — thanks Glenis for the treat.

We need a good rain out in our corner. Things are beginning to get really dry again. Grass is turning brown around the yard and gardens are very slow.

Sunday evening Peggy Graham phoned and said members of the class she is in at the Royal Alex hospital training for a nurse are to get their white shoes and stockings right away. Another stride forward in their career. It was thought they would not get them until the first of August. The girls were very excited about it. It won't be long now until they will be all in white. Time soon slips by.

The writer accompanied Cr. Jim Wallington on Sunday afternoon on some of his municipal work and enjoyed a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. Colpitts. It was the first time the writer had been in that corner of the country.

A nice attendance at church on Sunday when Mr. Plante gave a special service on Rural Life Sunday. It's nice a Sunday has been set aside for the rural people.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. John Morison of Bowtell on the birth of a son on Monday, June 6, a little brother for Bruce.

We nearly forgot to wish our Standard member who is a candidate in the forthcoming election of June 29th for Social Credit every success in his new field of endeavor. We know you can do it Ashley.

1955 Outlook For Barley Is Good

Deliverable stocks of barley on western Canadian farms at the end of the crop year July 31, will probably be down about 40 million bushels from stocks at the end of the last crop year, according to calculations made by the Barley Improvement Institute from Canadian Wheat Board statistics.

Wheat Board figures for June 2, based on a special questionnaire of May 11, show marketable stocks on western farms at 31.1 million bushels. A year ago marketable stocks totalled 73.5 million bushels.

Barley stocks in commercial positions June 1 were 42.6 million, compared with 45.8 million bushels on June 1, 1954, according to figures from the Board of Grain Commissioners.

Thus the carryover in all positions will be sharply down this year. Because of the late season, it is expected there will be some increase in barley acreage. Production from the increased acreage should meet reasonably buoyant market conditions.

The initial price for barley for the next crop year has been set at 96 cents a bushel basis No. 3 C.W. at the Lakehead, unchanged from last year. Barley accepted for malting commands a premium of five cents a bushel, making a total initial payment of $1.01 a bushel.

Buick has built more than 3,280,000 cars since World War 2. More than a million of that number have been built in the last two years.

If work done by diesel locomotives on American railways in 1954 had ben performed by steam locomotives, it would have cost the railroads over $800,000,000 in additional fuel and maintenance costs alone.

Canadians Big Eaters

Canadians are among the heaviest eaters in the world according to a special report on eating published in the current issue of Maclean's magazine. Every Canadian baby who lives to be 70 will consume an average 40 tons of food in his lifetime, the report reveals.

We consume twice as many calories a day as the average Hindu, the magazine says. Two million Canadians are too fat and pay higher insurance rates because there is a good chance they'll die before their time.

"We have in a single generation undergone a dramatic revolution in the food we eat and the way we eat it," Sidney Katz, Maclean's assistant editor says in one of three articles on food. Last year Canadians spent an unprecedented $2.2 billions on foods that ranged from Japanese smoked oysters to fast-frozen chicken chow mein.

Today there are at least 76 varieties of food which did not exist in 1930. In the last decade the new fast-frozen foods and the prepared mixes have made meals immeasurably easier to prepare. But at the same time three times as many Canadians are eating out as a generation ago.

New Campaign Of Help Launched By CARE

A new campaign, aimed at helping rural villagers in Asia, Africa, the Middle East and South America to help themselves was launched this week by CARE Canada. Announcing the CARE 'Freedom Village Program', Director A. G. Watson said that donors would be asked to make undesignated contributions to allow CARE to meet both immediate and long-term needs of underdeveloped villages, not only through its regular packages but also through special purchases.

Mr. Watson explained that each village program will vary according to local needs. In assessing these needs and in administering technical assistance to complement the aid program, CARE will work closely with United Nations agencies as well as local governments.

In a given village CARE donors may provide a variety of self-help equipment: plows and agricultural hand tools, weaving, knitting, sewing and straw rope-making machines, essential tools for village craftsmen, school supplies and play equipment, stoves, farm animals, fertilizer, insecticide sprays, medical and sanitation aids are only some of the aids CARE is prepared to deliver abroad.

CARE's objective is to provide the tools needed by the people of underdeveloped areas to conduct their own projects according to their own development plans.

Mr. Watson pointed out that the CARE self-help program was at [illegible] well developed. CARE pack [illegible] [illegible] kits, scientific and technical books and health supplies have been available for several years.

[illegible] the international agency felt that the self-help program by itself was inadequate to meet the increasing demand for more and more varied CARE supplies and services. The Freedom Village Program grew out of this demand.

Donors to the New CARE program will be notified of the village to which their funds have been assigned. Additionally, they will receive progress reports on their adopted village.

APPRECIATION
The people of Buffalo Coulee wish to publicly express their appreciation of the very fine pageant presented at the school last Thursday. The pageant depicted the progress of Alberta from pioneer times to the present and reflected great credit on hte work and preparation by Principal Wm. Bushko and his teaching staff, as well as the children. The presentation was a great credit to all concerned and really appreciated by all present.

One of the motors Delco Appliance Division of General Motors builds for the U.S. Armed Forces is smaller in diameter than a half dollar and shorter than a cigarette yet it contains nine-tenths of a mile of ultra-fine copper wire.

AND Cold Lake Trout was worth 8c

Back in the Pioneer Days . . .

In the very early days furs made up an important percentage of the primary production of the area. In the second edition of The Signal in March 1906 it was noted that W. J. Macnab handled $2,000.00 worth of furs in February. This happened while Mr. Macnab was a pioneer merchant of the town and before he decided to make farming his life work and to move to his fine farm in the Cummings district, where now reside four generations of the Clan Macnab.

Jas. Rutherford recalls accompanying one of the Monkman's in 1902 or 1903 to buy furs from a tribe of Indians camped at Gap L.

John and W. C. Craig were active fur buyers for many years, buying them through the store and also touring the country by sleigh as far afield as Cold Lake.

Large quantities of dairy butter were also handled through the stores before the advent of creameries. In 1903 John Craig was delegated to go down through Calgary and out through the Crow's Nest Pass to dispose of a large stock of butter for W. M. Craig & Co. of Olds. He was in Frank the day before the disastrous slide of 29th April, and fortunately left for Fernie that evening.

Dark, dreary days depress canaries, too. They just don't feel like singing. But now—good news for canary admirers! If they'll arrange to have the bottoms of their cages lined with aluminum, they'll sing through the darkest day. ## Board Of Trade Make Jubilee Plans

At the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Board of Trade Mr. Tom McPherson was in the chair and there were 20 members present.

Mr. Melvin Hill gave a brief report on the activities in connection with the Provincial Park. He stated considerable work would be done this year in improving the existing roads in the park and that two more buildings were to be set up for booths.

Mr. Sutherland stated provincial engineers were now establishing a permanent water level, to be higher than it has ever been before.

Mr. Clendenning reported on matters to be up for discussion at the annual meeting of the Trans-Canada Highway System Association (Yellowhead Route).

It was decided that the Board would recess for the months of July and August after the meeting of June 22, except at the call of the president.

The Board agreed to endeavor to have a group of members visit the R.C.A.F. base at Cold Lake some Wednesday or Sunday in the near future, and that the Secretary write the CO to fix a date.

Mr. Chalmers, Chairman of the Board of Trade committee in connection with the Jubilee, reported for his committee re decorations, and gave a detailed report of the plans of his committee.

It was recommended that the Board spend $60 on car stickers, banners and the Board of Trade float. A motion to this effect was passed accordingly.

Mr. Gerald Stephens reported on the Golden Jubilee Square dance, and said that visitors had come from many points. $[illegible] had been turned in to the Jubilee committee.

Alarming Increase Noted In Traffic Fatalities In Alberta

Accidents and injuries for the past months of 1955 are running about even with the same period last year, but fatalities have shown an alarming increase. To date 77 people have been killed on our streets and highways as against 63 for 1954.

The Alberta Safety Council reports that 352 people were involved in accidents in May on the rural highways of the province, 339 in Edmonton, 217 in Calgary, 24 in Medicine Hat, 37 in Lethbridge, 7 in Jasper Place and 17 in other towns and villages not policed by the R.C.M.P. Police reported 134 injuries and 10 fatalities. Edmonton had 67 injuries with one pedestrian killed, Calgray 47 injuries, Medicine Hat 2, Lethbridge 9 and one pedestrian fatally injured. Jasper Place had two injuries.

Total accidents in Alberta for May were 993 accidents, 250 injuries and 12 deaths.

With summer approaching and a bigger volume of traffic on the roads, it is more necessary than ever to drive with care. To make the population more safety conscious while using the roads and highways of the province, the Alberta Safety Council is sponsoring a Summer Courtesy Campaign for the second year in succession. This is due to commence at the end of June and will continue through July. The theme of the campaign will be — "Make Courtesy Your Code of the Road," and it will point up the fact that ill manners on the road harm everyone, while courtesy generates good will towards other drivers.

The seven main points of the campaign are contained in the "Code of the Road" and although all the code is not law, it is good common sense. The points are as follows:

1. Allow ample clearance when passing.
2. Share the road by driving in the proper lane.
3. Yield the right of way to other drivers . . . and pedestrians.
4. Give proper signals for turns and stops.
5. Dim headlights when meeting or following vehicles.
6. Respect traffic laws, signs, signals and road markings.
7. Adjust driving to suit road, traffic and weather conditions.

NEWS from ISLAY

(Held over from last week)

A very pleasant evening was spent by friends and neighbors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Simmons on June 3rd when they gathered to shower daughter Irene, who was married June 2nd in Edmonton to Mr. James Goodkey.

The Knox Church W.A. met on Thursday June 2 at the home of Mrs. Dave Martin. It was the missionary meeting and there were 32 adults present. Mrs. Alex Linton read the devotional and Miss Bessie Anderson gave an interesting synopsis of a part of the study book "The Church in India".

Mrs. Hilda Cross spoke on the radio on Thursday in support of Dr. F. Mac Smith, candidate in the federal by-election.

The demonstration "Blue Flame" sponsored by Canadian Propane Ltd. was most interesting and educational. The films showed what machinery does in short order — the laying of pipe lines, digging the trenches etc. all so interesting, the different plants in connection with refining and different stages the gas goes through and the Propane equipment for homes, the dishes made from the by-products. Altogether we had two hours or more of very worthwhile enlightenment.

Grace Simmons, Grace Schaffer and Sandra Bell recited the 23rd Psalm in Sunday school on June 5.

A Junior league for ball has been organized for 18 years and under. Ken McLennan is Captain; Bill McGuigan secretary-treasurer; Walter McCaughan, manager; Bruce McLennan, coach and Bill Shaw is home umpire. There are some very promising players. At the track meet at Kitscoty we heard some compliments re the smaller lads and good — Eddie Waterfield, fears nothing and his mitt misses nothing and so on. Oh yes, Carlson, pitcher for the older boys — "Isn't he good?" And he is. All have their place. We hope for some pleasing games this summer.

SAVE THE BIRDS

A thought for parents — urge your children to respect birds and protect their nests, not mutilate them. Some lads destroyed a robin's nest in the porch at the hall, nests in trees along the streets suffer badly too. Our little feathered friends have enough to put up with from stray cats, magpies, crows etc. without children destroying their nests [illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Garf Simmons and Mrs. Bob Drysdale left Friday May 27, met Miss Irene Simmons in Edmonton and next morning they all journeyed to Calgary to attend the wedding of Robert Dibb, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Simmons to Miss Jean Greig of Calgary. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greig. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Olds of Marysville B.C. also attended the wedding. Mrs. Archie Olds is the mother of the groom. The young couple left for a honeymoon in the U.S. On their return they will reside in Kimberly where the groom is an electrician.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stoddart and family formerly of Kenilworth now reside in the old Sheppard house; the children attend school in Vermilion.

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

[illegible] little effort you can come back with vacation pictures which will thrill you for years to come.

Try these ideas for better shots:

1. Blurred pictures usually are caused by camera movement, so whenever possible rest the camera on a rock, a tree stump or the car fender. Your shots are 50% better already.

2. Post your people first, then ask them to look one quarter to the right or left. No self-conscious glassy-eyed stares that way.

3. Snap Sis as she walks away or toward that monument. You'll find that even such simple action is far better than a stiffly posed shot.

4. No need to duplicate the professional scenes you get on post cards, so save your film for extra [illegible]

Health Unit Notes

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

It has been apparent for a considerable time that the regulations concerning the control of communicable disease are not being strictly adhered to. Many cases of infectious disease occur in this area and the Health Unit staff do not hear about them until several weeks later. In order to take effective measures to prevent the spread of these diseases it is very important that the Health Unit staff should know about them as soon as possible. Under the regulations for the control of communicable diseases the doctor attending the case and also the parents are required to notify the Health Unit of the following:

If the principal of a school learns that one of his pupils is absent due to having one of these diseases he should also notify the Health Unit.

SCARLET FEVER & SEPTIC SORE THROAT

Patient is isolated for 7 days if under the care of a doctor from whom treatment is being received and declared by the doctor to be free of infection, otherwise 21 days. All cases should be isolated until clinical recovery and until all infected discharge have ceased.

Contacts under 18 years who remain in the same house to be quarantined for the isolation period of the case. Contacts over 18 years who remain in the same house to be excluded from occupations involving contact with children or with food for the isolation period. Other contacts under 18 years to be quarantined for 7 days.

MEASLES

Isolation of patient for 10 days. Quarantine of contacts who have never had measles, for 14 days.

GERMAN MEASLES

Isolation of cases for 7 days. No quarantine of contacts.

WHOOPING COUGH

Isolation for 21 days from the onset of paroxysmal cough. Quarantine of contacts who have never had whooping cough for 10 days from the date of last exposure.

POLIOMYELITIS

Isolation two weeks. Quarantine for two weeks of all children under 18 years and all persons over 18 years who are in contact with children or food.

DIPTHERIA

Isolation for two weeks and until clinical recovery if an approved bacteriological examination is not obtainable or 10 days from the date of onset if convalescence is complete and there is no evidence of sore throat or discharge from the nose, throat or ears and two successive swabs are found to be negative by a bacteriologist.

DYSENTRY & FOOD INFECTIONS

Isolation for the period of the disease in a room screened against flies. In food infections exclusion from food handling and care of children until two stool specimens, taken within an interval of 24 hours, are negative.

Men Going Pink

About a year ago an American manufacturer got an idea — pink shirts. About as likely as getting men to wear lace panties, was the comment of a retailer.

But he was wrong reports The Financial Post. Pink shirts for men now rank the most popular color next to traditional white in the U.S. and Canada. The trend started in the United States last fall and caught on in Canada this spring. Most shirt manufacturers report the color is holding on and expect pink sales to continue high through the fall. Orders to date for fall stock support their predictions.

Musical Recital at Mannville

MANNVILLE. — The annual recital of violin and piano pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott was held in the school gym on Saturday evening with a large number of parents and friends in attendance. LETTER FROM THE CAPITOL

Provincial Election Battle Warms Up

EDMONTON. — The June 29th provincial election is shaping up into quite a battle, with all major political parties showing more strength in number of candidates than they have in other recent campaigns.

Unofficial tabulations last week indicated that it will be at least a two-way battle for every one of the province's 50 constituencies and 61 legislature seats.

So long as all the candidates file their nomination papers before the deadline on nomination day, Wednesday of this week, it appears likely that there will be no members elected by acclamation.

At the time of writing, at least one candidate had been nominated in each of the ridings held by members of Premier Manning's cabinet in the last legislature. In some of these, opposition members have joined forces by naming independents to run against the cabinet ministers.

A two-way battle appears to be developing in the southern riding of Cardston, where the Liberals have named Fenton Webster to run against Hon. E. W. Hinman, minister of municipal affairs and the newest addition to the cabinet. At last reports none of the other parties planned to contest the seat.

The same applies to the Hand Hills constituency where Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, minister of health, is being opposed by Liberal candidate W. Stainton. In the Okotoks-High River riding, the Conservatives and Liberals have united to run Ross Ellis as an independent against Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of lands and forests.

Hon. L. C. Halmrast, minister of agriculture is running for re-election in his riding of Warner in the south, and is being opposed by J. L. Evans, a Liberal.

Hon. C. E. Gerhart, provincial secretary-treasurer, is being opposed in the Acadia-Coronation riding by Leonard Reitman CCF and Lee Sims Liberal.

Russell Robertson, Liberal and Mrs. Kari Karlson CCF have been named to run against Hon. A. O. Aalborg, minister of education, in the Alexandra riding, while Hon. Gordon Taylor, minister of highways, runs against Liberal Dr. A. Barclay and Labor - Progressive (Communist) Anton Leonaski in the Drumheller riding.

The minister of industries and labor Hon. Norman A. Willmore, will contest Edson riding against two opposition nominees, Thomas Booker Cons., and Liberal Wm. Switzer.

Martin Felstad CCF and George Schultz Lib., are opposing Hon. R. D. Jorgenson, minister of welfare, in Pembina riding, while C. Stauffer Lib., and Bert Rear CCF are running against Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of public works, in Rocky Mountain House.

One of the more interesting election battles will be in St. Albert riding where Hon. Lucien Maynard is seeking re-election. He is opposed by A. Sostaert, Lib., and Jos. Dusseault, independent with CCF backing.

In the 1952 election the same two ran against Maynard in the same riding and gave him such strong opposition that during the counting it looked as if he might not be elected.

A major development in the election campaign last week was Premier Manning's announcement that he plans to introduce legislation which would prohibit members of the legislature from borrowing money from provincial treasury branches.

The premier said he will ask the new legislature to amend the present statutes to make it impossible for MLA's to obtain treasury branch loans. Dealings with the treasury branches became an election issue during the last session of the house when Liberal leader J. H. Prowse suggested that members disqualified themselves by doing business with the branches.

At the time, the premier labelled the suggestion a 'petty technicality' and asked why the opposition was questioning a practice which had been going on for 17 years. Now, he says that in the light of the opposition's "misrepresentation" of treasury branch services, the only proper thing to do is make it impossible for any such question to arise again.

BEHIND THE SCENES

We won't take any bets, but numerous political observers are saying R. Earl Ansley, MLA for Leduc riding for many years, may be back in the Social Credit fold when the new legislature meets, probably in August.

Mr. Ansley was minister of education in the Manning cabinet until he resigned in 1948. Before the 1952 election, he was read out of the party, but ran as an Ind. Social Crediter and was elected.

A meeting of the Leduc Social Credit Constituency Association recently voted not to field a candidate but to support Mr. Ansley again. Mr. Ansley is not a member of the Social Credit League. So the question is, if elected will he be a government supporter? Sources close to to the party say yes.

Orvis Kennedy, Social Credit organizer, was asked if Mr. Ansley would be returned to the party's good graces. He smiled and replied: "There are still some things to be settled before that happens."

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE E. KIRK —

Made any plans for a change in activity this summer? I have suggestions for both mother and family (it looks like father will have to fend for himself) special weeks for both at the Vermilion school of agriculture.

SUMMER COURSES

Mother's Week (Farm Women's Week by its real name) is July 18 to 21. The program is planned to include lectures and demonstrations in practical home economics topics as well as agricultural topics of interest to farm women. Provision is also made for recreation and relaxation from the routine of home duties on the farm.

Women within daily driving distances may attend for one or more days or nearby organizations may arrange a group visit for one day. For those staying in the dormitories there is a charge of $3.50 per day for board and room.

Youngsters may be taken along at no extra charge for children under 6, and at $1.50 per day for children 6 to 12.

The 'Family Week', Vermilion Summer Fair Camp, is from July 25 to 30. It is open to boys and girls aged 13 to 18. Preference is given to those who have previously not attended.

Courses for the boys are in practical agriculture subjects and for the girls in home economics. Boys and girls taking the courses will live in the school dormitory. Total cost is $5 payable at the time of making application.

BURSARIES

A third item I hope will be of interest to some, is the list of bursaries available to students entering the school of agriculture in their first year. Applications for these must be dated not later than Aug. 15. So the sooner you ask for information and applications, the better.

Further information and applications for bursaries, Farm Women's Week, and the Vermilion Fair Summer Camp are available at this office or from the Vermilion school of agriculture.

PARADISE VALLEY NEWS

The United Church Sunday School picnic will be held at the sports grounds Sunday June 26 starting at 2 o'clock. All friends and parents interested in the Sunday school are invited to attend. Bring your own picnic lunch and dishes. Coffee and lemonade will be provided by the Sunday school.

Mrs. W. A. Nickle and Mrs. Leonard Block entertained the W.A. of the United church on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harold Fair and Mrs. Colin Ball gave the devotional for the meeting. The ladies received an invitation from Rosedale W.A. to attend their meeting on June 23. All those who plan on going are to meet in the church basement at 7:15 p.m.

Mrs. C. Elliott was appointed as youth sponsor for the balance of the year and Mrs. Harold Fair as Christian Citizenship convener. The W.A. plan on cleaning the church on Wednesday, June 22 and all those who have children attending Sunday school are asked to bring a pail and scrub cloth and help with the cleaning. Work to start at 1:30 p.m. Everyone is asked to bring a little lunch and tea will be served after the cleaning is all done.

A cash donation is to be made to the girls' and boys' camp at Lake Whitney. Hostesses for the July meeting are Mrs. Ken Brassington and Mrs. Bud Block.

On Friday our town was deserted as everyone took the trip to Dina to celebrate the 50th Year Jubilee sponsored by the combined Dina, Clare and P.V. locals of the F.U.A. The parade was splendid with several real old time tractors and cars, floats and all the things that go with a parade. A good day of sport for young and old was enjoyed. The old timers' booth where pictures and several ancient relics were on show was a popular place. Mr. L. Nicholson, an early settler, gave a short account of the early settlement in the Dina district. Mr. Emil Sand and Mrs. T. Veltivold, the only two remaining pioneers of 1905 were called to the mike and in a very happy way were presented with a lovely gold watch each (these two by the way are brother and sister). A very fitting ending to a successful day.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Mr. John Currie of Kitscoty on the death of his brother Neil at Busy, Alberta, and to the family of Mr. John Bunyan who passed away in Edmonton. Mr. Bunyan lived in Lloydminster before going to Edmonton to be employed with the Hudson Bay Co.

Quite a number attended the big air show at Cold Lake on Saturday and report a very interesting day.

War Brides Return Home For Visit

CALGARY. It's 'Back to Blighty' for 35 Calgary war brides this summer. Accompanied by their 57 children, the girls who came to Calgary from the old country as war brides left here by Canadian National Railways on June 8 for a 2 to 3 month visit to their homeland.

Travelling in special cars on the train, they passed through Saskatoon and Winnipeg en route to Montreal where they will board the S.S. Ascania for overseas.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, [illegible] GRAIN COMPANY, LIMITED

A CLOSE WATCH FOR RUST INFESTATION

From the first of May until well on into the season, the Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology is constantly on the watch for evidence of rust infestation throughout Manitoba and Saskatchewan, the chief means of detection followed being the use of spore traps. These are located at certain key points in these two provinces and the results from them are studied closely at regular intervals.

The spore trap itself is actually a small weather vane containing a slide which is fixed into it in such a manner that it is always facing the wind and any particles striking the slide are therefore caught in the very thin layer of vaseline which covers it. These slides are exposed for a 24-hour period and are then sent in to the Central Lab. at Winnipeg for examination. The traps catch a great variety of particles which include dust, pollen grains, etc., and this calls for first a very careful sorting out of [illegible] particles and then for [illegible] scrutiny of the spore material.

It will be recalled that last year evidence of extensive spore showers wind-borne from the south and extending far into Saskatchewan was found at the end of the first week in June. This was the beginning of one of the worst outbreaks of rust ever seen in western Canada. Just what the winds from the south will bring this year no one knows but the spore traps operated by the Dominion Laboratory will give a good indication of what to expect.

IT CAN HAPPEN!

NEWS from CLANDONALD

HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON 45

Big events have been taking place around here. The biggest news of years is the beginning of construction on the provincial highway, a continuation of No. 45 from No. 41 east. Contracts have been let for construction as far as Dewberry this year. Crossing the Landonville market road two miles north of town at the Shaw farm Foster & Maclean are working west, and east from that point a local concern, Grant Construction are hard at it, and with the addition of two nine-yard turnapulls this week should soon have the first mile completed. Several local men are employed by both outfits. Good cat skinners are reported as being hard to come by. The standard of the highway seems to be much higher than that at the time No. 41 was built. A curve takes about a half mile while the right of way altogether is 300 feet. It is reported that this highway will be paved eventually and also that construction is such that it could be made into four lanes by the addition of shoulders.

Next in importance or to some probably the most important, is the possibility of one or more local lakes being stocked with fish.

TO STOCK LOCAL LAKES

Two lakes about six miles north and a mile west of town show great possibilities and the report on the water is being awaited with considerable interest. One lake near Cecil Burns' proved to be 30 feet deep which is what is required for trout. "Gone Fishing" signs are already in the printer's hands.

BIG CROWD AT AIR SHOW

Judging by the crowd and traffic jam nearly everybody in North-Eastern Alberta and North-Western Saskatchewan attended the Cold Lake air show on June 11. Reports have it that there were 30,000 people and between 8000 and 10,000 cars. At one time traffic was jammed past the Beaverlodge River which is well over 8 miles from the air force station. The writer and party were lucky as many spent 2 hours waiting to get out of the grounds. It was a good show and we'll probably all be back next time with a friend.

FARMERS PICNIC

Attendance at the Farmers picnic on Friday was not as large as in 1953 but a good sized crowd was on hand. Doubtless the lateness of the season and the air show the next day had much to do with the reduced attendance. Great credit is due the people of the Marwayne district for their efforts to provide a good time. The parade made up entirely of entries from Marwayne and Dewberry was especially worthy of praise.

MINISTER TO LEAVE

It is with much regret that we learn that the Rev. and Mrs. Clennett and baby will be leaving for their new charge at Frog Lake shortly. We wish them every success in their new location and feel that the work of the church will be very well taken care of there. The Rev. Clennett plans to conduct services here as usual until the arrival of the new minister some time later in the summer.

Plans are getting underway for a big gathering in Vermilion about the end of August of the Men's Deanery Association. It is planned to have a special speaker from Eastern Canada, to be followed by a banquet.

GOOD RAIN NEEDED

Crops throughout the district are greatly in need of rain before too long or yields will be very greatly reduced. Land that was waterlogged for weeks is baked almost as hard as cement now and makes tillage for later crops most difficult.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISIT

Many former residents of the district have returned for visits since our last news. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dorey spent several weeks here visiting with various married sons and daughters. Recently they returned to their home at Summerland, B.C. Louis Stanley, another former old timer, was here from the coast to visit relatives and former acquaintances. Later he went on to Worsley in the Peace River country where brother Vince and family now have their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Roe, now residents of Edmonton, paid a brief visit to the district during the 24th of May week end.

Miss Patsy MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roddy MacDonald, former residents of the Ethelwyn district and now also living in B.C., spent several days here visiting her grandparents and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacDonald and family.

The news item in the Standard several weeks ago regarding the lady who came to the wrong Vermilion reminds us of a similar occurrence about 25 years ago — a neighbor family of ours just arrived in Edmonton from England and would most likely have gone on to Fort Vermilion had they not been informed in time. Who knows — it might have been all for the best!

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Two squares of Cirlce Eighters travelled to Edmonton on Saturday to attend the Jubilee Square dance and to hear Arnie Kronenberger again. It was a wonderful dance with about 85 squares dancing and everyone appeared to be having a lot of fun. The more we hear Arnie the better he seems to get. It is too bad he is retiring from the profession. He will continue to make records but this will be his last trip to Canada.

Can you imagine 15,000 square dancers in one crowd? Arnie called for a street dance in Santa Monica, Calif., where 15,000 dancers squared up and an estimated 30,000 onlookers lined the streets. That's quite a crowd for one man to keep moving.

Johnny Maxwell, our first Vermilion caller, is starting a class of square dancers at Elk Point in the very near future. May we wish you every success Johnny, for yourself and for the good of square dancing. Tell your new club that the C8 will be very glad to welcome them to our dances as soon as you get them started.

There will be square dancing in the street at Hardisty this Friday and Saturday mornings from 10:30 to 1:00. Henry Lien will do the calling with Vic Siebert's orchestra from Calgary supplying the music.

No news of dances from neighboring clubs this week but don't forget next Thursday in the Legion hall, Circle Eight dance with Harold Schacher doing the calling. See you then.

June 5th happenings — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cross and daughter Shirley went East, going by plane from Saskatoon.

Gus Throndson and Orley Omness accompanied Don Wilson to Cold Lake on a fishing trip returning on Monday 6th. Fishing was good although they weren't fortunate in getting any.

Mr. and Mrs. Idelore Nelson and family motored to Ferguson Flats to visit the latter's parents and families the Ockerman's. Mrs. Ockerman was in the Elk Point hospital for a few days. On their way to Elk Point they stopped at the Darling home. Lloyd seems to be improving in health. Morgan is working at Grand Centre.

On June 7th Mr. and Mrs. I. Nelson, Anna and Leslie motored to the city coming home the same evening. They had dinner at the Fort on their way in with the latter's sister Lily, the Swanson family.

On the evening of June 8th the Clandonald W.A. entertained the Allandale W.A. at the Herman Feenstra's lovely home. Our Health Unit nurse gave a very interesting talk on Communcable Diseases, a subject so worthwhile, especially amongst children. We did appreciate the hospitality of the ladies and our hostess. Thanks also to Mrs. McPhee for taking along five of the ladies from Allandale.

The afternoon of June 9th Allandale W.A. met at the Woody Wilson home. It was pleasing to have visitors, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Jimmy Armstrong and family. July meeting will be at the Throndson home. Mrs. I. Nelson and Mrs. Omness on lunch committee.

June 10th was the day of the Farmers' picnic at Marwayne and Allandale was one of the locals taking part. For those who worked all day to give pleasure to others we are truly grateful. It was a grand day and all seemed to have a real good time.

The Johnny Nelson family motored to Hardisty on June 11 to attend the last day of the Stampede.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wilson motored to Cold Lake on June 11th to attend the air show.

Noticed in the last Standard the death of Mr. Phillips rightly known as "Moose". Another pioneer passed on. The sympathy of the community is extended to all the families. The late Mr. Phillips and family homesteaded on the quarter where Sid Cusack and family now live. They later moved to the quarter that is owned by Mr. Websdale then to Borradaile where they lived for a number of years before moving to Edmonton.

A rock crushing outfit is stationed south of Bill Cross' on Jack's land. Gravel from here will be used on highway 41 to the Saskatchewan river.

Sunday school was well attended last Sunday and a good attendance at church service, around fifty. A nice sermon was preached by Mr. Rector "Learn to Forgive". All his sermons are very inspiring.

Sunday school is every Sunday at 11 a.m. Next church service is June 26, 11:30 a.m. Mrs. McPhee is superintendent of the Sunday school and also teaches while the Misses Hilda and Mary Wilson are teachers for the smaller classes.

Plans are for Vermilion and the North field to meet in the afternoon at Whitney camp next Sunday June 19 for a church service by Rev. MacKay, a social afternoon to get better acquainted and to see the camp. We have no further information but I'm sure lunch would be in order. Please phone Rev. MacKay at 43 or Mr. Good 258 for further information.

Closing Thought: We learn wisdom from failure much more than success. We often discover what will do by finding out what will not do — and he who never made a mistake probably never made a discovery.

BILL IRVINE SAYS:

"During the last three years the farmers of Western Canada have among other things sent deputations to Ottawa to ask for the following: Floor prices on a parity basis for the domestic market and a guaranteed minimum price for export products, Marketing Boards, Farmer representation on the Wheat Board, the Board of Grain Commissioners and other boards, a Trade Policy to encourage any country needing our foodstuffs to trade with us, such as removing tariff barriers and the acceptance of British pounds in payment thereof, Crop Insurance, specific changes in income tax, government grants for education, National Health Insurance, support of Cooperatives, etc. The government with over [illegible] majority has turned a deaf ear to every appeal. Does anyone suppose that another Liberal elected on June 20th would make any difference?"

On the contrary, the election of another Liberal would tell the government that you were perfectly satisfied with things as they are. And as Premier Douglas said in Camrose "The Cabinet on hearing the news would just turn over and go back to sleep." The only time the Liberal government has ever really come to life during the last 30 years was when the CCF was strong enough to threaten its power. Is it not worth while to try that again? The greatest weakness of both the Ottawa government and the Alberta government is the size of their majorities. It is in the public interest to reduce those majorities in both cases.

VOTE — BILL IRVINE X

C.N.R. President Rewards Alert Manitoba Farmer

GILBERT PLAINS, Man. — Being observant and then doing something about what he saw brought Robert J. Logan of Gilbert Plains a gift from Donald Gordon, the chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways.

Early in April while working on his farm near the C.N. right-o-way here Mr. Logan noticed high water undermining a small section of the track. He immediately reported the condition to track forces who carried out the necessary repairs without any delay to traffic.

In a letter to Mr. Logan, the C.N.R. president said he hoped the gift would serve as "a reminder of the occasion on which you rendered a public service for which the C.N.R. is most appreciative."

WOODVALE NOTES

It seems funny — only a short month ago farmers could not get on the land because it was too wet. And now, we would like to have a real good rain again, especially for the hay land, and gardens and late sown crops could stand it too!

Mr. and Mrs. Cartell of Edmonton are looking after their grandsons while their daughter Mrs. R. McQuid is staying with her sister, Mary in Edmonton.

Measles have broken out among the Woodvale school children again and has victims from grade 1 to grade 9. The Jubilee concert that was planned for June 9 was postponed until the closing day, June 30.

The Woodvale girls' ball team, although not getting first at Kitscoty in the School Division track meet, did not do badly either defeating Rivercourse 23-1, Preston 17-4 before going down in the semi-finals to Vermilion 19-5.

The Red Cross meeting took place June 1 at the home of Mrs. M. Watson with 8 members and one visitor Mrs. F. Van Tyen present. A quilt was worked as usual and a big box was filled with clothes to be sent with the quilt to the W.M.S. of Edmonton. It was decided to have another June meeting on the 23rd at the home of Mrs. M. McGrath to plan for the booth at the Tolland picnic scheduled for July 6.

A delicious lunch was served later by the hostess who had quite a busy day, what with the meeting and newly hatched chicks and ducklings. The latter specially getting much attention.

Their son Frank had to come to Mr. and Mrs. R. Bradley's rescue recently as they were stranded in Edgerton where engine trouble developed in their car necessitating major repairs.

George Machell moved to Islay last week and we sincerely wish that he and his parents will be happy there where the latter can receive so much easier the very much needed medical care. Kind neighbors lately have helped them move their belongings and we hope that Mrs. Machell could make the trip without too much pain and distress.

We are sorry that much of the above news is rather old as we were unable to make it to Vermilion in time. At time of writing it promises to be a nice day for the Farmers' picnic.

Mrs. F. Van Tyen returned to her son's home in Red Deer on June 4 and now we have with us Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lenshock of Kiortinge

Of Many Things . . .

By [illegible]

VISION

I am going to tell you about a fellow that I went to school with. He lives in a small town, physically, but in a Big City spiritually. He is rich. Not because he ever cheated; he is the soul of honesty. I had all the opportunities he had, but he had more vision.

Last month I met him on the main street of our home town. "Listen here," I said, "let's go have a coffee together. I want to find out how you made yourself such a pot of money in a little place like this."

Settled in the coffee shop, he said: "What makes you call this place little? I think it's pretty big."

"Big? My gosh it is less than a thousand," I protested.

He took a map and a pencil from his pocket. He drew a circle with a diameter of 60 miles. At least 7 other small towns fell within the area of the circle. "I can be in most of these places in half an hour . . . about an hour and a half to the furthest. How long does it take you to get to work in the city?"

I confessed I was lucky to make it in half an hour through traffic.

"You see," he said, a twinkle in his eye. "This is my city. I advertise to this whole area. I have outlets here and here . . ." He began putting X's within his circle with all the zest of a chain store merchant choosing city street corners.

If you have vision, you can look at a small town in a big way.

Terrific Liberal Drive For Federal Seat Fails

Jim Smith, Social Credit, Wins

Social Credit again held the Battle River-Camrose seat at Ottawa when Jim Smith, high school principal at Kitscoty, weathered a concentrated and sustained Liberal campaign, to emerge the winner by a majority of 342 votes.

The election day climaxed a campaign highlighted by intense organizational work by the Liberals, and speaking tours by cabinet ministers on a scale never before witnessed in this constituency. The Liberals apparently sought to break the Social Credit hold on the rural seats in Alberta.

JIM SMITH

Jim Smith, Social Credit .... [illegible]
Dr. Mac Smith, Liberal .... [illegible]
Wm. Irvine, C.C.F. .... 3772

It was apparent from the early returns that the Liberal campaign had borne fruit and that the usual large Social Credit lead would be reduced. The lead swayed back and forth between the two Smiths. The first six polls gave Dr. Smith a majority of ten. At 16 polls Jim Smith led by 17 votes. At 20 polls it was Liberal by 30 and it still was that with 10 majority when 24 polls had reported. As the 200th poll came in Social Credit had built up a 483 lead; this sank to 324, and the last poll to report boosted the majority to 342.

Increased CCF Support

In the meanwhile, far behind but rolling up a greatly increased vote over that of 1953, was Bill Irvine, who polled 3772 compared to the former election figure of 2281.

The official count will take place at the office of D. R. Mitchell, Returning Officer, on Wednesday, June 29th.

Comparison of Votes

|---|---|---|
| Social Credit | 8,536 | 9,230 |
| Liberal | 8,194 | 4,531 |
| C. C. F. | 3,772 | 2,281 |
| Prog.-Con. | | 1,794 |
| Labor Prog. | | 426 |
| Totals | 20,502 | 18,260 |

Mr. Jim Smith has been a supporter of Social Credit since 1934 and was a warm personal friend and campaign manager of the late Mr. Robert Fair who represented the constituency from 1935 to the time of his death in November, 1954.

For the past fourteen years Mr. Smith has been principal of the Kitscoty high school and supervisor of the two dormitories there, operated by the Vermilion school division. Mr. Smith, as well as being a highly successful teacher, is a past president of the Alberta Teachers' Association and is regarded highly as an administrator and organizer. His abilities fit him well for his forthcoming career in Ottawa.

Vermilion polls gave Jim Smith 417 votes with 373 for Dr. Smith and 106 for Wm. Irvine. Other poll results in the area were:

Death of H. W. Brown, Pioneer Citizen

A direct link with the earliest history of Vermilion and district, Harry Wentworth Brown, passed away on Saturday, June 18 at Port Alberni, B.C. where he had spent the past several months visiting at the homes of his daughter and son. "Went" as he was so well known, came to Vermilion in 1905 so witnessed the development of the town and district from the very start. He took part in business in Vermilion, farmed, and was very well known as the efficient secretary of the former Vermilion Valley municipal district. His death came suddenly on the 18th at the age of 79 years.

He was born at Gladstone, Man., and came to Vermilion in 1905. He and Walter Gibson were partners in the North-West Trading Co. store for some time. Later he became secretary-treasurer of Vermilion Valley M.D. and thus was well known in the district. He and his son also operated a farm six miles north of Vermilion.

Mr. Brown was a Grand Master in the Masonic Lodge and also had been a member of the Town Council, the Board of Trade and Chairman of the Hospital board.

He leaves to mourn his loss three sons, Corydon of Vermilion; Kenneth of Vancouver, Wash.; Lloyd of Alberni, B.C.; three daughters, Mrs. Lucille Botkin of Armstrong, B.C.; Mrs. Grace Brown of Port Alberni, B.C.; Mrs. Lorna Cormack of Namaio airport. There are 16 grandchildren.

Funeral services have been arranged for June 24th in the First United church, Vermilion at 3 p.m.

The Masonic funeral service will be held Friday, June 24th in the Masonic hall at 2 p.m.

Interment will take place in the Vermilion cemetery.

Mammoth July 1st Sports at Mannville

Mannville has long been a favorite spot for the July 1st holiday and this year will be no exception as people are expected from far and wide. A really mammoth program of sports, rodeo, barbecue, has been arranged — a program that lacks for nothing in the way of excitement and variety. Plan to be at Mannville July 1st — it's a Bert Williams and Committee production, so it's bound to be good!

Dr. A. H. Goodwin left Tuesday night for Regina where he plans to spend the next several months at the home of his daughter Mrs. Lillian Walker and family.

Ken Caron Receives Com. Pilot's License

Ken Caron has just returned home after spending the last two and one half months in Edmonton. Ken was receiving further flying instructions at the Edmonton Flying club and successfully obtained his Commercial pilot's license.

He expects to stay in Vermilion for the next two months where he will have employment with his father Mr. George Caron in construction work, and then next fall will take further flying instruction, expecting to eventually fly 'one of the big ones'.

F.W.U.A. HOLD CONFERENCE AT SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Dr. Bryan Russell, Director of the Minburn-Vermilion Health Clinic, was the guest speaker at the Farm Women's Union of Alberta Conference. He spoke to the ladies who were gathered at the School of Agriculture Monday, June 20, on the subject "Polio Vaccine." His address was most interesting and informative, and his remarks concerning a topic of vital importance, were eagerly listened to by the F.W.U.A.

Five locals, Greenlawn, Riverton, Stapledene, Dewberry and Marwayne which make up the northern half of District 7 of the F.W.U.A. were holding their annual conference, with both morning and afternoon sessions, on Monday. Mrs. Ruste, of Wainwright, the Director of District No. 7, was unable to be present, but the Conference was fortunate in having Mrs. W. Malhison, 2nd vice-president, as presiding officer. There were about 30 members present.

The morning session was devoted to the presentation of reports, and a discussion of a resolution pertaining to the annual convention of the provincial F.W.U.A.

Mr. N. N. Bentley, Principal of the V.S.A., opened the afternoon session with a speech of welcome, and he went on to mention that the suggestion of the F.W.U.A. regarding Employment Training for the girls at the School of Agriculture had been acted upon, and proved very successful.

The F.W.U.A. had presented a brief to the Provincial cabinet last February, and Mrs. Mathison reported on this matter.

The Dewberry local served tea at the conclusion of the meeting.

A special feature of the Conference was the Pakistan handicraft display. This collection of handicraft articles had been sent to the F.W.U.A. by the Pakistan Government and was of great interest to the members of this Conference as it had been to those of [illegible] district conferences.

Mr. George Maxwell of Vermilion is to be congratulated on his election to the office of [illegible] Deacon of the Alberta [illegible] Lodge, A.F. & A.M.

Those unable to be present were Katherine Barlow, Shirley Love and Clara Green.

Salvation Army Leaders Leaving

Much to the regret of a great many residents of Vermilion, as well as those belonging to the Salvation Army, it is learned that Major M. Battrick and Snr. Capt. F. N. Hill are to be transferred to other posts, and will be leaving Vermilion next week.

Special farewell services will be held Sunday, June 26th to honor the two Salvation Army workers, who have been in Vermilion only a year.

Major Battrick has been promoted to a position as cashier and book keeper with the Salvation Army in Montreal. It is pleasing to hear that Major Battrick is leaving Vermilion with regret as she has enjoyed her work here very much.

Snr. Capt. Hill has received a promotion placing her in charge of Corps work in Grande Prairie and she too, is sorry to leave Vermilion, and will be sincerely missed here.

Action For Damages Case Dismissed

The action arose out of a collision in December 1953 about 7:30 p.m. between Beisel's car and Haseniuk's truck. Haseniuk, coming from the south on the Claysmore road, was crossing Highway 16 with a truck load of grain when Beisel's car came over the hill from the east and struck the rear of Haseniuk's truck. The damage to Haseniuk's truck was slight but Beisel's car was damaged to around $1300.00 for which he sued Haseniuk. He claimed Haseniuk had proceeded across the highway when it was unsafe to do so. It was dark and both vehicles had lights on. The Court held that Haseniuk had exercised every precaution and was not required to wait at night with a loaded truck until all traffic was off the main highway, and that Beisel had not taken measures to avoid the accident which he could have done, such as braking.

F. J. Richardson Q.C., of Vermilion acted for Haseniuk. W. G. Chipman of Smith, Clement, Parlee and Whittaker, Edmonton, acted for Beisel.

VOTE FOR YOUR SOCIAL CREDIT CANDIDATE

ASHLEY H. COOPER
Vermilion Constituency

To the People of Vermilion Constituency:

The Alberta Government's record cannot be matched by any other Provincial administration in Canada. What other province has a program to completely repay its public debt? To take care of all school and municipal borrowings from surplus funds? To make grants totalling sixty-seven million dollars to municipalities, towns and villages in 1955 to aid the taxpayer? To distribute half of its gasoline tax to municipalities with no strings attached? These are but a few notable items in a long list of achievements and the best is yet to come.

Should you elect me on June 29th, I will try to discharge my responsibilities to you faithfully and conscientiously.

The Woodvale Girls' softball team won second prize in the 15 and under class at the school division track meet at Kitscoty. It was incorrectly stated in the Standard that Kitscoty won that position. Woodvale lost to Vermilion in the final game.

76 Compete In Highland Games

The annual St. Andrews Highland games were held at the Vermilion fair grounds on Saturday, June 18 with some 76 competitors participating in the Piping and Dancing contests.

With Messrs. Lorne Dowling and Don Taylor as Masters of Ceremonies, the games got underway in the morning with perfect weather conditions; but by early afternoon a heavy shower developed so that it was necessary to discontinue the dancing because the platform was too wet. Through the kind co-operation of Mr. Lock Martin, the Games were moved indoors at the Vermilion Armories. This made it possible to continue the dancing and piping competitions until the weather cleared, when the events were once more resumed at the fair grounds.

At 4:30 Mr. A. M. West performed the official kick-off in the football game between the Victoria D.F.C.'s and the Oliver St. Pats. Despite the wet field the two teams gave a good performance. The final score was Victoria D.F.C.'s 2, Oliver St. Pats 1.

Mr. Bob Morley of Edmonton, was the referee for the game.

The tug-o-war had to be cancelled as the Edmonton City police were unable to make the trip at the last minute.

The Professional Dancing trophy went to Miss Helen Smith, of Edmonton. Miss Gloria Jean Beewmeester won the Long trophy for Amateur dancing.

Among the winners in the Games was Roderick MacMillan of Clandonald who placed third in the slow March in the piping events and 2nd in the Marches.

Vermilion Tigers Win Clandonald Tourney

Vermilion Tigers won both their starts on Wednesday to win the baseball tourney at the Clandonald sports.

In the final the Tigers and Mannville had a see-saw battle with the Vermilion boys easing out ahead by a 9-8 score. For this game Bob Dunbar and Charlie Birkett divided the mound duties with Wilf Little and Brent Macnab catching.

St. Paul Wins Derwent Tourney

St. Paul baseball club was the big winner of the two-day tournament at Derwent last Saturday and Sunday. Second prize went to Elk Point.

After enjoying a comfortable lead in the first game Vermilion Tigers lost to Elk Point 17 to 7.

Rain interfered with the draws the first day but the big tourney was completed on Sunday.

Soccer League Is Planned for Vermilion

At a football meeting held in the Vermilion Armories Friday, June 17, it was the unanimous wish of all present to form a Soccer league in Vermilion. A committee consisting of Messrs. Bob Allan, Billie McLaughlin, Angus MacMillan, Dick Cosh, John Knight, Lock Martin and Harold Cooper was appointed to plan a league for this district.

Mr. Bob Morley secretary of the Edmonton Football Association, addressed the meeting and told of the strides that soccer has taken in Edmonton in the past two years. There are at present, ten teams in the Edmonton league with four more to be added next year. Mr. Morley stated that he would like to see teams in Vegreville, Vermilion and Lloydminster and felt that with a little promotion this could be attained. He also stated that the Edmonton Football Association would give all possible assistance and encouragement in forming a league here.

It is the intention of the Vermilion committee to concentrate on Junior football and they hope to organize four junior teams in the immediate future.

A film of the International match between England and the rest of the world was shown, which illustrated very clearly the fine points of the game. More films of this nature will be made available through the Edmonton Football Association.

Two Edmonton teams, the Victoria D.F.C.'s and the Oliver St. Pats, played an exhibition game at the St. Andrew Highland games on Saturday last. This was the first football game played in Vermilion in some 30 years.

Square Notes From Circle Eight

Our last Club dance, on Thursday, was very successful. There was a large crowd. Harold was in good form, and it wasn't too hot. We had visitors from several clubs — we are always glad to have them and they are always welcome.

It has been decided to cancel our next dance. It was scheduled for June 30th, but because of Mannville's Jamboree on July 1st the executive felt it best to drop our dance.

Mannville's Jubilee Jamboree will have at least four callers, and will take place in the new school auditorium on July 1. Gerald Stephens has tickets for sale, so make up your squares and see Gerald.

Two of our members drove all the way to Edson last Saturday for the last of Arnie Kronberger's dances. If you heard Vermilion mentioned on the radio — that was Lorne and Mona Puckett they were talking about. Lorne reports a very good time, a really friendly crowd of about 200 who thought Arnie was wonderful. That's a long drive Lorne, sure glad that you enjoyed the dance.

The Circle Eight's next dance will be July 14. The place is to be announced later but it will likely be the Legion hall.

Don't forget the parade July 22. We need dancers for two floats, and a spare square if possible. Turn your names in to any member of the float committee or the executive.

Final plans will be announced shortly for the big dance the last night of the Fair. As far as we know now there will be four callers and lots of room. Watch the Standard for complete details.

Achievement Day By Home Ec. And Shop Students of Three Schools

An exceptionally large attendance, over 350 people, had an opportunity to see the displays of work done by the Junior and Senior High school students of Mannville, Kitscoty and Vermilion who have been taking the courses in Shop Work and Household Economics offered them at the Vermilion School of Agriculture.

The afternoon started with a 'Fashion Show' giving the parents an opportunity to see the 15 girls of the sewing class modelling the dresses they had made, just since Easter. Mrs. S. C. Acheson, the instructress in sewing, was the commentator as the girls came walking out displaying their dresses all to a musical background.

The Mannville Grade 10 group were the first on the program and between their part of the show and that of Kitscoty Grade 10 girls Margaret Goodwin played a piano solo. Beverly Jack and Janet Kent sang a duet accompanied by Sylvia Shepherd in the intermission between the modelling done by the Kitscoty girls and the Vermilion Grade 10 class. These three girls come from Kitscoty.

The fashion show took place in the gymnasium of the school of agriculture and there was such a crowd that many had to stand. The girls made an excellent showing and are to be commended on their work as is their instructress Mrs. S. C. Acheson. At the conclusion of this part of the program it was announced that the boys' work display could be seen in the Mechanics building and that tea would be served in the college building.

Under the direction of Mr. J. A. R. Palin, instructor in general mechanics 16, the boys had arranged the samples of their work in drafting, blacksmithing, sheet metal work, electric and automotive classes. There are about 95 boys from the Junior and Senior high schools in Mannville, Kitscoty and Vermilion taking this course, and they appear to be very enthusiastic about their work. Their display was set out on tables in their lab. and classroom.

Mr. D. C. Folk's classes of boys from these same three points are taking the course in General Mechanics 15. This subject includes such work as bench work in the carpenter shop, practical framing and related theory, and the construction in wood of larger projects such as a garage, granaries and portable bleachers. Another type of project was 13 small tables for use by the Canadian Legion.

These buildings, bleachers and tables were on display to the many interested and enthusiastic parents.

A very welcome culmination of the afternoon's activities was 'teatime' arranged for by the girls in the Foods and Nutrition classes. These girls, 105 of them, are under the tuition and supervision of Miss Gwen Daley.

Because of the large attendance there were two tea tables arranged, one in each of the sewing rooms in the college building. The tables were decorated with a centrepiece of lilacs on a lace tablecloth and the rooms tastefully festive with bouquets of lilacs. The fancy sandwiches, cookies and small cakes were all made by the girls themselves as was the tea for the adults, and the lemonade for the young people. Because it would have been impossible to prepare all the food necessary for such a large crowd immediately prior to the tea it is interesting to note that a considerable portion of the cookies and cakes had been prepared in the class time since June 1st and then had been deep frozen giving the girls a lesson in the use of the deep freeze in the advance preparation of foodstuffs.

The ladies presiding at the tea tables were: Mrs. Hugh Doherty, wife of the Principal of Mannville school; Mrs. W. B. Novak, wife of the Principal of the Vermilion Jr. high school; Mrs. J. B. Bell, wife of the Principal of the Vermilion Sr. high school and Mrs. D. C. Folk whose husband is instructor in General Mechanics.

It is of interest that there are approximately 150 boys and 150 girls who now have the advantage of taking a course in either shop work or household economics. This is made possible through the co-operation of the Department of Agriculture. The facilities of the classrooms and laboratories and the services of some of the staff of V.S.A. have been made available to the Vermilion School division. Because of the comparatively short term of the regular college course these facilities can be used from September 1st to the middle of October and again from Easter until the end of the school term in June.

The high quality of the work displayed by the students and staff is a very encouraging note that this unique arrangement has many advantages for the education of the young people of the Vermilion School division in this area.

No man really becomes a fool until he stops asking questions.
—The Reader's Digest

NEWS from ISLAY

The annual Strawberry Shortcake social will take place on Thursday evening June 30 in the hall. A ball game starts at 7:30.

The Sunday school picnic will be held on the school grounds July 4th in the afternoon.

A bit of excitement, at least for Mrs. Irene Hendra, when her car ran off the road into quite deep water, the slough just north of George McFadyen's on the road north of Islay. Water came up to the handles on the car doors. The baby, 20 months old, was in a hanger chair and was thrown to the floor. Mrs. Hendra did some quick grabbing, rescuing the baby and crawled up on to the road — not physically hurt, just her feelings she said. She was on her way to visit her mother in Edmonton. The car was brought in to Inman's garage, all water and oil drained, the car dried, also Mrs. Hendra, and she proceeded on her way to the city. We hope she arrived safely.

Large Crowd Attend Church Service At Whitney Lake

Despite the cloudy weather on Sunday, June 19, there was a large crowd attending the service held by the United Church of Vermilion at Whitney Lake.

This was the first official function held in the new pavilion at the lake, and the building was appropriately opened with a divine service of worship.

A worship centre made from the natural surroundings greatly added to the service, a small bench on a table formed the lectern, on which leaned a small wooden cross. Wild rose bouquets were on either side of the lectern, and a hymn board on the wall added to the church atmosphere.

As the worshippers flocked up the hill from the lake to the pavilion one was reminded of the Bible days when the people came from the Sea of Galilee to the hillside to hear the Master speak.

During the service, the congregation were reminded of the Master's great love of the out-of-doors, and how it was down by the water that many of his great disciples were called to follow him.

In this picturesque setting, the service was concluded with the hymn, "Unto the hills around do I lift up my longing eyes". Assisting the Rev. Mr. C. W. MacKay in the service was Mr. Lewis Rector, the student minister at Clandonald-Allendale-Ottawa.

At the close of the worship, a prayer of dedication and blessing was said for the work of the camp, the use of the pavilion, and the life of the future campers.

By the time the service was over, the sun had come out, and the gathering had an opportunity to see the camp in all its beauty. A quiet look at the lake, a walk through the woods, and it was time for supper. The lunches were shared in the pavilion, where everyone ate heartily, coffee being made in the new kitchen.

The day was a great blessing and joy to all who were in attendance. They were favored with cloudy but dry weather, and the sun did shine brightly before the conclusion of the day.

Offerings were given to the work of the camp.

NEW HOLLAND'S sensational MODEL "66"
Makes hay baling practical on almost any farm
It's self-powered...makes square, man-size bales
Costs hundreds of dollars less!
The surprise of a lifetime! That's the New Holland Twine-Tie "66"! We'll wager you've never seen a baler so compact in design . . . so completely new!
You'll be amazed the first time you see the "66". It's shorter and lower than most balers. It's designed to operate with a one or two-plow tractor. It's priced so that even small-acreage farmers can now afford the finest in baling equipment.
Now you can enjoy the benefits of having your own baler on the farm. You can bale your hay the moment it's ready to come in, and bale it fast for minimum spoilage by sun or rain.
New pre-compression baling action gives the "66" unusual capacity. It can kick out 6 square bales a minute . . . package up to 7 tons of hay an hour! And it bales anything — clover, prairie hay, sudan grass, maize.

Women's Missionary Society Rally Is Held At Kitscoty

KITSCOTY — The Fenham W. A. and the Kitscoty W.A. were hostesses at a W.M.S. rally held in the Kitscoty United church on Tuesday afternoon, June 14th. More than 60 ladies were in attendance with visitors from Vermilion, Lloydminster, Marwayne, Islay, Wildwood and St. John's Anglican, Kitscoty. Mrs. C. Miller, president of Kitscoty W. A. presided. The rally was opened with a worship period conducted by Mrs. J. Smith, followed by an address of welcome by the Fenham W.A. president, Mrs. G. Inglis. Mrs. Roebuck of Vermilion then gave a very interesting and informative report of the W.M.S. convention held in Calgary, after which the gathering was favored by a vocal solo by Miss Eileen Jack of Wildwood. Mrs. Sneddon of Marwayne gave a brief but interesting reading. This was followed by a much-enjoyed vocal selection by Mrs. E. Batty. The guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Hamilton of Wainwright, the president of the W.M.S. for St. Paul Presbytery. Her topic was Korea and the work of the United Church in that country, especially emphasizing the work of the church since the Korean war and the help needed by the Koreans for re-establishment. This was a paper which was greatly enjoyed by all present. During the afternoon, Miss Estella Macdonell of Lloydminster, a life member of the Fenham W.A., announced that in the future the Fenham W.A. would be known as the Wilhelmina Inglis W.A. in memory of one of the pioneers of that group. At the close of the rally a cup of tea and a social period were enjoyed.

Fidelity Couple Honored On 25th Wedding Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. MIKE JACULA

Many of the friends, relatives and neighbors gathered at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jacula, near Derwent, to honor the couple on their Silver Wedding anniversary, June 5th.

The party came as a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Jacula who had been in Derwent, and returned home to find the many well-wishers waiting to greet them.

The tea table was centred with a three-tiered 25-year anniversary cake beautifully decorated. The cake was surrounded with an abundance of delicious food donated by the guests.

After everyone had enjoyed the bountiful lunch, Mr. John Yahemic from Beauvallon, spoke to the group explaining that they had assembled to honor Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jacula on the occasion of their Silver Wedding anniversary. He wished the couple a long and happy life and hoped that they would all be able to assemble to congratulate the Jaculas at the time of their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jacula spoke in turn, thanking everyone for the surprise party and telling them how pleased they were to have everyone present. Mr. Jacula especially thanked his parents, sister and brothers and their children.

Mr. Fred Jacula, father of the bridegroom of 25 years ago, mentioned how glad he was that his children had had 25 years of happy married life. He was endorsed in this sentiment by Mr. Lychak, father of Mrs. Mike Jacula.

As a spokesman for the couple's family, their oldest son, Nick, then thanked his parents for their happy home life, and wished them many more years of happiness.

Mr. Nick [illegible]aciuk of Fidelity parish, expressed his congratulations to the Jaculas and mentioned that they had been of great service to the Fidelity parish.

After these and many others had voiced their best wishes to the couple, Adeline Jacula, their daughter, presented to them a set of silver flatware in a Community pattern, a setting for eight. The presentation was made on behalf of all the relatives.

As the guests were preparing to leave, Mr. John Yahemic thanked them for coming. He announced also that a donation for the church would be acceptable on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jacula are old timers in the district and have worked hard and faithfully making a valuable contribution to the lives of their family and community.

W. M. S.

The W.M.S. of the Vermilion United church held their last meeting of the season before recessing for the holidays. Mrs. B. Hawley entertained the group at her farm home on Wednesday, June 8 commencing at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. Barr who presided, opened the meeting with a prayer, the reading from the Bible and hymn number 249 "Jesus shall reign where'er the sun".

Mrs. S. R. Colpitts and her committee gave an inspiring devotional, opening with the hymn "What a Friend we have in Jesus".

The roll call showed that there were 23 ladies present, this number including associated members.

The minutes were read and approved and a small amount of business dealt with.

Everyone enjoyed the interesting and informative talk given by the guest speaker Mrs. Elmore Stewart. Mrs. Stewart spoke of her trip to Florida last spring and illustrated her remarks with a series of excellent pictures taken during her three-week stay in Florida.

The meeting was brought to a close by repeating the Mizpah Benediction.

A delicious lunch was served by the Associated Helpers, and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

The Lippert family enjoyed a fishing trip north over the week end. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lippert's parents and sister and [illegible] of Red Deer.

Well Known Agriculturists Visit Vermilion

Two former staff members of the School of Agriculture were in Vermilion renewing old friendships. Prof. I. R. Shanks taught at the school back in the early days and is now head of the Agriculture Engineering department of the University of Manitoba.

Mr. W. G. Malaher, 'Mal' to his many friends here, was also [illegible] the opportunity to visit in Vermilion. In the course of his duties as Director of the Crop Testing Plan for the Searle Grain Co. Mal has been back in Vermilion occasionally since he, Mrs. Malaher and Joan left here for Winnipeg in 1942. He reports that Mrs. Malaher and Joan are both well, and that Joan will be entering the Winnipeg General hospital to train as a nurse starting next September.

Prof. Shanks and Mr. Malaher are members of a party of agriculturist who were en route from Manitoba to the Agriculture Institute of Canada annual convention. The A.I.C. meeting was held in Edmonton Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and there were Agriculturists representing all parts of the Dominion in attendance.

While in Vermilion the Manitoba group were conducted through the buildings and around the campus and farm buildings of the School of Agriculture by the Principal, Mr. N. N. Bentley.

G. Maxwell Receives Insurance Award

Mr. George Maxwell, of Vermilion was recently honored by the presentation of a 10-year national quality award plaque, at the annual meeting of the Northern Alberta Life Underwriters' Association in Edmonton.

The awards are sponsored by the three major associations of the life insurance field, the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada, the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association and the Life Insurance Agency Management Association. They recognize those "who are contributing their best to the industry and to the public." The awards do do not recognize sales volume.

These awards have been presented annually since 1946, and special ten-year service plaques were given this year to underwriters who have qualified for the award every year since 1946.

Awarded the 10-year service plaque were A. J. Kennedy and C. A. Magneson of Camrose; G. S. Maxwell of Vermilion; W. T. Matthews and M. F. Palmer of Edmonton; a posthumous award to A. E. Dingle was received by Phil Wensley.

Brownies Spend Day At Elk Island Park

A very enjoyable day was spent at Elk Island Park when 35 Brownies were taken there by their leaders on Saturday, June 18.

The leaders had put in many hours of planning and work before the Brownies took off from Vermilion. They were accompanied by Brown Owls Mrs. Grace Stewart, Mrs. Peggy Cosh, and Tawny Owl Mrs. Mabel Zurch. They wish to thank very sincerely those who assisted them for the day. Those helping were: Miss Joy King, Miss Lil Harcuther, Mrs. Kay Britz and Mrs. Bea Taylor.

It would have been impossible to get all the Brownies to Elk Island if Mr. Nick Klashinsky, Mr. Fred Stewart and Mrs. Long and Brent had not taken a carload of girls each to relieve the overflow from the school bus. To them also the leaders wish to extend their sincere thanks.

The day was spent in swimming and playing games and even the rains failed to spoil the fun. They finished off with a very nicely served supper at the Inn. The Brownies arrived home about 9:00 in the evening, tired but happy after their big day.

Old Timers Return After 25 Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gunderson, now of Portland, Oregon, who homesteaded here in 1907 in the Cummings district, have returned to visit their old friends and neighbors in the Vermilion area, for the first time in 25 years.

They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Obert Gunderson for a short stay, and then stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. McGinnis. Mr. Gunderson and Mr. McGinnis came here together to take up homesteads in 1907.

The Gundersons are pleased to be back, but are amazed at the many changes 25 years have brought about in Vermilion. The east end of town is completely new to them.

Dates For Farm Women's Weeks At the Schools of Agriculture

For 25 years Alberta rural women have had their own week, Farm Women's Week. The Olds, Vermilion and Fairview Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics are following in this quarter century tradition again this year. As usual the periods set aside for Farm Women's Week at the three schools is July. The dates are as follows: Olds, July 4 to 7; Fairview, July 11 to 14 and Vermilion, July 18 to 20.

In 1930, at the suggestion of a group of farm women, the Farm Women's Week began in Alberta. Then, as now, it was designed to give rural women a week of rest and relaxation — someone else cooking the meals and tending the children combined with lectures and demonstrations on all aspects of rural home making.

The beauty of the school grounds, comfort of the dormitories and type of practical instruction offered all contribute to a most pleasant and profitable week — a week of holiday from the daily grind. Friends meet old friends and new friends are made. A popular feature has always been the exchange of handicraft ideas — so very useful for bazaar ideas as well as hobbies. The sewing section promises to be very helpful [illegible] and work groups in [illegible] finishes. The home economists hope women will bring their sewing problems with them to Farm Women's Week.

Women are encouraged to get their applications in early, particularly if they are planning to bring any children with them. The program as well as the application forms, may be had by writing Mrs. V. G. MacDonald, Home Economics Service, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton; or from your District Home Economist; or from the Principal of your Agricultural school.

Two Golden Jubilee Caravans Visited By 20,000 People

More than 20,000 people in town and district points in Alberta have already seen the historical curios and movies contained in the two Golden Jubilee Caravans.

Prepared and exhibited by the Alberta Government, the caravans consist of two large trailer units which are covering the Peace River area and northern Alberta, while the other is touring the southern Alberta prairies.

The exhibits in the historical displays were obtained from government and private collections in the province, while many more were borrowed from pioneer families. The southern caravan contains objects of special interest to the south, such as ranching relics, articles from Fort Whoop-Up, plains Indian curios, and articles brought to Canada by pioneer Mormons.

The northern caravan contains such objects as Cree curios, articles of Father Lacombe, pioneer farming implements and other historical items. Both also contain early photos of social activities in the 1905 period and displays of modern craft work. The rear of the trailer has been designed so that Alberta movies can be shown during the caravan display.

The caravan will visit Wainwright on June 24-5, from there moving to the Peace River area and back to the Edmonton Exhibition July 16. It will then move eastward and will be in this area during August and September.

Whenever possible, the caravan will participate in rodeos, jubilee celebrations, agricultural shows, or other district gatherings.

Jasper Park Lodge Starts 1955 Season

JASPER — This famous Canadian Rockies summer resort opened its doors June 12 for the 1955 season with a welcome to 200 members of the Canadian Transit Association convention. This was the first of fifteen conventions booked into the Lodge this year.

Delegates from all across Canada became 'Westerners' as the men donned ten-gallon hats and the ladies learned to tie cowboy knots in colorful neckerchiefs — gifts presented to all delegates.

The association's four-day convention allowed all delegates time to enjoy Jasper Park Lodge's excellent boating, riding, tennis and fishing facilities as well as the world famous golf course.

M. T. Bancroft of Quebec City, the president of the Canadian Transit Association, expressed the general feeling when he described the lodge as a "magnificent group of buildings in the most beautiful setting I've ever seen."

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane

Women's Travel Authority

If you are underweight, vacation time is an ideal time to add a few pounds in the right places — and enjoy yourself, too — you won't need an elaborate calorie chart eating schedule or vitamin pills, either, if you keep a simple suggestion in mind.

Here it is: Vacation time generally means increased physical activity of some kind, sports, hiking, riding, or outdoor life in general. This, in turn, makes for a better appetite — so take advantage of it and order extra portions of food you ordinarily wouldn't eat.

Since your body has become accustomed to taking in roughly the same amount every day, you'll have to remind yourself that your vacation appetite is larger than usual. Once the extra portion is before you, you'll be surprised how easily you take to it.

And you'll come back from your vacation happier, healthier — and heavier!

Mannville Resident Passes Suddenly

MANNVILLE.—Mr William Roder passed away suddenly on Tuesday June 14 at the age of 57 years. Mr. Roder was born in Germany in 1898 and came to Canada in 1928. He farmed north of town until 1943 when he and the family moved to Mannville to their present home. Mr Roder was an ardent hunter and fisherman, organizing many fishing parties each summer.

Funeral services were held from McQueen United church on Friday, June 17 with Rev I. Holter officiating, and interment was in the Mannville cemetery. Pall bearers were August Brokop, Bruno Wascherol, Fred Haunch, Chris Reiper, Mr Lintmann, Eric Schroeder.

Mr Roder is survived by his widow; William of Fort St. John, Waldemar, Hans, Lottie, Annelies, Gertie, all of Edmonton, and Fritz of Mannville.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from: The Family; Mr. and Mrs. Reiper, Mr. and Mrs. R. Melnychuk; Mr and Mrs. R. S. Johnston, Bill McMahon; Jerry and Levina Barr; Anton Kenzie; Kreller Families.

Donations to Cancer Fund: Mr. and Mrs. R. Daniels; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fleming.

Donations to Cemetery Fund: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCauley; Mrs. B.K. Jones; Mr and Mrs Rathje; Mr. and Mrs Bruce Cunningham; Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and family; Mrs. Emma Prill; Mr and Mrs. H. Noetzel; Mr. and Mrs. L. Noetzel; Mr and Mrs. Rathe; Mr. and Mrs. M Bader; Mr. and Mrs. J. Baldwin.

Hot Side of House

The hottest side of a house in summer is not the south side, as commonly supposed but the west. The high summer sun shines so steeply down the south side that the rays do not strike directly, says current Reader's Digest. The low afternoon sun, shining squarely against the west wall, imparts heat which lasts hours after sunset.

The 'ultrasonic drill' disproves the old belief that cutting tools must be harder than the material being cut. This drill pierces the hardest substance by vibrating back and forth 20,000 times a second. According to the July Reader's Digest an ordinary kitchen knife, mounted on an ultrasonic drill, will go through a steel bar, and a corkscrew used as a vibrating tip will bore a twisting hole through a block of glass.—Reader's Digest.

Sponsored by the Maritime Provinces Association of Edmonton . . . special Canadian National Railways excursion trains have brought maritimers on a visit to the Prairies and B.C. annually for past five years.

MORE DONE IN AN HOUR WHEN IT'S DONE WITH POWER

What one man can do on the farm in work output has been increased many times by the developments in power farming equipment in recent years.

Tractors and implements now available give control over the work the year 'round and on more and more farms there is less and less need to employ hard-to-get and high-cost farm labour.

Mechanization has meant more to the farm than relief from drudgery and freedom from heavy burdensome physical toil. Mechanization has brought a new concept of farming and has given agriculture the greatest lift in years. And mechanization has contributed greatly to the more wide-spread sharing in higher standards of living.

In the advancement of their operations through mechanization farmers have found in Massey-Harris and Ferguson tractors and machines time and labour saving advantages that help them do their work easily, quickly and more profitably. Your local dealer will be glad to tell you about the latest developments.

WILDMERE WINKS

We wish to congratulate our neighbors to the east of us Mr and Mrs. Ray McQuid of Tolland on the birth of a son on June 10. Another curler for Tolland!

My . . . wouldn't rain do so much good in our corner! Nothing is growing much, too dry. Crops and gardens need moisture so badly.

A nice attendance at church on Sunday evening. After church a committee was formed comprising Albert Smith, John Wilson and Frank Gibson to see about fixing the pews at Wildmere school. Jim has fixed the road in to the school. When the pews are repaired church will be held there. Watch the Winks for further announcement.

Billie and Adam Smith were visitors to [illegible] on the week end to visit their brothers Alex of Edmonton and Norman of Ben Accord. Alex will be leaving very shortly for the Coast where he and his family will holiday with Alex' mother until August when Alex will leave [illegible] for a year to study. His family will accompany him south. All good wishes and best of luck go with them from their many friends here.

On Sunday evening the writer and husband were visitors at the Donily home in Triangle. Mr. and Mrs J. Bauman were visitors at the same home. Mr. Donily Sr and son Stanley were also visiting with Dick and family. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Mr and Mrs. H. Frissell and family visited at the Fadden home and at the home of Mrs. Frissell's parents Mr and Mrs. W Lamport of Hindville on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. A. Osterberg of town visited their son Ray and family on Sunday, also called at the [illegible] home for a short visit.

Several from our corner attended the Auburndale church bazaar at the community centre Friday evening. [illegible] games and races of all [illegible] were enjoyed. A good supper was supplied and served with a smile. After supper Preston Central school played Buffalo Coulee. It was a good game. Buffalo Coulee [illegible] 5-4. Next the [illegible] played a game against the "Prairie Queens" which certainly caused lots of merriment and laughter. We don't know the score of this game. Costumes on both sides were [illegible] and the Prairie wool hair was a bit tangled at the end of the fray but it gave them a name anyway. There were some lovely articles at the bazaar . . . the ladies must have been very busy.

We were pleased to meet Mrs. Fraser of Auburndale at the bazaar. She was very ill last spring but we are happy to report that she feels well now and looks well too.

Mrs M. Stranahan of Wainwright called at the writer's one day last week. We saw a [illegible] she had of her parents Mr and Mrs Seth Williams of Kansas who celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary last spring. Both are hale and hearty and do their own work. They raised a family of six boys and [illegible] girls.

[illegible] Wildmere-Tolland Mutual Telephone Co will be held July 4 and 5. Any phone members failing to come out will pay $3 a day instead. Volunteer help will be greatly appreciated. Do what you can as some day your life or someone dear to you might depend on your phone. Think it over and remember the dates July 4 and 5. Work to be done 1 mile east of Beaumont and one mile west of Wallington's.

The only platypuses in captivity in the U.S. are Penelope and Cecil, in N.Y. City's Bronx Zoo. They demand 600 earthworms daily, says the current Reader's Digest. # To The Voters Of Alexandria Constituency

Democracy is only as strong as the local self-government which the people enjoy.

No provincial government has made a more determined attack on local self-government than the Social Credit administration now in power. This attack has taken many forms. It began with the methods used in the creation of the large municipalities and school divisions. It continues now in the attempts to force the county system upon unwilling councils, and in the strings attached to the financial grants made by the provincial government.

The boards of local school districts had their faults, but they brought to their work a personal interest in the children's welfare that our divisional boards cannot match, much as they would like to. The active interest of the local people who formerly served on those local boards has been nearly killed by the dictatorial methods used by the provincial government in setting up the large divisions.

The councils of the small municipalities occasionally quarrelled over petty matters, but they knew their municipalities. Today's overworked councillors cannot give any of their problems the time or energy required. As a result, a policy made in Edmonton by a civil servant and passed on through the paid servants of the municipal councils is more likely to be adopted than one thought out by a local person who knows the problem intimately. Many a paid servant of municipal councils in Alberta today holds in his hands almost absolute power over the municipal services provided. If he happens to believe, for example, that the 'trend' is towards larger hospitals, he can exert considerable influence toward helping the 'trend'.

If the present so-called 'county' organization is adopted without far-reaching modifications, power will be centralized in the municipal affairs department.

I use the word 'so-called' because the units planned by the department of municipal affairs are not counties in either the British, American or Canadian sense of the word. The word is being used because sentimental attachment to the true county system on the part of people who came from Britain, the U.S.A., or eastern Canada might ensure its adoption here. The so-called 'county' system being promoted in Alberta bears practically no resemblance to the county system that has been a part of self-government in those countries for generations, because it robs the council of independence of action. This has been the case in every so-called 'county' in Alberta.

We of the Conservative party believe that the present centralizing trend must be stopped.

We believe that more financial assistance ought to be given to municipalities by the provincial government.

We believe that local authorities should be allowed a very wide measure of independence.

A change is all right — but let's try for an improvement.

I am asking you to give me your first choice on the ballot. If you can't do that, give me your second.

Sincerely,
Allen Ronaghan

Sorry to report that Mr. J. F. Finlin is back in the Lloydminster hospital, and Mr. J R. Fox, who was taken ill quite suddenly Monday, is also a hospital patient. Best wishes for a complete recovery is extended to them.

Don't forget the United Church Sunday school Jubilee Family Day service in the town hall, and bring your picnic lunch. Coffee, ice cream and soft drinks will be supplied by the school. Members observing birthdays from June 26 to Sept. 1 are asked to bring their pennies to receive their birthday wishes. A special invitation is extended to parents, friends, ex-teachers, ex-students, and the pioneer citizens of this district.

The annual musical recital under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Batty was held in the town hall on June 17. A very enjoyable program of 47 vocal and piano numbers were presented to a very appreciative audience. Guest artists were ex-pupils, Misses Sheila McCorry, and Eileen Jack, who presented piano vocal solos. At the conclusion of the program a bouquet of flowers was presented to Mrs. Batty by Lorraine Skoreyko, and Janet Cain who in a few well chosen words expressed the appreciation of the music pupils to their teacher for her patience and untiring efforts during the year.

Canada's Position In Relation To Motor Cars

Almost half of the new motor vehicles sold in Canada last year were needed to replace vehicles which had been scrapped or otherwise taken out of service since the end of 1953.

Canadian automobile industry researchers estimate that 173,380 vehicles which had been in use in 1953 were not licensed last year. They were replaced by 45% of the 382,628 new passenger cars, trucks and buses which went into service for the first time. The mortality rate among older vintage vehicles was less severe than in 1953, when 190,300 went to the scrap heap.

A preliminary report based on motor vehicle licensing in all provinces of Canada shows a grand total of 3,641,065 vehicles in use at the end of 1954, as against 3,121,??? in 1953. There were 2,680,391 passenger cars, 867,805 trucks, 12,747 motor buses 37,680 motorcycles and 42,482 tractors and miscellaneous vehicles in the 1954 total.

The ratio of motor vehicles to total population in Canada continues to be well below that in the U. S. Last year there was one motor vehicle to each 4.2 persons in Canada. The ratio for passenger cars in 1954 was one car to each 5.7 persons. The U.S. passenger car ratio in 1953 was one to 3.4 persons.

Alberta has 338,541 vehicles registered.

GOLDEN ASSETS

I went to visit a friend of mine the other day at his office. On his desk I noticed an old chunk of rock, and I asked him why he kept it there as I knew he was usually a tidy person.

"It reminds me of a lesson I learned early in my career," he explained. "Times were none too good and I had just been laid off at my job. I was pretty indignant about it. I stalked into the manager and cited my good record. I told him I wanted to know why they were laying me off before others. The manager was a friendly guy, and this same piece of rock was lying on his desk. He told me to examine it carefully, and I did. At first I thought it was just an ordinary stone, but if you look closely you can see a vein of gold in there. He explained that a lot of people are like that piece of ore. They have certain assets and liabilities about their characters; but, like the stone, their golden assets weren't much use until they were refined.

"He said that all of us have both assets and liabilities in our characters, and the person who makes a success in life isn't necessarily the person with the greatest assets; for such a person very often has strong liabilities. The person who makes a success is the one who makes his assets overcome his liabilities; the person who fails is the one who allows his liabilities to overcome his assets.

"I did a lot of thinking about what he said and I realized that while I had been smart at my work, I had also been very egotistical. I had not been an easy person to work with and THAT asset is just as important as being brainy. That's why I keep that stone. It reminds me that I could be worthless, too, if I thought it was enough just to have talent and not put it to good use."

I thought a lot about that stone later, and I felt that it would do us good if more of us carried a worthless piece of ore around with us. It would help remind us that success doesn't come without trying. That merely being is not enough — that we must be doing as well. If more of us exercised our golden assets instead of letting them lie about unrefined like the gold in the ore, there would be less whining about insecurity in the world. We would stand on our own two feet instead of asking for government handouts. We all have the gold inside us; it's up to us to make it work in our favor.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE B. KIRK —

Be it a hike, camping trip or a family picnic, it shouldn't mean an orgy of cooking beforehand. There are three rules for getting ready for an outdoor meal in order to keep work light for everyone — even mother.

First, choose the right kind of menu, simple but hearty fare. It could be one or more dishes to be grilled, fried, stewed, barbecued or skewered on long pointed sticks and broiled over coals.

Second, don't burn your food or singe your eyebrows! Know how to construct the right kind of fire for the type of cooking to be done. A compact heap of coals is best for cooking without utensils.

Third, plan for evryone to have a job to do (including cleaning up afterwards).

Perhaps one of the first foods you will think about taking along is hamburger. Here's a hamburger that's a little out of the ordinary — appropriately named.

HAMBURGER SURPRISE
(6 servings)

- 1½ lbs. hamburg
- 1 small onion chopped fine
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 6 slices cheese
- 6 slices tomato

Mix hamburg, onion and seasonings and form into 12 wide thin patties. On half of the patties place a slice of cheese and a slice of tomato (or a spoonful of drained canned tomatoes.) Cover with the remaining patties and pinch the edges together. Cook over hot coals on a grill or in a slightly greased frying pan.

And — a delicious barbecue sauce for hamburgers and hot dogs is made like this:

BARBECUE SAUCE FOR HAMBURGERS OR HOT DOGS

- 2 cupfuls tomato juice
- 1 small onion finely chopped
- ¼ cupful salad oil
- ¼ cupful vinegar
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- ¾ tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard

Combine the ingredients and cook gently over a low fire for 15 minutes. Use for basting barbecued steaks, hamburgers or hot dogs.

TO LEAVE FOR COAST

I would like to mention here that I will be leaving for the coast very shortly and will not be able to schedule any more talks. I will let you know if and when someone is replacing me.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

I often passed a house where two little boys of about 8 and 10 lived. They invariably came dashing out to pet my dog and they seemed to have such fun with him that I asked. "Didn't you ever have a dog of your own?"

They shook their heads. "Dad won't let us."

So I was surprised, a few days later, to find the two youngsters romping on their lawn with a puppy.

"Well," I said. "Dad finally bought you a dog."

The kids grinned. "No, he's dad's dog. We gave him to dad for Father's day, but he lets up play with him."

BLOOD PRESSURE ...

It Goes Up and Down

Beat – rest! Beat – rest! This is your heart at work. It is like a pump, distributing blood to all parts of the body by means of which nourishment is carried to the tissues and waste products are removed. This rhythm also marks the rise and fall of the blood pressure in your arteries.

Blood pressure rises and drops from hour to hour depending on whether you are active or resting for example, or whether you are emotionally upset because of excitement, anger, fear, anxiety, or emotionally calm. You will have blood pressure as long as life lasts, rising and falling with the alternate beat and rest of the heart and with what you are doing, thinking and feeling.

High blood pressure or hypertension means that the blood pressure remains more or less constantly at a high level. Low blood pressure means that the pressure stays below normal most of the time.

High blood pressure is most common in middle or old age. In some persons it seems to be inherited. In other persons it is associated with kidney disease, glandular disturbances, overeating, or living at high tension. It is often found in those who are overweight. In many cases its cause is quite unknown.

Persons with thyroid deficiency or who are rundown and underweight may have low blood pressure.

A person may live for many years unharmed by high blood pressure. Much depends on the quality of the material in the heart and arteries just as the durability of a commercial product depends upon the quality of the material of which it is made. If the heart and arteries are of sturdy make, and the blood pressure is not constantly too high, a person can often stand up to the strain for a long period of time.

However, persistent high blood pressure makes the heart work harder to keep the blood circulating at normal rate. Under this strain the heart muscles enlarge and this is the beginning of hypertensive heart disease. Hardening of the arteries (arteriosclerosis) to some extent is in everyone as he grows older but high blood pressure may speed up the process.

In arteriosclerosis, the arteries may be narrowed so that less blood can flow through them. Or an artery may rupture or break, allowing blood to escape and form a clot in the tissues where the break occurs. Or a clot of blood may form in the artery itself and block the circulation. The organs most likely to be damaged in arteriosclerosis are the brain (cerebral hemorrhage or 'stroke'), the heart (coronary heart disease), and the kidneys (nephritis).

It is possible to have high blood pressure for a long time without any noticeable signs or symptoms. But a person may be troubled by headache, dizziness, giddiness or shortness of breath — symptoms also of other conditions. Frequently high blood pressure is discovered in the course of a routine physical examination.

Nearly everyone has had blood pressure measured at one time or another. The pressure in the large artery of the upper arm is measured first when the heart beats and then at the pause between beats. Both of these pressures and the relationship between them are taken into account.

If after examination your doctor tells you that you have high blood pressure, don't worry about what might happen. Occasionally, high blood pressure clears up without treatment, but usually it has come to stay. It is just as well to face this fact and find out how to live with this condition. With good medical care and sensible living habits, the chances are you will live comfortably, happily, and usefully even to old age — doing just about what other people do, in moderation.

1. Go into low gear — less rush, less 'drive', less tension — in work, play, and everything you do.

2. Avoid chronic fatigue. Most persons need at least 8 hours sleep at night. A short rest, perhaps before your evening meal is a good 'relaxative'.

3. Keep your weight normal. Avoid overeating. It is better to eat several light meals than fewer heavy ones.

4. Try to cultivate calmness. Nerves on edge, worry, flying off the handle only tend to make the blood pressure shoot up.

5. Keep in close touch with your physician and follow his advice.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, SEARLE GRAIN COMPANY, LIMITED

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH IN OTHER LANDS

Most of us are fairly familiar at least in a broad way, with the work that is being done throughout Canada and the U.S. in the field of agricultural research. But many of the so-called underdeveloped and backward countries are making substantial progress in this direction too.

An indication of how quickly things are moving in that large and important agricultural country, India for instance, is to be found in the scientific research work that is being conducted at the well equipped and well staffed Central Food Research Institute at Mysore. Here amongst other things the Institute has developed a composite flour mixture known as "Mysore Flour" consisting of a mixture of tapioca and groundnut flour which could be used to relieve famine. A partial replacement of rice, wheat and other grains with tapioca, which yields three to four times more starch per acre than cereal grains, may also help to reduce wheat importation. The Institute has experimented on the effect of such replacements and has shown that the health of growing children does not deteriorate in consequence.

India, who in recent years has bought fairly large quantities of Canadian wheat will no doubt continue to be a good customer. Because of her rapidly growing population, however, which means the consumption of food on a very large scale, the research work that is now being carried out may eventually go a long way toward relieving the difficult food conditions which this country faces from time to time.

In Cheltenham, England, my brother was sitting in a parked car waiting for a friend who was doing an errand. When he lit a cigarette — his last one — and absent-mindedly threw the empty pack out the car window, he was startled by the pack's immediate re-appearance right in front of his nose. It had been jabbed on the end of a walking stick. Poking his head out the window, my brother found that the other end of the stick was firmly grasped in the hand of a dowager. "Thank you, madam," he said with a smile, "but it's empty. I don't want it."

"Neither does Cheltenham," was the frosty reply.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

June 22nd, 1939

A new district, hitherto untouched by drillers' bits will be tested for gas pressure in the Vermilion area and the drilling will be carried out by Whitey Wilson under a joint agreement by the Battleview and Wain-Town Oil and Gas Companies.

The location for the new well is approximately 6 miles east and 1 mile south of Vermilion, just a short distance from the siding of Borradaile. The well is being drilled on the corner of Ray Norton's farm.

"The striking feature of this year's business so far," says Mr. Martin of the executive staff of the Massey-Harris Co., Toronto, "is the remarkable manner in which tractor sales keep mounting. The explanation is easy to understand when one realizes that at the continuing low prices for grain the farmer is forced to consider and turn to the most economical way of performing his work. The lower cost of operating present-day high compression tractors opens up a wider field for them."

One of the big news items of the past week was the announcement by the Provincial Works department that $200,000 will be spent this year in improving the Jasper highway.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

The ground selected by the public works committee of the town council for the hitching posts, decided to put in at last Council meeting, is the old market square back of the town hall. This should prove a most convenient location besides being a source of gratification to the farmers. D. A. Kennedy had charge of the work which is now completed.

Stan Gidley and Orville Anderson left by auto on an extensive tour which will take them to Chicago, Minneapolis and many other points. They expect to be away for several months.

After a four-year trial of 'group government' as represented by the United Farmers' Coalition of Hon. E. C. Drury, Ontario swept back to the party system by electing a big majority of Conservatives under the leadership of Hon. Howard Ferguson.

The $3000 home of Dan Solowan, postmaster at Slawa, was destroyed by fire making it the third home he has lost by fire since settling in the district in 1909. He will build another house at once.

Mannville Students Make Donations

MANNVILLE — The High School Students' Union have made the following donations: Arena fund $75; School P.A. system $75; Cancer Society $15; Cerebral Palsy Society $15; School for Retarded Children $15; Expenses for student to Banff U.N. work shop $30. There is a balance of approximately $100 still in the fund for the students of next year's Student Union.

Braidless plastic insulated cable pioneered by Packard Electric Division of General Motors is now finding almost universal use throughout the automobile industry. The plastic insulated cable has a high degree of resistance to abrasion and is impervious to the effects of oil, grease and anti-freeze solutions. Its smaller overall size reduces the bulk of wiring assemblies. By eliminating the need for braid and lacquer insulation, the new cable does not support combustion and is virtually fireproof.

Education: A Conservative View

By ALLEN RONAGHAN

As Progressive-Conservative candidate in Alexandra riding, where the present Minister of Education has been the elected member, I feel that it is my duty to point out at least the more obvious defects in our educational system, defects that I have noted as a teacher working under that system.

Everyone feels deeply about education. Hopes and ambitions for one's children enter the picture and make it difficult to discuss without heat.

It is even more difficult to act practically concerning education because a variety of factors must be considered. Religion, philosophy, relationships between local and provincial authorities — all these combine to demand of a minister of education a high degree of statesmanship.

We have not had that high degree of statesmanship. I believe this is due to the frequent change of leadership brought about by struggles for power in the cabinet. Ministers of education have come and gone each leaving greater confusion than he found.

We had hard times. We fought a war. We had prosperity at home and uncertainty abroad. New principles were adopted with reckless disregard for the consequences or for the lessons of the past. Teachers were thrown into confusion as the educational ship wallowed rudderless in a sea of doubt and "enterprise". Standards were abandoned. Rural schools were closed because teachers were not attracted by low salaries. Schools were built at inflated prices in urban centres, and the taxpayer wondered where his money was going. There was no one to answer when he asked, for an autocratic government had done away with the important powers of local boards, and people who had worked hard for Alberta's school system had quit in disgust.

Alberta was once proud that equality of opportunity had been provided for Alberta children. Where we once hired teachers and bought books we now pay bus drivers to take tired tots to overcrowded classrooms to be taught by weary and underpaid teachers. Only the patriotism of the married lady teacher has saved the system from complete collapse, and a province once proud of its high standards now must ask "six-week wonders" to help keep schools open.

Conservatives believe that positive policies must be adopted. We begin with the conviction that the school cannot and must not try to take the place of the home, the church, and the community.

We believe that if levelling must be done in our society it should be levelling up to achievement and distinction, and not levelling down to mediocrity.

We believe that more money ought to be provided for education from provincial revenues, but that this money must not be used as a lever to centralize power in the department of municipal affairs.

We believe in granting more power of the purse to local boards so that local problems may be solved locally. Having granted these powers we would insist upon the maintenance of standards. For instance, we would approve of a policy of setting departmental examinations for grades ten and eleven.

We believe that a committee of competent persons should draw up a course of studies, and that such a course should be left in effect long enough for teachers to become familiar with it and to be able to point out weaknesses.

We believe that this committee ought to be guided by the fact that Alberta is part of Canada, and that our students must be prepared for leadership in both the federal and provincial fields. Accordingly, Canadian history, English and French, ought to receive emphasis.

We believe in teaching, not indoctrination. We believe that our boys and girls will be equipped for life and leadership if they are taught to think and draw conclusions for themselves.

Cooper Leads in Vermilion — Aalborg Elected in Alexandra

Social Credit Returned For Sixth Consecutive Term

Social Credit forces under the leadership of Premier E. C. Manning swept back into power for the sixth consecutive time on Wednesday, June 29th but with a slightly reduced majority. At noon Thursday the standing of the various parties was as follows:

Social Credit — elected 30, leading in 9;
Liberal — elected 5, leading in 7;
C. C. F. — elected 0, leading in 2;
Conservative — elected 2, leading in 2;
Independent — elected 3, leading in 3.

It could be that Social Credit will have 40 members in the next legislature. This would leave a combined opposition of 21 members. At this stage of course this is mere supposition.

MANNING HAS HUGE VOTE

In this part of the province Minister of Education Anders Aalborg was conceded election early in the returns for the constituency of Alexandra.

It was a different story in Vermilion constituency where the winner will not be definite until second choice votes are counted. Both Whitson and Cooper are newcomers to the provincial field.

With the returns now complete the first choice count for the constituency is:

| | |
|---|---|
| Whitson, Liberal | 1736 |
| Meronyk, C.C.F. | 677 |
| Hocaluk, L.P.P. | 307 |

Second choice votes of both Hocaluk and Meronyk will have to be counted before the winner is decided.

Counting of second choice ballots will take place Wednesday, July 6th.

Local Boys Find Baby Skunks

During the course of enjoying the picnic grounds at the Vermilion Lake four young Vermilion boys were excited to find a nest of four baby skunks, which seem to be very numerous this year

Glenn and Ronnie Hemmingway with Keith McDonald, Ian Taylor and Philip Zubiak found the young skunks left alone, apparently the mother had been killed.

The boys caught two of the little ones about [illegible] inches in length. [illegible] the boys attracted considerable [illegible] but were [illegible] to keep [illegible] anyone they met. [illegible] of the skunks [illegible] the advice of Miss Hunter [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] were able to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] them home to show Mrs. Zubiak with great pride. After considerable consternation the Zubiak family were able to do away with the threat to the neighborhood.

Anglicans Follow Up Plans For Intensified Evangelism in 1956

In 1954 the General Synod of the Anglican Church designated 1956 as a year of intensified evangelism. Committees set up at church head quarters have now been supplemented by organization at the Diocesan level. The Edmonton committee has already begun to make plans for a comprehensive program in Edmonton and the surrounding area. Directed in large measure towards those who call themselves 'Anglicans' but are not linked with the fellowship of the church, the efforts of the committee will extend beyond this to the whole mass of the 'unchurched' in [illegible]. Preparatory steps [illegible] the Bishop include retreats to prepare clergy and key [illegible] people for this effort, formation of study groups in the different parishes for those willing to serve, and series of special services in parishes prepared for them. The preliminary emphasis will be on the preparation of the faithful to reach the unchurched

Artificial Ice Is Now Assured For Vermilion Curling Rink

Directors of the Vermilion Curling Co. have signed a contract with Canadian Ice Machine Company calling for the installation in the Vermilion Curling rink of six sheets of artificial ice

The small building to house the equipment is being started immediately and on completion of this the complete plant will be installed. Caron & Calvert are in charge of construction

The mortgage that was outstanding on the new building has been completely cleared off and all financial arrangements are cleared

NOVEMBER CURLING

Curling will commence on the new ice the first week in November giving local curlers five full months to enjoy the sport, something which will seem very unusual here, as the season lasts only two and a half months as a general rule.

80 SHARES LEFT

A note of warning is issued to all those planning to curl. Only 80 curling shares at $100 are left for purchase. Without one of these $100 shares a person will not be eligible to join the club, and as these shares are open to the world eighty will not go far. The executive would appreciate anyone desiring one to contact them and make arrangements immediately. Come November you will be mighty glad you did.

CAR BINGOS

In order to install the pipes for artificial ice bingos will be cut off September 15th. The next one is scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 6th, so time is running out on your chances to win a car for two bucks and also to help a very progressive project, so be sure to attend

Esteemed Old Timer First To Vote — On Her Birthday

June 29th was the birthday of Mrs. Harry Elliott, well known resident of Vermilion, her 80th. It was also Provincial election day

Mrs. Elliott, an old timer here, certainly proved that age was no deterrent to a keen interest in the world about her. She was the first on the list of voters at the Vermilion Polling subdivision No. 8 to cast her vote. An excellent start for the celebration of an 80th birthday. Many Happy Returns of the day — even if all the other birthdays can't be election days!

Tigers Win 14 - 2

Vermilion Tigers had a very good day last Sunday afternoon and ran rough-shod over the visiting Elk Point team, 14 runs to 2. Young Charlie Birkett from Borradaile twirled a fine game for the Tigers, while Bob Dunbar did his usual bang-up receiving job.

Vermilion doesn't get a league home game now until July 17th.

Water Level Raised Two Feet

Vermilion Park Transformed Into Inviting Vacation Land

The Vermilion park is fast coming into shape for the holiday season. A fastball diamond has been levelled off and a backstop installed. This is located above the west cook shelter and should prove ideal for community picnics. The approach to the entrance by the bridge has been widened and the grade alongside the dam has been widened to allow two-way traffic, and provide an all-weather road. From the end of the dam to the beach the road has been given a liberal coating of gravel.

For the fishermen, a parking space was provided just below the entrance to accommodate 20 cars and it is hoped that people will make use of the parking space and leave the roadway clear thus eliminating a serious traffic hazard.

At the beach on the south side [illegible] beautiful new refreshment booths have been placed. These were [illegible] the college students [illegible] term. The students [illegible] built [illegible] new tables for those who wish to picnic in [illegible]. An ample water and wood supply has been provided [illegible] suitable cost.

Two [illegible] have been installed. They are of the latest type [illegible]. They were [illegible] by the [illegible].

An [illegible] amount of work has been done [illegible] out brush and [illegible] piles [illegible] trees from the [illegible] on the south bank.

A large amount of sand was [illegible] in to the beach during the winter months. It is especially satisfying to have electricity at the [illegible] thanks to the Canadian Utilities.

Swimming lessons and daily supervision have been arranged for, during the months of July and August.

BANDSHELL TO BE BUILT

The Vermilion River M.D. and the Parks Department of the Provincial government have arranged for a donation of $4000 to be spent on building a bandshell. The exact location of the bandshell has not yet been decided. It will be built to accommodate a band or platform attraction,and also be suitable for showing of moving pictures

At the proper distance from the bandshell the Kinsmen plan to build a dance platform for outdoor dancing. This platform will also serve as a floor for chairs for those wishing to listen to a band or watch the show

SOFTBALL DIAMOND

A softball diamond on the hill west of the lower picnic shelter has been completed. This diamond had its initial use last Sunday when the Canadian Utilities of Vermilion played a game against the Canadian Utilities of Vegreville, as a part of their picnic program that day. The Vermilion team won

PLANS FOR SWIMMERS

The swimmers' H-pier is to be lengthened and for advanced swimmers it is planned to form an official swimming club and to have a recognized swim meet later in the summer. To facilitate such a meet the Parks board will arrange to have proper swimming lanes marked out

BOAT CLUB TO FORM

The boat owners expect to organize a club and to arrange for boathouse space at the lakeside. This will relieve them of the necessity of taking their boats home with them each time. It is also hoped to have a regatta of water sports and boating in August

WATER LEVEL RAISED

The water level much too low all spring and early summer has already been raised considerably and it is expected that the beach line may even be so high that it will be necessary to place small additions to the swimmers pier in order to step on it from dry land.

Vermilion area has a vacation land to be proud of and it's getting better all the time. Join the crowds, come one and all and enjoy what belongs to every citizen of this area!

50th Anniversary Will Surpass Previous Events

The Big Fair Is On The Way

The Vermilion Agricultural Society has advanced plans for the big Fiftieth Anniversary Fair which will be held July 28th, 29th and 30th, and already much of the preparation at the grounds has been completed. In order to take care of the rapidly increasing horse show and cattle exhibit an additional twenty stalls have been built this year, bringing the Vermilion Fair livestock accommodation well above that of the average B Class fair on the Western circuit. In 1954 every stall was jammed to capacity and already the entry list indicates an even greater show than for the past season

OLD TIMERS CABIN

Work is being rushed on the Old Timers Cabin and it is expected that the structure will fill a long felt need for the pioneers who annually attend the exhibition. More than 125 applications have been forwarded through the Society for Senior Citizen Scrolls and His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor is planning on attending the fair to present the certificates and to officiate at the opening of the Pioneers' Cabin and the 1955 Exhibition.

GRAND PARADE

Plans for the grand parade are in hand and a number of prominent citizens have been generous in their offers of assistance in handling this major project.

DECORATED BICYCLES

School children are reminded that there will be competitions for the best decorated bicycles and for humorous and other types of entries in the parade, make sure that you give some thought to your entry for the big parade. Business men, community groups of all kinds are urged to enter floats and to assist in making the 1955 Parade the biggest ever to be staged in Northeastern Alberta. It will be held on Thursday, July 28th, and from all appearances is well on the way to success

NEW ENTRANCE

The new entrance, to mark the contribution of the pioneer citizens, has been planned and its construction is expected to begin within a few days. Everything possible is being done to make the 1955 Exhibition the stellar event of 50 years, and special emphasis will be placed on those who took part in the first fair in the fall of 1906

PRIZE LISTS

Prize lists are now ready for distribution and everyone in the district is cordially invited to exhibit and to take an active part in the show. The School Fair for 1955 is assured of outstanding success with far more schools taking part than ever before, boys and girls are especially welcome in all suitable classes, and their co-operation is invited.

LADIES' EXHIBITS

Ladies of the district are urged to plan to exhibit this year: there are classes to suit all phases of ladies' work including cooking, sewing, handicrafts, flowers and plants, home and dairy products, etc., and it is desirable to have every inch of the space filled to capacity. Secure your Prize List now and take part in Vermilion's Friendly Fiftieth Fair

Mites Attacking Evergreen Trees

By Your District Agriculturist

Many of the spruce trees in this area are being infested by red mites. This mite is actually a spider and is known to many as red spider.

When infestation is prevalent, the needles become almost covered with a soft felt-like white web. If you examine very closely beneath this web with a magnifying glass you will detect a tiny red mite. If something is not done to control this pest in the early stages the needles of the spruce will become brown and considerable damage may be done to the tree.

DO NOT USE DDT

Do not spray with DDT. This chemical will not control the pest but will even stimulate more rapid growth.

Two chemicals, Aramite or Malathion, may be used for control. Spraying with either chemical should be done once a week for a period of three weeks. Malathion is obtainable at the local hardwares or drug stores.

If the chemical is not available cold water sprayed under pressure every evening for about two weeks will effect a reasonable control.

Hot, dry weather is ideal for the growth and spread of this tiny red parasite.

Farm Workers Are Required In Ontario

Farm workers are required in Ontario. The usual movement of western farm workers to assist with haying and harvest in Ontario is now in full swing.

Reduced railway fares permit a worker to go to Ontario at a cost to him of $10 and to return for $11.50. Wages are usually on a monthly basis and will range from $85 to $125 per month.

Any man is eligible who is experienced in farm work and whose age and health will permit him to do it. Farmers and their sons are most suitable.

Later there will be a movement of workers from the east for the western grain harvest. A good response to the present request will help to stimulate the movement westward when it is needed.

Anyone interested should apply immediately to the nearest District Agriculturist or to the National Employment Service.

. . . WILDMERE WINKS . . .

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Robinson family of Rowtell on the loss of a loving mother. "Granny" Robinson, as she was known to everyone, was a wonderful friend. The writer remembers years ago when she lived and taught in the Gilt Edge district across the Battle River, she used to drive a team and a democrat, and with her two children, journey to Vermilion. They have often stopped at the writer's place to feed the horses and have a lunch themselves. She was truly a pioneer mother. May God comfort her son and daughter in their hour of bereavement. "Well done, good and faithful servant."

A blue denim coat was hung on the end of David Hughes' truck at Farmers' picnic in town June 10. It was not noticed until they got home. Anyone owning it phone 2226.

TELEPHONE WORK BEE JULY 4 and 5

Don't forget the telephone work bee July 4th and 5th, folks. It might be easier to work than pay the $6 a day if you don't.

Quite a number of the local people went to the Stampede at Wainwright on Friday and Saturday of last week. All reported a good time — except for the dust which was bad at times.

Mr and Mrs. Kenneth Holte and family of Winnipeg have been visiting Ken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte of Wildmere and Marj's parents, Mr and Mrs. A. West of Vermilion, this last two weeks.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coburn of Battleview on the birth of a daughter on June 23. A little sister for Karen, Linda, Brenda and Murray.

Still no rain at time of writing and the crops are fast deteriorating. Some grain is headed out and is only 10 inches high. Farmers will be in dire straits if there is no crop again this year, after the rusted crop last fall. However grumbling does no good so smile, folks smile.

There was another large crowd at the Curling Club bingo Saturday night. Everything went along really 'snappy' and without a hitch after the P.A. system was fixed.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR AND MRS JOHN CRAIG

We wish to extend our own and the community's congratulations to Mr and Mrs John Craig of Prince Albert, Sask., who celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary this week. Mr. and Mrs. Craig lived for many years in Vermilion.

On Saturday Mrs. T. Wilson of town stayed with the children of her daughter, Mrs. A Coburn, in the Triangle district. Audrey and Allan attended the Wainwright Stampede.

Saturday evening Mrs. Bud Bathe and children of Basswood visited with Mrs. R. Harle in Vermilion while Bud and Bob played bingo.

Schools close this week for the summer holidays. Both teachers and children are looking forward to the vacation time after the year's grind of studies.

TO REPAIR PEWS AT WILDMERE SCHOOL

There was a nice attendance at church on Sunday. The service, conducted by Mr Plant, was good. The committee reported on the pews at Wildmere school and they are to permanently fixed to the walls because they are not strong enough to be moved around too much. But until this work is done, church service will be held at Basswood.

Congratulations to Mrs. K. Whitlock and Mrs. W. T. Garnett on winning a silver $1 each at Craig's Founders' sale.

Wildmere W.I. meeting will be held Thursday evening, July 7, at the home of Mrs. A. Holte.

And, last but not least — Remember folks, the time to get old woollens in to Mrs. Hughes is drawing short. July 15th is the deadline. Let's make it a worthwhile shipment.

Child Recovers After Half Hour's Immersion

Many people believe that artificial respiration is useless if the victim has been under water for more than a few minutes. This true story from the Health League of Canada will prove that this is not so. On July 7, 1937, a little girl fell off a raft in Carleton Place into deep water. Two boys dived seventeen times before the little body was recovered. She must have been under water for a good twenty minutes.

Two electrical workers trained in artificial respiration happened to be present, and artificial respiration was started at once. The little girl breathed in 35 minutes, and ultimately recovered.

This could have been a summer tragedy. It was prevented by the timely appearance of the two electrical workers who knew how to apply artificial respiration, and had enough sense to keep it up. Tragedies through drowning can be prevented in many cases. Artificial respiration should be applied at once, and kept up continuously until either success is achieved, or rigor mortis sets in.

Over 43,000 Canadians saw service in both world wars.

"GREEN ACRES"

3000 FARMERS WANTED

To buy bacon type boars. Pigs from this district are not grading as well as they are from other parts of Alberta. The difference in the price between grade A pigs and grade 'C' pigs is $7.50 each. The cheapest and surest way to improve the grade is to use pure bred boars on the best gilts available.

TREATING FENCE POSTS

Chas. Cheshire Agricultural Engineer told me recently that the 'Penta' treatment for preserving fence posts seems to be the cheapest and best for this district. It seems that blue stone is not such a good treatment in moist areas. 'Penta' can be used cold at 5% in diesel or used crank case oil.

SHARPENING DISCS

It would appear that more than 50% of one-way and disker discs are used far too dull to make a good job and besides it costs more to pull dull machinery around the field. Disc grinding machines cost around $50. They ought to be used at least twice a year. The ground edge should be between 3-16 and ¼ of an inch. Run the emery slowly to avoid too much wear.

SETTING ONE-WAYS

At our machinery field days this week the eginner Mr Cheshire spent a lot of time in lining up the one-ways and diskers before they could go on with the demonstration. When a good job is not being done or the wheels don't stay where they ought to it is only a matter of adjustment. Get circulars from this office on setting one-ways.

CHEAP TRIPS TO ONTARIO

We are handing out tickets to Ontario for only $10 each. They are good for 60 days. There is a catch in it however. Anyone going down must work in the hay field. Berry pickers are also wanted in B.C. The cost of a ticket is $10 to Vancouver.

POISON THE INSECTS

There is no excuse for letting insects eat up the garden. Every drug store and hardware store sells poisons for killing insects. But be careful you don't poison yourself or the children as well as the insects. DDT is very poisonous. Derris dust and pyrethrum powder on the other hand kill insects but are practically harmless to humans.

News From The V.S.A.

Plans for various items on the Summer program are being prepared. Schedule of dates set to date include:

July 6th — Anglican Clergymen's Agricultural Short Course.

July 9th — Alumni Re-union and Rose Ball.

July 10th to 16th — 4-H Club Week.

July 18 to 21 — Farm Women's Week.

July 22nd — Women Institutes Constituency Conference.

July 25th to 29th — Boys' and Girls' Fair Camp.

Dates for the Cereal Crops, Haying Machinery and 4-H Club district field days have not yet been set.

The maintenance crew is busy continuing the process of establishing built-in bunks in the dormitory. It is expected that an additional 20 rooms will be remodelled this summer.

V.S.A. classrooms and labs are being used this spring by High school classes from Kitscoty, Vermilion and Manville to which Mr. Folk and Mr Palin are teaching shopwork and Mrs Acheson and Miss Daley are teaching home economics. This arrangement is proving so popular that requests are now being received to extend the service to provide a total of six instructors.

Other staff members at the school this summer in addition to the principal, accountant and stenographer, are Mr Jansen, the farm manager who is judging the calves at a number of district 4-H Club shows, Mr Baranyk who is in charge of the Field Crops plots, gardens and grounds, and Mr. Olson, the maintenance superintendent.

The beautiful Koster Blue spruce planted in memory of the late Mr. Elliott, former principal, is growing nicely and will be a point of interest to all who knew Mr. Elliott whenever they visit the school. A nicely inscribed bronze plaque has been installed near the tree.

The new piano, a [illegible] upright grand, was de[illegible] to the V.S.A. in time to provide the accompaniment for the guest artist at the graduation exercises and for the graduation dance. It is a very fine toned instrument and brought forth many favorable remarks from the students and staff regarding the piano and the Alumni Association. Again the V.S.A. Alumni Association has made a very fine contribution to its Alma Mater.

Canadian Utilities Win Fastball Tournament At Pleasant Valley

The Fastball league finished off their spring schedule with a tournament at Pleasant Valley. The league standing up until that time was Vermilion All Stars with 17 points; Loyal Edmonton Regiment 16; Canadian Utilities 13; Island Hill 7; Pleasant Valley 7.

Although Pleasant Valley were the host team they unfortunately were unable to play due to the death of Mrs. Margaret Robinson, the mother of the shortstop of the team. At 12:00 noon, before the games started, there was a two-minute silence observed in memory of Mrs. Robinson.

In the first round of play Island Hill outplayed the Army to the tune of 17 to 7. In the other half of the semi-finals Canadian Utilities took the All Stars 21 to 7.

By the time of the final game between Canadian Utilities and Island Hill there was a very large crowd gathered. This game turned out to be a pitching duel with John Butler for Island Hill and Les Chivers for Canadian Utilities. Les came out on top, 11 to 6, in a real thriller that was close to the bitter end.

After the final it was most fitting that John Butler, representing Island Hill, presented the trophy to Les Chivers who received it for the Utilities' team.

CHAMPS' LINE-UP

Battery — Chivers to Bentley; 1b, Chester; 2b, Kerr; 3b, Thursby; Shortstop, Baldock; lf Miller; cf Harrower; rf Fuzz Toner; lf Shepherd.

Throughout the afternoon refreshments were made available at a booth operated by the Pleasant Valley community ladies.

Artificial Respiration Saves Drowned Man

In Blind River, Ont., men were working on the logs in the river. Suddenly there was a shout — one of the men, a river driver had fallen into the river, underneath the logs. Despite the frantic efforts of his fellows, he could not be reached.

They sent down the river for a boat. It took an agonizing half hour to pole the boat up through the logs which jammed the river. They searched for his body by thrusting a pike pole down into the water between the logs. It seemed hopeless. Then the pole caught him in the head. He was pulled to the surface, brought to the bank, and artificial respiration applied at once, useless as it seemed.

To everyone's surprise and relief, the man began breathing and recovered completely. This man later became mayor of a nearby town. He still bears the scar from the pike pole on his forehead.

Details of this incident were confirmed by the late Dr Robb, one-time Minister of Health for Ontario, and published by the Health League of Canada.

Niagara Gardening School

In the only school of its kind in North America, the Niagara Parks Commission School of Gardening, twenty-four apprentices are learning the "Art, Trade or Mystery" of planting, soil culture and landscaping. With the greenery of Niagara Falls' parks as their outdoor classrooms, these hand-picked students receive three years of theoretical and practical training in floriculture, horticulture and allied sciences. Apprentices receive room, board and tuition free, and are paid a subsistence allowance varying with their seniority as students.

Basic purpose of the 100-acre school, which was opened in 1936, was to turn out qualified gardeners to work for the Parks Commission. Since then, school policy has broadened, and while some graduates now accept positions in Niagara Falls, the majority work elsewhere. So great is the demand for skilled gardeners, that grads are snapped up eagerly by landscape-minded industries, universities and civic corporations.

Under the expert eye of instructor Les Keynnersley (left), third-year senior students get practical training in seed planting. In addition to working in schools extensive floral and ornamental gardens, apprentices occassionally get an opportunity to put in a few hours in greenhouses and formal gardens of the Niagara Parks Commission system. Winter months are occupied with lecture sessions on botany, soil chemistry and plant diseases.

Corsages for their dance dates are no problem to students Keith Robinson and Russell Nutley (right), who expertly make up their own. School has well-rounded sports and social program, supplies each student with free membership to Y.M.C.A. for swimming and gym classes.

Cauliflower is covered to protect it from burning in sun and to encourage curd to bleach. School produces most of its fresh vegetables in kitchen garden tended by first year students. Enrollment is limited to Canadians, with eight new students being accepted annually.

The cost of agricultural research in Britain has nearly doubled in the last five years. The Minister of Food and Agriculture told delegates at the London conference of the Commonwealth Agricultural Bureau that this research is already paying big dividends and it will pay bigger ones, and that there was no end to the stream of new things pouring out of laboratories for pest, weed and disease control.

Much Business Of Interest Dealt With At Board of Trade Meeting

At the regular Board of Trade meeting held Wednesday noon, June 15, it was decided to send a telegram to the Yellowhead Route Association meeting at Kamloops on June 18 extending best wishes for the success of their project.

Mr. Albert Hareuther, chairman of the Retail committee, announced that the retailers were having a meeting Monday night re closing day during the fair.

It was moved and seconded that Dr. A. Ben King be accredited as the Vermilion representative at the annual meeting of the Dominion Chamber in Winnipeg.

Mr. Roy Walker, one of the delegates to the annual meeting of the Alberta Associated Chambers of Commerce and Agriculture at Red Deer, on June 7 and 8, reported that the meeting had had the best attendance yet of any annual meeting. He noticed with interest that the Peace River country was very well represented, better so than some other parts of the province. Mr. Walker reported on the resolutions passed at the meeting.

In the absence of the President of the Vermilion Board of Trade, Dr. King, who was unable to be at the annual meeting in Red Deer, Mr. I. Miller attended the President's Breakfast. He found it a very interesting occasion, and reported that it seemed to him that several of the other Boards of Trade had troubles which we did not have. At this meeting he took the opportunity of distributing several copies of the annual program of the Vermilion Board of Trade for this year.

Mr. E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist at Vermilion, was the guest speaker at this luncheon and addressed the Board on agricultural services in this district.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Buckingham stated that his office now dealt with more projects and programs in connection with agriculture than in the past when the people used to come to the D.A. for remedies of existing ills.

He stated that one of the greatest problems in this district was the control of weeds and that control areas had been established in the province where the Government pays half the expense of administering the same.

He mentioned that he thought the improvement of market hogs was a number one project of his office at the present time because of the low grades presently obtained for market hogs. He also mentioned the wire worm problem.

Mr. Buckingham was enthusiastic about 4-H Clubs, consisting of members between the ages of 12 and 20 years.

The President announced that a Navy band would be here June 28 and would give a free concert in the park. This was under the auspices of the Rotary club.

Mr. Ashley Cooper read the Board's calendar of coming events, and then the meeting adjourned.

Following the general meeting of the Board of Trade, an executive meeting was called at which Dr. A. B. King, Messrs. Boake, Urquhart, McPherson, Walker, Miller, Hanlan, Mitchell, Hareuther Locke and Richardson were present.

The Secretary was asked to phone the Hon. Mr. Casey urging the immediate raising of the water level of the lake to 18.88 feet and that the President, Mr Urquhart and Mr Sutherland be present so that they could also speak to the Minister.

Mr. Miller again mentioned the question of road signs showing the way to the Park, and what direction to go to reach it. Mr. Urquhart stated that he would look after this matter.

It was agreed that the Board purchase 3000 colored post cards, showing views of the Park, from Fach Enterprisers at a cost of approximately $120, including printing.

The Secretary was instructed to write to Mr Ralph Moore, Deputy Minister of Economic Affairs reminding him of a previous intimation that the next sitting of the Industrial Development board would be held at Vermilion.

It was decided that the President and members of the executive tender a buffet luncheon to the Hon Mr Solon Low, federal leader of the Social Credit party, and his immediate party accompanying him, at 6:30 p.m. on the occasion of his visit to Vermilion Friday June 17, at $1.50 a plate, and that a similar buffet luncheon be given for the Hon. George Prudham, representing the leader of the Liberal party, and his immediate party on the occasion of his visit June 18. It was decided to invite the Mayor of Vermilion, or his deputy, to attend these luncheons as a guest of the Board.

A Few Notes About Drowning

It has been noted as curious that in some cases where victims have been under water for only a short time, death has often occurred in spite of artificial respiration, while in the case of other victims under the water for a longer time, life has been restored. It has also been noted by physicians that in many drowning cases post mortem examination has failed to discover any water in the victim's lungs.

In a series of investigations carried on in 1938 by the late Sir Frederick Banting and associates, in co-operatio with teheH reredotsac co-operation with the Health League of Canada, the reason for these anomalies was found. In a large proportion of cases of apparent drowning the actual cause of death is not drowning, but suffocation. A spasm of the larnyx prevents either water or air from entering the lungs, and the result, although there is no water in the lungs, is death, just the same.

The closure of the larnyx is in the first place protective. The aperture of the larynx closes when one takes a drink of water, or tea — to prevent the fluid going down the wrong way into the lungs instead of into the stomach. In the drowning cases, the closing of the larynx has the same objective. But as the victim becomes unconscious the larynx often fails to open again as it does after you have swallowed your drink of water or tea. So that an essential in the revival of apparently drowned persons is to make sure that the air passages are free. The rhythmic application of artificial respiration should result in the audible passage of air in and out —listen for it. A doctor of course can make sure with his stethoscope.

REMEMBER that even a few minutes delay in applying artificial respiration to apparently drowned persons may make all the difference between success and failure — life and death.

REMEMBER that air passages must be clear.

REMEMBER that there must not be any let-up in the continuous rhythmic application of pressure and release (say 15 times to the minute).

REMEMBER that in ... cases artificial respiration should be kept up for hours ... success is achieved or rigor mortis ...

REMEMBER above all ... human being is not ... dead because he has been ... water for a few minutes. Even if in the water for half an hour ... possibly longer, life may still be present. While there's life there's hope.

Miraculous Escape

A big tank truck used for hauling hot road asphalt from Lloydminster to road construction west of Vegreville ran off the road near Claysmore Tuesday night and the two men in the cab miraculously escaped with very minor injuries. Fortunately the accident occurred on the return trip with the tank empty.

Following the accident both men were brought to the local hospital where they received a medical check over and one was discharged immediately. The second received a cut on the head and was kept under attention at the hospital for the night but was perfectly well next morning so was discharged as well.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

— By JUNE E. KIRK —

CARE OF APPLIANCES

In comparison with the homemakers of just 20 years ago, we of 1955 have a large investment in electrical appliances in our homes. It is good judgment to protect this investment through proper care. And of course, proper care and maintenance means greater satisfaction and service, too.

ELECTRIC STOVE

Q. What is the most effective way to clean chrome, stainless steel and nickel?

A. Use a damp cloth to clean, and dry with a cloth to prevent water spots. If it is discolored with heat or burned on food, use a mild acid cleaning powder such as "Samae Miracle Cleaner" with a damp cloth.

Q. What is the most effective way to clean the broiler pan and grill?

A. Remove burned on food with fine steel wool or scouring powder. In stubborn cases, use a cleansing agent such as you would for the oven. Whenever the broiler is used, the oven should also be cleaned.

FREEZER

Q. Is it necessary to wash the interior of the freezer?

A. Unless accidental spillage occurs, it will need cleaning only every two or three years. After scraping off frost, wash with lukewarm water.

Q. How often does the condenser need cleaning?

A. Once every three months the fine surfaces of the condenser should be checked. Remove grill and brush off the loose dirt with a stiff brush.

REFRIGERATOR

Q. What is the best way to keep the porcelain enamel interior clean?

A. Wash with a solution of 2 tbsp. of borax or baking soda to a quart of lukewarm water. Avoid using soap or a harsh scouring powder.

Q. Why is it important to leave the door open when the refrigerator is shut off?

A. To avoid developing a musty odor. To remove this odor, place a lighted 100 watt bulb in the frig (away from plastic parts) for 24 hours with hte door taped open about one-half inch.

FAREWELL

By the time this column is published, I will be well on my way to the coast. And I must say that I will be taking with me a very pleasant impression of Alberta and its people — thanks to those I have met in this district.

There is no one replacing me immediately, but requests you send to this office will be forwarded to our head office, and you will be taken care of just the same.

'Bye now — and a happy and prosperous summer to you all.

While Europeans first came to Canada not quite 500 years ago, it is believed that the native Indians came into the country about fifteen thousand years ago.

Aklavik, the largest settlement in the Canadian Arctic, has a population of about 400 whites, 250 Eskimos and 125 Indians.

ATTEND "FAIRS" AND "FIELD DAYS"

During the next two or three months, many Field Days and Fairs will be held throughout Western Canada. Attend your local Field Days this year and see the latest agricultural practices demonstrated right in your own district. Above all, support your local Fair.

Field Days. The Experimental Farms, through their Illustration Stations, will be holding Field Days in various districts where improved farm practices will be demonstrated under local conditions. Provincial departments of agriculture will be holding various types of Field Days both in the country, and at the Agricultural Schools. Attendance at these events gives farmers an opportunity to obtain up-to-date practical information resulting from research and demonstrations. Agriculture is developing at a tremendous pace these days, and competition on world markets for farm products is increasing. It is the efficient farmer who keeps abreast of modern farm practices who will win out in the end.

Demonstration Plots. Each year, about 100 Field Crop Variety plots, which include the latest varieties of wheat, oats, barley and flax, are planted and cared for by Line Elevator Agents throughout Western Canada. Farmers, 4-H Club members, and others are cordially invited to inspect these plots and compare the performance of the different varieties in their own district. See the local elevator agent in charge.

Country Fairs. The Country Fair is too often considered just a place to go for entertainment. True, this is important, but it need not occupy all of the time spent at the Fair. If farmers realized the amount of time, effort and money that goes into making a country Fair an educational event, we feel sure they would make a greater effort to visit the various displays and exhibits. Patronize your local Fair. After all, it is your Fair. Besides, your Agricultural Society deserves your fullest support.

Clandonald United Church News

The ladies of the United Church W.A. sponsored a very successful tea, bake sale and bazaar Saturday, June 25th, in Clandonald. Sincere thanks are extended to Mr. Garnier for the use of his building. So much counter space and an abundance of shelves made light work of the affair.

The loan of the chairs from the Anglican church was also greatly appreciated.

A very special thank you goes out to the three young girls, Gwen Joph, Sharon Toner and Louise Garrier. They made and decorated the beautiful 30th anniversary cake for the window, and many compliments were received on the window decoration. The ladies would also like to thank all non-members, for their donations and help, and everyone for their patronage. The grand co-operation from everyone was much appreciated.

Before the student minister, Mr. Leon Rector came this spring, the living quarters back of the church received a face lifting. Through the kindness of Mr. Peck, the old sagging cupboards were replaced with modern plywood ones. The floor was also finished and new floor covering laid down.

Timely Rain, 1.11 Ins., Saves Crops

A long overdue rain, amounting to 1.11 inches, fell here Wednesday night and up to 2 p.m. on Thursday. The rain was of the very best variety, falling evenly and not too fast for many hours, thus giving the most benefit. Several warm days had been experienced with drying winds during the week and rain was a definite necessity for the crops.

FUA Sponsor Political Meeting At Dewberry

DEWBERRY. — At an F.U.A.-sponsored political meeting at Greenlawn, Mrs. Lois Karlsson, the C.C.F. candidate for Alexandra, and the only candidate to attend the meeting, outlined the platform of the C.C.F.

Speaking of the tendency of many to link the C.C.F. with the Communists, Mrs. Karlsson said she had been shocked, when arriving in Canada, to hear any Socialist party so labelled. Europeans who had seen both Socialist and Communist goverments at close range recognized the wide difference in the aims and practices of the two groups. It was also interesting to note, she said, that where countries had adopted socialism, such as in the Scandinavian countries and Gt. Britain (where welfare programs of the Labor party had been kept by the Conservatives) Communists found little ground for activity. As a contrast, Mrs. Karlsson spoke of Iran, where she had been during the oil crisis. Here she said, where there were great extremes of wealth and poverty, people were ready to welcome any policy which would promise them food, and might easily swing into the Communist fold.

The meeting was sponsored by Riverton and Greenlawn locals of the F.U.A. following the policy of the Provincial F.U.A. to invite all candidates for the coming provincial election to such meetings. It was felt that by such meetings the voters would have an opportunity of hearing those representing all parties. The second of such meetings to be sponsored by these locals, this was even less representative than the first, where Dr. F. Smith running on the Liberal ticket for the Federal by-election, and Bill Irvine for the C.C.F. were the two candidates who attended.

Greenlawn News

The Greenlawn Good Will club met at the home of Mrs. Stanley Stone on Thursday, June 16. There were 18 members and three visitors present. The club is sponsoring two members to go to Farm Women's week at the School of Agriculture in Vermilion. The delegates are Mrs. C. Grant and Mrs. H. Green.

Several of the club members plan to attend the last day of the Farm Women's week, so the July meeting of the Good Will club has been cancelled.

COMMON SENSE FEEDING HABITS FOR BABY

MIXED FEEDING

When baby is ready to start mixed feding introduce new foods in very small quantities. If a food is refused don't worry but try it again another day. Try new foods early and often but feed the same food for several days until he is used to it before going on to another one.

HOW TO FEED

While he is very small take baby on your knee to feed him and only when he has got used to taking food from a spoon and cup, put him into his high chair. Don't make him the centre of attention as this will encourage him to show off and need coaxing to eat. Take plenty of time over feedings so that he can enjoy his food.

BE CALM, UNCONCERNED

His appetite will vary from day to day just as yours does so don't worry if he sometimes refuses things. As he gets older he will develop definite likes and dislikes but try not to show your own dislikes too much as he will quickly follow your example.

If baby does not want to eat at all perhaps your attitude is at fault, you are worried and anxious about him. He is quick to find that this is a way of getting extra attention.

TYPES OF FOOD

Some mothers feel that baby's food tastes uninteresting but actually simple foods with natural flavors and little seasoning are enjoyed most. Tinned foods are a useful stand-by but when possible something from the family menu should be given. These can be mashed up finely with a little milk and are much more economical especially in the early stages when baby only takes a teaspoonful or two.

AMOUNTS TO GIVE

Serve very small portions at first, gradually increasing as baby gets used to new foods. Make the most of different colored foods and avoid covering everything with brown gravy. Don't overload baby's dish as this discourages him and may spoil a normal healthy appetite.

FEEDING HIMSELF

By the time baby is a year old he should have begun to handle his own cup and spoon. When he begins to reach for the spoon let him have one of his own to hold and leave him with the last spoonful of his meal to finish by himself. As soon as he seems able, let him feed himself. You will of course protect his clothes and the floor around as he is bound to make a mess while he is learning.

JOINING THE FAMILY MEAL

As soon as your child is able to feed himself and enjoy his food without wanting to be the centre of attraction you can introduce him to the family table. He will quickly learn table manners from those around him but it is better not to over stress these until he has learnt to enjoy his food otherwise meal times will become an unhappy time for all. Aim at cheerful happy meal times but avoid too much conversation or rowdiness amongst the juniors.

CHATSWORTH CHATTER

In response to inquiries and requests re the "Chatter", we have no excuse for it's non-appearance excepting that we seem to have been too busy to find time for writing. However, here's a new start, and we hope to do better in the future.

Crops are very backward and patchy, and rain is badly needed. Apart from one or two showers, we have had no rain to speak of, since the last snowstorm. Gardens are also slow.

Miss Kathie Fowler, of Dewberry, spent the week end of 17th to 19th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Henningsen, and the last week end at Mr. and Mrs. H. Good's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Panter and Janice journeyed to Lacombe last week to attend the ball tourney there. Cliff McKee did chores for them while they were away.

We extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John Hasenuik, newly weds of last week, for a long and happily married life. On June 10, a shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woyewitka in their honor.

The June meeting of the Chatsworth Country Club was held at the home of Mrs. Matt Farkash on Thursday the 16th with 12 members present. The Club joined the Canadian Association of Consumers; discussed ways and means of raising funds. The Sick committee reported several cards mailed and visits made. The nickel draw was won by Evelyn Henningsen; the Social was tied for by May Panter, Myrtle Thompson and Evelyn Henningsen, May emerging the winner on a tiebreaker. At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by the lunch committee. The next meeting which is the annual one, is to be held at the home of Mrs. R. Good. Sick committee, Mrs. R. Good and Evelyn Henningsen; lunch, Mrs. M. Farkash, Annie Hasenuik, Mrs. Patterson and E. Henningsen.

On Saturday evening, June 18, a shower was held at the Chatsworth school for Miss Adeline Pidruchney, a July bride-to-be. There was a large crowd in attendance and at the close of the social evening, Adeline was presented with a decorated 'Canadian Utilities' truckload of gifts, drawn in by little Janice Panter, and tendered with the best wishes of the gathering by Mrs. Joe Farkash, Jr. After the opening of the gifts, Adeline and Keith both expressed their gratitude and pleasure for the many beautiful and useful articles received. A tasty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. Farkash, Jr., and Mrs. Nick Woyewitka, assisted by several of the ladies of the community, bringing the evening to a close.

The next service to be held at the Ottawa United church is on July 3, at 11 a.m. Mr. L. Rector is our student minister this term, and we hope he will enjoy his work in this field.

Quite a number from this district attended the R.C.N. concert at the park in Vermilion last Sunday and report it very enjoyable. The day was rounded out with picnic suppers there.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Valeria Hillcox on her recent tragic bereavement. Before her marriage she lived in the Ottawa and Chatsworth districts, attending school there.

ATTENDS P.M. CONFERENCE

Last week your correspondent attended the 27th annual conference of the Postmasters' Association of Alberta, held in Edmonton. Although not as large as former years in point of numbers, it was one of the most interesting we have ever attended. The conference was saddened by the sudden death of F. J. Colman, Regional Director, who passed away a few days before the conference opened. In Mr. D. Morais, Revenue Post Office Division, Ottawa, and G. Boyle, the Director, Transportation Branch, Ottawa, the conference had two men who knew their business and were at all times ready and willing to answer any and all questions. The new officers are President, Mel Quigley of Three Hills; Vice-Pres.— P. C. Thompson, Lacombe; Sec.-Treas. — R. S. Ellis of Coronation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gunn announce the engagement of their youngest daughter Shirley Ann to Mr. Hugh Leighton, son of Mrs. John Leighton and the late Mr. John Leighton of Kitscoty, Alberta. The wedding will take place in the Paradise Valley United church, on Friday, July 8th at 3 p.m. Open house will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. at their home and this is an invitation to all friends and neighbors.

The girls served tea and lunch to all present. This was followed by a short program of demonstrations on the work taken up by the girls — color schemes, care of walls, home laundering, making a bed properly. Also five of the younger girls gave a short demonstration, each on etiquette. The judges in giving their speeches commended the girls on their fine work in sewing and in their demonstrations.

The C.G.I.T. journeyed to Lloydminster on Tuesday for their group picture. After a short shopping tour a good supper was enjoyed by all, mostly 'fish and chips'. With the thoughts of exams the next day for some of the girls, all came home early. Thanks to C. Elliott, L. Teasdale and J. Teasdale for transportation.

Alberta's Plan Of Stocking Lakes With Trout Meets Great Approval

EDMONTON. — It's doubtful if any sport can match the thrill of tying into a lunker rainbow trout. The feel of the jolting strike straining light tackle, and the excitement as the monster tail dances across the water!

Hundreds of Alberta anglers are finding this out, as more and more prairie lakes are stocked with trout, making the king of game fish available in areas which have known nothing but perch, pickerel and pike or 'jackfish'.

Don't get the wrong idea. Pickerel, perch and pike are excellent sport fish. They are well worth catching, both for the sport and for the delicious eating when they are properly prepared. They're just not trout, that's all. And it's nothing to hold against them.

Alberta's program of planting trout in small prairie lakes is one of the most revolutionary fish management schemes in North America. It has attracted the attention of biologists, conservation authorities and sportsmen all over the continent.

It comes as a result of the work of provincial fisheries biologists, who decided that the artistic joys of angling for trout should not be confined to those Albertans who live in a narrow band of native trout country among the lakes and streams of the foothills and the mountains.

To carry out their unique program, they chose the most improbable bodies of water they could find — the tiny potholes or overgrown sloughs that dot the prairies from one end of Alberta to the other. They must have been well endowed with imagination and foresight, because no one ever heard of trout living in such places.

But they are thriving, and growing at an almost unbelievable rate. In some lakes, trout planted as fingerlings have grown into three or four pound beauties within 15 months.

This is nothing short of fantastic when you consider that trout in mountain streams take years to grow that big. The growth is caused by a combination of abundant food supply and lack of competition from other fish.

The lakes chosen are ones which support only native populations of perch, which don't bother the trout, and sticklebacks, small fish which the trout devour in great quantities.

In addition to the sticklebacks, the trout gorge themselves on dragon fly nymphs, fresh water shrimps, various aquatic insects, flies and other foods found in the water.

It can readily be seen why a lake supporting pike would never do for trout. One hungry pike — and pike are always hungry — would make short work of a few thousand fingerling trout.

The most unusual feature of the program is that the biologists want the anglers to clean the fish out of the lakes within about three years after they are stocked. Generally speaking, trout planted early in the spring reach fighting size and are ready to be caught by fall.

The idea of fishing them out as soon as possible is to prevent them from growing too big. Biologists explain that a given area of water can support either a handfull of large fish or thousands of average-sized fish. This is a simple problem in food consumption and supply. From the standpoint of the angler, a large number of average-sized fish is most desirable.

Some lakes have produced 16-pounders. It is easy to understand how a fish this size would eat a lion's share of the natural food available, crowding out his smaller brothers and also eating any fingerlings used for restocking.

So the idea is to have the lakes fished out every few years, and then plant them over again. It should be pointed out that the lakes have to be restocked because there is no natural reproduction. The lakes chosen have no streams flowing in or out of them, and trout require running water and gravel stream beds for spawning.

SPORT FOR HUNDREDS

To date, the program has provided sport for hundreds of Alberta anglers, and officials plan to make trout available to many more. Over a million fish were planted last year, and the figure probably will be as much or more this year. The intention is to provide trout fishing within easy reach of the province's centres of population.

Until this year, anglers took advantage of the program without having to purchase a provincial fishing license. Now, however, officials have decided the project is beyond the experimental stage and a license is required. License purchases provide the money that makes these things possible for us to enjoy.

The planted trout are giving sport to both the purist dry fly anglers and to the more casual fishermen.

One of the accepted methods for catching the trout is to cast or troll tiny spoons and plugs in deep water. The smallest lures you can buy are the best, and this is where spinning tackle comes in handy, because you can cast the light lures a long distance. One of the favorite lures, a consistent producer, is a small, yellow flatfish.

Members of the Edmonton Trout Fishing Club report success with a special wet fly, designed by one of the members, which resembles a dragon fly nymph. Some anglers prefer still-fishing with worms or other live bait, and this also produces.

Whatever method you prefer, there is plenty of fun in store under Alberta's new deal for anglers.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

June 29, 1939

A number of Boy Scouts have recently been given a series of lectures in connection with obtaining their Firemen badges. The lectures were given by Vermilion's former fire chief Melvin Hill, and the coveted badges were only granted after the boys had obtained sufficient marks in a stiff examination. Those winning the Fireman's Proficiency badge were: George McCurdy, H. P. Collins, Leonard Heidebrecht, James Knoll, Ivan Cross, Charles Heckbert, Allen Ronaghan, Robert Reid, Douglas Harrington, Chappie Cooper, Gerald Gould and Teddy Reed.

The Alberta government appointed a Cancer commission under the provisions of the Cancer Remedy Act passed at the 1939 session of the legislature. Miss Keith, matron of the Vermilion hospital, is the representative of the Alberta Nurses' Association on the Commission.

Rev. H. A. and Mrs. Boyd and family left Wednesday morning by car for Toronto where they will holiday during the month of July.

A good job was made in laying a cinder walk from the post office north for half a block. This should prove an ideal foundation for an asphalt surface if and when that time should arrive.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

July 4th, 1923

The Vermilion Football team won second prize at Vegreville Sports, July 1, losing to Veg. 1-0 in the final game. The local line-up was: Gilbert Ockenden, Purcelle and Armand Martel, Alex Mackenzie, Brent Macnab, Vern Cooper, Smedley McLean, Ashley Cooper, Frank English. Those transporting the team were Manson Barr, Ed Gilbert and Don Taylor.

Stanley F. McCloskey has returned to town and has been engaged by the Vermilion Motors as bookkeeper. He has re-organized the 1st Vermilion Troop Boy Scouts and the patrol leaders are as follows: Jack Bryden, Grant Badgero, Donald Craig, Gordon Murray.

At the recent McGill examinations Albert S. Roseborough secured a complete pass in all his subjects and for the vacation months is on the hospital staff of that institution. This fall he enters upon the final year of his medical course.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

LEFT OVERS

An extra egg white beaten very stiff with a glass of tart jelly whipped and folded in makes a delicious quick cake frosting

Left over whipped cream may be dropped by spoonfulls onto a pan and quickly frozen, then removed and stored in the freezer for future use.

Left over griddle cakes spread with jelly or jam, rolled up, reheated in the oven and served with powdered sugar or lemon sauce are an enjoyable dessert.

Left over broccoli, brussel sprouts or cauliflower can be placed in a shallow dish, topped with a cheese spread and browned under the broiler. When served on a slice of broiled ham or cold chicken, this combination is an easily prepared main course for lunch.

MAKE YOUR OWN

Add cheese to a warmed thick cream soup in the top of a double boiler, adding pimentos, chopped olives and chives. Pack in jar in refrigerator for future use. Such a spread can have better flavor and be less expensive than ready-mixed spreads.

CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM

Made from an instant pudding mix, this summer treat is quite different. To the chocolate pudding mix add 1½ cups chilled milk and ½ cup heavy cream. Beat with a rotary beater (or an electric mixer at slow to medium speed) until smooth — about a minute. Pour into refrigerator tray and quick freeze until firm, about 2 to 3 hours.

TERM'S END

So this is the last week of school! Before the gang splits up for the summer, why not have a get-together with lots to eat and fun for all? Here's a formula (shades of chemistry!) you won't mind working on at all.

PINEAPPLE PUNCH

3 cups of sugar
3 cups hot water
¾ cup lemon juice
1 48-oz. can pineapple juice
2 12-oz. bottles sparkling water.

Dissolve sugar in hot water. Cool. Add fruit juices. Chill. At serving time add sparkling water, and float fruit slices on it for decoration. This will make about 1 gallon or 30 to 40 small servings.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Are you angling to join the male members of the "angling" set? Then pack your fishing rod, your tackle and other gear into the family bus and take off — because the 'fishing's fine". And you'll find plenty of company because the number of feminine fishermen is increasing yearly.

Finding the right spot to fish isn't too hard, particularly right now as fish bite best when the temperature of the water is relatively cool as it is now, in early summer.

In the Prairie provinces, trout, grayling and pickerel are plentiful while game fish such as the wily bass and fighting muskie are rising in eastern lakes and rivers. In far western mountain streams, following spring's melting ice, rainbow and Kamloops trout are keeping anglers happy.

Before you try out that new spinning reel, be sure to check if a fishing license is required to avoid an argument with the game warden. Also, keep in mind that various areas set their own strict limits on the size of your catch.

Abide by the rules, and you're sure to have fun with your rod and reel in the nation's rivers, lakes, streams and "fishin' holes", and above all be a sport at all times.

Wildmere Women's Institute Notes

The Wildmere W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Frank Gibson on Wednesday, June 8, with 18 members present. There were three visitors Mrs. W. Ford, Mrs. A. Riley and Mrs. G. Seuffert, all of Vermilion.

The meeting opened with the singing of 'O Canada', a recital of the Creed and the roll call.

IMPROVEMENTS FOR SCHOOL

There was a discussion concerning improvements that could be made in the new school. One suggestion was the addition of library books; another was a change in the lunch box shelves; and many thought that there should be more land purchased so that there would be more space for playground purposes.

Mrs. Wallington gave an explanation concerning the Home Nursing course. The sick convener reported that a fruit basket had been sent to Mrs. D. Hughes. The president, Mrs. Gibson, gave the convener a fruit basket also. Both Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Wallington thanked the W.I. for their gifts, as did Mrs. Haines who had received one while she was in the hospital

Two new baby spoons are to be ordered. The treasurer's report was given. It was decided to hold a bake sale in Vermilion on June 25 at the Northern Hardware.

REPORTS ON CONVENTION

It was unfortunate that our delegate to the W.I. convention, Mrs. R. Dibben, was unable to attend all the sessions, but she gave us an excellent report of the first day's activities. She said that it had been suggested that the locals should repeat the Motto and Creed as well as salute the flag at the meetings. Also it had been stressed that the District Home Economists were posted at various points in order to help the women of those districts and that their services should be made full use of.

Mrs. W. J. Garnett, who had also been at the convention, added to Mrs. Dibben's report by telling of a talk by Mrs. Stiles on the advisability of comic books. She mentioned the tree planting ceremony, and the very excellent banquet enjoyed at the convention.

The new school for deaf children, recently built in Edmonton, has a registration of 130 children. Another talk reported by Mrs. Garnett was that of Miss Noble, the first W. I. Provincial president. Miss Noble told of her trip around the world.

Mrs. Garnett had presented a Life Membership to Mrs. J. I. Jones of Mannville. Mrs. Jones had been director of District 2 for the past four years.

Another presentation was made to Mrs. Lefsrud of Viking, who has resigned the presidency of the A.W.I. Mrs. Lefsrud received two suitcases.

Our next W.I. conference will be held on Friday, July 22 at the School of Agriculture in Vermilion. Mrs. D. Hughes is our delegate to that conference.

FOUR GIRLS TO OLDS

Mrs. Martin spoke on Girls' Club work. She asked for assistance in sending four girls to the convention at Olds in July.

A crib quilt was sewed together by Mrs. Holte, and four members will quilt it. The handicraft pieces are to be handed in to Mrs. Holte by July 17, for display at the conference.

Johnny Jump Up was won by Mrs. R. Smith.

Mrs. Gibson welcomed the visitors, and hoped that they would come again.

The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the Queen", and lunch was served.

The next meeting will be July 6 at the home of Mrs. Haines. Roll call will be answered by naming an item for the first aid kit.

The committees will be as follows: Topic—Mrs. J. Wilson; Social Mrs. R. Martin; Lunch, Mrs. R. Dibben, Mrs. N. Garnett and Mrs. W. J. Garnett.

Bowtell Bulletin

Fourteen members and 4 guests, Mr. Doan, Mrs. B. Dixon, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Seddon, attended the June Busy Bee meeting held at the home of Mrs. Moses. It was with deep regret that the meeting accepted the resignation of Mrs. R. Repp from the presidency. Mrs. J. Johnson was elected as the incoming president.

The Busy Bees' annual picnic will be held July 6, at the Vermilion Lake. Each family is to bring their own lunch, but coffee will be supplied.

Mr. Doan gave a very interesting demonstration on how to block and trim hats.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gow, lunch will be served by Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Moses and Mrs. Gow.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker were visitors Monday at the Writer's home.

About 19 ladies enjoyed an afternoon spent at the home of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Jones entertained at a handkerchief shower for Mrs. deDelley who will be moving from here shortly. Did we hear rumors that due to unforeseen circumstances we aren't going to lose our old friends and neighbors, Rose?

Congratulations to Miss Lillian Semeniuk on getting her nurse's cap. Mr. and Mrs. J. Semeniuk journeyed to Edmonton to attend the presentation. During their absence Jimmy and Isabell did the chores.

Forty Boys To Tour Eastern Canada

Towards the end of July, 40 boys from schools in Birmingham, Bradford, Glasgow and London will leave Britain to take part in the seventh tour of Canada to be arranged under Educational Trusts created in 1938 by Mr. W. H. Rhodes, C.B.E., the Bradford philanthropist. The trusts provide for visits to Canada to be made each year by secondary school boys between the ages of 17 and 19, to help them "to form an idea of the magnitude and importance of the Dominion and to understand something of the everyday life of its people."

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

by W. G. MALAHER, Director, Research Department, SEARLE GRAIN COMPANY, LIMITED

THE EFFECTS OF RAINFALL UPON PROTEIN CONTENT OF WHEAT

As Western Canada looks back upon one of the wettest springs in recent years which has followed three successive years of low protein wheat, the question of the effect of rainfall upon protein content brings to mind an interesting study made several years ago.

The study sought to determine the average effect of rainfall upon the protein content of wheat sown at several stations in southwestern Saskatchewan. Careful records were kept for 5-day intervals, from Apr. 1 to Aug. 3, for a 14-year period, 1927 to 1940, and these figures were used to determine the average unit decrease in protein content per unit increase in rainfall.

It was found that slightly more than one-third of the residual variance of protein content could be attributed to variations in rainfall. Particularly interesting, however, was the finding that, whilst above average rainfall during the growing season generally tends to reduce protein content, additional rainfall occurring in April, the first half of May or the last half of July, has an appreciably greater effect upon protein content than rain falling at other times during the growing season. The times mentioned are periods when the rainfall is normally the lowest

Although it is, of course, not possible early in the season to predict what the protein content of the growing crop will be in 1955, authorities suggest that we shall need a much drier than average summer from now on if we are to produce a wheat crop of average or better than average protein content.

Straddling the centre strip or the lane marking is a most aggravating discourtesy to the motorists following behind. Just as provoking are the dawdlers who hog the left-hand lane when they should move over to give the right-of-way to permit moving traffic to proceed freely in the left-hand lane.

If you are sight-seeing or proceeding slower than the normal speed of traffic, make it a point to keep well over to the right.

Sunday, July 3rd Award Night At Mannville Junior High School

MANNVILLE. — The 1955 Award Night of the Junior High school students was the first one to take place in the new gym as well as taking place in Alberta's Golden Jubilee year. The gym was beautifully decorated by the students of Grades 7 and 8. An artistically painted banner of Alberta was on the back wall of the stage with the words 'Alberta's Golden Jubilee' decorated with roses, and 'Award Night 1955' the same at the back of the room. Beautiful bouquets of mauve and white lilacs decorated the stage.

Forty one students proceeded into the gym and took their places on the stage. They were: Pauline Kurylo, Janet Thompson, Stella Dwinkal, Marlene Phillip, Ruth Smith, Lillian Zaharia, Alice Dach, Clara Brokop, Iris Lakusta, Maralyn Nicoll, Norma McLuckie, Joan Stachniak, Marilyn Mercer, Jenet Peskievits, Ruby Hawley, Josie McDonald, Agnes Calder, Dixie Schreyer, Marlene Rathje, Lois Rathje, Emma Jackson, Joan Finlay, Florence Yaceyko, Joan Clennett, Victoria Dziki, Harold Keushnig, Joe Howarka, Bernarr Westover, Roy North, Danny Hasinoff, Tom Metronec, Nelson Modin, Eddie Schroeder, George Chow, Camille Ambler, Ray Knutson, Rodnye Smith, Frank Pidruchney, Billy Bey, Eddie Karpinsky, Ian Robertson.

After the invocation, given by Rev. C. C. MacPherson, Mr. Doherty introduced the students and then the guests of honor who were Rev. Mr. MacPherson, Mr. B. Facey and Mr. A. E. Williams, Mayor of Mannville.

Mrs. Park in a few well chosen words expressed her pleasure in having the honor of presenting the awards to Grades 7, 8 and 9 students. The scholastic awards are for the highest marks during the year and the sports awards for the ones who show good sportsmanship and excel in sports. Honorable mention in both is for those students just missing the award by a few marks.

Those in Grade 9 receiving scholastic award pins were: Alice Dach, Dixie Scheryer, Harold Keushnig, Danny Hasinoff with honorable mention, Lillian Zaharia and Clara Brokop. For most improvement during the year Mrs. Park was very pleased to present the award to George Chow who has been here from China only a short time and who has taken his place and has done very well in a Canadian school. Honorable mention went to Nelson Modin. The sports awards in grade nine were received by Nelson Modin and Dixie Schreyer with honorable mention going to Eddie Karpinski and Marlene Phillip.

In Grade 8, Jackie Hasinoff, Donna Doherty, Eunice Sawchuk, Thelma Arnold and George Korchinsky, with most improvement to Dennis Wright for scholastic awards; in sports, George Korchinsky and Lillian Fedeshko with honorable mention to Charlie Gerhart and Jackie Hasinoff, were the award winners.

Grade 7 scholastic awards were presented to David McLaughlin, Marion Yacak. John Calder and Lorraine Trynchuk with most improvement to Elizabeth Gollnowski; and in sports to Iris Syer and Allan Manz.

This was the first Junior high graduation exercise that Mr. Facey had attended and he wasn't just quite sure what the students were graduating from. He considered that they were passing from junior to high school, completing one phase of their schooling. He hoped they would continue through high school and he would be very pleased to congratulate them in three years' time when they graduate from high school. He also hoped they would continue to grow mentally as well as spiritually. He urged them to study their marks carefully in the fall and be guided by them. He congratulated the Junior pupils on the decorating of the gym.

Mr. Doherty believed that when the young people pass this year they will be going to school because thye want to and not because they have to. They will have different privileges when they graduate into high school and will learn to use them. It will be an entirely new outlook for them.

The entertainment for the evening included vocal solos by Miss Ruth Gamble and Miss Berna Cotter and an accordion solo by Miss Lillian Zaharia.

Miss Ruby Hawley gave the Valedictory address. Her delivery was excellent, her choice of words very good and she used no notes. She spoke of the appreciation of the graduands for the new school and the advantages of it, the good fellowship of the students and the activities made possible by the new gym. She thanked parents and teachers for guidance in the past and spoke of their anticipation of school life in the higher grades, the extra privileges they would enjoy. Ruby especially thanked the grade 8 class fo taking over the responsibilities of the evening, making the event that much more enjoyable for the graduands.

In his address, Mayor Williams gave some of the highlights of school in Mannville in 1906, comparing the first school which was held in the old Methodist church which is now part of the Orange hall. Mr. G. M. Cundal was the first teacher and there were about 30 pupils. From Mr. Cundal they not only learned the three R's but as well good sportsmanship. There is quite a comparison between the school of those early days and the modern schools of today, but Mr. Williams reminded the graduands that they were receiving their education in the best town in the best province in the Dominion! Adding that the teachers are here for their benefit and to make the best of the opportunities offered. He completed his address with a prayer by a game guy which was applicable to all those in the gym as well as the graduands.

After God Save the Queen, the gym was cleared and an hour's dancing was enjoyed to music supplied by Mrs. R. Lugg, Jim Johnstone and Carmen Hughes, before a delicious lunch was served by the grade 7 and 8 students assisted by their teachers and Mrs. Doherty. After lunch dancing continued until 1:30.

In pay and allowances the Canadian Prime Minister receives $27,000 a year. —Quick Canadian Facts

NEWS from ISLAY

No rain yet, only a sprinkling, but to the north, Dewberry and Irwinville areas had a very heavy rain Monday night.

Rev. E. N. Morrison preached his farewell sermon to the Islay congregation, Sunday, June 26th. Mr. Morrison goes to McDougal church in Edmonton.

While visiting at the home of Mr. Keith and Mr. Noel Kent, Irwinville, we saw some lovely gardens of vegetables and fruits, plenty of poultry too. A very interesting breed of chicken — known as Hampbars, a cross bred chick. It is a mottled gold, the male bird has a full tail of barred rock feathers. Noel says they are a husky bird, fine eating, good layers. We also saw the Irwinville school and the church. These show a fine community spirit. The yards of both are very lovely, the trees and the flowers well kept.

Mrs. Purves has returned from a trip by car away south to visit her daughter Sheilagh. She arrived home safely, having covered 1500 miles. Mrs. Bailey, an old time neighbor, returned with her. Mrs. Hutton and Muriel of Kolmee have gone to Deloraine, Man. Lenny has gone to visit his sister, Mrs. Kathleen Izert, Dewberry.

FAREWELL GATHERING FOR REV. AND MRS. MORRISON

A gathering of the Islay United church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin Friday evening in honor of Rev. Mr. E. N. Morrison and Mrs. Morrison and family. A pleasant evening of song and visiting was passed, a lovely lunch enjoyed. The Morrisons were presented with a parting gift, a purse of money, and a quilt made by the W.A. The purse was a carved leather one made by Mrs. Neil McLennan and is a beauty.

MISS HORNING FETED

A shower was held in honor of Miss Shirley Horning, our intermediate teacher who is leaving to be married. Miss Horning was really surprised and pleased. She invites her friends to call at her new home in Lloydminster.

There will be a service in the Islay United church, Sunday, July 3rd, at 2:30 p.m., conducted by the Gideon Society. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. Moise Maire is in hospital. Our best wishes go to him for his recovery.

Sorry to learn of the passing of "Granny" Robinson. We extend our sympathy to the family. "Granny," as she was affectionately known, was always so active and so interested in her school. She will be very much missed.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Twenty million anglers can't be wrong about the fun of fishing. But they sure can make mistakes about the best time to fish. Here are some portents for a lucky day's catch that you can look for when planning to drive off to your favorite piscatorial retreat.

Fish bite best when they can see best. This means they feed more when the waters are clear, not muddy. The moon seems to affect the fish's appetite too. In fact, there's a saying, "Fish bite best when the moon is bright, and this is true both day and night", that many fishermen swear by.

A good off-shore breeze is another lucky omen. The ripple on the water hides you from the fish. Rough water, however, will hide the bait from the fish.

Many anglers consult a barometer before setting forth on their sport. They stay in bed if the barometer is low, but jump out early and fast when it is high or rising.

Incidentally, the warmer the water, the deeper should be your plugs, spoons or spinners, as the fish seek out the cooler levels.

NEWS from ALLANDALE

A grand rain came on June 18, our first moisture since the snow storm in April. It has been very warm since this rain however, 85 above, and rain is again needed.

Our phone line was put into order on the 15th by Mr. Good after being in a noisy condition for over a week. We are grateful for this kind deed.

June 19th Jimmy Martin accompanied the McCormick Bros. to Bittern Lake where they are building elevator annexes.

June 22nd Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Kepke and daughters Joan and Colette of Spring Park and Mrs. Gertie Swanson of Elk Point left for a few weeks holiday in B.C. to visit friends along the way and mostly to see their daughter Delcia and Walter at Greenwood. Before leaving they traded their car in on a lovely new Plymouth.

Liberals were in the majority here on the 20th. Mrs. Hilda Cross and Mrs. Stella Mayers were in charge. Social Credit received 18 votes, Liberals 30, C.C.F. 6.

Mrs. May Edwards had a Ronald Ware party at the Orville Armstrong home on the evening of June 23. The Ronald and Tupper ware are proving very satisfactory and there is a wide variety to choose from. Lunch by the hostess closed a very interesting evening.

Allandale was well represented at Camp Whitney on June 19. All in all it was a wonderul afternoon. Beautiful scenery beside the lake, a service, lunch, boating and visiting. We hope it can be a yearly event.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cross and Shirley have returned from their trip east in a lovely fire-gold beige Pontiac.

To all the bereaved families we note in the last paper, our deepest sympathy.

The Clandonald picnic was well attended considering that day was the final one for Lea Park Stampede, June 22. What a grand picturesque location for the people to gather. Green scenery on the east and west, north the end of Raft Lake and to the south a green field, with plenty of room on the Shaw land north of Clandonald.

Sorry to hear about those who suffered accidents recently — Dave Chase on the Bill Cross farm was badly hurt about the head when operating a power post hole digger and had to have a number of stitches; Mrs. Mildred Baldock stepped on a nail and injured her foot. Aunt Mamie from Derwent has been helping them on the farm; Uncle Wilmer while planing shaved the end off two of his fingers. All are coming along very well. Uncle Wilmer is also at the farm.

Mrs. Mabel Lee from town visited at her sister's Mrs. Stella Mayers and called on other relatives in the district.

News from Montreal about the Rev. Don Bardwell, student here in 1949 and 1950. Don graduated the first week in May. He was married May 14th to a Montreal girl Miss Lois Naylor. They went by plane to Bermuda on a short honeymoon. The first week in June was Convocation and Ordination. Don and Lois are now in Boston, Don taking a year of Post Graduate work. While in Montreal he was assistant minister to Rev. Campbell in their home church.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh took delivery of a new Dodge car on June 25. Though they have driven before they plan on taking drivers' lessons to better themselves.

Couple Club met on the evening of June 24 at Wolf Point, Vermilion Lake. A grand time for all. No more gatherings now until the last of August. Davids, Smiths and Omneases taking charge.

Mrs. Tommy Greaves and family Brenda and Brian from the city are spending a week with her parents on the Jack Cross farm, arriving on the 26th. Tommy will join them for the long week end.

A speedy recovery is wished Mr. Edwards who is in Islay hospital. He is getting on very well.

At the Idelore Nelson farm a terrific downpour and hail that covered the ground came on the afternoon and evening of June 27. There was no wind and the hail did not appear to do any damage. Near the school there was some rain but very little hail.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb McPhee spent a day in the city on June 27.

UNION TRACTOR LTD. ANNOUNCES TWO NEW BRANCHES

On June 20th Union Tractor Ltd. opened two new branches — at Vermilion and Athabasca, Alberta.

This brings to eight the number of branches presently in operation within the Province, Lethbridge, Calgary, Edmonton, Grande Prairie, Red Deer, Grimshaw, Vermilion and Athabasca.

Mr. Gerald Watters will be manager at the Vermilion Branch. He is a native Albertan, born in Calgary. Mr. Watters joined Union Tractor Ltd. in November, 1948 at the Edmonton branch as a shipper in the parts department — graduated to counter sales and then to parts manager at the Grimshaw branch. Having a good company background and experience in Caterpillar products, he will be a real asset to owners operating in the Vermilion area.

Mr. Walter A. Heikkila will be the branch manager at Athabasca. He is a native Albertan, born in Trochu. Mr. Heikkila joined Union Tractor Ltd. in August, 1946. He was the accountant at the Calgary branch and in September 1947 transferred to Grande Prairie as chief clerk. He was branch manager at Dawson Creek for three years. Mr. Heikkila brings to his position as branch manager at Athabasca a complete knowledge of Caterpillar products.

The opening of two new branches in the Province is part of the program of Union Tractor Ltd., SERVING ALBERTA, as is the locating of field service representatives at Pincher Creek, Vulcan, Brooks, Drumheller, Didsbury, Castor, Wetaskiwin, Drayton Valley, Edson, Barrhead, St. Paul, Vermilion and Athabasca.

New automatic welding machines have been installed at six branches to build up track rollers, track carrier rollers and idlers.

The Company's parts department are supplying 90 parts out of each 100 ordered for Caterpillar equipment in Alberta. To reduce down time to a minimum teletype systems are operated between all branches and central control at head office, to make parts available to all the branches . . . and at no extra cost to the customer.

With the establishment of twelve field servicemen and eight branches, Union Tractor Ltd. offers twenty locations for servicing Caterpillar and auxiliary products.

Union F. U. A.

It is time that the members of this local made up their minds whether or not they want to be an active local. If you wish to sit back and let others run your Union for you, O.K., but there is no use of me or anyone else trying to push you along. The meeting called for June 7th was attended by the president, secretary and myself. Therefore we have no resolutions and no delegates for the convention on July 4. So little done— so much needs doing.

As for the Community Association meeting we had a much better turn out to it. It was decided to have a bee to do some remodeling and cleaning up at the hall. The date was set for July 4. However I think we forgot the F.U.A. convention is that day. I think it could be changed to the fifth if anyone intends to go to the convention.

Whichever day is decided on please turn out and bring the whole family and a picnic lunch. Also the following: tools and nails, rakes and wheelbarrows, water and wash rugs, step ladders, etc. The chimney job will require chisels or star drill and sand and cement. I can bring the sand. A gallon can of cement would be sufficient. The stove and door should be there that day also. Please don't leave it to the other guy, let's turn out right after dinner and get the job done. There should be time for a little fun too, maybe a ball game or something.

"GREEN ACRES"

ANNUAL FEEDERS' DAY

I have received a few copies of the 24-page report on the recent annual Feeders' Day held at the University of Alberta. As long as they last they will be handed out. The article on 'Animal Breeding' by Prof. R. T. Berg is well worth reading by livestock raisers.

MECHANICAL GRAZING

At the Agricultural Institute of Canada conference at Edmonton this past week I heard an expert on feeding dairy cows say that it pays to cut grass and haul it out to the cows instead of sending them out to mow their own grass. It seems that cows get tired too soon out in the pasture and don't eat enough so they don't give as much milk as they ought to. Maybe this expert has something there.

FARM SAFETY

A farm tractor can be as dangerous to life and limb as a loaded gun in careless hands. Everyone knows the rules for preventing tractor accidents. Don't take chances yourself and warn the children and the hired man to be careful. Try to make 1955 an accident-free year on your farm.

SILAGE IS POPULAR

It looks like trench silos will be quite common in this district before many years. Several farmers have put up silage for two or three years now and they are quite well satisfied about results. Get a circular from this office on silage.

COVER CROPS

In southern Alberta oats are seeded on the summer fallow during the first two weeks of July. Then after Sept. 1st cattle are turned into this lush pasture. Cattle gain up to 3 pounds per day. Cover crops do not seem to affect the yield of the grain during the following year. Ranchers pay up to $7 per acre for cover crop pasture. If cover crops pay down on the prairies there is no reason why they should not pay off here.

IRRIGATING THE GARDEN

Quite a few farmers could irrigate their gardens without much trouble or expense. Water can be pumped out of sloughs or creeks and used on the gardens. Dugouts for watering stock can be used to store water for putting on the garden. Nearly every farmer can figure out some way to store water for use on his garden during dry spells.

Club Weeks At The Provincial Schools Of Agriculture

July, and one of the highlights of the 4-H Clubs in Alberta will be meeting at the Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics for their club weeks.

Club week is a week of learning and relaxation for Alberta's farm young people. During club week the 4-H boys and girls meet others with similar interests from all over Alberta. The latest information in agriculture and home economics is made available to the students through speakers, demonstrations, workshops and discussion groups. New ideas and a basis for assessing their own club's work are gathered during their all too short week at the schools.

Miss Arlene Nelson from Vermilion, Alberta, a 1955 graduate of the University of Alberta in Home Economics, gives 4-H work the credit for her degree of B.Sc. in Home Economics. Miss Nelson was an efficiency winner for the Vermilion 4-H Gardening club and attended the club week at Olds in 1950. "It was here", says Miss Nelson, "that I became determined to get my degree in Home Economics for I learned of the scholarships and grants made available to farm young people to study for their degrees in either Agriculture or Home Economics."

Miss Nelson is only one example of the many students who have gained inspiration and help from the 4-H Club week. Each of the wide variety of subjects covered there is something for everyone. Topics to be discussed this year include:

Farm and Home Safety; Farm-stead Planning; Fire Prevention; Alberta's Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics; Rat Control.

4-H Clubs work on a State, National and International basis will be discussed at Olds during the stay of the Vermilion delegation.

Workshop headings include: public speaking, junior leadership, conducting sing-songs, demonstration work, club executive duties. There is organized sport plans for each day with a final sports day before the week is over. Time has been set aside for writing of scholarship exams. Social activities include an amateur talent banquet and dance.

The dates — Fairview: July 4 to 9; VERMILION, July 11 to 16; Olds, July 18-23, and July 25-30.

Record Number Of Tourists Visit Britain

A record number of overseas visitors went to Britain the first four months of this year. Figures recently issued by the British Travel and Holidays Association show that 190,000 visitors arrived during this period, compared with 168,000 in the first four months of 1954, an increase of 13%. Traffic from the European countries was up by 16 per cent and April overseas visitors to Britain increased 7% over April 1954. It is estimated that Britain welcomed 54,000 visitors from the Commonwealth compared with 49,000 last year.

While Europeans first came to Canada not quite 500 years ago, it is believed that the native Indians came into the country about fifteen thousand years ago. —Quick Canadian Facts.
